As the boys were climbing a hill, Bonney was carrying his gun in one hand when it was accidentally discharged. The hottest baseball game ever played on the Willamette field was the contest last Sunday between the Gervais Stars and the Vancouver. At the close of the intensely interesting and exciting contest, the score stood 4 to 3 in favor of the Gervais team. Skill, brawn and a cash stake of $100 were factors that added intensity to the work of the players, and some brilliant plays were made. There was a large crowd present, an excursion boat load having accompanied the team from Vancouver. The players were frequently applauded, for the auditors were delighted entertained with a game of baseball that was ball. Charles W. Kelly was umpire, and he knows to a dot just how it should be done. The home management received 25 per cent. of the gate receipts, and the remainder was divided between the two playing teams. There was $100 stake money up between the two teams.
