

GREAT WRAPPER SALE

Manufacturer's stock secured for 60 cents on the dollar. The entire line of over 100 different styles is now on sale. This is a wrapper event. In a general way prices range 50c, 65c, 75c, 85c and 95c. Any wrapper is readily and worth double the price asked. Materials and styles are correct.

Under the Hot Rays of Midsummer Sale Prices

Seasonable goods are rapidly melting away from the counters. Cut prices affect Wash Silks, Lawns, Dimities, Challies, Underwear, Summer Corsets, Bicycle Gloves, Wash Suits, Skirts and Bathing Suits.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. W. Doores, of Marquam, was in Oregon City Friday.
Thad Stipp, of Molalla, was a visitor in town Saturday.
M. Walsh, of Milwaukie, was a visitor in town Tuesday.
James Kocher, of Canby, was a visitor in Oregon City Tuesday.
W. L. Beckner, of Monta Villa, was a visitor in the city Saturday.
C. W. Armstrong, of Canby, was a visitor in the city Saturday.
Frank Erickson and son, of Mulino were visitors in town Tuesday.
John Rowan, a pioneer resident of Stone, was in the city Saturday.
Miss Sadie Allen, of Salem, is visiting E. Sade White and Miss Martin.
Miss Mary Barlow, of Barlow, was visiting relatives in town Tuesday.
Ed Clooner and family, of Springwater, were visitors in the city Tuesday.
A. Lacy, the well known Springwater granger, was in Oregon City Tuesday.
Miss Ada Albee is spending a few weeks vacation at Salem visiting friends.
Mrs. Birdie Harrington and child are here from California, visiting relatives.
Herman K. Jones and Mrs. Legg, of Portland, were visitors in the city Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Cook and child, of Canby, were visitors in the city Saturday.
Mrs. E. H. Cooper has been visiting relatives in Portland for several days past.
Hon. J. P. Cole, of Barlow precinct, was a visitor in town during the past week.
Mrs. S. Eaton, of Carus, visited her brother, County Clerk Cooper last Saturday.
Frank Miller, the well known vegetable producer of Shubel, was in town Saturday.
Miss Elgiva Mullan, clerk of the Milwaukie school district, was in the city Monday.
J. D. Lee, superintendent of the state penitentiary, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.
Miss May Wishart went to Scappoose Monday, to visit Miss Millie Grant for a few days.
J. Sturchler, a well known farmer of Clackamas precinct, was in Oregon City Saturday.
Charles Myr and family have returned to the rooms over the Air Bros. grocery store.
G. B. Miller, of Highland, was in town Friday, having driven in his fine Percheron stallion.
Bert Baxter and wife returned Friday from a two weeks sojourn at the Clackamas hot springs.
Mrs. Caroline Sloper arrived from Salem Tuesday morning, and is visiting Mrs. W. W. Mar.
Colonel and Mrs. Robert A. Miller went to Marion county, Saturday to visit the latter's parents.
T. J. Buford left Monday for the Siletz Indian reservation, where he will remain for a few days.
Charles Babcock and son returned Saturday from a fishing and hunting trip up the Molalla river.
Tom Smith went to Canby Tuesday to assist in the construction of the new bridge across the Molalla.
Mrs. E. F. Martin, of the Racket store, is sojourning at Wilhoit Springs for the benefit of her health.
Mrs. Ross Charman is visiting the family of Judge T. A. McBride at Deer Island, Columbia county.
J. E. Hedges returned from Wilhoit Tuesday, but will go out again and bring in his family next week.
H. J. Lankins and family left Friday for Newport, where they expect to remain for three or four weeks.
Mayor C. N. Wait, of Canby, was in the city Friday, and expressed gratification over the fruit prospects.
A. N. Moores, a prominent business man, of Salem, is visiting his brother, Hon. Charles B. Moores, Monday.
H. T. Evans, principal of the Oswego school, went to Carus Monday, to look after matters pertaining to his farm.
Ed Harrington, Frank Reece, John Scott and John Cummins, of Highland, were visitors in Oregon City Saturday.
Misses Dena and Sylvia Prosser, of Oswego, are the guests of Mrs. E. A. Cook.—McMinnville Telephone-Register.

Mrs. George V. Campbell and child, of Springfield, who were visiting Mrs. Peter Traglio, returned home Monday morning.
I. N. Weston, of Springwater, was in town Tuesday, and reported that but very little grain would be cut before another week.
H. S. Wilson has returned from California after an absence of two years, and is employed in the painting on the Weinhard building.
County Clerk Mason and Fletcher N. Wilson went out to Oregon City this week to prove up on their claims.—Tillamook Herald.
J. F. Eckerson, of Canby, was in the city Saturday, and reported that the Italian prunes give promise of a large yield this year.
Henry E. Stevens, of the hosiery line conductor, has been ill at his home in Canemah for the past two weeks with an attack of tonsillitis.
Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bradley and daughter left Monday for their Powell's Valley farm, where they expect to remain for a month.
L. Jacobs, of Portland, one of the original promoters and present owners of the Oregon City woolen mills, is spending the season at Wilhoit.
Alvin and Will Cannon and their wives and Leo Cannon left Sunday morning for Seseide, where they will camp for a few weeks.
Mrs. M. M. Charman, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Diller, went to Corvallis Monday to wait on her sister, Mrs. Fisher, who is seriously ill.
Walter Burnier and Pearl Mosher returned Tuesday from a short trip to the Tillamook coast. They traveled by team, and were gone a week.
J. M. Tracy, of Logan, was in town Tuesday, and stated harvesting was well beginning. He had completed the cutting of 30 acres of winter oats.
Sam Akin has returned home from a logging camp for a short vacation, and will accompany Jack Marrs, of Springwater, on a trip to the mountains.
Merrill and Gordon Moores and Howard Latourette returned Monday from a three days bicycle ride to Mount Hood. They claim to have reached crater rock.
Mrs. Mary Wright, of Willowa, Or., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. J. Owenby at Canemah. She is accompanied by her daughter in law, Mrs. Etta Wright and daughter.
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bohlander, of Beaver Creek, were visitors in the city Saturday. Mr. Bohlander is jubilant over crop prospects, and is elated over the growth of white oats on his place.
Mrs. L. S. Allen, of Spokane, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Fannie Allen, arrived this week and are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. J. H. Beaven. They were here last year.
A. B. Cole, of Barlow, and John Cole, of Molalla, were visitors in the city Saturday. The former, who has been in very poor health for the past eight months, is slowly improving.
N. M. Moody and family, of Portland, passed through Monday morning on their way home from Molalla, where they had been visiting Mrs. Moody's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Vaughan.
Mrs. P. McIntyre and daughter, Miss Mary, returned Saturday evening from an extended visit to James McIntyre at Northport, Wash. They report an enjoyable trip.
Judge William Galloway, wife and daughter, Zilpha, of Oregon City, attended a meeting of the Rebekah Lodge in this city Tuesday evening.—McMinnville Telephone Register.
J. L. Mattock, of New Era precinct, who was in town Tuesday, reported that harvesting was progressing favorably. He announced the intention of beginning on his own crop the following day.
Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Barlow, of Barlow, and H. F. Pusey returned Monday from a five weeks trip to California points, taking in San Francisco and other places of interest.
T. W. Clark, manager of the Bandon woolen mills, arrived Tuesday evening, and is visiting his family here. He reports the woolen mills busy filling orders.
Miss Betta Fouts will resume her work in Portland next week, after a month's vacation. She has visited at Salem and Wilhoit a portion of the time during the past month.
S. L. Dart, E. E. Judd and Cyrus Judd, of Molalla, and Mrs. C. E. Jones, of Marquam, were visitors in town Saturday. Cyrus Judd recently returned from Idaho, and will probably remain here.

James Diekey, of Molalla, was visiting his sister, Mrs. Max Ramsby, for several days during the past week. He says that town people go to the country for an outing, but he comes to the city for an outing.
T. L. Turner, of Stafford, brought in some fine sample heads of the white mole wheat, raised on his place, last Saturday. It is a hardy variety, and he believes that it is peculiarly adapted to production in this valley.
Superintendent J. W. Berriam, of the Rogue River fish hatchery, who spent several days in the city last week, returned Sunday, accompanied by George Coulter, who will do some painting there.—Medford Enquirer.
Ed Hornschuch, of Shubel, has taken his wife to Sprague, Wash., to try the climate for her asthma. He will return soon, but Mrs. Hornschuch expects to remain for several months, if the climatic conditions prove favorable.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sheahan have removed to the dwelling now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kuerten. Mr. Kuerten will be away a greater portion of the time, as he is to assume charge of a Portland branch house in Seattle.
S. M. Smith, accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smith left Monday morning for their old home at Oakland, Douglas county. During the past year they have resided at Gladstone for the benefit of the elder Smith's health.
Miss Jessie McLaughlin and Mrs. Lora M. Black, of Kansas City, Mo., arrived Monday, and are visiting their uncle, R. S. McLaughlin and family at Milwaukie. They are on their way home from the Epworth League convention in San Francisco.
E. S. Filcroft, wife, son and daughter, of Grant's Pass, have arrived in town and are looking around for a pleasant and suitable place to rent, until they decide as to locating—Coquille City Herald. The Filcrofts lived here until here until about a year ago.
O. F. Williams and wife, and sister, Miss May Williams, leave in a day or two for their old home at Central Point, Jackson county, where they expect to spend the summer. They will visit Crater Lake before returning. Mr. Williams is connected with Johnson's barber shop.
J. H. Simmons, of McKee, was in town during the week making some repairs on the dwelling owned by Mrs. Simmons. Mr. Simmons is a Marion county pioneer of 1845, and Mrs. Simmons, also is well known here, having lived in Oregon City for a number of years.
R. B. Holcomb, of Clackamas precinct, was in town Saturday, and reports good prospects for the prune crop. Mr. Holcomb has several tons of dried prunes left over from last year, but expects the average size of the prunes to be much larger than formerly. The Italians all give good promise of an excellent yield this season.
George Herron is home from Eastern Oregon, having attended a very enjoyable reunion of the Herron family, near Heppner, Umatilla county. There were present his mother, several brothers and other members of the family. They had some rare sport in chasing coyotes with some blooded hounds kept on his brother's place.
S. E. Gregory, the Carus teal grower, was in the city Tuesday, and expected to begin gathering his crop Thursday. His brother, George H. Gregory, jr., of Molalla, commenced gathering his crop Wednesday last. The acreage in teals is larger than last year, and about 80 persons will have employment in the two yards for several weeks.
Gottfried Wallace, of Highland, was in town Saturday, and stated that Joseph Wallace, of that place, has the contract of furnishing the rough lumber for the proposed new Stratton building on Main street. The first load of lumber was delivered Saturday. Jack Wallace and Fred Matson have gone to the upper Clackamas on a prospecting tour for gold.
S. O. Revon, Rev. G. D. Wolf, of Jefferson, Ind.; the Misses Clara Peterson, Harriet Case and Carrie Seelye form a party that started for Mount Hood Monday morning with a complete camping equipment. The party were in charge of W. B. Stafford, who drove out with his team. They expect to return the last of this week.
Rev. J. W. Exon, of Melet, Rev. D. E. Waters, of Salem, who held a quarterly conference there. Rev. Exon stated that the camp meeting was progressing in a very satisfactory way, and considerable interest was prevailing. Two women preachers are interesting the audiences, Mrs. E. M. Barrett, and Mrs. Tenny, of Port Townsend. The latter is a daughter of Rev. Cosper, who was formerly located in this county.
N. E. Damico and Nick Humphrys spent Sunday at Wilhoit. Oregon City is pretty well represented at the springs now. Among them are Mrs. R. J. Goodfellow, Maggie and Joe Goodfellow, Miss Shupley, Jessie Humphrys, Mrs. B. F. Linn, Mrs. Thomas Warner, her daughter and mother, Mrs. M. E. Rhoades, Lizzie Walker, Rea Norris, J. E. Hedges and family, Mrs. J. W. Cole and son, Rhea. J. E. Rhoades and Miss Betta Fouts have each returned from a short stay at Wilhoit.
Ex-County Superintendent N. W. Boland, who filled the county superintendent's office with credit, and was a very capable educator, is the new principal of the Monta Villa school at Mount Taylor. This is the best school outside of the city limits of Portland in Multnomah county, and eight teachers are employed. Mr. Boland taught the Sycamore school during the past year, and also has sold his Clackamas county farm at a good figure to a Washington man.
Taken Up—On July 16th, there came to my farm, 1 1/2 miles up Clackamas river from Parkplace, 5 head of sheep. Owner can have same by proving property and paying expenses. A. Bolle, Parkplace.
Taken Up—One very light brown horse about 10 years old; several white horses about 10 years old; several white saddle marks on each side; one fore and one hind foot white; shod all round. Inquire of W. W. Jesse, Barlow, Or.

CASTORIA
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Galt

Going Out of Business

Sale Began July 15th

I will dispose of my entire stock of Ladies' Wear, Etc., to a cash customer or to the public in the next 30 days. I am forced to quit business on account of poor health. My entire stock will be marked down, some of the goods

Away Below Cost

I will convince the public of my determination to quit the business.

Following is a list. Come and see my prices:

- Dress Skirts
- Wrappers
- Ribbons
- Shirt Waists
- Hosiery
- Yarns
- Under Skirts
- Towels
- Table Linen
- Muslin Underwear
- Allover Laces
- Knit Underwear
- Laces
- Embroideries
- 30Syl's Kid Fitting Corsets
- Napkins

All kinds of Notions, Dolls and Doll Heads, Baby Hoods, Jackets, Etc.

After the stock is reduced 1-3 or 1-2 anyone wishing to purchase the balance can have it at a reasonable figure. All goods sold for cash only.

ELLEN F. MARTIN

RACKET STORE

Next door to Barlow's Grocery Store.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Born, to G. S. Rogers and wife in Oregon City, July 29th, a girl.
Born, to L. Denock and wife, near Holcomb's, July 24th, a girl.
W. W. Mar is having a bay window built on to his house at the corner of Sixth and Washington streets.
Judge William Galloway has entered his two year old Altamont colt, Park Place, in the prize competition at the state fair.
Dr. M. C. Strickland has purchased the fine 6-year old Altamont colt owned by Mart Robbins, of Marquam precinct, and now has a tip top span of bay travelers.
H. J. Harding is building an addition to his house on Main street. It is reported that the main part of the house will be occupied by a prominent attorney and politician, who is to be married at an early date.
C. B. Johnson, of Gladstone, has entered into a contract with Messrs. Stevens & Howell to construct their new building on Main street. It is understood that the contract price will approximate $4100.
The will of the late Charles T. Hickman was filed in the county clerk's office Monday for probate. The document bears the date of Feb. 16th, 1893, and names the widow as executrix. The real and personal property is estimated at $3,000, and the provisions of the will devise that $1,000 go to the five children, and the remainder to the wife, after paying the funeral expenses.
The land offices in Oregon have been kept unusually busy the past year, receiving filings on homesteads. The office at Oregon City, the oldest land office in the state, which has been doing since July 17th, 1854, during the year ending June 30th, 1901, received homestead filings on 138,477 acres. This means about a thousand new homes in that old section of our state.—La Grande Observer.

It is now a settled fact that S. W. Moss, of this city, was the author of the "Prairie Flower," given to the world by Emerson Bennett. Mr. Moss has told reporter several times of being the author of this story. Anyone who has conversed with Mr. Moss recognizes the fact, that he possesses a superior, original mind. It is gratifying to know that honor and credit are now being placed justly where they belong.
The funeral of Dee Stehman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Stehman, of Liberal, was buried in Mountain View cemetery here last Friday. The funeral services were held at Holman's undertaking parlors, and conducted by Rev. W. S. Grim, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. Many friends of the family from various sections of the county attended the funeral. The young man died of consumption at Tucson, Arizona, where he had gone for the benefit of his health at the age of 20. The young man was held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends.
Dufar Dipatch, A. J. Douglas arrived from Eagle Creek, Clackamas county, Wednesday. Mr. Douglas purchased a new separator as he came through Portland. It is a J. I. Case this city, died at the residence of the latter last evening, the 22nd, after an illness of 10 days. Mrs. Hutchins was a native of Sudbury, Mass., and lived for many years on the Brookline road, one and a half miles southwest of this city. Her age was 73 years. Her daughters, Mrs. Hathaway, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Jonathan Fairbanks, were with her at the time of her death.—Springfield, Mo., Leader-Democrat.—Other children of the deceased, are: Mrs. Clara E. Pierce, of Hyde Park, Mass., and Mrs. Angie Hall, of West Acton, Mass.; also E. W. and F. S. Hutchins, of Stone, in this county. Mrs. Hutchins was an active member of Ravenwood Baptist church at Logan.

Rev. O. B. Streyfeller, a former well known young Clackamas county clergyman, died of consumption on July 20th, near Santa Anna in the mountains. He had lived there several months for the benefit of his health. The deceased was about 33 years old. He was pastor of the Evangelical church at Milwaukie for several years, and was married to Miss Rosie, daughter of C. Hornschuch, of Shubel. She was at his bedside when he passed away, and will return to her old home in this county. Rev. Streyfeller was transferred from Milwaukie to Albany, where he was pastor of the Evangelical church for a year. He transferred his membership to the Methodist Episcopal conference, and was pastor of the Drain church for several months, until stricken with consumption. He was a young man of rare talents and pleasing personality.
To Heal a Hurt
Use Banner Salve, the great healer. It's guaranteed for cuts, wounds, sores, piles and all skin diseases. Use no substitute. Charman & Co.

NORTHWEST IMPLEMENT CO.

208 Front Street Portland, Oregon

Hodges' Queen, Prince and King Binders

Strongest built. Easiest operated. Only Binders having three packers. Greater binding capacity by 100 per cent than any machine. Roller bearings throughout.

Hodges' New Mowers

With roller bearings. Fully up-to-date. Combining strength, power, speed and lightness of draft.

Hodges' Lassie Self Dump Rake

With relief spring, bicycle wheel, steel axles and center dump.

See our goods and be convinced

WAGONS, BUGGIES, PLOWS, HARROWS, ETC.