

Removal Sale GOLDEN RULE BAZAAR

Opposite Bank of Oregon City

Bargains for Ladies

- Good Black Stockings... 9c
- Wool Fascinators, all colors 25c
- O. N. T. Thread; 6 spools. 25c
- Good Heavy Muslin, yd... 5c
- Cotton Batting... 5c
- Outing Flannel Night G'ns 69c
- Fleeced Lined Underwear. 25c
- Good Tam-o-Shanters... 50c
- $1.50 and $1.75 Wrappers 1.00
- The "Percy" Kid Glove, pr 1.00
- Large Towels... 8c
- Outing Flannel, yd... 5c
- Handk'ch's, colored border 3c
- Saxony Yarn, all colors... 5c

Special Sale of Glass and China Ware

- Wool Hats, black... 45c
- Good Cotton Socks, pr... 4c
- Heavy Sweaters, Colors... 45c
- Soft Bosom Golf Shirts... 58c
- Odds and end in Underw'r 25c
- Fancy Half Hose, pr... 10c
- Hemstitched Handkerchiefs 6c
- Flannel Night Shirts... 75c
- Heavy Fleeced Lined Underwear... 50c
- William's Shaving Soap... 5c
- Latest Silk Neck Ties... 19c
- The "Standard" White Shirts... 69c

Bargains for Men

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

A. F. Morey, of Liberal, was in town yesterday.

Mrs. E. F. Martin will make a short visit to Iowa.

J. T. Evans, of Mulino, was in Oregon City Friday last.

Mayor C. N. Wait, of Canby, was in town Wednesday.

John H. Wright, of Colton, was in the city during the week.

M. V. Thomas, of Bullrun, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. W. E. Roake and child are visiting her mother in Portland.

J. Henry Bottemiller, of Oak Grove, was in the city Wednesday.

J. J. Johnson, a prominent resident of Oswego, was in town Monday.

T. L. Turner, of Stafford, was in town Tuesday on his way to Eagle Creek.

A. Lacy, the Springwater sawmill proprietor, was in town Wednesday.

W. A. Mills, of Clackamas Station, was a visitor in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mrs. M. Huerth and sister, of New Era precinct, were in town Wednesday.

F. D. Sturges, of Molalla, was in town yesterday.

William Moore, the well known stock buyer, was down from Amity yesterday.

Mart Robbins, the horse man from Marquam precinct, was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. T. L. Charman and son are visiting her mother, Mrs. J. G. Bonnett at Milwaukie.

G. C. Armstrong, of Reiland, attended the meeting of the Presbytery here this week.

Martin Boyles, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Friday. He is now in the employ of Robbins' store.

Colonel John McCracken, of Portland, was visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pratt Wednesday.

J. W. Bennett, of Clackamas precinct, was in town yesterday. He is recovering from a recent sick spell.

L. W. Ingram was on the street this week, having recovered from a severe attack of uric acid poisoning.

W. B. Partlow, the Mount Pleasant pioneer, has been confined to his home with sickness for several days past.

Lee Rogers, wife and child, who were visiting relatives in this county, left Friday for their home at Gold Brr, Wash.

Mrs. B. F. Swope was taken from Toledo yesterday to a Portland hospital, where she will undergo a surgical operation.

Asa Stacy, of Stacyville, Iowa, was visiting his uncle, A. E. Donaldson, and W. A. White and family during the past week.

J. G. Pillsbury, who is now connected with the Portland flouring mills in Portland, is spending a few days at home.

T. L. Charman and S. S. Mohler are spending a few days in the vicinity of the upper Clackamas hot springs and Elk lake.

J. J. Yoder, son of Jonathan Yoder, of Needy, was in the city Tuesday. The latter is pushing his new sawmill toward completion.

Roy Kelly is recovering from a severe attack of malarial fever, and expects to be able to resume his studies soon at the state university.

Postmaster W. J. Lewellen and daughter, of Springwater, were in town this week attending the meeting of the Portland Presbytery.

M. Olson, who arrived from Iowa last spring and purchased a farm, near Needy, was in the city Tuesday. He is well pleased with his new home.

Dee Wright is down from Huntington, and is now visiting in the vicinity of Molalla. He took a party of mining men out to Ogle Creek a few days ago.

J. Kenworthy and son arrived from Eastern Oregon, a few days ago, and is still in the city. Mr. Kenworthy was a well known restaurant man here a few years ago.

A. B. Marquam, of Marquam, was in the city during the week, and is making preparations to move to Elk Creek, Douglas county, where he has secured a stock ranch.

W. F. Guenther, of Shubel, was in the city Wednesday, and reported that the people of his section are busy digging

HOT TEA BISCUIT

Perfect, Delicious, Appetizing.

potatoes. The yield is good in that part of the country.

C. Zimmerman, of Aurora, was in town yesterday, and reported that a few hops had been sold at 10 and 11 cents per pound. He has 51 bales, but was advised by Henry Weinhard to hold on awhile before selling.

J. I. Kimball, of Reiland, was in Oregon City Saturday. He was accompanied by Alfred Wright, of Heppner, who has since returned home accompanied by his wife, having wound up his land affairs here.

Joe Knowland, who was working in his father's tailor shop for several weeks past, has returned to Seattle. David Knowland has arrived from Sacramento, Calif., and will reside with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Knowland.

Mrs. E. C. Maddock and her daughter, Miss Gussie are still near Denver, Idaho. The former is improving in health, and the latter is teaching school, she having passed a county examination with an average percentage of 93.5-6.

William Boring, of Borings, was in town yesterday, and reports having threshed three and a half acres of oats that averaged 92 3/4 bushels per acre. This is the best yield of oats yet reported. They are of the black variety.

Miss Mae Case returned yesterday from Alaska, where she was greeted with enthusiastic audiences at several musical concerts. She was accompanied home by her sister, Miss Minnie, who has been in Alaska for the past year or two.

Mrs. Dan Lyons received a telegram from Mr. Lyons yesterday, stating that the big tunnel at Aspen, Wyoming, was completed on the 8th instant. Mr. Lyons has been superintending construction work on this tunnel for the past two or three years. He is now expected home soon.

J. B. Robinson, of Sacramento, Calif., visited his mother-in-law, Mrs. Fannie L. Cochran yesterday. He was with a party of Southern Pacific inspectors from California, who were going over the company's rail road lines in Oregon. They were making the trip on a special train of Pullman cars.

E. F. Capps, of Clackamas precinct, was in Oregon City Wednesday, and announced his intention of leaving soon for Phoenix, Arizona, for the benefit of his health. He will have an auction sale of his personal property on October 26th, at his place one mile southeast of Clackamas Station.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery left last night for Baker City, where he will attend the annual session of the Oregon synod of the Presbyterian church. During his absence over Sunday there will be no preaching services in the Presbyterian church, but the Sunday-school and Endeavor Society will meet as usual.

Harvey Bissell, of Canby, was in town Tuesday, and reported that the prunegrowers were all through drying their crop, and are now grading the dried prunes. The Canby city council has granted the two saloon proprietors, John Cook and J. N. Hillegas licenses for another term. Corvan Fisher, who was in the volunteer service in the Philippines, has enlisted in the regular service, and will leave for Manila next week to begin his duties as a soldier.

A. M. Shibley, of Springwater, was in the city this week attending the Presbytery, and succeeded in securing a supply for their church. Rev. Soper, who was ministering to the wants of the congregation there, accepted a call to go to Portland, and they have been without a preacher for some time past. Rev. Hatch, of Columbia county, has been secured to supply the Springwater church for the remainder of Rev. Soper's time, which would have been the 1st of next April.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Go to Racket Store for bargains.

New hats arriving daily at Miss Goldsmith's.

The social items and school notes are on the first page of this paper.

The latest novelties in millinery and prices the best. Miss Goldsmith.

The Racket Store will give away a sewing machine Christmas. Chance with every 10-cent purchase.

Velvet hats in all the latest shapes and prices moderate. Miss Goldsmith.

A grand ball will be given in the new Beaver Creek hall on October 25th, and all are invited to attend.

Children's hats and bonnets at Miss Goldsmith's.

Lost—About Sept. 1st, near Aurora, a good black cape. Finder leave at Courier-Herald office.

E. S. Cheney, formerly of Oregon City, was married last week in Oakland, Calif., to a Miss Lamb.

Maple Lane Grange will give another pie social at the Maple Lane school house on Saturday evening, Oct. 19th.

E. F. Capps will sell at a public sale on Saturday, Oct. 26, at his place one mile southeast of Clackamas, his personal property.

SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS

$600 TO BE GIVEN AWAY $600

Two years ago we distributed the above amount among our customers. The experiment was such a great success, we have concluded to repeat it this year. In other words, we will share some of our profits with our customers.

This Is the Way We Do It

Commencing MONDAY morning, we will GIVE AWAY with each tenth MEN'S SUIT that we sell, A TEN DOLLAR BILL. And with each tenth BOY'S or CHILD'S SUIT sold, a Five Dollar Bill. By this means every tenth customer will receive a suit practically for nothing. Our friends will remember the long list of persons who received more than the amount of their purchase from us last year.

The Bills Are on Exhibition in Our Windows

WHEN YOU SEE IT IN OUR AD IT'S SO

$600 TO BE GIVEN AWAY $600

Moyer Clothing Company

Third and Oak Sts., Portland, Oregon

Oswego grapes are becoming plentiful in the market, and O. Whitten and L. M. Davidson are supplying the grocery stores.

New suits filed in the circuit court are: William vs Julia Stralman W. vs Mary Stalnaker, divorce; W. Brown & Co. vs Leonard Heinz, on note.

Thomas J. Buford, report says, is to go on the road as a commercial traveler in a short time. His present headquarters is Oregon City.—Corvallis Times.

James F. Rait has purchased the entire interest in Cheney's art gallery. Misses Ethel and Edith Cheney will continue with the gallery as in the past.

Fred Raket's delivery team had a runaway exercise in his father's orchard at Canemah Tuesday morning, and fruit flew in every direction for a short time.

Baby bonnets a specialty. Miss Goldsmith.

It is rumored that Miss D. Lyle Lawrence, formerly of this city, was married to Mr. Clevenger, a druggist at Baker City. She has been a teacher in the public schools for some time past.

The Mother's Club meets Thursday with Mrs. Brownell. Subject for this week, "Proper Diet of Children." Mrs. Adams' subject last week was "Women of the Nineteenth Century."

C. L. Gruel, whose wife deserted him several months ago, this week recovered a sewing machine, that she did not take along. It was located at the home of the wife's sister, several miles out from town.

J. Jones, of Beaver Creek, is shipping a large quantity of baled hay by the steamer Leona to Portland. The Oregon City boats are handling considerable country produce, as well as city freight.

There will be a boxing contest at the Armory hall on Saturday, Oct. 19th, between Lewis Hall, of Oregon City, and "Kid" Smith, of Ashland. The admission will be $1, and including reserved seats will be $1.25.

Street Commissioner Green is having some repairs made on the banks of the creek, that runs through a part of the hill portion of the city. The embankment had caved in places to the injury of abutting property.

Russell Brothers have purchased the machinery for a new sawmill, which will be set up and completed at an early date on the John Jackson farm on the Molalla. The mill is convenient to some fine bodies of timber.

Taken Up—On premises of William Robinson on West Side about a year ago, one dark colored Jersey calf, tip off of left ear. Owner can have same by proving property, paying expense of coeding and cost of this advertising.

The themes at the Congregational church for next Sunday will be "The Peace of the Stayed Mind," and "A Touch of the Master." The choir will render an especially attractive number during the evening service, entitled, "I Shall Be Satisfied."

Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject for Sunday, October 13th, "Doctrine of Atonement." Sunday-school at 12 o'clock; Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. To these services all are welcome.

It was a memorable occasion at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Monday night, the preliminary opening of the classes occurring. Addresses were made by O. H. Dye, Mayor Dimick, Rev. W. S. Grim and O. L. Cox. Much interest was shown in the educational classes.

You will save money by buying your millinery of Miss Goldsmith.

Alvina, the 3-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Richards, died last Sunday night of cancer of the head. The little one had been ill for some time. The funeral services were conducted at the family residence Tuesday morning by Rev. W. S. Grim, and the interment was in a Portland cemetery.

Although George W. Bibee, of Sheridan, has been appointed receiver of the local land office, it will probably be several weeks before he assumes the duties of his position. Mr. Galloway has held a year and a half over his time, but has heretofore announced his intention of remaining a permanent resident of Oregon City.

August A. J. Brady, a well known Spanish war veteran, was married Wednesday evening to Miss Alice Ida Dungee, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's mother. Rev. W. S. Grim was the officiating clergyman. Mr. and Mrs. Brady are both popular young people and will make their home in Oregon City.

A letter recently received from Mrs. Grace Hall, formerly of Corvallis, but now of Oregon City, bears the intelligence that she and her husband are now comfortably located in a neat dwelling and that Mr. Hall has employment in the Willamette paper mill. She also stated that Albert Thornton, who learned the printers' trade in this city, is now running the Cheney Sentinel.—Corvallis Gazette.

The plastering and painting has begun on the new Stevens-Jaggard building, but Messrs. Scott & Johnson, the contractors, state that it will take some time to complete the inside finishings on the lower floor to be occupied by the Golden Rule Bazaar. There will be shelving at the sides and center, and 13 counters to put in place.

Considerable hay is being brought to town now, but very little of it is being shipped away on account of the home demand. Dealers find no trouble in disposing of considerable quantities of hay and oats to local consumers. The numerous wood teams make a demand for horse feed. Clover hay, baled, brings about $7 per ton, and timothy $8 to $10. Oats are from 27 to 30 cents per bushel.

SCHOOL BOOKS

We supply any book used in Clackamas County and allow the highest price in exchange. We will save you money.

To purchasers of school books we give Tablets, Pencils, and Rulers

FREE

CHARMAN & CO.

CUT PRICE DRUGGISTS

OREGON CITY

OREGON

Wood's Sarsaparilla, $1 size, only 55c.

Family Receipts and Physicians' Prescriptions a specialty, at low prices.

Mail orders promptly attended to.

Closing Out Sale of Bicycle Sundries

To close out all our stock of Bicycle Sundries we offer everything in our large and complete stock at a reduction of 1/3 to 1/2 from regular prices. Everything goes and now is your chance to get a new pair of tires or a lamp for winter, a pump, a saddle, a handle bar, a new pair pedals, a carrier, a bell, or any of the other little necessities for your wheel.

Only stock on hand will be sold at these prices—first come, first served. Here are some sample prices; everything equally low:

- Saddles... 60c
- Tires, each... 25
- Inner Tubes, each... 75c
- Foot Pumps... 20c
- Pedals, per pair... 65c
- Handle Bars... 75c
- Bells... 10c
- Cyclometer... 50c
- Tire Tape... 2 for 12c
- Toe Clips... 12c
- Chain Brush... 20c
- Luggage Carrier... 10c
- Lamps... 65c

Huntley's Book Store

OREGON CITY, OREGON