Watch Our Watches

A Watch is not bought the same as other merchandise. When you purchase a suit of clothes or a pair of shoes you can usually tell what it is, but when you invest your money in a watch you have to depend entirely on the dealer.

Dealing in Watches and repairing has been our business for over twenty years. We have made it a specialty. We know all about Watches and their value. When we buy our watches from the factories, we buy them right and we sell them again we know what we can recommend to our customers. For this reason we guarantee to give satisfaction.

At present we have a large assortment of BOSS FILLED WATCHES, they are of the very latest designs and we are offering them at a reasonable price. If you have been thinking about purchasing one we would like to have you look over our stock. We know that they will please you. We have them in all grades and all sizes.

We have a SPECIAL OFFER for those who would like to own a high grade time-piece and can not afford to pay for it all at one time. We will sell watches on the installment plan. You make a payment when you buy the watch and pay the balance in weekly or monthly payments. We would be pleased to explain this method to you.

David Canfield and family now occupy the T. S. Lawrence property on Monroe street, which they recently purchased. Mr. Lawrence has been granted a permit to build two cottages in addition to the one now occupied by the family in Portland.

J. W. Lowery, who owns a hop yard on the Abernethy, near town, has picked his hops. The yield was short, but he had the same quantity as last year on account of some new vines that came into bearing. He will bale his product at once and await market developments.

W. G. Beattie returned the first of the week from a visit to Eugene, and left Wednesday for Fort Wrangel, Alaska, where he has accepted a government position as teacher. Seth Leavens, recently of Marshfield, who succeeds him as general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has entered on the work with a zest, and will produce definite results.

S. A. D. Hungate has completed his surveying contract of 10 sections, in Malheur county, and returned home. The following members of the crew returned with him: Graham Hungate, V. P. Fry, Martin Boyles, Gus Kleitch, Joe Ringo, Henry Cooke and Sam Cuyler. The most of the land surveyed is sage brush upland, and but little of it can be irrigated. The greatest inconvenience experienced was the scarcity of water.

F. S. L. Bagby, of the sawmill firm of Bagby & Hein, of Needy, was in Saturday. He reported the sawmill running at its full capacity and cutting 20,000 feet daily. They are still 250,000 feet behind in filling their orders, as fast at this time there is a great demand for lumber. They have contracts for supplying several Clackamas and Marion county bridges, and farmers in that section of the county are building more than ever before.

Harley Wishart is cleaning up the old Wishart corner on upper Seventh street, evidently with the intention of putting in the foundation for a building.

I have $800 to $2,000 to invest in a farm. Anyone having a farm to sell, will please address me with full particulars. James C. Felton, Oregon City.

On Tuesday J. A. Jones, of the Abernethy, left at this office a bunch of 18 prunes on three inches of stem. They are of the petite variety and of the usual size.

Several cases of typhoid fever are reported in this vicinity. Among them are Ben Preston, of near Linn's Mill, and Forest DeLashmunt, of West Oregon City.

D. G. Frost is pushing the construction work on O. D. Story's elegant, new six room cottage on the hill, opposite the public square. The new cottage will be an elegant structure, complete in all its appointments.

Miss Edna Rugg, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. L. Rugg, of Urbana, Ill., was recently married to George David Hubbard. Rev. Rugg was for several years, pastor of the First Baptist church here, and he and his family were held in the highest esteem.

Corvallis is to have the "Irish Duke" play, under the direction of Professor P. M. Smith and under the business management of Postmaster Johnson. The play has been put on the boards in many Oregon towns, since it was first presented here.

Street Commissioner John Green is bridging a place on Jackson street, where a contractor did some defective work a few days ago by a contractor on account of a culvert. A 6 foot walk also is being constructed for the benefit of school children.

Many hop pickers are already returning from the yards, having completed their work for the season. Pickers did not make as much money as in former seasons, for the reason that they were smaller and fewer on the vines. The quality of the hop, however, was good.

Louis Moulton, a brother of Mrs. G. W. Montague of this county, returned from Manila in July and made a visit with his sister. He was a member of the hospital corps, 3rd United States Infantry, and was in the Philippines nearly three years.—Arlington Record. Mr. Moulton was visiting other relatives here a few weeks ago.

Boss Swibauer, of Southern Pacific section No. 17 and some of his Japs had a narrow escape from death last Friday. Knowing that no regular freight was due, they were coming into Woodburn on a handcar from the north, when an unexpected extra freight came from the south, dashed by Woodburn station, and was stopped just in time to save those on the handcar. Had the latter been on a curve a fatal accident could not have been avoided.—Woodburn Independent. Mr. Swibauer is a son of Section Boss Swibauer, of the Parkplace section.

"Drain News" in the Roseburg Review, has the following items in reference to Clackamas county people: Mrs. O. E. Streyfeller, whose husband was pastor of the M. E. church here last year, and who died at Santa Anna, Calif., last July, arrived here from there last Saturday, and visited friends until Sunday evening when she went on to Oregon City, where she will make her home with her parents. Grand Secretary E. E. Sharon and Grand Patriarch T. F. Ryan, of the I. O. O. F., made Mountain Lodge a fraternal visit last Saturday evening.

The county board of commissioners made a show of economy last Saturday in pretending to cut down deputies in several of the offices, the order to take effect October 1st. Under the new order the assessor will have two deputies, whereas he only has one deputy now, the other employees only being clerks. The order provides that the sheriff and clerk shall each have one deputy only—that is the number they already have, other special employees only being clerks. According to the wording of the order, it does not mean much, as nothing is said about lopping off necessary clerk hire.

Mrs. Titus, a well known aged Indian woman, aged 95, died at her home in the Indian quarter on the hill last Friday. The funeral occurred Saturday, and was well attended by the local Indian population. Mrs. Clark was one of the remnants of the Wasco tribe, and came to Oregon City at a very early day, finally marrying Titus Clark, who came around the horn by steamer. Clark was a Negro cook, and conducted a restaurant on Main street. His reputation was such as a chef, that he was occasionally called to Portland when balls or banquets were given. Clark died about 25 years ago. Mrs. Clark lived to be almost 100 years old, surrounded by her children and grandchildren.

H. E. Lounsbury, traveling freight agent of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, was in Oregon City Monday, interviewing many citizens in reference to a county exhibit at the coming Portland carnival. As a result, Mayor Dimick and other citizens of Oregon City and Clackamas county are taking an active interest in the matter and an earnest effort will be made to have a large and creditable exhibit at the forthcoming carnival. This county has the best materials for making a varied display of any in the state. It is the only section of the northwest producing teasels, used in the Eastern woolen mills for raising the nap on woolen goods. A variety of tea is grown and cured by a resident of New Era precinct, of extraordinary quality. Farmers, who have choice products, can properly label them with name of article and name of grower, and deliver to Earl Hoopengartner, depot agent, who will forward them to their destination without cost.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac at George A. Harding's.
