

Removal Sale GOLDEN RULE BAZAAR

Opposite Bank of Oregon City

Bargains for Ladies

Good Black Stockings.... 9c
Wool Fascinators, all colors 25c
O. N. T. Thread; 6 spools. 25c
Good Heavy Muslin, yd. 5c
Cotton Batting..... 5c
Outing Flannel Night G's 69c
Fleece Lined Underwear. 25c
Good Tam-o-Shanters.... 50c
$1.50 and $1.75 Wrappers 1.00
The "Percy" Kid Glove, pr 1.00
Large Towels..... 8c
Outing Flannel, yd..... 5c
Handkerchiefs, colored border 3c
Saxony Yarn, all colors... 5c

Special Sale of Glass and China Ware

Wool Hats, black..... 45c
Good Cotton Socks, pr.... 4c
Heavy Sweaters, Colors... 45c
Soft Bosom Golf Shirts... 58c
Odds and ends in Underw'r 25c
Fancy Half Hose, pr..... 10c
Hemstitched Handkerchiefs 6c
Flannel Night Shirts.... 75c
Heavy Fleece Lined Underwear..... 50c
William's Shaving Soap... 5c
Latest Silk Neck Ties.... 19c
The "Standard" White Shirts..... 69c

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. J. Wilson has gone to Albany on a hunting trip.
Frank Winslow, of Milk Creek, was in town Tuesday.
Jacob Gerber, of Logan, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.
W. H. Lennon, a well known Monitor farmer, was in town Tuesday.
J. B. Jackson, the well known Molalla pioneer, was in town Tuesday.
Mrs. Dr. John Welch, of Portland, visited Mrs. Kate L. Newton Tuesday.
Miss Ida Green, of Long Creek, Grant county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. J. Boen.
W. D. Fennell, of Independence, was visiting friends in the city during the week.
J. D. Nimon expects to leave this week for a fishing trip to the Tillamook coast.
Justice W. W. Jesse, of Barlow, was in the city Tuesday with a load of tomatoes.
The Misses Kate and Mary Dolan, of Portland, visited friends in this city Sunday.
M. J. Sanders, of the asylum farm at Salem, was visiting old friends in Oregon City Sunday.
Postmaster Mather, Alex Thomson and Frank Bailey, of Clackamas, were in Oregon City Tuesday.
E. W. Jones, of Canby, was in Oregon City Tuesday, and reported that potatoes were fully a half crop.
John Gleason returned from Eastern Oregon last Sunday, where he has been buying wool for the woolen mills.
A. V. Davis, of Marquam, was in the city Tuesday on his way home from an extended trip through Washington.
City Treasurer Linn Jones will leave in a few days for New Whatcom, Wash., where he has purchased a drug store.
Mrs. F. J. Fellows, of Portland, and Mrs. Fred Bowen, of Knappton, Mont., visited Mrs. J. A. McGlashan, the first of the week.
J. A. Scott, of Highland, who has been logging in Polk county for several months past, returned home Tuesday for the winter.

Mrs. Clarence Rands and children of Palouse City, Wash., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ware and other relatives.
John Heft, Henry Staben and Fred Matheson, of Highland, were in town Tuesday. The potato crop is reported to be fairly good in that section.
Harry Greaves and T. F. Johnson returned Sunday from an extended visit through Eastern Oregon, and are now at their respective homes at Belton.
J. T. Drake and W. W. Doores, of Marquam, were in the city Tuesday, and reported brilliant prospects for the Butte Creek fair, which begins today.
Mrs. Jessie Thayer, of Chariton, Iowa, visited Mrs. George C. Brownell last Sunday. She was on her way to San Francisco to attend the Episcopal convention.
Sidney Smyth escorted a party of Seattle and Portland people to the Molalla hunting grounds. Among the members of the party was the city attorney of Seattle.
H. L. Kelly left Sunday night for San Francisco to attend the Episcopal convention as a lay delegate from the diocese of Oregon. He will probably be away for a couple of weeks.
George Himler reports some good catches of trout in the Clackamas river and Eagle Creek. About the 15th instant, he will resume his old place with the Southern Pacific as a brakeman.
E. B. Andrews has secured a job of carpentry work on the Stevens-Howell building, since his return from Seattle. The family are occupying their old home in Falls View addition. Forest Andrews and family have decided to remain in Seattle, and are building a home there.
J. A. McGlashan this week received a letter from his father, Thomas McGlashan, who is on his way home from a visit to Scotland. The letter was dated at Minneapolis, where Mr. McGlashan will visit for a few days before returning to Oregon City. He had not seen his old home in Scotland for 42 years, and left here a few months ago to make the trip. He wrote that he had a delightful visit and enjoyed the trip immensely.

George Ogle was in from Molalla Tuesday and Wednesday.
J. O. Brown, of Viola, was a visitor in the city Wednesday.
Barton Jack went to Marquam yesterday to attend the Butte Creek fair.
William Hornshuh has been confined to home with illness for several weeks past.

Mrs. Herbert Poppleton, of Portland, was in the city Wednesday visiting friends.

J. W. Loder will go to The Dalles on a short business trip the latter part of this week.

Charles Mautz and family, of Portland, visited their farm at Maple Lane Wednesday.

A. B. Marquam and Bert Garrett, of Marquam, were visitors in the city Wednesday.

E. E. Mott, of Canby, was in town yesterday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Mott.

Ex-County Clerk Elmer Dixon is reported to be slowly improving from his recent illness.

A. W. Phillips returned yesterday from a successful bird shoot in the vicinity of Wilsonville.

E. P. Dedman is officiating as chief in the county recorder's office, during the absence of Recorder Randall.

Ed Morgan, of Viola, is hauling his hay to town this week, for which he is receiving $8 and $8 50 per ton.

Mrs. Lena Wicks was expected to arrive today from San Francisco on a visit to her sisters, the Misses Goldsmith.

J. B. Labor, who is a traveling solicitor for the San Francisco Call visited his family at Canemah this week.

P. Koos, accompanied by Mr. Breesen, of Parkplace, returned yesterday from a successful hunting trip up the valley.

John and Henry Baker, William Scott and Read Supervisor Neal Heater, of Pleasant Hill precinct, were in the city Wednesday.

W. L. Starkweather, who is now one of the letter carriers for the Portland postoffice, was up from Risley's yesterday, and went to Canby.

Louis Griffith and Eugene McMahon, of Salem, accompanied their aunt, Mrs. Robert A. Miller home from the state fair, and are her guests for a week.

J. W. Staubinger, who has lived on the W. H. Pope place in Clackamas precinct for the past three years, moved out to his own place, near Meadowbrook Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McKittrick have leased the Howell dwelling at Williamette Falls for a year, and will take possession soon. It is an elegantly appointed residence.

Dr. A. L. Beatie and family have arrived from Pendleton, and are occupying the Athey house on Adams street. He is now associated with his brother, Dr. R. B. Beatie in the dental business.

Will Hodgkin, who has been visiting his father, F. E. Hodgkin, during the fall vacation, started on his return trip to San Francisco Wednesday night. Miss Hodgkin was up from Portland to see her brother off.

H. C. Githens, who has heretofore been located on a farm in Harding precinct, has leased the Matthias place, near Clackamas Heights, and his postoffice address will be Oregon City.

Rea Norris, who is a member of the Eugene militia company, was with the homebound members of the company Tuesday night. They had carried off some of the honors at the carnival in Portland.

J. King, a brother-in-law of C. E. Stewart, of Canby, went to Forest Grove Wednesday, to take a look at the country in that section. Mr. King recently from Dakota with his family, and contemplates locating here.

State Senator Brownell has received word from United States Senator John H. Mitchell, that he expects to return home about October 15th. The latter is now in the East, having recently returned from France.

Miss Myrtle Williams, who has charge of one of the wards at the state insane asylum at Salem, and A. H. Williams and wife, attaches of the Chemawa Indian school, are visiting their parents, Assessor and Mrs. Eli Williams.

Ed Harrington and family, of Highland, were in town yesterday on their way to Portland, to attend the carnival. Mr. Harrington stated that farmers in his section were already plowing and sowing grain, the ground being in excellent condition.

Albert Wright and wife, of Heppner, Morrow county, are visiting old friends in this county. In 1858, Mr. Wright took up a donation land claim at Redland, but moved near Heppner, about 30 years ago. He sold the last of his Redland donation land claim a few months ago.

Harvey Ball, of Meadowbrook, was in Oregon City Wednesday, and stated that the Pendleton-Looey wedding, was the occasion of a notable chavari. Hal and George Ball and Dell Trullinger have returned from a prospecting tour of the Red Rock Mountain mines, and discovered very favorable indications.

Hon. Thomas Buckman, of Marshfield, Coos county, has been in Clackamas county for several days, visiting old friends and looking after business matters. Mr. Buckman formerly lived across the river from the Shank place in Canby precinct. He was a populist member of the hold-up legislature from Coos county.

George Schmidt, of Shubel, was in town yesterday, and stated that he was too busy with his potato crop to take his fine sheep to the Marquam fair this year. Mr. Schmidt has eight acres in potatoes, and they are yielding fairly well. He has already sold 130 sacks at the rate of $1 per sack. He expects to have 250 or 300 sacks more.

Mrs. John Roth and her daughter, Miss Anna, were down from Canby Wednesday. The latter is a government nurse, and is home from Tain Tain, China, on three months sick leave. She was first stationed at Manila, from where she was transferred to Tain Tain, where she remained during the siege and up to the time she started for home. Miss Roth has passed through some exciting experiences for a Clackamas county girl, and is possessed of genuine grit. Two of the Roth boys are in the army service in the Philippines. The family are patriotic and three copies of the Courier-Herald are taken by different members of the

SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS

$600 TO BE GIVEN AWAY $600

Two years ago we distributed the above amount among our customers. The experiment was such a great success, we have concluded to repeat it this year. In other words, we will share some of our profits with our customers.

This Is the Way We Do It

Commencing MONDAY morning, we will GIVE AWAY with each tenth MEN'S SUIT that we sell, A TEN DOLLAR BILL. And with each tenth BOY'S or CHILD'S SUIT sold, a Five Dollar Bill. By this means every tenth customer will receive a suit practically for nothing. Our friends will remember the long list of persons who received more than the amount of their purchase from us last year.

The Bills Are on Exhibition in Our Windows

WHEN YOU SEE IT IN OUR AD IT'S SO

$600 TO BE GIVEN AWAY $600

Moyer Clothing Company

Third and Oak Sts., Portland, Oregon

family. Miss Roth was very ill with the fever before she left China.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Born, in this June 28th, to J. C. Elkins and wife, a boy.

The county board of commissioners is in regular monthly session.

W. A. White is building the addition to the Fairclough Bros. commission house.

Thomas Wike, et al., have filed a foreclosure suit against Arthur Orr, et al. in the circuit court.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McKilican on Sunday, September 29th, a girl. Weight 9 1/2 pounds.

Thieves broke into Charles A. Fitch's house at Chehalis, the other night, and stole some money and other articles.

Kind, motherly woman wishes to take care of child at her home. References exchanged. Inquire of Courier-Herald.

Interesting and well attended revival services are being held at the Baptist church, under the auspices of George Robert Carns, the noted evangelist.

G. H. Rogers, recently of Jackson county, has opened a dry goods and furnishing goods establishment in the shively building on upper Seventh street.

G. H. Young has sold his furniture establishment to A. Tolpalar, recently of Portland. Mr. Young will move to Eastern Oregon, where he expects to engage in business.

Wagon wheat is now quoted at 49 cents per bushel in the local market, oats 27 and 30, hay $8 to $8 1/2 per ton, eggs 22 1/2 to 25 cents per dozen, butter 30 to 50 cents per pound.

Frank Schoenborn, has purchased William Hornshuh's interest in Hornshuh Bros. upper Seventh street grocery, and the business is now carried on by the former and Fred Hornshuh.

William Pelky, aged 19, of Molalla, accidentally discharged a revolver Monday, the bullet passing through the calf of the right leg. The boy was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital.

A little child of M. L. Pratt, of New Era precinct, accidentally swallowed some carbolic acid Monday. Dr. Norris was called, but the case did not prove so serious as was at first anticipated.

It is a delightful ride on the river these sunshiny days. Last Sunday the Leona made the trip down to Portland in one hour, and returned in one and a half hours notwithstanding the low stage of water at the Clackamas rapids.

Dr. M. C. Strickland received an imported fox terrier pup, 7 months old, from Virginia, a few days ago. On last Sunday the thoroughbred pup disappeared. The doctor will give a reward of $5 for the return of the pup and no questions asked.

A social will be given at the Congregational church Friday evening, October 4th. Admission, 10 cents. After the program refreshments will be served without additional cost. All who are interested are invited to be present and enjoy a social evening.

At the regular meeting of the city council held Wednesday night, the chief of police was ordered to have all slot machines removed within 24 hours. Front street was ordered opened through Green Point addition. The matter of improving Fifth street was laid over until the next meeting.

The grand opening of educational and Bible classes will be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Monday evening, October 7th. A special program will be presented, and all are invited to attend.

The Sunday afternoon meeting for October 6th will take the form of a Bible study rally. All men are invited.

The editor of this paper strongly endorses the action of General Charles H. Grosvenor, in requiring a certain share of the proceeds from the sale of his book to be set aside for a McKinley Monument fund. Our readers will see an advertisement of this book in another column of this paper.

The receipts in the county recorder's office for September shows a remarkable increase in the volume of real estate business. The receipts were $195 80; for August $167 65. For September last year, $153 65; for August last year, $131 50. The increase in fees now makes the clerk's office self-sustaining.

Mrs. Julia A. Cole, late of Sumpter, has purchased the Racket Store from Mrs. E. F. Martin. Mrs. Cole expects soon to be joined by her son and the firm name will be Cole & Son. Miss Clara Warner will continue as saleswoman in the store. E. Sadie White will return to Sumpter to look after her business interests and later will be joined by her mother, Mrs. Martin.

Among the Oregon City teachers, who began terms of school Monday, were: Miss May Andrews at Stone, Miss McMillan at Maple Lane, Miss Grace Miller at Liberal, Miss Lou Albee as primary teacher at Mount Pleasant. The principal of the latter school is Miss O. D. Bradford. Alex Thomson, of Clackamas Station, will begin a term of school at Hood View, three miles from Wilsonville, next Monday.

A conference of the Oregon synod of the German Lutheran church, was held at the church in this city on Jefferson street Wednesday. The following ministers and delegates were in attendance, with the official position they held in the conference: B. Mertz, president, Cleveland, Or.; Rev. E. Meyer, secretary, Oregon City; Franz Kraxberger, treasurer, Mackburg; Rev. W. O. Brenner, The Dalles; Rev. A. Schoenberg, Mackburg; Rev. Lena, of Portland. It was a very interesting and profitable session of the synod.

Continued from page 6.

For Sale—Two fresh milk cows. G. Eller, Wilsonville, Or.

SCHOOL BOOKS

We supply any book used in Clackamas County and allow the highest price in exchange. We will save you money.

To purchasers of school books we give Tablets, Pencils, and Rulers

FREE

CHARMAN & CO.

CUT PRICE DRUGGISTS
OREGON CITY OREGON

Wood's Sarsaparilla, $1 size, only 55c.

Family Receipts and Physicians' Prescriptions a specialty, at low prices.

Mail orders promptly attended to.

Closing Out Sale of Bicycle Sundries

To close out all our stock of Bicycle Sundries we offer everything in our large and complete stock at a reduction of 1/2 to 3/4 from regular prices. Everything goes and now is your chance to get a new pair of tires or a lamp for winter, a pump, a saddle, a handle bar, a new pair pedals, a carrier, a bell, or any of the other little necessities for your wheel.

Only stock on hand will be sold at these prices—first come, first served. Here are some sample prices; everything equally low:

Saddles.....	60c
Tires, each.....	25
Inner Tubes, each.....	75c
Foot Pumps.....	20c
Pedals, per pair.....	60c
Handle Bars.....	75c
Bells.....	10c
Cyclometer.....	50c
Tire Tape.....	2 for 5c
Toe Clips.....	12c
Chain Brush.....	20c
Luggage Carriers.....	10c
Lamps.....	65c

Huntley's Book Store

OREGON CITY, OREGON