

CLACKAMAS COUNTY NEWS

Beaver Creek.

On board the steamer. Everything lively in our burg and all are busy. Haying is the chief occupation at present with an abundant crop. Grain is ripening very fast.

We attended New Era campmeeting last Sunday and gained some useful knowledge. We also spent the day with friends and relatives in the beautiful grove.

As today we sail down the beautiful Willamette passing the quiet, pretty little city of Astoria, a feeling of sadness comes over us as we miss the old Imperial mills, a relic to all old pioneers. It has been a landmark for perhaps 20 or 25 years, and reminds us that we are only old relics too, fast drifting onward, as on this lovely, useful river we are riding today into the sea of time.

But we must hurry through the great busy city of Portland and again return again to our own peaceful little burg of Beaver Creek, as we view again the beautiful falls of the Willamette from the neat new steamer, Leona, and we gaze with admiration on the wondrous works of nature and art.

Next time the boys try to capture a jack we hope they will learn to throw the lasso first. The owner caught the boys before the boys caught the jack. July 18.

Elwood.

Haying season is nearing a close.

Miss Emma Turner and Henry Myers, after a four weeks' courtship ripened into matrimony last Saturday, and they are now spending their honeymoon at Rocky Point.

Mrs. G. E. Dibble died at Oregon City July 18th. This is the first death to occur in a family of ten children, the youngest being 37 years. She leaves a host of friends and relatives, beside a husband and four children. She is at rest.

Saturday and Sunday is quarterly conference at the Mountain Home church. Elder Black will officiate.

Mr. Bittner has received another order from a California paper mill for 50,000 spools.

Miss Belle Evans, of Oregon City, spent last Sunday in this community. LALLA ROOKIE.

Liberal.

George Frazer, who has been on the sick list for three weeks, is slowly improving.

Johnnie Rhodes has gone to Salem, where he will work through harvest. We will miss you, Johnnie.

Les Look is moving his household goods to Gresham. He sold his crop to R. A. Wright.

Dee Stelman, who died Saturday in St. Mary's hospital, at Tucson, Arizona, will be buried in the Oregon City cemetery Friday at 11 o'clock.

Hay is about all housed or stacked and ready for the baler.

Fall wheat is ready to be cut (early varieties). W. H. White is cutting his wheat and also P. M. Graves.

Most of the summer fallow around here looks like a flower garden, with dog fennel in the lead.

Flowers, ribbons, fancy chignons at great sacrifice. Miss Goldsmith.

Molalla.

Farmers in this section are busily engaged in getting in their hay, which has been a bountiful crop.

The prospects are good for a fine wheat and oat crop. Some fields of wheat are almost ready to cut.

This has been a week for accidents in this place. Last Saturday night or Sunday morning John Jackson lost a horse. It was standing in the barn all right at feeding time and was found dead in the morning. The circumstances point to a crime having been committed by some one. Who ever the guilty one may be he must be either partially demented or have a heart as black as midnight to satiate his hatred by deliberately killing a dumb brute. Truly the darkness of night hides many crimes.

Bert Perry met with a painful accident last Monday. He was riding a young mare that had not been ridden for some time, and was riding her with a halter when she became sullen and reared up and fell back on the boy, causing a badly sprained back, besides other bruises. Dr. Leavitt is attending him. Fred Bonney, who lives near Colton, also met with a bad accident recently.

He was out hunting and had placed his gun down to get some berries, and in some way the gun was discharged, the bullet striking him near the ankle and coming out above the knee. Dr. Leavitt was called and had the boy removed to the hospital at Portland. The gun was a 44-calibre, which makes it a bad wound.

Shaver, Harless and Adams go to Canby next Saturday to bring out their threshing outfit, the first feed machine that has ever been to the Molalla.

Dr. Leavitt's brother and family, of Omaha, are visiting with him.

Charlie Leavitt is visiting at his home this week.

It is reported that Pearl Russell, who underwent an operation for appendicitis in a Portland hospital, is not getting along as well as she did for awhile after the operation was performed.

A force of men has gone in to commence work on the newly discovered mines in the Ogle Creek mining district. A company has been organized, and enough shares have been sold to thoroughly prospect the new discovery. The said discovery certainly prospects well, and some if not all of the company are well pleased with the outlook.

Will Shaver took a header from a load of hay recently. He struck the barn floor perpendicular but the wrong end first. He considers himself fortunate that he was not seriously hurt. X. Y. Z.

A beautiful line of baby bonnets and hats, all reduced, at Miss Goldsmith.

Mountain View.

Warm and cloudy weather again but no rain.

Sam Francis has so far improved from his injuries that he is visiting relatives and friends in Washington county this week.

Frank Welch and family and Mrs. Howard and daughter have gone to the coast for an outing.

Mr. Waldron and family have gone to the mountains.

Death has again entered this place and taken from us our beloved brother Artisan, C. T. Hickman, who departed this life Sunday morning, July 21, 1901. The remains were laid to rest in Mountain View cemetery.

J. Locke and family and Walt Curran and family went blackberrying Sunday.

John W. May went to Walla Walla, Wash., last week to work during harvest time.

Mr. Bullard has an extra smile on his face lately, the reason being that he is a great grandfather, as Mrs. Lottie Fisher has a daughter, born July 14th.

Mrs. Ernest Harrington and son, of California, are visiting here.

The poles have been put up for a telephone in this burg. We anticipate having electric lights here too in the near future.

Mrs. Everhart has returned home. SALINA.

Eagle Creek.

Everybody is very busy haying.

The weather has been splendid for the farmers so far.

Blackberries seem to be very scarce here this year, which is something unusual. Generally they are very plentiful.

Mrs. Marie Gibson went to Portland Saturday.

Grace Douglas' health seems to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan were visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Simpson, Sunday.

Charles Danielson and Victor Forsberg, of Kolo, were seen in Eagle Creek Sunday.

Born, to the wife of Ole Amelisegger, a boy, on July 17th. This accounts for the broad smile on Ole's countenance.

Sandy Ridge Sunday school has been discontinued on account of the warm weather and poor attendance.

By the request of Mrs. Vancuren a party was given at her home in honor of Mesdames Eastbrook, Clark and Curran on Friday, July 19. A large and very pleasant crowd attended, and tell of the good time and the excellent dinner. Each lady pieced a quilt block for Mrs. Eastbrook, as she was a former resident of this place and all were her friends. At noon the tables were graced with all the good things these lands hold, and our fair ladies are capable of preparing, and to say that the dinner was appreciated by all speaks lightly of it indeed. Those present were: Mesdames Vancuren, Clark, Eastbrook, Curran, Howitt, Baker, Foster, Kellogg, Gibson, Forester, Simpson, Duncan, Huggins, Winesett, Brackett, Gerhartus, Douglas, Burnett, Wilburn, Glover, Alsbaugh; Misses Dora Brackett, Willie Alsbaugh, Lena Vancuren and Mr. Howitt besides many children.

Mrs. Lena Kellogg and daughter, of Oregon City, are visiting the former's brother, Noah Stingley, of this place.

Mr. Frost, of Portland, was the guest of Mrs. Simpson and family Saturday and Sunday.

Hair Falls

"I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor to stop my hair from falling. One-half a bottle cured me."

J. C. Baxter, Braidwood, Ill.

Ayer's Hair Vigor is certainly the most economical preparation of its kind on the market. A little of it goes a long way.

It doesn't take much of it to stop falling of the hair, make the hair grow, and restore color to gray hair.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express you a bottle. Be sure and give the name of your nearest express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

The boys and girls of Eagle Creek gave a picnic to the bridge Sunday. After lunch they indulged in a game of baseball. DURA BELLE.

Garfield.

Farmers are about through haying, and will begin harvesting a good crop of grain this week.

Tomp Yocum has just purchased in Portland one of the latest improved Case threshing machines with wind stacker, self feed, etc.

Brother Rich preached at Garfield Sunday to good audiences. His daughter, Miss Bertha, accompanied him on this trip.

Rex Exon preached at Zion Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gid Krigbaum. Mr. Krigbaum is usually quiet, and modest, but he must have gotten excited this time as we understand when he got home, Mrs. Marshall said to him, "Why Milt, I don't believe this is your coat." He had traded with Mr. Krigbaum and not knowing it. In fact, Mr. M. did not know it himself.

One of Garfield's esteemed citizens, John Porter, was accidentally killed Monday at McBride's woodyard by a runaway team. Funeral occurred today from the Zion church. The heartfelt sympathies of our people go out to his mother and other relatives in this sad hour. JULY 27. FERN.

Evergreen.

The heat and dust are quite noticeable, and a good rain would be quite a help to some of the late crops.

The binders will be running in full blast this week. The fall wheat and winter oats are both nearly ripe.

T. H. Sconce and family were the guests of L. B. Yoder and family last Sunday.

There was a large congregation out to hear Rev. Wingfield preach Sunday at Smyrna.

The social given by the Woodmen at Needy was largely attended. It was a decided success both socially and financially.

Miss Sadie Crocker is at home from Portland. She expects to remain out here for the rest of the summer.

Mrs. Twomy, of Portland, is the guest of Mrs. Joseph Schwartz this week.

Rev. J. M. Dick will preach at Smyrna church next Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m.

John Johnston has gone to Eastern Oregon. While there he will work at the carpenter trade.

Yoder, Schwartz & Co. will move their threshing outfit home from the Herman place this week. S.

Card of Thanks.

We take this means of expressing our kind appreciation of the many acts of kindness performed by sympathetic friends during the last illness of the late Mrs. N. O. Bissell.

A School Benefit.

On Saturday evening, July 27th, there will be an entertainment at the Carus school house for the benefit of the school supply fund. This will be the third affair of the kind given by the young people of that place, and from all indications the program will surpass any previously presented. Songs, recitations, dialogues, and an address by Howard M. Brownell will feature the program. After the free program there will be a sale of ice cream, candy, etc., the proceeds to be appropriated for the purchase of supplies for the school.

COUNTY TREASURER'S NOTICE.

I now have funds to pay county warrants endorsed prior to June 25th, 1898. And also road warrants endorsed prior to November 10th, 1900.

Interest will cease on the above included warrants on the date hereof.

A. LUELING, Treasurer Clackamas County, Or.

Dated, Oregon City, July 26th, 1901.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
