The Willamette baseball team defeated the Ramblers Sunday afternoon at Willamette Falls park by a score of 14 to 4. Reed of the Ramblers was touched up rather lively, while Calif, for the home team, held the visitors down to a few scattering hits. Owing to the soggy condition of the field the errors were many. The batteries were as follows: Willamettes, Calif and Boylan; Ramblers, Reed and Slavin.

A. J. Sawtell, the pioneer teasel grower of the Pacific coast, who died at his home near Molalla last week, was born in England in 1839. He had resided in Clackamas county since 1859. In 1860 he sowed the first teasel seed in the West. His experiment proved a success and he had continued in the business for 41 years. Mr. Sawtell was married March 23, 1860, to Miss Eliza E. While digging the hole for the filter plant Thos. Chamberlain found an Indian stone pestle about 20 inches long, with a hawk's head carved on one end. This, with another with a squirrel's head on, were found eight or ten feet under ground, on bed rock, which shows that once upon a time there was no soil on this side of the river below the falls, and what there is here now has been washed on since pestle was lodged there.

Potato growers are beginning to realize that they will not have a full crop this year, the yield being only about 100 sacks to the acre. The good prices they are getting, however, make compensation for the shortage of crops. Digging has begun, the high prices being an inducement, and heavy shipments are being made. Probably not more than one-third as many will be put away this fall as usual, which will tend to keep prices up.

The Courier-Herald considers the following letter from a subscriber, who advertised sheep to be let on shares, a splendid testimonial as to the paper's value as an advertising medium. The letter reads: "Editor Courier-Herald: For goodness' sake, stop that sheep advertisement at once. It has raised parties from the other side of the world." If you want to stir up things, and find buyers for what you have to sell, put an ad in the Courier-Herald.

Fourteen noted writers were sent by the Cosmopolitan Magazine to the Pan-American Exposition to study the most interesting features with a view to preparing the most beautiful souvenir of any exposition ever made, from both a literary and an artistic standpoint. To "Mr. Dooley" was committed the case of the Midway. Judge Robert Grant went from Boston to give a bird's eye view of the Exposition in his own most delightful style. Albert Shaw and Nicholas Murray Butler studied the value of the Exposition, and its educational influence. Charles Y. Turner, to whom was committed the color-scheme of the Pan-American, explains the methods by which he has produced such marvelous results. Arthur Brisbane, in his own incomparable way, takes the Incubator Baby and Niagara Falls for his subject. Director General Buchanan contributes a very interesting paper on the organization of the Exposition. Professor Pupin, Col. David Porter Heap, Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Lavinia Hart, Julian Hawthorne and John Brisbane Walker are among others who consider the various phases of the Exposition.

The Carnival will afford a whole month of pleasure and interesting instruction. The railroads and steamboats are going to carry people to and from the Carnival at one and one-third fare for the round trip, and their excursion tickets will be good for 7 days. There will not be a dull moment at the Carnival; some sort of entertainment will be going on all the time, afternoon and evening, with two full military bands discoursing music. The array of attractions will be unsurpassed, and the Carnival will last a month.

At its meeting, Saturday, Maple Lane Grange came to the conclusion to give two basket socials, after hop picking, for the purpose of raising some of the funds necessary to erect a hall on the half acre which the grange will buy from Mr. Beard. The lady members have taken hold of the matter in good earnest, and no doubt their enthusiasm will be the means of collecting the needed money.

Seven Come Eleven.

The story is told of an Oregon City sport who went fishing in the Willamette river, and caught a fine salmon trout. Overjoyed at his luck, he couldn't wait until he got home to tell his wife, but went to the telephone office and sent her the following message: "I've got one. Weighs seven pounds, and it is a beauty." In reply came the following sent by his wife: "So have I. Weighs eleven pounds. He isn't a beauty; looks like you."

The Pacific Monthly.

The August number of the Pacific Monthly is the best number of that magazine ever issued. It has made a new departure in that it has adopted the plan of having many illustrations, the most popular feature of magazines nowadays. The articles, too, are of exceptional interest. They combine the local and the world-wide in such a degree as to challenge the interest of all people in this section.

The leading article is a reminiscent sketch of the poets and philosophers who lived in Concord, Massachusetts, the middle of the last century. It is by Wallace Brainard Conant, who has been a resident of Concord, and who writes from personal and familiar knowledge of that historic old town, its history and its famous people. The sketch is profusely illustrated with fine half-tones of the places famous in Revolutionary history, centering in the Concord fight, April 19, 1775.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac at George A. Harding's.
