He also left a sample of a sugar prune, which is two weeks earlier and much larger than the celebrated Italian, besides being sweeter than the French. A branch of an Italian tree had 11 prunes on three inches of wood.

George Strickland, who has been principal of the Macksburg school for the past two years, has been confounded by the bitter tongue of scandal-mongers with George W. Stricklin, who, as far as is known, is a fugitive from justice.

Geo. W. Stricklin filed his complaint March 15th for a divorce, the same day Geo. Strickland, who has never been a benedict, closed his term of school at Macksburg. Geo. W. Stricklin received his divorce April 26th, and Geo. Strickland taught school that day in district 18.

On the 28th of April Geo. W. Stricklin stole a team and a girl near Silverton, while Geo. Strickland was visiting J. W. Smith's family of Macksburg. He staid there for dinner that day, and in the evening rode in the wagon with the baseball nine of Macksburg to the district where he was teaching.

Brownell Wants It. According to the Sunday Oregonian George C. Brownell at the Woodmen picnic at Sandy Saturday announced himself as a candidate for re-election to the state senate. In the course of his address to the farmers Mr. Brownell declared himself as in favor of the initiative and referendum amendment to the constitution; the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people, and a reduction in tariffs sufficient to deprive trusts of their advantage. The Oregonian also published his speech in full with his picture on the first page.

The picnic was given by Gritty Camp, No. 539, W. O. W., in celebration of the harvest season, and in observance of the organization of the camp. The charter for the Woodmen camp at Sandy had just been received, and was displayed that day for the first time. Although many of the farmers are yet in the midst of their harvest work, a large number of them found time to take a half holiday and enjoy a day of pleasure with their families and neighbors. A good sized crowd was assembled in the beautiful grove at Sandy early in the day, and the number of picnickers increased during the afternoon and evening, when the event closed with a dance in the public hall.

The exercises of the day were ably presided over by E. F. Bruns, consul commander of Gritty Camp. The Aimes brass band and the Aimes glee club furnished several numbers of very excellent music. The chief event of the day was the oration delivered by State Senator George C. Brownell, of Clackamas county, who spoke in response to an invitation from the members of the Woodmen camp.

Beside Brownell, Surveyor General Henry Meldrum and Mayor G. B. Dimick, of Oregon City, were present.

Question Answered. Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac at George A. Harding's.
