

MIDSUMMER SALE PRICES

Hot Weather specials Closing at Less Than Half Price

A special line of Commercial Traveler's samples. White Pique and White Bedford.

KIRTY

Elegantly made garments. A few slightly soiled—caused by handling. Half price will take any of them now. Ladies, see this lot. They are made from pure white French cotton Bedford cord, and are warranted to last you several Summers. Exceptional values and bargains.

Fine Black English Mohair Dusters

If you have decided on a trip north, or south, or east, or west, we have just what you want for traveling purposes. Black English Mohair and Alpaca Dusters and Ulsters. Sizes 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and a few 46 bust; length from 56 to 62 inches; perfect fit; elegantly tailored—presenting a lustrous and silky effect, which dispenses with lint or dust while journeying onward.

Ladies' Bathing Suits

In Navy, Black and Cardinal. Made of pure English Mohair and Alpaca, with shoes and caps to match. Prices $1.50, $1.75, $2.25, $2.50, $3.75, $4.25 and upward.

Boys' Trunks and swimming suits

10c, 15c, 20c, 25c, 35c and 50c. Midsummer sale prices prevail on all fine goods.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS
THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

H. E. Hayes, of Stafford, was in town Sunday.
Carl Chnrch returned from Newport Saturday.
H. W. Shaw, of Mulino, was in the city Monday.
John Vegelius, jr., is now clerking in a store at The Dalles.
Postmaster G. W. Prosser, of Oswego, was in the city Saturday.
Mrs. La Forest is visiting her son, Eugene LaForest at Albany.
Al Lacy and family, of Springwater, were in the city Monday.
Miss Kate Ritter, of Needy, has been visiting relatives at Aurora.
Rea Norris is home from a pleasant sojourn at Wilhoit Springs.
Rev. W. T. Latourette went to Albany Friday for a short visit.
Councilman W. M. Sheahan has joined his family at Mount Hood.
Miss Anna Johnston has returned from a visit to her parents at Needy.
N. Scheel, a well known resident of Bissell, was in Oregon City Saturday.
Riley Hays, road supervisor of Oswego precinct, was in town Monday.
Miss Clara Wheeler returned Friday from a visit to her parents at Corvallis.
Miss Nettie Harlan, of Oregon City, is visiting in this city.—Corvallis Times.
Willie Marshall is now clerking in Harnden's confectionary establishment.
J. G. Pillsbury was up from Portland, visiting his family here a few days ago.
Mrs. F. E. DeParq, of Salem, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. T. F. Cowing.
Miss Maude Butler was down from Salem, visiting relatives over Sunday.
George A. Harding went to Wilhoit Monday to join his family until Thursday.
Miss Mattie Noss went to Needy Sunday morning to visit her parents for a week.
Mel drum McCown, the livrman, drove to Colestein yesterday.—Medford Enquirer.
J. F. Haun, of Wilhoit, was in town Tuesday, having brought in a lot of Portland people.
Mrs. M. Nelson, of Chicago, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McGlashan, during the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene LaForest, of Albany, visited his mother, Mrs. Mary LaForest Sunday.
L. Ferguson, the well known farmer and warehouseman, of New Era, was in town Saturday.
A. A. Pease was down from Seattle during the past week, looking after his property interests.
Mrs. Charles Dierckle, of Portland, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Barlow.
Miss Amy May, of Portland, who was visiting Miss Zaida Goldsmith, returned home Monday.
S. L. Young, of The Dalles, has been visiting his mother-in-law, Mrs. E. J. Marshall, of Canemah.
C. C. Williams, the well known pioneer citizen of Mount Pleasant, is reported to be seriously ill.
R. J. Goodfellow and family returned from Wilhoit Springs Tuesday. They report a delightful outing.

Misses Rava Gray and May Laeb, of Portland, have been visiting the former's mother, Mrs. J. W. Gray.
Alvin and Will Cannon and their families and Leo Cannon are home from a trip to Seaside.
Charles Trimble has permanently associated himself with the blacksmith firm of Scripture & Beaulieu.
A. C. Tower, who is doing some extensive mill work at The Dalles, was down to visit his family this week.
Mrs. George Sechrist, of Silverton, who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Johnson, returned home Saturday.
Mrs. J. A. Hein came up from Oregon City Friday to visit her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Bonebrake.—Roseburg Review.
Ira Dickey, who lives in the Molalla country, 20 miles from town, was in the city over Sunday, visiting relatives.
W. E. Bissell is slowly recovering from the effects of a broken rib, the result of a fall at Canby a few days ago.
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gibson, of Eagle Creek, left last Friday night for Chico, Calif., to visit their son, A. D. Garrison, who is very ill.
Mrs. J. W. Jones and Mrs. W. B. Zauwalt and children left Tuesday for Newport, to remain for a couple of weeks or longer.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph T. Marshall, Miss Bertha Scott, and Jack Patterson, of Portland, left Saturday for a few weeks stay at Yaquina.
John McGetchie and family and Mrs. Richard Freytag and child visited George Lazelle and family at Mount Pleasant Sunday.
Miss Vera Caulfield, who is serving a nurse apprenticeship in the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland, is at home for a few days.
Mrs. H. E. Cross and family are still rustating in the vicinity of Springwater, but will probably return home during the coming week.
Charles R. Noblitt and A. W. Phillips left Saturday morning for a short visit to Ocean park on the Tillamook coast. Both drove single rigs.
Mr. and Mrs. George A. Paddock and daughter, of Illinois, who were visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dye, made a trip up the Columbia Tuesday.
L. Blanchard and family, of Mount Pleasant, are camping for a short time on Clear creek on account of the illness of their little daughter.
Henry C. Austin has been ordered to take charge of the state hatcheries at Alesia and Sinalaw. He left a few days ago for the scene of his labors.
W. B. Shively has returned from a very successful business trip to Idaho and Eastern Washington points, and reports prosperous conditions.
H. W. Trambath and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Miles were among the Oregon City people, who went to the Sound on the Elk's excursion Wednesday morning.
John Walling, the well known hop grower, of Lincoln, Polk county, was in town during the week, and stated that he would pay as high wages as anyone else.
Miss Iva Harrington has returned from Silverton, where she was attending a preparatory course for teachers. She is visiting at the home of Mrs. C. D. Story.
Hon. George A. Steel has returned from his outing at Mount Hood, to where he was accompanied by Mrs. Steel and the family of John W. Mel drum.
President T. W. Clark left last Sunday for Detroit and Buffalo. He will visit Detroit on business and go on to Buffalo and visit the exposition.—Baffalo Recorder.
Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Feaster, who have been visiting their son, Samuel Feaster for some weeks, started on the return trip to their home in Chicago Tuesday.
Mrs. F. H. Beach and son, W. H. Beach went to Corvallis Tuesday. The former returned Wednesday, but the latter will spend a few days at the Yaquina beach.
William Callif, Ross Farr, Silas Shadle and Rye Wilkinson left Monday for a two week's stay at Ocean park, Tillamook county. They were driven over by P. M. Boyles.
County Recorder Tom P. Randall, Misses Louva Randall and Nellie Boyd, Chauncey Ramsby and L. Haynes formed a party that drove out to Wilhoit Springs Sunday.
Mrs. Thomas Warner and children and mother are home from several weeks camping at Wilhoit Springs. Miss Clara Warner returned with the remainder of the family.

A. M. Lovelace, of Damascus, was in Oregon City Saturday, having returned from a trip to Eastern Oregon points. He will now have charge of the stockmen sports at Woodlawn.
T. A. Pope recently returned from a 10-days outing at Tioga. Mrs. Pope and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Griffith expect to spend a few weeks there later in the season.
C. A. Rose and wife, of St. Paul, Minn., who were visiting their nephew, C. A. Nash and family, left on their home-bound trip Friday. They had been touring California.
Professor P. M. Smith, who put the "Irish Duke" on the stage here with local talent, is now in Albany, and has enlisted a number of prominent people in the production of the play.
Dodd Shindler started on his return trip to San Francisco last Saturday evening. Mrs. Shindler will remain here a few weeks longer, visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Norris.
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Winkle, George Rakel and Willie Stokes returned from the Tillamook coast Friday. George Rakel started for California, immediately after his arrival home.
Rev. W. S. Grim and family, G. P. Osborn and wife, Miss Waterpugh, of Salem, and Miss Allredge left Monday for Ocean Park, Long Beach, where they will camp for a couple of weeks.
Miss Metta Finley left Tuesday for Victoria, B. C., to spend her summer vacation. She accompanied a party of Portland and Scappoose young people, who expect to be away about two weeks.
George L. Story, Mrs. S. T. Hamilton, Miss Failing, Mrs. L. L. McArthur, of Portland, and Mrs. W. M. Molson, of Toronto, Canada, were the guests of Dan O'Neil and Miss Holmes at Rose Farm Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Scripture and Mrs. A. C. Beaulieu left Saturday for Seaside, to remain for a couple of weeks. Mr. Scripture returned Tuesday, but the remainder of the party will stay their allotted time.
J. M. Price is home from a 10-days trip to the Sound. While away he acquired a half interest in his brother's store at Bremerton, Wash., but will continue to devote his personal attention to his store here.
The families of Councilman E. F. Story and Frank Welch, accompanied by Miss Taylor and Archie Story, expected to leave this (Friday) for Wilhoit, with the intention of remaining for a couple of weeks.
G. W. Stephens has sold his crop at Beaver, and purchased some residence property formerly occupied by J. W. Groat. He has removed his family to the new home, and has secured a position in the paper mills.
Mrs. Dan Lyons and child returned from Wyoming Tuesday, on account of the latter having had an attack of whooping cough. Mr. Lyons expects that the tunnel will be completed in October, when he will return home.
J. N. Ryan, a prominent Grand Army man, well known in Oregon, was in town Saturday. He has recently been superintending railroad work in the vicinity of Coos Bay, but has removed his family to Roseburg, his former home.
Postmaster Kleinsmith brought in a sample of fir to this office last Thursday, that was actually covered with a formation of white sugar. It is supposed to be a sort of honey dew. It was found in the vicinity of Postmaster Kleinsmith's place at Clarks.
P. M. Graves, of Liberal, was in town Sunday, and reported that John Cole started up his new advance threshing on the day previous. It has a capacity of 2500 bushel daily, and a patent blower mows the straw away in a convenient shed without the use of hand labor.
W. A. White has completed the construction of the Portland Flouring Mill Company's new mill at Salem, and will superintend the construction of a similar mill for the same owners at Odessa, Wash. Mrs. White and the children will likely remain at Salem for a few weeks yet.
Walter Love, accompanied by his sister, Miss Stella Love, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Moffatt Monday. They were on the eve of departing for Honolulu, their old home, Mr. Love has recently completed a course of studies at Yale college, while Miss Love has resided in Portland for some time past.
Mrs. Thomas Ryan and family will leave for Long Beach this week. Judge Ryan will leave Sunday for an official visit to the Old Fellows' lodges in the coast counties in his official capacity as chief patriarch of the grand encampment. He will be accompanied by other officers of the grand lodge.
Bert Greenman refused longer to serve as field superintendent of state fish hatcheries, for the reason that Fish Warden Van Dusen would not advance his salary from $63 per month. Greenman was the longest experienced hatchery man at present in the state service. Frank Brown is his successor. Mr. Greenman and H. T. Hallinan have gone to the mountains on a fishing trip.
Robert W. Worsham, of Malheur, accompanied by his wife, is visiting his brother-in-law, J. K. Graham, at Beaver Creek. Mr. Worsham was formerly a well known resident of Clackamas county, and is the principal promoter of the Golden Eagle mine in Malheur county, in which County Recorder T. P. Randall, Councilman C. G. Huntley, J. E. Hedges and other Oregon City people are extensively interested.
William Hall and E. F. Stewart, of LaGrande, Union county, were in town Monday on their way home, after making a 1200 mile trip by team. They went down through Eastern Oregon, taking in the redwood regions of Northern California. From Crescent City they went along the coast to Bandon, Coos county. From there they drove to Roseburg, and on through the valleys. They found the roads in good condition, except a little muddy in spots, between Bandon and Myrtle Point. They are traveling with a light spring wagon, carrying bedding and a kitchen outfit.
J. W. Draper, who accompanied A. Knapp to the upper Clackamas hatchery, returned Monday, having made the trip from Lockery's in half a day. Knapp will stay in for a few weeks, and intends to go to the hot springs above the hatchery. At Lockery's Mr. Draper met F. A. Rontledge, the Oregonian printer; Harry McGowan, of Portland, and Professor H. Caldwell, of Lincoln, Neb. The party were on their way to the upper hatchery, and some interesting views of scenery may be expected. They had been trans-

KODAKS

Remember
EASTMAN makes the only KODAK.

From
$1.00
To $35.00

BURMEISTER AND ANDRESEN,

OREGON CITY JEWELERS,
Agents for EASTMAN KODAK CO.

CHAMPION BINDERS

We guarantee that the Eccentric Sprocket wheel on this machine will give an absolute gain of 10% per cent of power at the time of tying and discharging bundle.

The force feed elevator will waste less grain than any other.

There is less shattering.

The Relief Rake keeps inner end of platform clear.

Everyone of those using Champion Binders says it has no equal.

Send for Catalogue.

Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co.
First and Taylor Sts.
PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL SUMMARY

The finest bon bon boxes in town at the K. K. K.
Shaving only 10 cents at the first-class shop of P. G. Shark.
The latest in chocolate of all kinds at the Kozy Kandy Kitchen.
Kozy Kandy Kitchen, up to date on home-made candies.
A few watches for sale cheap at Younger's. Watches cleaned, $1.
The latest out—Try the marshmallow kisses at the Kozy Kandy Kitchen.
Ladies, if your sewing machine is out of order, take it to Johnson & Lamb's.
A slightly used parlor organ for sale by W. L. Block, the homefurnisher.
Machine extras made to order on a turning lathe by Johnson & Lamb.
Shank & Bissell carry the most complete line of undertakers' supplies in Oregon City.
If your bike is broke the place to get it fixed is at Johnson & Lamb's bicycle repair shop.
$20 to $100 to loan on chattel or personal security.
DICK & EASTMAN, AGTS.
The latest and best brands of cigars and tobaccos are kept by P. G. Shark Smokers' goods and confectionery, also Moore's Seventh Street Pharmacy on the hill. New store, new goods, new prices. Dr. J. BURT MOORE, Proprietor.
Land titles examined, abstracts made and money loaned at lowest rates. Dimick & Eastman, Lawyers, Oregon City.
Lumber—Leave orders at this office for first-class lumber of all kinds, or address W. F. HARRIS, Beaver Creek, Oregon.
The Weekly Oregonian gives all the national news and the Courier-Herald gives all local and county news. Both one year for Two Dollars.
The P. C. & O. T. line will until further notice make a 25 cent round trip rate from Canemah and Oregon City to Portland on Sundays, with cars every 30 minutes.
When you want a good square meal go to the Brunswick restaurant, opposite suspension bridge, L. Ruconich, proprietor. Everything fresh and clean and well cooked; just like you get at home. This is the only first-class restaurant in Oregon City and where you can get a good meal for the price of a poor one elsewhere.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Born, at Logan, to the wife of J. Schilling, a daughter.
Born, at Linn's mill, August 13th, to Kent Linn and wife, a girl.
B. G. Cospier started up his threshing on the Merrill crop Tuesday, and found that the new blower attachment to his threshing worked to perfection.
Three new divorce suits were filed in the circuit this week as follows: Jeannette vs. W. F. Kirk; Manie A. vs. C. G. Simmons; Jellie A. vs. A. D. Mazingo.
Mrs. Kate L. Newton has a blooming yucca plant growing in her yard that measures seven feet and three inches. This is the largest plant of this variety yet reported in Oregon.
The Artisans would have had a most delightful party last Thursday night, as usual, if Miss Tillotson had not been the star attraction. Valley papers are giving her some hard roasts.
Gritty Camp No. 539, Woodmen of the World, will give a grand harvest picnic at Meinig's park, Sandy, August 24th. There will be music by Aim's band and glee club, and dancing during the afternoon and evening. State Senator Brownell will be the principal speaker.
The Street Railway Employees Association of Milwaukie, has a large membership, and is prospering. The membership is composed of employees of the Portland City & Oregon Railway Company. The object of the organization is for mutual benefit and fraternity. H. E. Stevens is secretary.
William J. Cuddy, a proof reader on the Oregonian, came up on the steamer Leona Tuesday to join a party of people at Magone's park. He stated that if the residents of Portland generally, realized that they could have such a delightful river outing for 25 cents, the boats would be continually crowded.
Julius Burke, a timber cruiser, was fined $40 in Justice McAnulty's court last Thursday evening. The fine was paid. Burke had hired a team from W. H. Young a few days previous, and it was alleged that he drove them so hard, that one of the horses was disabled after reaching Molalla.
Dayton Herald: Mrs. and Mrs. S. N. Kasnussen went to Wilhoit Springs the first of the week. John Moore and wife returned from Wilhoit Springs the last of the week, but will return in a few days to bring home Dr. and Mrs. Rossier. Rev. T. L. Jones, pastor of the M. E. church, with his family, left Tuesday for two weeks outing. His pulpit will be filled by Rev. Gabriel Sykes.
Early Sunday morning after the night policemen had gone off duty a tall, slender young man, and a short, chunky woman, with a poor make-up of make impersonation, were seen in the vicinity of the water tank in the Southern Pacific yard. They went to the head of the stairway, came back down town, after getting breakfast at a restaurant, they left town. The mystery was not solved.

LOCAL SUMMARY

The finest bon bon boxes in town at the K. K. K.
Shaving only 10 cents at the first-class shop of P. G. Shark.
The latest in chocolate of all kinds at the Kozy Kandy Kitchen.
Kozy Kandy Kitchen, up to date on home-made candies.
A few watches for sale cheap at Younger's. Watches cleaned, $1.
The latest out—Try the marshmallow kisses at the Kozy Kandy Kitchen.
Ladies, if your sewing machine is out of order, take it to Johnson & Lamb's.
A slightly used parlor organ for sale by W. L. Block, the homefurnisher.
Machine extras made to order on a turning lathe by Johnson & Lamb.
Shank & Bissell carry the most complete line of undertakers' supplies in Oregon City.
If your bike is broke the place to get it fixed is at Johnson & Lamb's bicycle repair shop.
$20 to $100 to loan on chattel or personal security.
DICK & EASTMAN, AGTS.
The latest and best brands of cigars and tobaccos are kept by P. G. Shark Smokers' goods and confectionery, also Moore's Seventh Street Pharmacy on the hill. New store, new goods, new prices. Dr. J. BURT MOORE, Proprietor.
Land titles examined, abstracts made and money loaned at lowest rates. Dimick & Eastman, Lawyers, Oregon City.
Lumber—Leave orders at this office for first-class lumber of all kinds, or address W. F. HARRIS, Beaver Creek, Oregon.
The Weekly Oregonian gives all the national news and the Courier-Herald gives all local and county news. Both one year for Two Dollars.
The P. C. & O. T. line will until further notice make a 25 cent round trip rate from Canemah and Oregon City to Portland on Sundays, with cars every 30 minutes.
When you want a good square meal go to the Brunswick restaurant, opposite suspension bridge, L. Ruconich, proprietor. Everything fresh and clean and well cooked; just like you get at home. This is the only first-class restaurant in Oregon City and where you can get a good meal for the price of a poor one elsewhere.