Our Children's Department

Is the Delight of All Mothers. Visit It

The same rigid scrutiny of fabrics the same smart tailoring for boys' clothing as for men's. Styles that have the boyish grace with the manly finish.

Beautiful suits for the little fellows; strong, sturdy suits for the older boys--- practical and novel; a splendid collection of boys' clothes that is not matched anywhere--- that no parents of boys can afford to miss seeing. Many, indeed, express surprise that we can give so much for the price, and it has troubled us more to supply the demand than it has to sell these goods. "Brevity is the soul of wit." The following are briefly stated with no pretensions, but there's wisdom in buying them, to wit:

Children's Suits $3.50 and $5.00 a Suit
Youth's Suits Ages 14 to 19, $7.50 a Suit

Ex-County Superintendent N. W. Bowland, now principal of the Monahan school at Mount Tabor, was in the city Friday and Saturday, looking after land business.
E. P. Carier and family moved in from Wilhoit this week and are occupying the Whitlock dwelling on the hill. They expect to become permanent residents of Oregon city.
C. A. Hermann, a former resident of Oregon City, who was long connected with the railway mail service, was a passenger on the south-bound overland train Monday morning.
J. G. Forester, of Eagle Creek, was in town Monday, and stated that farmers were anxious for the ground to become sufficiently wet so that they could continue plowing for the fall crops.
W. S. Hurst and H. A. Snyder attended the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Jerome Mining Company at Astoria Tuesday. Mr. Hurst was elected a director.—Aurora Borealis.
Captain Dr. L. L. Pickens, of Oregon City, at the head of I Company in the Philippines at one time, has been hunting around Brownsville for several days after Celestials, not Filipinos.—Albany Democrat.
C. A. Burckhardt, of Barton, was in town Monday after a load of wheat for his flouring mill. The farmers in that section are all feeding their wheat to the hogs, consequently there is a scarcity for milling purposes.
Mrs. J. W. Givens, of Blackfoot, Idaho, arrived Saturday, and will visit her parents, County Treasurer and Mrs. A. Luelling for several weeks. Her husband, Dr. Givens is superintendent of the Idaho insane asylum.
Thomas Flynn received a letter the first of the week from his brother, Byron Flynn, who is visiting in the East. He was then at Watertown, N. Y., after visiting several points in Canada. He expects to be here in another month.
Miss Jennie Galbreath, of Albany, who formerly conducted a confectionery store here in connection with her sister, was visiting friends in the city Friday. She was on her way to Burke, Idaho, to accept a responsible position in the post-office there.
Miss Maggie Boyd and Mrs. L. C. Nelson, of Prineville, who have been visiting here for several weeks past, will start on their return trip home Saturday. Miss Nellie Boyd, who has lived here for the last year past, will accompany them.
Herman Gessner returned last Friday from a trip outside. He was accompanied home by his two brothers-in-law, H. Betke, a butcher, of Oregon City, and Fritz Bent, of Newberg. This was their first visit to Tillamook, and they were greatly surprised at the thrifty appearance of things generally.—Tillamook Herald.

Several cases of scarlet fever are reported from the Mount Pleasant and Parkplace districts.
George Lazelle, of Mount Pleasant, shipped a fine six months old red poll bull calf last Friday to a purchaser at Cottage Grove. It was a fine animal of extraordinary proportions.
The Parkplace school has closed down temporarily on account of the little son of Charles Smith having an attack of scarlet fever. The boy, Archibald, aged two years, died Sunday. No other cases are reported in that neighborhood.
A swift journey on a bicycle was made Saturday by Frank Hart. He went from Corvallis to Oregon City in six hours. It is not likely that the trip was ever made by wheel in so short a time. It ought to be added that he had a sharp south wind at his back most of the way.—Corvallis Times.
Falls Campment (No. 4, will have an interesting gathering on Tuesday, November 5th. Several new members will be initiated, and visiting delegations will be present from Portland, Woodburn and Silverton. It will be an eventful occasion in the history of one of the oldest encampments in the state.
The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson McKillican has been presented with a solid silver cup by Meade Relief Corps, in honor of the fact that she is the only granddaughter of any member of the corps. The cup was beautifully engraved, "From Meade Relief Corps, No. 18, Department of Oregon." It is the desire of the Corps to name their honored granddaughter.
Henry Russell, who located and extensively prospected a quartz claim on Ogle creek in the Southeastern section of Clackamas county, has bonded the prospect to capitalists, who have a force of men sinking a shaft on the property. The indications are favorable for an extensive deposit of rich ore. Lead and outside croppings of the vein were very rich. Spar is a noticeable feature of the rock formation. There were several prospecting parties on Ogle creek during the past season.
The suit of A. W. Blackburn against George L. Rees for alienating the affections of his wife at Albany, has been compromised for $250. The suit was brought for $10,000, but according to the terms of the compromise Blackburn secures the custody of a son, who has been living with his mother. Rees is well known in Oregon City, having spent several weeks here last spring in the interest of the Maccoabees. The plaintiff in the suit is a son of Attorney-General Blackburn. On account of the prominence of the parties the case attracted considerable attention.
Clackamas Station has entered on an era of building improvement. S. T. Garrison is building a two-story hard-finished dwelling house. E. C. Chapman is making some substantial improvements to his dwelling and store-building. Five wagon-loads of newcomers arrived this week from Wisconsin and Eastern Oregon. This new immigration resulted in the purchase of three building lots on which dwellings will be erected. Clackamas Station has many points of advantage as a desirable residence location, and is convenient to both Portland and Oregon City.

The Clackamas County Humane Society held its annual meeting at the Bank of Oregon City Monday night, and re-elected the following officers: President, Miss Annacia McCarver; vice-president, George A. Harding; secretary, Rev. A. J. Montgomery; treasurer, E. G. Caulfield. The directors elected are W. A. Huntley and Messrs. Caulfield and Harding. It is planned to erect a public drinking fountain at a prominent and convenient place in the city, which will have drinking troughs for horses and dogs. It is intended to have the fountain completed before the hot weather begins next summer.

All Doctors have tried to cure CATARRH by the use of powders, acid gases inhalers and drugs in paste form. The powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of CATARRH, has at last perfected a Treatment which when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures CATARRH, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the afflicted parts. This wonderful remedy is known as "SNUFFLES" the GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE and is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a full month's treatment and everything necessary to its perfect use.
"SNUFFLES" is the only perfect CATARRH CURE ever made and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently and is also wonderfully quick to relieve HAY FEVER or COLD in the HEAD.
CATARRH when neglected often leads to CONSUMPTION—"SNUFFLES" will save you if you use it at once. It is no ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is positively guaranteed to Cure CATARRH in any form or stage if used according to the directions which accompany each package. Don't delay but send for it at once and write full particulars as to your condition, and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you beyond the regular price of "SNUFFLES" the GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE.
