

CLACKAMAS COUNTY NEWS

Meadowbrook.

George Williams, who has been very sick for several days, is able to be out again.

Mr. Larsen is suffering from an attack of a severe cold.

J. C. Hall has the best piece of field peas in the country.

The county road between Bull Creek bridge and Meadowbrook postoffice is in an awful condition. It being in the Molalla district the supervisor is not interested therein. This road should belong to Canyon Creek district.

Mrs. Charles Holman and children are out on the farm for the summer.

Mr. James, who has been in poor health for some weeks, has returned to the land of his birth, i. e. Nebraska.

The writer recently made a trip to Tillamook county by wagon, and while there enjoyed the genial hospitality of William Tinnerstett, a former well known resident of this county. Cheese and butter factories dot the landscape and bring in a lucrative revenue to the owners of the sleek herds of kine grazing on knee high grass. The mountain road by the Sheridan is in apple pie order down the little Nestucca river.

Mountain View.

Miss Myrtle Curran spent the first week of July in Portland with friends.

Mrs. Heuter and family, who spent two weeks visiting her nephew, J. Locke, have returned to their home in Iowa.

The Maple Lane Grange held its regular meeting in Nash's hall last Saturday. Five applications for membership were presented at the meeting. The grange will hereafter meet on the last Saturday in each month.

George Albright spent the Fourth at home, but he returned to his work in Eastern Oregon Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldron and Mrs. E. H. Cooper went to Springwater this morning to attend Pomona Grange.

Sam Francis is able to walk without the aid of a crutch, and has his arm out of the sling. He is getting along remarkably well, we are glad to state.

Stafford.

Independence Day was very quiet here. Most all that celebrated did so at some distance.

J. Q. Gage and family have returned from the Waldo Hills. He reports most crops up that way in a flourishing condition.

There is some complaint in Howell's Valley that the dreaded Canada thistle has made its appearance and is fast spreading.

Henry Schatz's hay sling is a grand success in many respects, and it is superior to a horse in many respects.

Fred Baker's favorite hound, Hunter, has been missing for three weeks. Its whereabouts is a mystery to its owner.

J. P. Gage and wife leave next Wednesday for Nestucca, Tillamook county, where they will spend some weeks with their sons.

John Moser, wife and children leave Thursday for Denver, Col., where they will go for the benefit of Mr. Moser's health, who is very low with quick consumption, and the doctors advised him to make this change. They will probably be absent at least two years. His farm and property here will be left in care of his brothers and father.

With Mr. Moser moving away the school board will again be left in a crippled condition, he being a director. A member should be elected forthwith as school matters demand immediate attention.

Henry Baker is slowly improving. He is as yet but a walking shadow.

Mrs. Hagey is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Stelman, at Liberal.

Jacob Kitter is boss carpenter for R. Zimmerman, instead of J. Abbot, as was printed in the Courier-Herald two weeks ago.

The prize fight at Liberal on July Fourth was a disgrace to a civilized community. We call the attention of the officers of the law that there is a law prohibiting such scraps as that. Will they do their duty or are they afraid? Can a ring be placed in the county road and with a rope around it and stop all travel and compel ladies to witness a fight as was done? Wake up, J. U. Campbell, and give these violators of law what they deserve.

Great reduction on all trimmed hats at Miss Goldsmith's.

Your Hair

"Two years ago my hair was falling out badly. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and soon my hair stopped coming out."

Miss Minnie Hoover, Paris, Ill.

Perhaps your mother had thin hair, but that is no reason why you must go through life with half-starved hair. If you want long, thick hair, feed it with Ayer's Hair Vigor, and make it rich, dark, and heavy.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address: J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Maple Lane.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth V. Pluard to C. W. Moldenhauer took place at the residence of F. W. Cramer on Tuesday, July 2. The bride was attired in a beautiful white dress with trimmings of ruffles, and insertion, while the groom wore the usual black. Mr. and Mrs. Moldenhauer will take up their residence for the present in East Maple Lane, and may their cup be brimming full of pleasure and success as they journey down the stream of life in their little bark canoe. The boys of this place paid them a visit in the evening and made it rather noisy for awhile.

A "hot time" at Wright's Springs on the Fourth was had, or at least there must have been as indicated by the great number of people who attended the celebration there. Maple Lane was well represented.

Misses Annie Mautz, Sara and Mary Davies attended the Chautauqua today.

George Shortlidge returned from Kelo, Wash., last week.

Boys of Maple Lane, as I have heard of an incident that happened on or about the Fourth in an adjoining burg, and I will give you a timely warning—when you borrow a side saddle, be sure to return it yourself.

A. Poffenberger, an agent for the Northwest Pacific Farmer, stopped at G. F. Gibbs' Wednesday evening, and soon found in them, acquaintances he had known in his boyhood days in Ohio.

G. F. Gibbs had a runaway Monday, and the horse fell about 15 feet over a bridge, but received no serious injuries.

Obituary.

Mrs. E. D. Wagoner died at the home of her son, the late George Lee, at Clarks on July 5th, 1901.

Esther Delight Roscoe was born in Pleasant Valley, N. Y., on July 16, 1812. Her mother was taken away when she was only three months old. She was married in Colchester, Vt., September 25, 1831, to Giles C. Lee. There were born to them four children, two sons and two daughters, one daughter living in Durand, Mich., being the only child surviving her. Her son, who supported her, was George Lee, who died in February, and her grief over his death probably shortened her life. She was left a widow on June 22, 1864, and was married again in 1873 to Daniel Wagoner, and was again left a widow in 1877.

Mrs. Wagner had lived in several states and moved from California to Oregon twenty-three years ago, residing in Canemah till nearly four years ago, when failing health compelled her to give up keeping house and live with her son. She was a faithful member of the Methodist church being converted at the age of 15 years. She leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her departure, but their loss is her gain.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

The funeral services were held from the residence on July 6.

THE HOME GOLD CURE.

An Ingenious Treatment by which Drunkards are Being Cured Daily in Spite of Themselves.

No Noxious Doses. No Weakening of the Nerves. A Pleasant and Positive Cure for the Liquor Habit.

It is now generally known and understood that Drunkenness is a disease and not weakness. A body filled with poison, and nerves completely shattered by periodical or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison, and destroying the craving for intoxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by this wonderful "HOME GOLD CURE" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according to directions of this wonderful discovery is positively guaranteed to cure the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of Drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men.

WIVES CURE YOUR HUSBANDS! CHILDREN CURE YOUR FATHERS!! This remedy is no sense a nostrum but is a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of Drunkards have cured themselves with this priceless remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temperate men by having the "CURE" administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee or tea, and believe today that they discontinued drinking of their own free will. DO NOT WAIT. Do not be deluded by apparent and misleading "improvement." Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "HOME GOLD CURE" is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, thus placing in reach of everybody a treatment more effective than others costing $25 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepaid in any part of the world on receipt of One Dollar. Address Dept. E 594, EDWIN B. GILES & COMPANY, 2531 and 2532 Market Street, Philadelphia. All correspondence strictly confidential.
