

Conceded Unanimously By Experienced Purchasers

Of fine Dress Goods, Cloaks, Capes, Furs and Jackets, that we are leaders and will continue to give the best values and bargains of any dry goods house in the Northwest.

We place on sale several lines of the above goods, 58 and 60-inch goods, extra heavy, elegantly finished, suitable for fine tailor-made suits or separate skirts, at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $1.90, $2.25, $2.47, $2.73, $2.97, $3.25 and $3.73. Nearly all of the above goods are factory sponged and shrunk. Ladies, made no mistake; we have the stock to select from, and no fancy prices will be asked. Competition is the life of trade, and we are in a position to meet all competitors. In fact, we have no competitors when we touch the electric button in selling fine black imported dress goods. Reputation is what counts, honest goods and honest values. See us today on fine cloaks, furs, capes and jackets.

MAIL ORDERS RECEIVE PROMPT ATTENTION

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS
THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

C. N. Larkins, of Clarkes, was in the city Saturday.

E. F. Capps was up from Clackamas precinct Saturday.

John Stidham, of Carus, was a visitor in town Saturday.

J. T. Evans, of Mulino, was a visitor in the city Saturday.

J. B. Noe, of Needy, was in the city Saturday and Sunday.

Joseph Wallace, of Highland, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Robert Ginther, of Shubel, was a visitor in the city Friday.

Julius Grazier has recovered from a severe attack of pleurisy.

Charles U. Wilson is now officiating as purser on the steamer Altona.

Charles Bitzer was in from Molalla Tuesday on his way to Portland.

Charles Daugherty was among the Molalla people in town Monday.

Fred Weatherford, of Albany, was visiting friends in the city Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Evans, of Oswego, visited their Carus farm Saturday.

Robert Casaday and J. T. Evans, of Carus, were in Oregon City Friday.

T. J. Bohas, of Damascus, was a visitor in the city during the past week.

Frederick Zimmerman, of Milwaukie precinct, was a visitor in the city Monday.

Mrs. A. Nelson went to Silverton Friday evening to visit relatives for a few days.

John Lewthwaite, of Clackamas precinct, was a visitor in Oregon City Saturday.

Rudolph Gantenbeim went to Canby Tuesday to resume work on the Molalla bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Eastman, of New Era precinct, were visitors in the city Monday.

Mrs. Schlosser, of Albany, was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Captain M. D. Phillips.

G. Williams, of Canby, arrived in town Tuesday to do carpenter work for Ed Oids.

Councilman C. G. Huntley returned Sunday from a successful bird shoot up the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Padlock, of Clackamas precinct, were visitors in the city Saturday.

W. E. Bissell returned Tuesday from a few days hunting and recreation in the vicinity of Canby.

Seiver Ramsby, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Eliza Ramsby, was in from Molalla Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rickard, of Dusty, Benton county, were visiting friends here during the week.

Robert Leslie, a well known republican politician of Wilhoit, was in Oregon City Sunday and Monday.

M. E. Bain, now interested in mining matters at Sumpter, has in the city and vicinity for the past week.

H. W. Trembath has returned from Lincoln, Polk county, where he was doing some work for a hop man.

W. H. Mattoon, of Viola, who was in town Saturday, reported that many of the farmers were busy plowing.

Mrs. Henry Samson, of Needy, mother of W. W. H. Samson, is very ill, and her recovery is doubtful.

Fred Kamrath, of Beaver Creek, was in the city Friday, and made a good catch of trout in the Clackamas river.

Rev. John Glenn, of Dayton, preached in the pulpit of the Free Methodist church in Central addition last Sunday.

William Nefzer, who did some record baseball playing at Bandon during the past season, is home for the winter.

Louis Palmateer, of Garfield, was in the city Saturday, and reported that the prunegrowers were busy drying their output.

Mrs. E. Meresse, of Forest Grove, has been visiting the Whites and other friends in Oregon City, during the past few days.

E. F. Ginther, of Shubel, was in the city Saturday and Sunday, and attended the quarterly conference of the Evangelical church.

Rev. A. A. Engelbart left for Jefferson Monday to attend the state convention of the Young Peoples Alliance of the Evangelical church.

Ex-Mayor C. D. Latourette returned Friday night from a visit to Michigan, where he went to be at the bedside of a brother, who was very ill.

H. Himler and sister, Mrs. Pearl Bernier visited relatives at Champong during the week. While there the former killed 17 Chinese pheasants.

C. M. Crittenden, the well known school teacher, was in Oregon City Saturday, and expected to have begun a term of school at Needy last Monday.

Professor E. Merese, of Pacific university at Forest Grove, joined Mrs. Merese here Monday. She had been visiting friends here for several days past.

F. L. Oaples, who has charge of the hardware department in Busch's store, stated that coyotes are so plentiful that they eat at the same table with them.

E. W. Swafford, of Salem, is spending the winter with his son, E. J. Swafford, at Ely. Mr. Swafford, sr., was 54 years old on the 17th of September.

Willie B. Howell returned from several days visit to his uncle at Albany Saturday. He had great sport pheasant shooting, and brought down 18 birds.

Senator Brownell, Mayor Dimick, Max Ramsby, Barton Jack, and W. H. Young were among the Clackamas county people, who attended the Butte Creek fair.

O. Whitten and daughters, of Oswego, were visitors in Oregon City Monday.

Mr. Whitten said that the grape crop would not be over half the usual yield this season.

A. Tucker, wife and daughter left for Toledo Tuesday morning, where they will make their future home. They have resided at Parkplace for the past 10 or 12 years.

Our Children's Department

Is the Delight of All Mothers. Visit It

The same rigid scrutiny of fabrics the same smart tailoring for boys' clothing as for men's. Styles that have the boyish grace with the manly finish.

Beautiful suits for the little fellows; strong, sturdy suits for the older boys--- practical and novel; a splendid collection of boys' clothes that is not matched anywhere--- that no parents of boys can afford to miss seeing. Many, indeed, express surprise that we can give so much for the price, and it has troubled us more to supply the demand than it has to sell these goods. "Brevity is the soul of wit." The following are briefly stated with no pretensions, but there's wisdom in buying them, to wit:

Children's Suits $3.50 and $5.00 a Suit

Youth's Suits Ages 14 to 19, $7.50 a Suit

A. B. Steinbach & Co.
POPULAR ONE PRICE HATTERS & CLOTHIERS

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest

Fourth and Morrison Sts.

PORTLAND, OREGON

F. Jennings, of Butteville, was in town Monday, and reported that several sales of hops had been made for 11 and 12 cents per pound, but many growers were holding for better prices.

Fred Hargreaves, of Gladstone, is now a student at the University of Seattle. It was originally his intention to attend the university at Eugene this season, but he changed his plans.

Miss Ada Davidson, of Spokane, who had been visiting the family of J. R. Shaver at Molalla, started on her return trip home Monday. She was brought to town by Mr. Shaver.

Chris Kelly arrived Monday from Stensbaum, below Juneau in Alaska, where he was fishing during the past season. The combine are now operating the canneries in that section.

Mrs. Ed Oaliff left Tuesday for North Yakima, Wash., where she will visit her son, Carl, and try a change of climate for the benefit of her health. She was accompanied by her little son.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gantenbeim arrived from Baker City early in the week, and will make their home here. Mr. Gantenbeim was recently married to a popular Baker City young woman.

Nelson Boylan, of Kelso, Wash., is visiting his brother, Asa Boylan. He has partially recovered from the effects of a recent accident, and is now suffering from a severe attack of sciatic rheumatism.

O. Hannaford, a former resident of Oregon City, was down from Hubbard Monday, and reported that he had effected a sale of his hops for 11 cents per pound. The hops had already been contracted.

George H. L. A. and Ralph Young left by team Monday morning for Eastern Oregon, and will locate near the Warm Springs reservation. The families of the two former expect to join them next spring.

Charles Holman, of the Internal Revenue office, Portland, came up Sunday morning accompanied by his three brothers. They went out to Mead-owbrook to spend the day at the former's Milk Creek ranch.

Ed Himler went to work for Superintendent Carter at the government hatchery on the Clackamas river last Friday night. More salmon are being caught at the hatchery now than be conveniently handled for taking eggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan M. Moody and child visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Vaughan at Molalla. Mr. Moody is bookkeeper for Smyth & Howard, Portland, and his residence is 1008, Union Avenue on the East Side.

Gilbert Douglas and family, recently of Albany, have taken up their residence in the city, and now occupy the John Welsmaudel house on Eleventh and Van Buren streets. Mr. Douglas has a position in the woolen mills.

J. L. Hattan, of Stone, was in the city Friday, and stated that work was progressing in a satisfactory way on the Clear Creek creamery. The building is about ready for the painters. It is intended to have the creamery in operation in December.

J. K. Morris returned to Canby Tuesday to resume work on the Molalla bridge. Work was suspended for a few days on account of having to wait for the arrival of the iron. The work is now being pushed, and it is expected that the bridge will be completed in about three weeks.

Louis Himler, John Grinder and Ed Reckner are now busily employed at the Swan Falls hatchery in Idaho. The former has written to home for his rifle, stating that coyotes are so plentiful that they eat at the same table with them.

Mike Bauman, Mike Bauer and William Griesenhoffer, of New Era precinct, were visitors in the city Tuesday. The former is building a new farm house for Mr. Bauer on the Eli Maddock place.

The building is two stories high, 26x36 and will contain 10 rooms.

T. Yocum, of Garfield, was in the city Monday, and reported that prune drying would be completed in another week. Krigbaums are running two driers and are handling 300 boxes of prunes every 24 hours, while T. Huxley is handling 100 boxes daily in his drier.

The prune crop of that section is something big this year.

Misses Ollie and McTate, of Wampow, Wis., who were visiting their cousin, Mrs. T. E. Gault at Gladstone for a couple of weeks, started on their return trip home Friday. They will make brief visits with friends in Portland, Seattle and Tacoma while enroute.

The Misses McTate made many friends while here, who regretted to see them take their departure.

Mrs. E. F. Martin accompanied her daughter, E. Sadie White to Sumpter Wednesday evening. The latter will look after her business affairs, while Mrs. Martin will take a rest after a long and successful business career.

For a number of years Mrs. Martin and her daughters conducted the Racket Store in this city, and it proved a business success. They were courteous and never misrepresented an article. Reliable goods were sold at reasonable figures, and proved just as represented.

Mrs. Julia A. Cole, recently of Sumpter, succeeds Mrs. Martin as proprietor of the Racket Store.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

J. O. Jones is building a new dwelling on the West Side.

Don't forget the Thanksgiving market to be given by the Saturday Club.

George H. Wishart is having a new cottage erected on the corner of his upper Seventh street property.

The Saturday Club will hold a market in the basement of the Congregational church on the afternoon and evening of Nov. 27th.

Councilman E. W. Scott and C. B. Johnson, who had the contract of putting in the concrete foundation for the filtering plant of the city water works, completed the job last week. It is solid and massive enough to last for all time. It is pronounced by experts to be a good piece of work.

Victor Swain, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Risley, won the baby prize at the Milwaukie grange fair last Saturday. The fair lasted for two days, and was a success beyond expectations. The exhibits would have done credit to a more pretentious fair, spread out on an elaborate scale.

The new minister, assigned by conference to look after the spiritual welfare of the members of the Methodist Episcopal congregation in this city during the next 12 months, is Rev. Gabriel Sykes. For Bay City and Nehalem, Rev. Israel Putman has been assigned. Tillamook Herald.

L. H. Kirchheim is building a new barn for Frank Busch on his stock ranch four miles above Springfield. Mr. Busch has an ideal stock ranch there, the grass growing luxuriantly all the 'round, the rich, upland soil holding moisture enough to keep vegetation green and growing continually. He has the place well stocked. In early days this section was called "horse heaven" by the pioneers on account of the luxurious growth of grass.

A new law makes the next November term of county courts the time for fixing the boundaries of election precincts. The January term before an election was the time by the old law. The limits must be fixed by the courts so as to conform to ward and road district boundaries.

Also provided that no election precinct will have more than 200 voters. Petitioners to the court for desired changes must be brought in at the coming November term or precinct limits will stand for two years as at present arranged.

Next spring's election is a long ways off, but already candidates are being mentioned for nomination at the republican county convention to be held next March or April. Among those mentioned are the following: For county judge, Thomas F. Ryan and G. B. Dimick, of Oregon City; sheriff, J. R. Shaver, of Molalla; for clerk, W. M. Shank and J. W. McAnulty, of Oregon City; for recorder, E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas; and H. E. Stevens, of Milwaukie; for assessor, J. C. Bradley, of Oregon City. And still there are other candidates and precincts to hear from.

An Oswego resident furnishes this paper with the following items from that place: Miss Anna Schmidt, of Victoria, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gardner. Miss Jessie Coon has been receiving treatment in a Portland hospital. Mr. Fisher, of Nehalem, who was visiting D. W. Kelsay and family, took sick and died in a Portland hospital last Thursday. Captain Wheratt left Monday for Marshfield, Coos county, to visit his son. J. O. Haines has purchased the Hawksworth place. Mrs. Jean Zimmerman, of Astoria, and Mrs. A. W. Shipley, of Portland, are visiting their mother, Mrs. A. S. Clinefelter.

Notice to Debtors. I herewith notify all persons indebted to me for livery hire to pay without delay. Accounts remaining unpaid by the end of this month will be placed in the hands of a collector, when costs will be added. J. O. BRADLEY.

A snap-80 acres, 4 1/2 miles from Oregon City, 30 in cultivation, building and orchard. $15 per acre. O. O. T. Williams, office in Barclay building.

When you visit Portland don't fail to get your meals at the Royal Restaurant, First and Madison. They serve an excellent meal at a moderate price; a good square meal, 15c.

Watch Our Watches

A Watch is not bought the same as other merchandise. When you purchase a suit of clothes or a pair of shoes you can usually tell what it is; but when you invest your money in a watch you have to depend entirely on the dealer.

Dealing in Watches and repairing has been our business for over twenty years. We have made it a specialty. We know all about Watches and their value. When we buy our watches from the factories, we buy them right and we sell them again we know what we can recommend to our customers. For this reason we guarantee to give satisfaction.

At present we have a large assortment of BOSS FILLED WATCHES, they are of the very latest designs and we are offering them at a reasonable price. If you have been thinking about purchasing one we would like to have you look over our stock. We know that they will please you. We have them in all grades and all sizes.

We have a SPECIAL OFFER for those who would like to own a high grade time-piece and can not afford to pay for it all at one time. We will sell watches on the installment plan. You make a payment when you buy the watch and pay the balance in weekly or monthly payments. We would be pleased to explain this method to you.

Burmeister & Andresen

The Oregon City Jewelers

