NEWS OF THE WEEK

Friday, October 18.

Battle Samar. Five hundred bolomen attacked a detachment of 46 men of the Ninth Infantry at Bangajon, river, island of Samar, in the Philippines, Wednesday, killing 19 and wounding six. The remainder of the company arrived on the scene in time to prevent further slaughter, and routed the enemy killing over 100 of them. It is believed that the enemy retired only for reinforcements. As soon as the news was received at Cuthlogon, two gunboats were dispatched, General Smith going in person to the scene.

Senator Simon, of Oregon, called on President Roosevelt at Washington this morning, and had a pleasant interview concerning appointments in Oregon. He particularly expressed dissatisfaction with the appointment of George W. Bibee, as receiver of the Oregon City land office. President Roosevelt said he had not been previously aware of the lack of harmony in the Oregon senatorial delegation, and in making the recent appointment of Bibee he believed there was no objection on the part of anyone there. He assured Senator Simon that in the future no appointments would be made in Oregon without first consulting both senators. Upon receipt of a telegraph protest from Senator Simon against Bibee's appointment received several days ago, the President held up the commission which had already been made out. It is probable in view of today's conference that the appointment will be allowed to stand, and some future compromise arranged.

England and Russia have come to an agreement on the Afghan question. The French government is preparing for trouble in the coal fields.

Oregon butter in tins comes in for first honors at the Pan American exposition.

Rev. John W. Spencer, son of a wealthy farmer, near Moscow, Idaho, has been sued for $10,000 breach of promise by Emma Knudson, a daughter of a wealthy farmer.

John S. Pillsbury, ex-governor of Minnesota and a prominent flouring mill proprietor of Minneapolis, is dead.

For "The Columbia River Basin Oregon's Board of Trade," was Good. The title of a commercial body formed in Portland yesterday. Great interest was manifested by delegates from interior towns, who took a lively part in the discussion relative to organization. Seneca Smith, of Portland, was elected president, and one of the numerous vice-presidents is A. E. Austen, of Woodburn. Attention was called to the fact that an enlarged board of trade, with active members in the state and in the Columbia basin, will widen the scope of our usefulness. The climate and other conditions of this vast section are so varied that no local board can bring the knowledge of them to the world at large. The Eastern men who settled in Baker City, through representations from Portland will find climatic conditions very different from those represented by the local board of trade west of the mountains, while a still greater departure from the Eastern Oregon circular might be discovered by the homeseeker, who settles in Eastern Oregon.

Astoria has a proposition for establishing lumber and flouring mills there.

A proposition is broached on new lines to form a large pool of Oregon hops.

Wheat sales continue in the Palouse district at 40 cents per bushel.

Development of mines in the St. Helens district was never so great as now.

Rounded in Paris yesterday Santos Dumont's airship ascended at St. Cloud at 2:42 o'clock, and five minutes afterward began to round the Eiffel tower. He completed his trip successfully, but a doubt has arisen as to whether it was done in the time limit, 30 minutes. M. Deutsch says the aeronaut won the prize. The committee, however, declares that Santos-Dumont took more than 30 minutes to make the trip. The enormous crowd that had gathered inside and outside the grounds gave the aeronaut a tremendous ovation. As his basket came within speaking distance, Santos-Dumont leaned over the side and asked: "Have I won the prize?" Hundreds of spectators shouted, "Yes, yes," but the Count de Dion, a member of the committee, appeared and threw a damper on the enthusiasm by saying: "My friend, you have lost the prize by 40 seconds. Numbers of the onlookers vigorously protested.

One million five hundred and eighty thousand bushels of wheat sold at Colfax during the week just closed for 40 cents per bushel.

The British are uneasy over the United States trade encroachments.

Chicago strikers ignore the injunction against picketing.

Astoria decides to raise bonus for lumber and flour mills.

J. Pierpont Morgan, after holding a conference with President Mallen, of the Northern Railway Friday, drove around Portland yesterday.

The Portland carnival closed last night.

Plotting Owing to the vigilance of Lieutenant Thomas M. Baines, jr., of the Ninth United States Infantry, another slaughter of American troops was averted. It seems that the lieutenant discovered a prisoner re-entering a cell at Carbiga island, Samar, where several were confined, through a whole in the wall. An investigation showed a plan to fill the jail with bolomen and to call the guard, which would be necessary to get the door open, and then to attack the garrison. It also developed that the investigators were a priest and the President, both of whom have been arrested together with several other prominent persons. Other attempts have been discovered, but fortunately frustrated, at Pambujan and other points in Samar. Reinforcements are being rushed to the island, and American troops there anticipate hard fighting.

Marquis Ito arrived in Washington, and was entertained by the Japanese legation. In speaking of the adjustment of other nations' troubles with China, his representative said that it may be necessary for China to have a new commercial treaty with Japan.

The Skagway Daily Alaskan says: "A new United States commissioner will soon be appointed for this district, to take the place of C. A. Sehlbrede, who several months ago left the city on a tour through the north. For some time past it has been alleged that Judge Sehlbrede has used his official position to his own personal advantage. The grand jury during the coming session will thoroughly ventilate Sehlbrede's administration and startling disclosures, will no doubt be made public." Sehlbrede was a practicing attorney at Roseburg, when he received his appointment, and was active in church work.

The Forbes Presbyterian church in Portland again refuses to accept the resignation of its pastor, Rev. W. O. Forbes.

The Portland carnival will pay substantial dividends to its subscribers.

FARM TALKS.

Some Experiences of Practical Clackamas County Farmers.

There is a growing tendency among Clackamas county farmers to pay more attention to stock raising in a limited way, instead of producing straight grain crops. William Barlow, of Barlow, says there is no profit in raising grain, although he has made money out of hay. He has now embarked in the milk business, shipping the straight product to Portland daily, the buyer paying the freight on the cans and returning them free of charge. Ten cents a gallon is paid straight for the milk, which is considered more profitable than selling the cream at a skimming station. Mr. Barlow intends to add to his herd of cows, and estimates that it will not take very many good milkers to fill 10 10-gallon cans daily, which would mean a revenue of $10 daily. Mr. Barlow believes that milk-producing at this price will prove a profitable venture.

In pioneer days the common breed muley cow had the reputation of being a rascal. There was no danger of her starving, for she would rustle feed in the highways and byways. The family muley cow also was a great milker. The thoroughbred red poll possesses some of the characteristics of the old-fashioned muley cow, only she has many more points of excellence. George Lazelle, of Canemah precinct, is so well pleased with six red poll cows and one bull, that he expects to go East soon to add to his herd. Mr. Lazelle deems the red poll the best cow that can be kept on the farm. They give a good quantity of rich milk, and are hardy and easily kept. They are easily fattened for beef, as well as being an ideal breed for dairying purposes. Leonard Heins, of Mackburg, also has a small herd of red polls, and he believes that they are the coming breed for farm use, as the farmer needs an all-round cow in his business. The fact that the red polls have no horns scores another point in their favor. No dehorning or horn ailments.

The potato yield of Clackamas county will not fall much below that of last year, as it has been discovered that a largely increased acreage was planted last spring. At present and prospective prices the potato crop will be the means of distributing thousands of dollars in this section.

D. Kauffman, of Needy, who was in town Wednesday, reports that his corn silos are proving a great success for fall and winter feed for his cows. Mr. Kauffman is a very successful dairyman, his creamery being a paying investment. His green corn silos have been a great help in the business.

PROBATE COURT.

Judge Ryan Made Several Orders During the Week.

In the matter of the estate of Levi Davis, deceased, A. V. Davis, executor, Monday, the 22d day of December, was set as the time for hearing final settlement.

On petition of Mrs. Lizzie Harcourt, she was appointed guardian of the four minor heirs of Francis M. Pickard, deceased. The decedent was a resident of Logan, and owned property in Clackamas county, but died at Wardner, Idaho, a few days ago. H. S. Harcourt was appointed administrator of the estate.

W. D. Bowers was appointed guardian of the person and estate of Rena May, a minor.

In the matter of the estate of Leonora Elizabeth Lacey, deceased, Albert Lacey, executor, Monday, the 22d day of December, 1901, was set as the date for hearing final objections to the settlement of the estate.

In the matter of the estate of Charles P. Sullivan, deceased, Helen M. Montaw, administrator, the following were appointed appraisers: G. W. Prosser, J. A. Tufts and James Monroe, all of Oswego.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The first meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' Association for the year will be held at the Harmony school house on the East side of the Southern Pacific railroad track, between Clackamas Station and Milwaukie, tomorrow morning, (Saturday). Professor T. J. Gary, Miss Fannie G. Porter and County Superintendent J. O. Zinser, the committee, have arranged the following excellent program to be participated in by representative talent: At the forenoon session Mrs. G. M. Strange, of the Willaburg school, will tell "How to Make the Schoolroom Attractive." The round table topic for afternoon will be as follows: The Teachers' Part, Miss R. T. Smith, principal of the Eastham school, Oregon City; The Pupils' Part, Miss Florence Patty, West Oregon City; The Parents' Part, Miss Kathryn Gasto, Milwaukie; The Directors' Part, Principal J. W. Fisher, Clackamas; The Superintendent's Part, Principal H. T. Evans, of Oswego.

The Oregon City Academy is having a much larger attendance of pupils than heretofore, many young people in town taking special courses of study there. Professor W. H. and Mrs. Davis are excellent teachers, and their academy has become a permanent institution.

W. W. Austen and two other teachers in Grant county have been holding a series of educational meetings in that section, which were well attended.

FALLS SAUNTERINGS.

The Mens' Club first supper of the season, held at the Congregational church last week, was a notable beginning for another season's literary feasting. These suppers and talented lectures will be special features of the club meetings during the coming winter. The officers elect, Colonel Robert A. Miller president, Waldo Adams secretary and I. D. Taylor treasurer, are well fitted for their respective duties. Governor Gear will be the next club speaker.

About three weeks ago the city council ordered the chief of police to have all the slot machines removed. They still stand on the counters. By the way, who was to get that $750 per month, that an attempt was made to collect from each individual who kept a slot machine on his premises?

The Retail Merchants Association want cheaper lights, and are after those fellows with a sharp gouge, who decline to close up their places of business at 8 p. m.

It is actually getting too dry for plowing, notwithstanding the heavy rains that fell earlier in the season.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

"Something New Under the Sun."

All Doctors have tried to cure CATARRH by the use of powders, acid gases inhalers and drugs in paste form. The powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of CATARRH, has at last perfected a Treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures CATARRH, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the afflicted parts. This wonderful remedy is known as "SNUFFLES THE GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE" and is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a full month's treatment and everything necessary to its perfect use.

"SNUFFLES" is the only perfect CATARRH CURE ever made and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently and is also wonderfully quick to relieve HAY FEVER or COLD IN THE HEAD.

CATARRH when neglected often leads to CONSUMPTION—"SNUFFLES" will save you if you use it at once. It is no ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is positively guaranteed to Cure CATARRH in any form or stage if used according to the directions which accompany each package. Don't delay but send for it at once and write full particulars as to your condition, and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you beyond the regular price of "SNUFFLES" THE GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE."
