

NORTHWEST IMPLEMENT CO.

208 Front Street Portland, Oregon

Hodges' Queen, Prince and King Binders

Strongest built. Easiest operated. Only Binders having three packers. Greater binding capacity by 100 per cent than any machine. Roller bearings throughout.

Hodges' New Mowers

With roller bearings. Fully up-to-date. Combining strength, power, speed and lightness of draft.

Hodges' Lassie Self Dump Rake

With relief spring, bicycle wheel, steel axles and center dump.

See our goods and be convinced

WAGONS, BUGGIES, PLOWS, HARROWS, ETC.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. W. L. Block has been very ill this week.

C. A. Illig, of Hubbard, was in Oregon City Monday.

J. C. Kirchem, of Viola, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Mrs. M. D. Phillips and daughter are visiting relatives in Albany.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Byland are living in Portland for a short time.

Mrs. R. Glasspool, of Portland, was visiting friends here Tuesday.

Captain T. F. Cowing and family have returned from a sojourn at the seaside.

D. D. Yoder and family of Hubbard, were visitors in Oregon City Wednesday.

Miss Jean White is visiting her cousin, Miss Eulalie Rands at Vancouver.

A. S. Hammond, a prominent Medford attorney, was in the city Wednesday.

Ed Olds went to Canby Tuesday morning to begin work on the Molalla bridge.

Sam S. Goldsmith, now of San Francisco, was visiting his sisters here Wednesday.

Mrs. O. D. Eby and child are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Moore at Molalla.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ringo, of Highland, visited G. W. Grace and family, Wednesday.

Henry Cramer and wife, of Bolton, returned Monday from a visit to relatives in Yamhill county.

Miss Florence Kruse, of Fu ton, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. W. Phillips for a week.

Fred and George Weigel, of The Dalles, have been visiting the family of C. F. Horn for a week.

G. W. Shank is still very ill at Canby, and his condition has not improved to any appreciable extent.

L. W. Robbins was in from Molalla Tuesday, and reported that the harvesting prospects were good.

Miss Priscilla Miley went to Aurora Wednesday morning to visit friends at that vicinity and Hubbard.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Muir and Mr. Mrs. Allen Frost went to Mount Monday for a few days recreation.

J. Behmer, formerly postmaster at Redland, but now a resident of Hubbard, was in town Wednesday.

C. O. Case, who is now connected with the Willamette Oil Company in Portland, was in town Wednesday.

S. A. D. Gurley and family, of Arlington, visited relatives at Canby for a couple of days during the past week.

Field Superintendent Bert Greenman and Frank Brown, of the state fish commission, are operating on Soake river.

Miss Emma Heinz, who had been visiting her brother, G. A. Heinz and family, returned to Scott's Mills Tuesday.

E. L. Arthur and F. T. Corliss, who were running a stand at the Chautauqua, returned to their homes at Logan Tuesday.

Councilman James Evans, of Canby, was in town Tuesday, and reported that work was progressing on the new city hall building.

Miss Lulu Spangler, of Corvallis, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. L. L. Porter for several weeks past, returned home Wednesday.

Wallace Williams and family, of North Yakima, Wash., are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Williams, at Mount Pleasant.

Mrs. M. E. Stafford, past president of Meade Relief Corps, came up from Portland Monday, to attend the reception to the department officers.

Miss Mary Hornshuh expects to leave next week for San Francisco next week, where she will engage in Salvation Army work for a few months.

Don't forget the sale at cost prices at the Racket Store.

Henry Meldrum, surveyor-general, visited Salem Tuesday.

O. W. Eastham has returned from a business trip to Seattle.

Charles U. Wilson, of Portland, is visiting at home for a few days.

Miss Grace Tillard, of Heppner, is visiting the Misses Lewthwaite.

Dr. T. B. Thomas, postmaster at Beaver Creek, was in the city yesterday.

A marriage license was issued to Jerry Chehak and Etta Strejc on July 17th.

M. Dowty left for Friday for Eastern Oregon, where he will spend the summer.

Charles Babcock and son expect to leave Saturday for an outing up the Molalla.

Mrs. J. R. Hanny left Wednesday for Utah to spend the summer visiting friends.

Miss Lizzie Evans has gone to Bourne, Baker county, where she has been engaged to teach school.

J. O. Rhoades went to Barlow Wednesday night to take his mother to Wilhoit Springs for an outing.

W. M. Sheahan was attending the grand lodge of Workmen in Portland, during a part of the week.

Emeline Turner and Henry Myers were married in the city on July 13th, Recorder Curry officiating.

William and Bert McBain, of San Francisco, are visiting the family of John Lewthwaite on the West Side.

Miss Celia Goldsmith returned yesterday morning from a two week's visit to Mrs. M. B. Black at Long Beach.

E. N. Carter, superintendent of the Clackamas hatchery, left yesterday for a short visit to Southern Oregon.

J. W. Reelington, the well known journalist, accompanied by his family, was visiting George Herron and family yesterday.

T. L. Turner, of Stafford, was in town Wednesday, and reported that the farmers of that section were busy preparing for the harvesting work.

J. N. Bramhall, the Bullrun sawmill manager, was in town Saturday, and reported that there was a temporary lull in the demand for railroad ties.

Misses Noltner and Tozier, Mr. and Mrs. William Hearn, Miss Slocum and Mr. Bridges, of Portland, and Miss Olson, of Portland, visited Mrs. A. W. Cheney Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Fosburg, of Bolton, who visits Mrs. M. J. Broderick in the Good Samaritan hospital frequently, reported Tuesday, that the latter was favorably improving, and was now able to sit up a part of the time.

Mrs. M. Bruner and Mrs. R. J. Goodfellow are attending the grand lodge of the Degree of Honor, now in session at Portland. Mrs. J. O. Pierce and Mrs. S. A. Gillett, also are attending the sessions of the grand lodge.

H. Hanifin, John McGetchie and Sam Roake are attending the grand lodge, A. O. U. W., in session in Portland this week, as delegates from Falls City Lodge. O. H. Dye, also is in attendance as grand guide.

Superintendent Cy Crumley and John Straight left on their return trip to the upper Clackamas hatchery yesterday morning with a boat and nets to be used in securing fish for the new substation on the North fork, 30 miles this side of the main hatchery. The new station is being fitted up for hatching purposes, and will be in active operation this season. The location is an ideal one for a hatchery. Fish Warden Van Dusen has planned to extend the wagon road three miles to the new hatchery location.

Isaac Hartler and J. Hostettler, arrived from Nebraska Tuesday night, and left the following morning for Needy, where they will visit relatives for a few weeks. Mr. Hartler is well pleased with the country, its appearance reminding him of Pennsylvania.

William Stoever, who has completed a course of studies in the Lutheran theological seminary at St. Paul, Minn., arrived home Tuesday. He filled a pulpit in Spokane last Sunday. He will be ordained at the Immanuel Lutheran church next Sunday.

Charles A. Fitch, of Chehalis, Wash., arrived in Lakeview Friday. Mr. Fitch is an old friend of the editor of the Racket, having once been a partner with Mr. Oliver in the newspaper business. He is an experienced newspaper man, thoroughly competent to fill any department, and as a job printer Mr. Fitch cannot be excelled in the state. He has accepted a position on the Racket staff for the present.—Lakeview Racket.

Cy Crumley, superintendent of the upper Clackamas hatchery, and John Straight were in town Wednesday, and gave very satisfactory reports. On July 12th they commenced taking salmon eggs, 20,000 being the record for the first day. They have an immense number of salmon penned between two racks, and the crop of eggs promises to be gratifying in number. It also is an encouraging fact, that the work of taking eggs began 15 days earlier than at any former season.

A Kecheon arrived in town Wednesday morning from Viola, it being the first time that he has been able to get away from home for 14 months, the result of an accident in falling from a hay mow. Even now he is only able to get around with the aid of crutches. Over a year ago while getting out of a hay mow he fell a distance of 10 feet, almost crushing the left thigh bone, and falling in such a way as to break the off the upper bone of the leg near the hip. Not realizing that he was severely hurt, he crawled several rods toward the house, making slow progress. Finally he attracted the attention of some neighbors, who gave him assistance. Mr. Kecheon came to town to attend to some business matters, and is stopping at the Portland House. He will be a cripple for life.

M. J. Groshong, of West Side, brought to this office Wednesday several boxes of Royal Ann cherries that weigh 40 to the pound. What would our Eastern brothers think if they could raise cherries like these?

McGlashan & Rakel have opened the Willamette Market, second door south of express office, and will keep a full line of poultry, game, fish, vegetables and lunch goods. Both are well known and will no doubt succeed.

Prof. Griffith, of Portland, will close a very entertaining and instructive course of lectures at West Side school house tonight. His subject this evening will be "Love, Courtship and Marriage." Admission 15 cents; children 10 cents.

Large stock of Indian Baskets just received at Golden Rule Bazaar.

The Redmen and Foresters will have an exciting game of baseball at Willamette park Sunday, July 23th. It will be red, red, war.

General Ed Kilfeather, of Portland, has the contract of putting in the foundation under the Stratton building, and is pushing the work toward completion.

J. B. Zeigler, of Rainier, formerly of this city, passed an examination before the state board of medical examiners, and has been granted a license to practice medicine.

J. H. Turney gave a very successful dancing party at Magone's park Wednesday evening. This park is a popular resort, and is being liberally patronized by picnic parties and other gatherings.

The water commission has sold the old cement mill to Hullburt, the feed yard man, and he is now tearing down and removing the structure. The price paid was $28, Hullburt being the best and highest bidder.

Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, appropriate subjects being discussed at each meeting. Sunday-school at 12 m. Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock.

One trial will convince the most skeptical that O. G. Huntley, druggist, Oregon City, Or., has the one remedy that is an absolute cure for Asthma, Hay Fever and Bronchial Trouble, and that remedy is Swedish Asthma and Hay Fever Cure.

Good Investment—River front lot 68x105 feet, situate back of Charman's drug store, suitable for modern flats or cottages, for sale. Price $1000. Also 2 lots corner of Jackson and Eighth streets. Inquire at Commercial Bank.

There will be a great ball game for the trophy at Willamette park at 2:30 p. m. Sunday afternoon between the Vancouver and Gervais Star baseball teams. The admission will be 25 cents, and there will be no free list. It will be an exciting game.

Joe Knowlton has removed his tailoring establishment from Mai street to the building adjoining the Courier-Herald office, where he is keeping several people busy. His work recommends itself; a fact proven by the best dressers.

The Clackamas Mining and Milling Company, with James Adkins and F. A. Rosencrans, of Canby, and C. D. Latourrette, of Oregon City. The object of the corporation is to buy, sell and handle mines and mining property. The capital stock is $1,000, divided into 100 shares of the value of $10 each.

On Sunday, July 21st, we will begin a Methodist campmeeting at Viola to continue over the first Sunday in August. Mrs. E. M. Barrett, who is one of the best evangelists that has ever been on the coast, will conduct these meetings. No admission fee. Everybody is invited to come.—Rev. J. W. Eton, pastor of Viola church.

A visit to the Logan cheese factory is well worth while to take a look at its product. In the large, cool store rooms one sees over 300 300-pound cheeses on tiers of shelves—cheeses all around you. They represent one month's run of the factory. Mr. Olmstead, the cheesemaker in charge, has convinced its patrons that he understands his calling.

On Tuesday night the Oregon City delegation and other delegates to the Workmen grand lodge were provided with tickets on the trolley line to Hawthorne park. O a particular carload were held up by the conductor for cash fares, and he never even stopped to ring up the collections. Previous and later cars accepted the tickets.

Last Saturday Mrs. Thomas Laws was held on her own recognizance to answer the charge of kidnapping her grandson, in the circuit court. The child, which is in the custody of its mother, visited its grandmother, who sent the boy to his father, near Sacramento.

Laws says that she thought she had a right to send the boy to his father. The boy will likely be returned to the care of his mother.

Mrs. Nancy C. Bissell, wife of Alfred Bissell, of Canby, died in this city Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Shank. She was born in Putsburg, Ill., and was 69 years and 20 days old at the time of her demise. The funeral services will be held in the First Christian church at Canby at 10:30 a. m., Friday, July 19th, and the services will be conducted by Rev. J. H. Beaven, of Oregon City. Besides her husband the deceased left four children: W. E. Bissell, of Oregon City; Mrs. E. E. Martin, of Seattle; H. J. Bissell, of Canby, and Mrs. W. M. Shank, Oregon City.

Mrs. O. Tomkins had an operation for a tumor in the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland Wednesday. Dr. Sommer, who has charge of the Clackamas county patients there, reported that Miss Pearl Russell would return to her home at Wilhoit today. The six-year old son of W. J. Wilson was operated on for a splintered bone in his leg Wednesday, and is progressing favorably. Mrs. M. J. Broderick is improving. Mr. Pratt and Mrs. Bullock, of Oswego, are each fairly along on the road to recovery. Mrs. J. B. Stinson is expected to return from the hospital next Sunday.

Wenzel Busch, aged 86, died at the home of his son, Julius Busch at Logan last Saturday morning. The deceased was born in Austria, and came to this country 25 years ago. During the past quarter of a century he cleared up a farm in the heavy timber, and was an upright and highly respected citizen. The funeral took place from St. John's Catholic church Sunday morning, the services being conducted by Father Hillebrand. Ex-Councilman Frank Busch is a son of the deceased, and a daughter, Mrs. Gustave Fredericks lives at Park-place. The interment was at Mountain View cemetery. Mrs. Busch died a number of years ago.

Through intelligence received privately from the European continent it is learned that the Boer army is being reinforced by regiments of Germans, who enter the Boer lines in squads, and that money is being continually sent from Germany to the Transvaal, English vigilance being unable to exclude aid to the enemy. It is related that when Queen Wilhelmina of Holland visited the German kaiser, she asked him to assist the Boers. He refused, stating that if he did so the whole of Europe would become involved in war, but added significantly that they were being aided anyway.

Johnson & Lamb make a specialty of key fitting.

Mid-Summer Sale

—AT—

GOLDEN RULE BAZAAR

Opposite Bank of Oregon City

Men's Hats

Straw..... 5c up
Wool..... 45c up
Felt..... 75c up

Camping Goods

Blankets..... 95c pr
Hammocks..... 90c
Coffee Pots..... 10c

Men's Shirts

Japanese Crepe..... 58c
Monarch Golf..... $1 00
Dark Working..... 25c

Glassware

Jelly Glasses..... 35c doz
Tumblers..... 4c eah
Large Pitchers..... 23c

Ladies' Wear

Wrappers..... 75c up
Ladies' Hand'ch'fs. 3c
Lace..... 1c yd up
Stockings..... 9c pr
Underwear..... 10c

Silk Gloves..... 25c pr
"Leader" Corsets..... 45c
Shirt Waists..... 42c
Fancy Collars..... 15c
Corset Covers..... 20c

Special Sale of Fishing and Base Ball Goods

Mrs. Thomas Burke has been visiting friends in Seattle this week.

Mr. Dr. Seaman came down from Woodburn Thursday to attend a tea at Mrs. Seaman's home.

County Superintendent Zinser has been on a trip to Mount Hood, and Mrs. Zinser looked after the office during his absence.

Miss Ethel Cheney leaves Saturday for California to visit with her brothers, one who is in business in Oakland and the other in San Francisco.

Mrs. J. B. Robinson, and children, of Sacramento, Cal., and Miss Harriet Cochran left for Seaside this morning, where they will remain until October.

Good Times for six months free to new subscribers or those paying during June and July and August.

Team for Sale—Weight 1100 pounds; iron grey; 6 years old; well broke. Inquire at Courier-Herald office.

The ladies of the M. E. church will serve ice cream and cake Friday afternoon and evening in the church parlors. Come bring your friends and keep cool.

Cow Lost—A small milch cow strayed from Bethke's place, near Ely on the Molalla road; spotted, red and white, 8 or 10 years old; weight, 800 pounds. Send information to H. Bethke, Ely.

Deputy Lash, of Portland, has been in our midst for the past two weeks in the interest of the Order of Pendo. Thirty-four applications for membership have been secured, and still there are more to follow.

At the regular meeting of Crystal Council No. 161, Order of Pendo, July 8th, the following officers were installed: Past counselor, S. F. Scripture; counselor, I. D. Taylor; vice-counselor, Otto F. Olson; secretary, May Taylor; treasurer, A. O. Beaulieu; guide, Alice Cooper; chaplain, Jennie E. Boyles; warden, Charles Simmons; sentinel, Rosa Farr; examining physician, C. A. Stewart.

For Sale—Five-room house and barn, four lots covered with choice fruit trees. Price reasonable. Apply at this office.

Letter List.

Following is the list of letters remaining in the postoffice at Oregon City, Or., July 18th, 1901:

WOMEN'S LIST.
Andrews, L M Miss Kelley, Lilly Mrs

MEN'S LIST.
Baldwin, Jas Hickey, Hugh A
Carr, Amos Stewart, Claude
Dminger, John Strong, G L
Daniel, Willy Stephens, G W
Harkenreich, N J Steers, Joe
Hart, U J (2) Wilt, Albert (2)
George F Horton, P. M.

Insect Powder

No doubt you use more or less of it, but has it always been satisfactory?

Do the insects sometimes get fat, on the kind you've been using?

If so, let us sell you some that we get direct from Parke, Davis & Co. Like everything else prepared by them, it is better than the ordinary kind—is stronger, goes farther and costs no more.

Tanglefoot Fly Paper..... 2 sheets 5c
Poison Fly Paper..... large sheet 5c
Parke, Davis & Co.'s Insect Powder... per lb 50c
Buhach Insect Powder, in cans, 20c, 40c, 50c, $1.

C. G. HUNTLEY

Cut Rate Druggist

Oregon City, Oregon

Moth Balls 15c per pound.

We carry the only complete line of Caskets, Coffins, Robes, Linings and have the only first-class and up-to-date Hearse in the county. Our prices are never exorbitant. We guarantee satisfaction. We can give you better goods and better service for less money than any other undertakers in the county.

Calls promptly attended, night or day

SHANK & BISSELL

Undertakers and Embalmers

7th St., between Bridge and S. P. Depot