

Conceded Unanimously By Experienced Purchasers

Of fine Dress Goods, Cloaks, Capes, Furs and Jackets, that we are leaders and will continue to give the best values and bargains of any dry goods house in the Northwest.

We place on sale several lines of the above goods, 58 and 60-inch goods, extra heavy, elegantly finished, suitable for fine tailor-made suits or separate skirts, at $1.00, $1.20, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $1.90, $2.25, $2.47, $2.73, $2.97, $3.25 and $3.73. Nearly all of the above goods are factory sponged and shrunk. Ladies, made no mistake; we have the stock to select from, and no fancy prices will be asked. Competition is the life of trade, and we are in a position to meet all competitors. In fact, we have no competitors when we touch the electric button in selling fine black imported dress goods. Reputation is what counts, honest goods and honest values. See us today on fine cloaks, furs, capes and jackets.

MAIL ORDERS RECEIVE PROMPT ATTENTION

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS
THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

R. Dundas, of New Era precinct, was in town Friday.

John Akins, the Liberal blacksmith, was in the city Friday.

Joe Burnett, the New Era logger, was in Oregon City Monday.

J. Oswald, of Molalla, was a visitor in Oregon City Monday.

William Tull, of Barlow, was a visitor in the city Monday.

M. D. Leabo and family, of Marquam, were visitors in the city Friday.

Mrs. Jake Wolfer, of Needy, was a visitor in the city Friday.

Gottfried Wallace and family, of Highland, were in town Saturday.

Mrs. A. W. Cooke, of Damascus, was in the city Saturday.

W. H. Bremer, a well known New Era farmer, was in town Saturday.

Mrs. G. B. Dimick returned Saturday from a visit to relatives at Needy.

James R. Marsh and family, of Molalla, were visitors in the city Saturday.

S. B. Johnson, the Damascus sawmill proprietor, was in Oregon City Friday.

Miss Lulu Traylor, who has been living with her grandfather, William Benson at Shubel for the past year, left Wednesday to join her mother at Drain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Covey, of Barlow, were visitors in Oregon City Monday.

Will Campau, of Needy, has returned to Mount Angel to resume his studies there.

J. W. Smith, a prominent Macksburg merchant, was in the city Saturday.

C. F. Baker and C. A. Cosseday, two well known Carus citizens, were in town Friday.

Dr. and Mrs. O. S. Seamann will occupy the Walker cottage on Washington street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tucker, of Springfield, were visitors in Oregon City Thursday.

C. W. Noblitt, of Needy, was a visitor in the city for two or three days, during the past week.

Frederick Peter, a well known resident of Barlow precinct, was in Oregon City Monday.

C. W. Wright went up the valley Monday morning on his annual bird-shooting trip.

A. Blumh, of Clarkes, was in town Monday, and places the potato yield at about half a crop.

Walter Noblitt, who now resides near Hubbard, has returned from trip to the Tillamook coast.

Mrs. Frank E. Weed went to Minnville Monday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Noll for a few days.

Miss Laura Wright, of Meadowbrook, visited Miss Madge Albee for several days during the week.

Councilman C. G. Huntley was among the crack bird shots that went up the valley Monday morning.

M. C. Hayward and family, formerly of Carus, are now living on the Duffy place on Molalla Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Prindle, who have been at Tacoma for several months past, returned home Saturday.

F. Y. Youmans, of Clackamas precinct, was in town Monday. He was a member of the last circuit court jury.

Mrs. H. J. Hesse, of Seattle, is visiting Mrs. W. M. Shauk. In their girlhood days they were schoolmates in the East.

Harvey Everhart, of Molalla, was in town Saturday, and reported that the new road over the Everhart hill was in excellent condition.

J. B. Moore, of Clackamas precinct, was in the city Monday, and expressed the opinion that the prune crop would all be saved.

M. O. Gard, of Highland, was in town Friday, and is highly gratified over the result of pea crop. The yield averaged 40 bushels to the acre.

F. E. Albright and family, of Marquam, have been visiting her mother, Mrs. M. E. Jack, and brothers, J. E. and Barton Jack.

Dr. W. E. Carll, president of the Oregon State Medical Society, did himself credit in the proceedings of that body, and was a prominent figure on all occasions.

L. Hale, of Currinsville, was in the city Sunday, and took out a teacher from Benton county for the school in his district. Her name was not learned.

Miss Nellie Younger returned Sunday from a visit to Miss Hattie Monroe, one of the teachers in the Portland schools. Miss Verdi Monroe is now one of the teachers in the Brooklyn school.

William R. Logus, who has been visiting his sisters, Mrs. Warner and Mrs. H. S. Moody for several weeks past, will return to his post of duty at Vancouver, B. C., during the coming week.

H. H. Kirchem, who was with Kinnaid's surveying party, returned home the latter part of last week, and will likely remain here or at Logan during the coming winter.

County Recorder Tom P. Randall and Undertaker R. L. Holman went out through the Molalla country Monday morning on a hunting trip intending to take in French Prairie before his return.

Mrs. J. S. Bishop, of Astoria, who had been visiting the family of Mrs. E. S. Bollinger, and attended the Congregational Association at The Dalles, returned home Friday, accompanied by her children.

Walter H. Johnson, who returned from Idaho a few days ago, left Randa Bros. at Harrison, that being near the location of their present work. They still have some work to do in the Pond d'Oreille country, Idaho.

J. M. Tracy went out home Sunday with the expectation of finishing two three days threshing, as the weather looked favorable. He has threshed about 35,000 bushels of grain this season. The machine has a self-feeder and blower attachment.

Fred Gerber came down from the state fair Saturday, very much elated that the Logan cheese factory had again carried off a complimentary premium over some formidable competitors.

Michael and Gottfried Moehns and their families, of Shubel, were visitors in the city Friday. The latter said his grain yielded too well this season, as it made his threshing bill come high.

M. B. Darnall, of Liberal, was in the city Saturday. He stated that many fine winter apples had been blown to the ground by the severe by the recent heavy winds.

Willie B. Howell left Monday to visit his uncle, George Willis for a week near Albany, and expects to have some rare sport shooting. He was accompanied by his uncle, George Howell, of Portland, accompanied him there.

Jacob Huber, of Logan, was in town Monday. He has been in very poor health for several months past, but is now considerably improved. Mr. Huber stated that the fall term of school began Monday in the North Logan district with Miss Hilda J. Olson as teacher.

T. J. Buford, ex-Indian agent at the Siletz Indian reservation, who has been visiting his son, J. W. Buford, and daughter, Miss Buford, will leave next week on an official trip. He is still connected with the Indian department. Mr. Buford is very favorably impressed with Oregon City as a residence location.

C. E. Gregory, the Carus teasel grower, and William Jones, were in town Friday. Although his acreage of teasels was larger than last year, the total yield was not greater, as the crop was a little short like that of hops. Mr. Gregory says that he will soon have five men at work trimming the teasels, which are now securely housed.

Hon. W. E. Grace, of Baker City, was visiting his brother, G. W. Grace, during the past week. He had just returned from an extended trip East, taking part in a Masonic convocation in New York City and visiting the Buffalo exposition. While at the latter place he met Mrs. William Galloway and daughter, Miss Zilpha. The latter was materially improving in health.

Forest Ranger Millard Hiatt, accompanied by his wife and son, who had been with him in the forest reserve for the past seven weeks, returned home last Saturday. This was quite an undertaking for a woman to make such a rough, mountainous trip, but Mrs. Hiatt withstood the rough riding remarkably well. Forest Ranger W. C. Ward lost one of his horses recently, the animal accidentally falling over a cliff.

Johnson & Lamb have a stock of ammunition and will load shells to order. Charman & Co. EXCHANGE SCHOOL BOOKS at Charman & Co.

Keyfitting and machine work at Johnson & Lamb's bicycle shop. Try 5 1/2 per cent money of C. O. T. Williams, if security is good.

For Sale—Sixty acres 1 1/2 miles west of Oregon City. Twenty-five acres in orchard—balance in second growth fir. Price to suit. Address Box 194, city.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

J. H. Turney gave one of his popular social dances at the armory Saturday night, which was well attended.

The Willamette Pulp & Paper Company is building a pier on the Willamette river bank, facing Putman's island.

Fred Heft, of Highland, made an average run of 1700 bushels a day with his thresher this season—an indication of a good grain yield and a good machine.

The Willamette Falls school began last Monday with Millard Hiatt as principal, and Miss Lizzie Shipley as teacher of the primary department.

Fairclough Brothers are building an L addition to their commission 30x66 feet. It will join the main building at the rear and have a frontage on Tenth street.

Messrs. Shank & Bisell shipped two car-loads of early potatoes to Mobile, Ala., a few days ago. The advance freight paid on the shipment was $647.50. It pays railroads to develop the resources of a country.

It is a fact not generally known that the first state fair was held at Oregon City in 1809, the State Agricultural Society having been organized at that time. Marion Wilkins and John Minto were the principal promoters of the state fair in early days.

The Company A drill team of Oregon City, made a fairly good record at the skirmin drill, held at the carnival last Saturday night. The shooting score stood as follows: Lieutenant H. L. Kelly, 14; Corporal N. Needham, 16; Captain G. W. Martin, 18; Corporal E. McFarland, 16; Private I. Parsifull, 12.

It is estimated by some of the growers in the neighborhood of New Era, that potatoes will not yield much more than one-half of an average crop. It is a good year for prunes, Herman Anthony will have an immense crop from his four-acre New Era orchard.

August Asmus and Fritz Weidler are mining green potter's clay at Parkplace for the Pacific Pottery Company, of Portland. The clay is covered by a stratum of about six feet of gravel, evidently water having first deposited the clay, then the gravel. This deposit of clay is extensive, and is valuable from a commercial point of view.

George Lazelle was awarded numerous premiums at the state fair on his herd of Polled Angus cattle, an indication that fine stock is coming to the front in Clackamas county. Mr. Lazelle and E. A. Hinkle were awarded total premiums of $315 on Red Polled Angus cattle.

The Humane Society are after a lot of people, who have been overloading their horses, with some sharp law sticks. As a result, some convictions may issue. Several complaints have been filed with the officers of the Humane Society recently, which are being thoroughly investigated.

The West Oregon City school is fairly under way with a better attendance than last year. The teachers are Professor T. J. Gary principal; grade teachers, Misses Jessie Humphreys, Bessie Grant and Florence Patty. Miss Maggie Goodfellow is teacher of the Bolton annex.

Mrs. Jane Frost, of Canemah, is having an elegant two-story dwelling built on her property in Canemah. It will be complete in all its appointments, up-to-date in every way. A. J. Maville and Mr. Hinz are the builders of the new structure. Mr. Maville has moved from Carus to Canemah, where he has purchased property. He will erect a house and barn for himself, when he completes the present contract.

Mrs. Sarah Faust, of Canemah, who died at the state insane asylum, was buried from the residence of her son, Samuel Faust, in Canemah last Saturday. The services at the house were conducted by Rev. J. H. Beaven, of the First Baptist church, and the interment was in the Canemah cemetery. The deceased was 64 years old, having lived several years longer than her husband. The deceased was a highly esteemed woman. Her mind became affected a year or two ago on account of illness, and she was sent to the asylum.

U. S. McHargue, the former Washington county school teacher, is proving a thorn in the sides of educational authorities and has figured somewhat in Clackamas county. McHargue was teaching the Reedville school, and while thus engaged was charged with kissing girl pupils. The matter was taken before the state board of education, and that body found him guilty. He secured a re-hearing on the ground that his certificate had expired when the findings were made. He was then refused an examination by the county superintendent of Washington county, and was also turned down by the Multnomah county superintendent. Superintendent Zinser didn't know anything about McHargue's kissing record, and he presented satisfactory credentials, and was granted a certificate. The Washington county superintendent refused to endorse the certificate, and was sustained by the attorney-general. The ex-teacher has now filed a suit in the circuit court to compel the Washington county superintendent to endorse his Clackamas county certificate.

Portland Presbytery Meets in the Oregon City Church.

Next Monday night the Portland Presbytery will begin the important fall session in the First Presbyterian church of Oregon City. Some important matters are to be considered, and the Presbytery will probably remain in session until Wednesday noon. The Portland Presbytery embraces six counties, Multnomah, Clackamas, Columbia, Clatsop, Washington and Tillamook counties. About 35 ministers and delegates will be in attendance, who will be guests of the local congregation. The sermon Monday evening will be preached by the retiring moderator, Rev. Mr. Wright, of Sellwood. After this service a new moderator will be elected. This will be the most important gathering that has been held in Oregon City for many months past, and some very able clergymen, will be in attendance. This Presbytery has heretofore held its sessions in Portland.

Johnson & Lamb are prepared to recover, repair and make to order umbrellas.

Try the new candy kitchen opposite Barlow's grocery.

Watch Our Watches

A Watch is not bought the same as other merchandise. When you purchase a suit of clothes or a pair of shoes you can usually tell what it is, but when you invest your money in a watch you have to depend entirely on the dealer.

Dealing in Watches and repairing has been our business for over twenty years. We have made it a specialty. We know all about Watches and their value. When we buy our watches from the factories, we buy them right and we sell them again we know what we can recommend to our customers. For this reason we guarantee to give satisfaction.

At present we have a large assortment of BOSS FILLED WATCHES, they are of the very latest designs and we are offering them at a reasonable price. If you have been thinking about purchasing one we would like to have you look over our stock. We know that they will please you. We have them in all grades and all sizes.

We have a SPECIAL OFFER for those who would like to own a high grade time-piece and can not afford to pay for it all at one time. We will sell watches on the installment plan. You make a payment when you buy the watch and pay the balance in weekly or monthly payments. We would be pleased to explain this method to you.

Burmeister & Andresen

The Oregon City Jewellers

