Our Children's Department

Is the Delight of All Mothers. Visit It

The same rigid scrutiny of fabrics the same smart tailoring for boys' clothing as for men's. Styles that have the boyish grace with the manly finish.

Beautiful suits for the little fellows; strong, sturdy suits for the older boys—practical and novel; a splendid collection of boys' clothes that is not matched anywhere—that no parents of boys can afford to miss seeing. Many, indeed, express surprise that we can give so much for the price, and it has troubled us more to supply the demand than it has to sell these goods. "Brevity is the soul of wit." The following are briefly stated with no pretensions, but there's wisdom in buying them, to wit:

Children's Suits $3.50 and $5.00 a Suit

Youth's Suits Ages 14 to 19, $7.50 a Suit

PORTLAND, OREGON

Rev. Peter Bott, of Shubel, was in town Monday, and reported that Willie, the 14-year old son of Peter Bohlander, was very ill.
Carl Haberlach with John F. Clark, was visiting his brother-in-law, Fred Gadke, on a bird hunt Sunday, and bagged one of the finest cock Chinese pheasants ever captured in Clackamas county. It will be stuffed and placed on exhibition.
R. L. Morris, of Elliott Prairie, was in town Monday. He has been incapacitated from active work for some time past on account of a crippled arm. He was formerly associated with Ed Olds in the bridge building business.
Ray, Lew Davies and wife were expected to arrive at Warren this week to take up their abode for a year. Mr. Davies is the newly appointed Methodist pastor for this charge.—St. Helens Mist. Rev. Davies was formerly located at Viola.
Mrs. Luciene Stout and family, of Toledo, Lincoln county, arrived Monday, the guest of Mrs. G. W. Grace. She will remain in this county a month, visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Stout was formerly an efficient assessor of this county.
R. Petzold, a former Seventh street butcher, was a visitor in the city Saturday. He is now engaged in the butcher business at LaGrande, and is well pleased with his location. His former partner, C. H. Gale is now engaged in sheep raising, near Heppner.
W. H. Bottemiller, of Clarkes, was in town Saturday. Besides a considerable quantity of hay, Mr. Bottemiller had a yield of 1100 bushel of hay and oats on 40 acres of ground. Several wheatfields, belonging to his neighbors, averaged 40 and 45 bushels of wheat to the acre.
Thomas Burke and family moved the first of the week to their place at Riverdale, on the West Side five miles this side of Portland, the first of the week. Mr. Burke will continue working in the paper mills for the present, but expects to engage in the dairy business later.
J. A. Reid, the Springwater road supervisor, was in town Saturday. He had practically completed the laying of three miles of plank road, extending toward Viola from Springwater, and expected to begin laying one mile of plank above on the Cornett place on the following Monday.
Matt Clemens, of New Era precinct, was in town Monday, and reported that he had completed the evaporating of his pruner crop, and now has 12 tons of the dried product. He lost about four tons on account of the rains. Mr. Clemens said that he had been offered a fair price for his output, but considers that there is a good demand for prunes in the East, and that there will be no difficulty in making sales at good prices.
M. F. Boyles, Lou Farr and O. C. Dickson formed a party that started to the headwaters of the Clackamas, in the vicinity of the hot springs, where they will camp and hunt for a few weeks. Ed Hughes, William May, and Mr. Simmons, of Calif., also left for the same destination.
H. W. Shaw, of Union Mills, was in town Friday, and expected his son, F. R. Shaw and his wife, to arrive from Wells county, North Dakota. The latter has lived in North Dakota for the past 12 years, where he has been running a large farm. The crops have practically been failures for the past two years, and Mr. Shaw concluded to try Oregon.
Bert Stricklin returned Tuesday from Grass Valley, Eastern Oregon, where he has been tending bar for several months past, and made a short visit to Spokane, before his return here. His brother, Cass W. Stricklin, was recently married to Miss Georgia Hull, and is making his permanent home at Grass Valley.
J. Herman, of Beaver Creek, was in town Tuesday, and is well pleased with the crop yield for the past season. While the yield of potatoes is short, there is the comforting assurance that a smaller crop can be handled with less cost, and the prospective selling price will more than make up the deficiency in yield.
L. Hale, of Currinsville, and J. N. Githens, of Eagle Creek, were visitors in the city Monday. Mr. Hale left at this office a maple sprout of this year's growth, that measured 12 feet and 11 inches in length. The sprout was cut along the road between Baker's ferry and Burghardt's mill, and shows a wonderful growth for Clackamas county soil. Miss Delpine Haneal, of Benton county, is teaching the school in Currinsville school district, No. 7. Mr. Hale stated that the prune driers in that section had about finished their season's work.
Thomas Ogle, who lives 3 1/2 miles East of Molalla, was in town Monday night, the first time in six years. He was assisting Henry Sawtell to move his family and household belongings to Dover, where they will make their future home. Howard Ogle, Thomas Ogle's father, who died a few days ago, was nearly 85 years old, and a pioneer of 1853. He was a native of Ohio. An aged widow survives him, and besides the son, Thomas, a daughter, Mary, lives in Washington. The deceased was the grandfather of George Ogle, of Molalla.
Miss Veda Williams, a pupil of Prof. Dierke, will take a limited number of pupils for piano and organ instruction.
Notice to Debtors.
I herewith notify all persons indebted to me for livery hire to pay without delay. Accounts remaining unpaid by the end of this month will be placed in the hands of a collector, when costs will be added.
J. O. BRADLEY.
Notice
Having sold my furniture business, I have placed all my accounts in the hands of John W. Loder, over Golden Rule Bazaar, for collection, and parties indebted will kindly call and settle at once. Mr. Loder will also pay accounts against the undersigned.
GEORGE H. YOUNG.

Watch Our Watches

A Watch is not bought the same as other merchandise. When you purchase a suit of clothes or a pair of shoes you can usually tell what it is, but when you invest your money in a watch you have to depend entirely on the dealer.

Dealing in Watches and repairing has been our business for over twenty years. We have made it a specialty. We know all about Watches and their value. When we buy our watches from the factories, we buy them right and we sell them again we know what we can recommend to our customers. For this reason we guarantee to give satisfaction.

At present we have a large assortment of BOSS FILLED WATCHES, they are of the very latest designs and we are offering them at a reasonable price. If you have been thinking about purchasing one we would like to have you look over our stock. We know that they will please you. We have them in all grades and all sizes.

We have a SPECIAL OFFER for those who would like to own a high grade time-piece and can not afford to pay for it all at one time. We will sell watches on the installment plan. You make a payment when you buy the watch and pay the balance in weekly or monthly payments. We would be pleased to explain this method to you.
