

BLACK GOODS OF THE DEEPEST DYE

BIG SELLING MEANS BIG VALUES

Such low prices were never before coupled with such excellent qualities. We invite our friends to come and take a peep at the superb new weaves of french dress goods that have just arrived from the world's best looms.

NEW OFFERINGS EVERY WEEK

We have every weave, shade and quality in fine black and colored dress goods. Ladies, make no mistake. If you want the correct thing in dress goods, dress goods with a reputation we have it. We commend them to you on the strength of the maker's reputation, that's all.

MAIL ORDERS RECEIVE PROMPT ATTENTION

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS
THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. J. Guyer, of Carus, was in town Saturday.
P. DeShazer, of Dover, was a visitor in town Friday.
E. J. Ward, of Oswego, was a visitor in the city Monday.
Fred Seely, of Wilsonville, was in Oregon City Monday.
John E. Jones, of Beaver Creek, was in town Saturday.
Orin Cutting, of Molalla, was in Oregon City Thursday.
A. Sprague, of Redland, was a visitor in the city Monday.
Longstreet Vaughan, of Molalla, was in the city Saturday.
A. Swales and wife, of Logan, were in Oregon City Saturday.
Jed Bates, of Logan, was a visitor in Oregon City Saturday.
Eugene Cumins, of Highland, was in Oregon City Saturday.
William O. Martin, of Beaver Creek, was in town Monday.
James Armstrong, of Canby, was in Oregon City Monday.
H. T. Melvin, of Barlow, was a visitor in the city Monday.
The Misses Blum visited relatives in Portland over Sunday.
Lyle Paxton, a well known resident of Logan, was in town Friday.

J. J. Johnson, a prominent resident of Oswego, was in town Saturday.
Mrs. M. Walsh, of Milwaukie, was a visitor in Oregon City Monday.
W. H. Husbands and wife, of Liberal, were visitors in town Monday.
William H. Jones, of New Era precinct, was in Oregon City Friday.
David Jones and son, of Beaver Creek, were visitors in the city Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. John Toole, of Corvallis, were visitors in the city Monday.
James Barlow was in from the Molalla country during the past week.
Rev. W. Brenner, of The Dalles, was visiting friends in the city Tuesday.
I. D. Trullinger, a sawmill man, of Union Mills, was in the city Saturday.
George Hiccinbotham and son, of Redland, were visitors in the city Monday.
Mrs. J. Wolfer, of Needy, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. B. Dimick.
J. A. Carter, of Wilhoit, was in the city for a couple of days during the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. M. Oatfield, of Milwaukie, were visitors in the city during the week.
Henry Hillery, of Damascus, was in the city Monday, accompanied by his grandson.
Carl Haberlach, the new attorney, now has his office with J. F. Clark, the abstractor.

Mrs. W. M. Shank returned from Canby Friday, where she had been visiting relatives.
G. C. Etchinson, who has been in Eastern Oregon for several months, returned Friday.
Miss Pet Remy, of Molalla, was in the city Saturday on her way to Canby to visit friends.
Mrs. S. N. Tanser is visiting relatives near LaCamas, Wash. She expects to return next week.
D. H. Boen, who has been ill at his home on the Abernethy, is somewhat improved in health.
L. M. Herren, of Salem, was visiting his daughter, Mrs. R. N. Morris at Parkplace Saturday.
Henry and E. W. Hornshuh, of Shubel, accompanied by their wives, were visitors in town Monday.
Misses Sophie and Gretchen Brochart, of Fairdale, Yamhill county, have been visiting Mrs. E. Meyer.
Mrs. L. Hale, of Currinsville, who has been receiving medical treatment at Salem, returned home Saturday.
Miss May Mark, formerly with Olds & King at Portland, has accepted a position in Busch's furniture store.
William Sandstrom, of Wilhoit, was in Oregon City Saturday. He was on his way to Sellwood to visit his father.
Ex-Governor and Mrs. Sylvester Penoyer, of Portland, were in the city Saturday on their way to Salem for a short visit.
J. K. Graham was in the city Saturday. He has completed moving his household effects from Carus to Portland.
G. W. Knight, the Hubbard merchant, passed through the city early in the week on his way home from Portland.
Adam Little and wife, of Castle Rock, Wash., who were visiting his uncle, Assessor Eli Williams, returned home Friday.
Mrs. W. Wicks, formerly Miss Lena Goldsmith, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Goldsmith, in Eugene.—Gurrd.
G. H. Gregory, jr., the well known tassel grower, of Molalla, was in the city Friday, and reported a satisfactory outlook.
Mrs. L. Webert and Miss Emma J. Snyder, of Aurora, were in the city during the week, on their way home from Portland.
Warren and Grant Corby, of Woodburn, accompanied by their wives, have been visiting L. K. Seeley and family, near Wilsonville.
Mrs. Anna Austen, of Liberal, was in town Saturday, on her way home from Portland, where she had been attending the carnival.
Ned Jackson, who is interested in the Molalla mines, was in the city Saturday. He arrived from Prairie City, Grant county, a few months ago.
Mrs. Fannie Bennett, of Baker City, was visiting her sister, Miss Mattie Noe Saturday and Sunday. She is now visiting her parents at Needy.
Dee Wright was in town Saturday, and went out to Molalla to visit W. O. Vaughan, who is recovering from the effects of his recent accident.
E. A. Leighton and Charles Ely killed a black bear on their recent hunting trip to Tansy basin, near the headwaters of the Clackamas river.

Our Children's Department

Is the Delight of All Mothers. Visit It

The same rigid scrutiny of fabrics the same smart tailoring for boys' clothing as for men's. Styles that have the boyish grace with the manly finish.

Beautiful suits for the little fellows; strong, sturdy suits for the older boys—practical and novel; a splendid collection of boys' clothes that is not matched anywhere—that no parents of boys can afford to miss seeing. Many, indeed, express surprise that we can give so much for the price, and it has troubled us more to supply the demand than it has to sell these goods. "Brevity is the soul of wit." The following are briefly stated with no pretensions, but there's wisdom in buying them, to wit:

Children's Suits $3.50 and $5.00 a Suit
Youth's Suits Ages 14 to 19, $7.50 a Suit

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest
Fourth and Morrison Sts. PORTLAND, OREGON

BOSS-14K
F-867

Watch Our Watches

BOSS-14K
F-753

A Watch is not bought the same as other merchandise. When you purchase a suit of clothes or a pair of shoes you can usually tell what it is, but when you invest your money in a watch you have to depend entirely on the dealer.

Dealing in Watches and repairing has been our business for over twenty years. We have made it a specialty. We know all about Watches and their value. When we buy our watches from the factories, we buy them right and we sell them again we know what we can recommend to our customers. For this reason we guarantee to give satisfaction.

At present we have a large assortment of BOSS FILLED WATCHES, they are of the very latest designs and we are offering them at a reasonable price. If you have been thinking about purchasing one we would like to have you look over our stock. We know that they will please you. We have them in all grades and all sizes.

We have a SPECIAL OFFER for those who would like to own a high grade time-piece and can not afford to pay for it all at one time. We will sell watches on the installment plan. You make a payment when you buy the watch and pay the balance in weekly or monthly payments. We would be pleased to explain this method to you.

BOSS-14K
F-837

Burmeister & Andresen

The Oregon City Jewelers

BOSS-14K
K 1027

John R. ... has just shipped six crates of fine fowls from here to his new poultry ranch, on the east side of the river below Oregon City.—Dallas Itemizer.

L. Bartlemy, of Eagle Creek, and Wilbur M. Guile, of Portland, were in the city Monday, making arrangements for the funeral of Mrs. Barton at Eagle Creek.

T. W. Clark, manager of the Bandon woolen mills, started on his return trip Monday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Clark, who will remain at Bandon until December, before returning home.

Mrs. Gussie Cole-Miller and Miss Lila Giesy, of Aurora, passed through the city Monday on their way home from Portland, where they attended the grand lodge of the Rainbow Sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wiggins and children returned to their home at Seaside Saturday. Mrs. Wiggins had been visiting her parents, Deacon and Mrs. James Wilkinson for the past three weeks.

Mrs. A. M. Yocum, wife of O. C. Yocum, the guide and weather observer at Government camp, Mount Hood, was up from Portland visiting the family of Rev. A. J. Montgomery during the week.

John Haskins left yesterday for Oregon City after a business visit in Corvallis. His 18-acre farm, near town, has not been sold or rented, and he may return later to reside on it.—Corvallis Times.

Fred and Emil Thasmer, and Fred Meyer, their brother-in-law, of Sylvan Grove, Kan., are visiting Rev. E. Meyer and family. They are cousins of Rev. Meyer and are making a tour of the West.

Mrs. Ellen Broderick, who has been living at the home of Mrs. Oscar Fosburg at Bolton for some time past, went to Portland this week for a visit with friends. She has almost recovered her usual health.

Judge McBride is afflicted with a very severe cold, or gripe, as it is commonly called, and it was with some difficulty that the judge was able to keep matters going in the court room.—St. Helens Mist.

Leonard Heinz, a well known resident of Macsburg precinct, was in Oregon City Friday. He reported that George Scheer was recovering from the effects of a recent accident, mentioned in last week's paper.

Velvet hats in all the latest shapes and prices moderate. Miss Goldsmith.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

B. J. Conklin, the contractor of Oregon City, was in the city Monday on business.—Aurora Borealis. Who is Conklin, the contractor?

Postmaster Horton received a notification from the department Tuesday to withdraw all Pan-American postage stamps from sale on November 1st.

William Galloway did well. He held to the office of receiver of the Oregon City land office two and a half years over the four years for which he was appointed. A mighty good record these changeable times.—Albany Democrat.

The Presbyterian Christian Endeavor Society will give a social, literary and musical entertainment at Shively's hall this (Friday) evening. A drama, also will be presented, entitled, "What They Did on the Day Before the Wedding."

Mrs. Mary Barton, aged 64, died near Eagle Creek, at her home Monday morning, aged 64. The funeral took place Tuesday, Rev. Preston conducting the services. The deceased had been a resident of Eagle Creek for the past 15 years, and was held in the highest esteem. She left four sons and two daughters.

William Miller, who lives six miles out on the Highland road, is suffering a broken arm, the result of the upsetting of his cart early last Monday morning. He had started to drive to town before daylight, and turned out of the road to let a woman pass, resulting in a broken arm caused by the upsetting of the cart. He drove on to town, and Dr. Sumner set the broken arm.

J. F. Rait, who recently purchased the Cheney interests in the Cheney photograph gallery, has bought the property at the corner of Main and Tenth streets, including the junk store and extending back to the railroad track. The purchase price was $1700, and it is considered a good buy. It is the intention to erect a new photograph gallery on this property and make other improvements.

There appears to be a spirit of rivalry existing between the Weinhard and Gambrinus breweries in the fierce struggle for local patronage. The latter has secured a long lease on the property at the corner of Fourth and Main streets, from Mrs. M. A. Stratton, and will remodel the same for a beer hall. The property is at present occupied as a saloon by J. N. Miller, who will remove to the building adjoining Young's livery stable, which is being fitted up for that purpose.

T. W. Secor has written from Aberdeen, Washington, under date of Oct. 17th, stating that Robert Jenkins, a pioneer resident of Grays' Harbor, died at St. Joseph's hospital of Bright's disease. He was well known in all parts of the western country, having traveled over the plains in the early days from Indiana. The deceased lived in Oregon City about eight years ago and was employed in the Imperial flouring mill. The older residents of Oregon City knew him well, and he is highly appreciated by his old friends here.

The Retail Merchants Association held a meeting Monday night, and the burden of discussion was the present high price of commercial incense.

lights, 75 cents per month. The business houses assert that that should the price of lights be reduced that they will use more incandescents. Only two houses are holding out against the 8 o'clock closing proposition, and the Association will try moral suasion on them and if that does not prove effective, other means will be tried.

The Dalles Times-Mountaineer gives an account of the death of W. E. Campbell, a well known citizen and surveyor of that place, who died suddenly at La Grande presumably of rheumatism of the heart. W. E. Campbell was born in Oregon City April 17th, 1851, and was the son of William B. and Frances Campbell, two of Oregon's well known pioneers. With his parents he came to Wasco county at the age of 10 years, and has ever since made it his home. He left a widow and eight children.

The residents of third ward in the vicinity of Elyville, held a meeting at the enginehouse Monday night to consider the matter of petitioning the city council to put in an arc light at the corner where the wagon road leaves Molalla avenue that runs to Mountain View cemetery. The consensus of opinion expressed was that an arc light on a 60 foot pole would furnish illumination for about 50 houses. The people of Ely will furnish the pole, and the council will be asked to furnish the light, which will accommodate a large number of people.

The census reports on paper and pulp mills in the United States for the census year 1900, has been received at this office. The report shows that Oregon has five paper and pulp mills with a capital invested of $2,161,186; the average number of hands employed were 716 and the total wages paid were $282,896; the miscellaneous expenses were $147,417 and the cost of materials used, $582,078. The total value of products is $1,290,186. Twenty-one thousand four hundred and sixteen tons of news paper were made valued at $856,646.

A runaway team attached to a wagon, containing two women and five small children, the youngest an infant, rushed down Main street at breakneck speed Friday. As the runaway team passed by like a flash, bystanders flinched with horror, expecting that the occupants of the vehicle would meet death or serious injury. Fortunately, Thomas Trembath stopped the horses, by catching them by the bridle, and no serious damage resulted. The team started from the vicinity of the Red Store, and were caught near the Albright corner. The names of the occupants of the wagon was not learned.

About a $75 house greeted the boxing match at the armory last Saturday night between Louis Rall, of Gladstone, and "Kid" Smith, of Ashland. It was an interesting exhibition of skill, although Smith was not exactly in prime condition. At the close of the fourth round Referee Jack Day, of Portland, declared Rall the winner. It was evident that Smith would not have been able to stand up under another round. A preliminary boxing match took place between young Hunt, of Portland, and George Rall, of Parkplace; the latter easily winning out in the fifth round. The Rall family are fairly in-it-as winners.

Go to Racket Store for bargains.