LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Born, July 4th, to G. B. Phillips and wife at Parkplace, a girl.

Born, July 4th, to E. A. Leighton and wife in Oregon City, a boy.

Born, July 4th, to W. C. Thomas and wife in Falls View addition, a boy.

Wanted—Within a week, 35 teams for wood hauling. G. Schnoerr, or Postmaster, Willamette Falls.

Services will be held at the Presbyterian church as usual next Sunday, and the pulpit will be supplied, morning and evening.

Rev. H. Oberg, pastor of the Hillsboro Methodist Episcopal church, will occupy the pulpit of his former charge here. The local lodge of the Knights of Pythias will attend the evening service, and Pastor W. S. Grim will preach the sermon.

J. D. Renner, assisted by Sam Mar and others, is moving the George Hinsonson house from the Gladstone tract to the farm across the creek occupied by Oscar Freytag. It is a large structure, but good progress is being made in the removal.

Archie, the 13-year old son of W. H. Young met with an accident on his way home from the Fourth of July celebration at Damascus, that laid him up for several days. The horse fell and rolled over the boy, causing him to remain insensible for several hours. No bones were broken, but he received some severe bruises.

Miss Minnie M. Garrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sol T. Garrison, of Clackamas Station, was married July 3rd to Lewis G. Beebe, of Portland. The ceremony took place at the home of W. W. H. Samson, Mayor Dimick officiating. This made the 59th wedding that had taken place at the Samson house within the past 15 years.

Mrs. Thomas Laws will have a hearing before Justice McAnulty Saturday on a charge of abducting her grandson, preferred by A. M. Lovelace, of Damascus. When John Laws was divorced from his wife, who was formerly Lillian Lovelace, the court gave her the custody of the son, now nine years old. The divorce was granted five or six years ago. Mrs. Laws was thrown on her own resources and had to secure employment to support herself and child. When she went to Rossland, B. C., to secure employment at good wages, she left the child in the care of her father, A. M. Lovelace, and has since regularly sent a monthly check for its support. Mrs. Thomas Laws secured permission from Mr. Lovelace to let the child visit her during the Fourth of July, offering the boy a new suit of clothes and other articles as a special inducement. The boy is missing, and Mr. Lovelace believes that he is with John Laws, near Sacramento, Calif.

The Stayton Times pays Professor P. M. Smith several compliments for the success of a drama presented by local talent under his direction. The play proved successful and was greeted with a crowded house. It will be remembered that Professor Smith recently put on the "Irish Duke" here, assisted by local talent.

The contract for the proposed new Stevens-Howell building will be let as soon as the plans are completed by the architect. This matter has been delayed to some extent on account of waiting for expected tenants to tell how they desired their rooms arranged. Willamette Falls Lodge, Woodmen of the World, will occupy the entire upper story, which will be divided into lodge room, kitchen, etc. The lower floor will be made into one large store room, 50x60, constructed especially for Adams Bros. Golden Rule Bazaar.

E. D. Olds was awarded the contract for building the new county wagon bridge across the Molalla river for $9,145, his bid being the lowest. Other higher bidders were: C. F. Royal & Sons, of Salem; F. J. Miller, Albany, $9,390; Pacific Bridge Company, Portland $9,480. The structure is to be of the Howe-truss pattern, and will be located 105 feet below the Southern Pacific railroad bridge, and the plans call for a substantial bridgeway. When completed it will shorten the wagon road distance one and a half miles between Canby and Barlow.

J. S. Casto, state organizer for the Oregon Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, visited Maple Lane grange Saturday. He expects to organize a new grange at Clackamas Station this week. There are already 13 granges in Clackamas county, and there is only room for three more. Sixteen granges will cover all the territory in the county.

The numerous parcels of property bid in for delinquent taxes by Clackamas county, will be offered for sale on August 10th, in accordance with the provisions of the new law. At a similar sale of property held by Benton county on account of delinquent tax sales, which took place last Monday, the county bid in all but four or five pieces.

Building improvements still continue and additions are being made to a number of dwellings, besides the new structures under way. Eli Madlock is having an extension added to his house in Green Point addition. Bert Baxter, also is making extensive improvements to his new home at Green Point. A two story addition is being added to Senator Brownell's residence. Vaughan's livery stable under the reconstructed arrangement now covers a large area of ground. The main entrance is on Seventh street, and the structure now extends by an L addition to Railroad street with an entrance and driveway, and also there is another entrance in the alley near the city jail. E. D. Olds was the successful bidder for the construction of the new Stratton building fronting on Main street. His bid was $3,000.

The city council held its regular monthly meeting just after this paper had gone to press last week. The application of P. D. Curran, of the third ward, to be appointed sexton of the city cemetery was postponed until the next regular meeting. Meade Post, G. A. R., was granted a petition for two lots in cemetery, it being their purpose to erect a monument on the property. Mrs. Henry Cooke was granted a petition for further time to make connections with the sewer, as it was necessary to build a retaining wall in the Sandy soil. The Portland General Electric Company was granted a petition to pay off the city's claim of $240 against the old cement mill property. The fire and water committees were authorized to place three new hydrants. One is to be placed on Jackson street, and the others where the committee elect. The driveway in the cemetery was ordered graveled. The matter of the city printing was referred to the finance committee. It was voted that the matter of issuing building permits be left with the mayor.
