

PICK UP A FEW DOLLARS

JUST LIKE FINDING MONEY TO BUY AT

The Great Removal Sale GOLDEN RULE BAZAAR

Bargains for Ladies

Good Black Stockings... 9c
Wool Fascinators, all col'rs 25c
O. N. T. Thread; 6 spools. 25c
Good Heavy Muslin, yd. 5c
Cotton Batting..... 5c
Outing Flannel Night G'ns 69c
Fleeced Lined Underwear. 25c
Good Tam-o-Shanters... 50c
$1.50 and $1.75 Wrappers 1.00
The "Percy" Kid Glove, pr 1.00
Large Towels..... 8c
Outing Flannel, yd..... 5c
Handk'ch's, colored border 3c
Saxony Yarn, all colors... 5c

Bargains for Men

Wool Hats, black..... 45c
Good Cotton Socks, pr... 4c
Heavy Sweaters, Colors... 45c
Soft Bosom Golf Shirts... 58c
Odds and end in Underw'r 25c
Fancy Half Hose, pr..... 10c
Hemstitched Handkerchiefs 6c
Flannel Night Shirts..... 75c
Heavy Fleeced Lined Underwear..... 50c
William's Shaving Soap... 5c
Latest Silk Neck Ties... 19c
The "Standard" White Shirts..... 69c

Large stock of Dry Goods just received which are going at removal sale prices.

Agents for Brown's "Star-Five-Star" Shoes.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. M. Little, of Needy, was in town yesterday.
Albert Engle, of Molalla, was in the city yesterday.
Rev. Rhys Gwinn, of Wilhoit, was in the city Tuesday.
S. A. D. Hungate, of Molalla, was in the city yesterday.
E. L. Arthur, of Logan, was a visitor in the city Wednesday.
Miss Marie Willey, of Sellwood, visited her parents over Sunday.
C. T. Vonderabe, of Beaver Creek, was in the city yesterday.
Mrs. Charles Dean, of Viento, visited Mrs. G. W. Grace, last week.
Peter Engle, a well known New Era farmer, was in town yesterday.
Ira Dickey, of Molalla, has been in the city for several days this week.
Mrs. J. Kirk, of Beaver Creek, was a visitor in Oregon City during the week.
H. Iderhoff, a well known Stafford farmer, was in Oregon City yesterday.
Mrs. Kate Spulak and Miss Spulak, of New Era, were in Oregon City Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Armstrong, of Redland, were in Oregon City yesterday.
Alfred Weed, who has been very ill with appendicitis, is reported as improving.
Thomas M. Thomas and David Jones, of Beaver Creek, were in the city yesterday.
Mrs. George Randall, of New Era precinct, was a visitor in the city yesterday.
W. E. Owen, of Ilwaco, was here this week, looking after his Beaver Creek interests.
Frank Miller, the vegetable producer, of Shubel, was in town during the week.
H. Thiessen, the well known Milwaukie precinct farmer, was in Oregon City yesterday.

Mrs. J. A. Roake and child have returned from a visit to relatives in Portland.
James Beason and wife and his father, visited at the home of Frank J. Parker, Tuesday.
Frederick Blahn, a well known farmer of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Tuesday.
Misses Lou Mortimer, Clara Miller and Annetta Gleason wheeled their way to Oak Grove Sunday.
Valentine Bohlander, of Beaver Creek, was in town Tuesday, visiting his sister, Mrs. Kuonich.
George Kelland, of New Era precinct, was in town Tuesday, and reported little over a half crop of potatoes.
A. E. Donaldson and daughter, Miss Eunice have taken rooms for the winter in the Shively building.
Mr. and Mrs. William Blount, of Canby, were in town Tuesday, visiting their daughter, Mrs. F. T. Barlow.
Charles Humphrys, of the Postal Telegraph Company at Portland, visited his home here Monday and Tuesday.
George Wyland, of Wilhoit, arrived in the city yesterday, after several months of prospecting in the mining regions.
W. T. Henderson, M. Holland and I. D. Surfus, of Elwood, were in town yesterday on their way home from Portland.
Misses Helen Gleason and Grace Miller, both Clackamas county teachers, visited their respective homes Saturday and Sunday.
Rev. C. W. Hayes, of Grant's Pass, is visiting Rev. A. J. Montgomery. They were schoolmates in their younger days.
Jesse Cox and children, of Elwood, were in town Wednesday on their way home from Portland, where they attended the carnival.
Talbert Hook arrived in the city from Scott's Mills Tuesday, and moved Barton Jack and mother out to their Molalla home Wednesday.

H. S. Harcourt, of the Morning Oregonian, was a caller at this office Wednesday. He was here on business before the probate court.
Mrs. Rachel E. Bain and daughter, and other members of the family moved to Portland, Tuesday, where they will reside in the future.
Messrs. Wallace and McCarthy, of Eastern Oregon, stopped off in this city Monday to visit friends. They were on their way to San Francisco.
Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Craft, of Washington, Pa., have been visiting Rev. A. J. Montgomery and family, she being a cousin of the former.
S. J. Burford and Richard Greaves are representing Cataract Lodge, K. of P., in the grand lodge in session in session in Portland this week.
Mrs. Eli Williams and daughter, Miss Esther, left Wednesday morning for Jackson county, where they will sojourn for a time for the benefit of the latter's health.
County Commissioner J. R. Morton, of Damascus, reports a good yield of potatoes as well as other crops, and farmers are prosperous and well along with their work.
Rev. J. H. Beaven and other members of the local Baptist church are attending the annual state convention in Portland this week. Rev. Beaven is the retiring president of the association.
Mrs. Lena Wicks left Tuesday night for a 10-days visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Goldsmith. She will return here before going to her home at San Francisco.
Mrs. Mary McCarthy, of Spokane, was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Vonderabe at Beaver Creek, and brothers in Oregon City. It was her first visit to Clackamas county for 17 years.
Dan McGill and wife, of Grant county, arrived yesterday, and will visit relatives in this county. Mrs. McGill is a daughter of Robert Officer, and formerly lived at Molalla. It is her first visit here for 20 years.
Thomas Blanchard wife, of New Era precinct, were in town yesterday. He stated that the same piece of ground that produced 1200 bushels of potatoes last year, only yielded 600 this year. However, the crop is of exceptional quality, and the selling price promises to be satisfactory.
Miss Iva Almstead, daughter of A. H. Almstead, of the Logan cheese factory, passed a very creditable standing at the last county teachers' examination. She did not receive an offer of a school at once, and became discouraged, accepting a position in an Eastern uncle's store. She had only been gone a few days, when offers came to teach from three different school districts in Clackamas county.
J. Heinz, of Macksburg, was in town yesterday, and reported that George Scheer had his shoulder dislocated at Canby on the day previous by a kick from a horse. The horse became frightened at an approaching train with the result that the horse kicked him on the shoulder with serious consequences. Mr. Scheer is still at Canby, where he is receiving medical attention. His friends state that some hops in his neighborhood, that were injured by dampness, have been sold for 8 1/2 cents per pound. He had 20 bales slightly damaged in this way.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Found—a ladies' jacket Sunday, near Carus. A. S. Bailey, Molalla road.
F. M. Pickard, formerly an old resident of Logan, died at Warden, Idaho, last Friday, aged about 50.
J. W. McNulty has removed the justice of the peace office to the Jaggar building, opposite Huntley's drug store.
A grand ball will be given in the new Beaver Creek hall on October 25th, and all are invited to attend.
P. O. Ford, who recently arrived from Kansas with his family, has purchased the Story confectionery store. C. D. Story and family now occupy their new home on the hill.
Charles V. Galloway has purchased the J. F. Wiscarver farm, northeast of town. This comprises 156 acres, and the purchase price was $28 per acre—Yamhill Reporter.

SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS

$600 TO BE GIVEN AWAY $600

Two years ago we distributed the above amount among our customers. The experiment was such a great success, we have concluded to repeat it this year. In other words, we will share some of our profits with our customers.

This Is the Way We Do It

Commencing MONDAY morning, we will GIVE AWAY with each tenth MEN'S SUIT that we sell, A TEN DOLLAR BILL. And with each tenth BOY'S or CHILD'S SUIT sold, a Five Dollar Bill. By this means every tenth customer will receive a suit practically for nothing. Our friends will remember the long list of persons who received more than the amount of their purchase from us last year.

The Bills Are on Exhibition in Our Windows

WHEN YOU SEE IT IN OUR AD IT'S SO

$600 TO BE GIVEN AWAY $600

Moyer Clothing Company

Third and Oak Sts., Portland, Oregon

The fall growth of grass is increasing the supply of milk at the Logan cheese factory. During the month of July when pasture feed was good, the cheese factory paid out $700 to its stockholders for milk.

The Misses Sedlak, well known Portland musicians, signed a contract Saturday with W. L. Snidow for the erection of a neat 5-room cottage. The Misses Sedlak will this their home and resting place when not traveling.

Robert Hughes brought in a large porcupine the first of the week, which had been captured and killed by a dog on the Powell place, near Mount Pleasant. The animal was of unusual size, and has been on exhibition in Wilson & Cooke's hardware store window.

Samuel Meyer is having a neat 6-room cottage erected on his property on Fifth and Center streets. It will be conveniently arranged and supplied with modern improvements. John Barclay is doing the carpenter work.

The Clear Creek Creamery Company has completed its new building, which is conveniently situated this side of Baker's ferry bridge. It is a neat structure painted white, and has a solid cement foundation. It is intended to have the creamery in operation in December.

The Courier-Herald gives twice as much county and local news as can be secured from any other source. The space is not filled up with big heads and leads, but is set close and compact. Local news can be found on almost every page.

Christian Science services are held in the Willamette hall every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject for Sunday, Oct. 20th, "Probation After Death." Sunday-school at 12 m.; Wednesday evening meeting at 8 o'clock. To these services all are welcome.

New suits filed in the circuit court are as follows: J. T. Apperson vs. T. L. Charman, trustee, et al, foreclosure suit to recover about $11,000 on the South Oregon City tract. Thirty-two persons, who paid for lots in the tract are made defendants in the suit.

The reporter of the Evening Telegram has a great deal to say about hold-ups between Oswego and the White house. The fact of the business is, there have been no hold-ups in that vicinity recently. Some imaginative individuals have been stuffing the reporter.

Fifteen and a half inches in circumference and weighing 1 1/2 pounds each, is the size of three monster onions, raised on the farm of Raymond Dickey at Molalla, and delivered by him to this last Saturday. These were only a few samples of what can be produced on Mr. Dickey's farm.

At the annual business meeting of the Presbyterian church held Monday night A. T. Muir and J. W. McKay were re-elected elders, O. E. Muir was elected a deacon, Fred J. Meyer, trustee, Miss Margaret Williams Sunday-school superintendent, Fred Meyer treasurer, and Owen Thomas head usher.

At the Clackamas hatchery the management is liberally giving the salmon, killed for their eggs, to anyone who calls for them. However, it is reported that some people are abusing the privilege by traveling over the country and selling the fish thus secured. In one instance a case of illness is reported, the result of buying stale fish.

The orchard of Mr. Hawley, of Logan, has produced 12,000 pounds of dried prunes.

Key fitting, lock work and saw filing at Johnson & Lamb's bicycle shop, opposite Electric hotel. Satisfaction guaranteed.

The Foresters will give their seventh annual ball Thanksgiving night, Nov. 23rd. They are making elaborate preparations for a good time, and have secured Everett's orchestra for the occasion.

On the rainy evening of Saturday, 5th instant, the people of Logan finished graveling their road to Baker's bridge, the last gap being filled at the point where the Baptist church stands. This fall they hauled 600 loads of gravel.

The Oregon City boats now make three trips daily to Portland and return, and the time card has been changed as follows: Leave Oregon City at foot of eighth street, 7 a. m.; 11 a. m.; 3 p. m. Leave Portland at foot of Taylor street, 9 a. m.; 1 p. m.; 5 p. m. The boats are roomy, and the scenery can be viewed from comfortably seated and lighted cabins, while the purser and officers are clever and attentive.

The residents of Logan now have cause to be congratulated—the road improvement has been completed from Oregon City to Tracy's, a distance of about 14 miles. The citizens of Logan have subscribed and donated hundreds of dollars for the completion of this road improvement, showing the commendable spirit of enterprise of a wide-awake community.

Mrs. C. J. Parker is home from a visit to Orono, and handed in the following items: H. F. Curran's creamery is running at full blast, turning out about 100 pounds of butter per week... Kye Stone is able to be about without his crutches... Frank Harkins, and wife have a new boarder, of which they are very proud... Last week John Dowty cut his hand while putting up telegraph poles... Miss Ada Davison and mother, of Spokane, Wash., are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Mary Heiple, of Elk Horn farm... James Johnson and Mrs. Bird, of Marshfield, Ohio, and Miss Lily Britt, of Boston, Mass., visited J. W. Dowty and family, last week... George Ely has returned from Salem, and once more his genial face is seen in the store.

School books exchanged at Moore's Pharmacy.

Don't forget our big perfume stock when you want the best.

Everything for the Bath

Herpicide 75c per bottle
Huntley's Hair Tonic
25 and 50c per bottle

We have just purchased a sample line of bath necessaries—Brushes, mitts, sponges, towels, etc. On this lot we get a 25 per cent discount because they are samples. This 25 per cent goes to our customers. Of the bath brushes there are at least 25 kinds—no two alike—you can certainly find what you want in this stock and the low prices will surprise you.

Bath Soaps and Toilet Soap

Here's another necessity we can save you money on. Our soaps are bought direct from the manufacturer, thereby saving a middleman's profit, this enables us to sell you a good box of toilet soap, 3 cakes in a box, scented, for 15 cents; same as you have many times paid 25 cents for. Our 25 cent boxes are wonders—highly scented, hard milled soap, so fine that you wonder how they can be sold at that price.

We have a new scouring soap for 5 cents, which is said to take the place of Sapolio. Try a cake of it.

Snowberry floating bath soap, 6 big cakes for 25 cents is supply sufficient for months. Look over our soaps, some of our best bargains are in the window now.

C. G. HUNTLEY

Popular Price Druggist

OREGON CITY

Some of the leading brands of perfumes we carry:—Palmer's, Wright's, Pennaud's, Rogers & Gallet's, Rick-seekers, Eastmans, Riegers, Atkinsons, Lauters.

At this season every household should be supplied with either a bottle of our Syrup of White Pine Compound, or Baker's Rock, Rye and Tolu, for cough and colds that is sure to come. Get it now.

SCHOOL BOOKS

We supply any book used in Clackamas County and allow the highest price in exchange. We will save you money. To purchasers of school books we give Tablets, Pencils, and Rulers

FREE

CHARMAN & CO.

CUT PRICE DRUGGISTS

OREGON CITY

OREGON

Wood's Sarsaparilla, $1 size, only 55c.
Family Receipts and Physicians' Prescriptions a specialty, at low prices.
Mail orders promptly attended to.