IN THE CIRCUIT COURT.

The Regular November Term in Session.

Judge McBride convened the regular November term of circuit court Monday. T. M. Miller and T. W. Fouts were appointed court and trial bailiffs and W. W. H. Samson grand jury bailiff. The following jurymen were excused from attendance during the term: John W. Moffatt, S. T. Fisher, H. F. Yergen, John C. Marks and John Richey. Following is the personnel of the men doing jury service at this term of court, all representative citizens:

GRAND JURY.

Mathew Athey, foreman, is one of the prominent early pioneers of Clackamas county, and lives on his farm, near Stafford.

James Guttridge, of Springwater, is associated with his father in one of the largest prune orchards in that section of the county. They have resided there for the past 20 years.

Charles Daugherty is one of the best known farmers and old residents of Molalla.

George O. Perdue is a native son and live young farmer of Needy.

John J. Hattan is another native son, and one of the progressive citizens of Clackamas county. He lives at Stone and is largely interested in the Clear Creek Creamery Company.

William P. Shively lives on the Tualatin, four miles from Oregon City, and was formerly a highly respected resident of Oswego, where he still owns property.

S. S. Mohler is a well known painter of Oregon City.

PETIT JURYMEN.

H. F. Gibson is a prominent merchant of Eagle Creek, and is widely known throughout Clackamas county.

C. D. Story is a well known resident of Oregon City, and was formerly in the blacksmith business.

Pleasant DeShields is an old resident farmer of Clackamas precinct, and has a wide acquaintance.

John Wright, of Canyon Creek, has been a resident of this county for 20 years or more, and has filled the office of county surveyor.

T. K. A. Sellwood has been a prominent resident of Oregon for nearly 60 years, and has lived in Millwaukie during a greater portion of the time.

George C. Armstrong is a prominent farmer of Redland, and has a wide circle of friends.

A. J. Thompson is a prominent Oswego farmer.

Charles E. Midlam is a prominent young resident of Canemah, and is a millwright.

G. H. Webster is one of the substantial farmers of Clackamas, and has heretofore done jury service.

Lorenzo Tenny came to Viola from Nebraska in 1894, and has been prominent in the affairs of the community.

Orin Wright is one of the prominent old farmers of Macksburg precinct.

J. M. Gillett is a well known carpenter, residing at Ely.

Koy Phelps is a well known Marquam farmer, raised in Marion county.

Frank Bates is one of the solid farmers residing in Damascus precinct, and has been in Oregon for many years.

R. D. Wilmot is a substantial farmer of Oswego precinct, came from Missouri about 20 years ago.

J. C. Fry is a prominent pioneer resident farmer of Barlow precinct.

D. G. Frost is a well known carpenter of Oregon City.

Longstreet Vaughan, of Molalla, is a son of the well known pioneer, William H. Vaughan, and is a prosperous farmer.

This was the first grand jury empaneled for two years, the new law making it optional with the Court as to the advisability of drawing a grand jury. Judge McBride further stated that dispensing with a grand jury had proven an economical measure for the county. However, there were times when it was necessary to have the services of a grand jury. The matter rested largely with the judgment of the district attorney in the premises. It was likely to be the practice of the Court to have a grand jury every two years.

On motion of the prosecuting attorney the standing indictments against Louis Himler, L. Himler and R. C. Worthington for violating the fish laws, were dismissed.

William Tinnerstett vs David Anderson; settled and dismissed.

B. C. Chambers vs O. F. Hibbard; not properly on docket.

George Weber vs Helen B. Rinearson; dismissed.

Knapp, Burrell & Co. vs Henry N. Chand; settled.

Philip Tatro vs C. H. Prescott, receiver of the East Side Railway Company; dismissed.

W. P. Wiggins vs Meldrum McCown; dismissed.

H. E. Lee vs M. Bauer; settled.

M. E. Brubaker vs R. W. Wade; stands on motion to dismiss.

E. Mack Howell vs Oregon Iron and Steel Company; up on demurrer.

H. E. Cross vs Marion Johnson; not properly on docket.

Thomas F. Ryan vs Mitchell & Hard; settled.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Friday, November 1.

Plague A dispatch from Glasgow, Scotland, states that the Glasgow bubonic plague reappeared there during the week.

Four suspected cases were removed from the Central Hotel, belonging to the Caledonian Railway, and one died today. The hotel has been closed, and all the guests have been warned to leave by noon tomorrow. It appears that all the cases under inspection are servants of the hotel. An examination of the bacteria proves conclusively that the disease is bubonic plague. The municipal authorities, in anticipation of the plague, urge all householders to destroy rats.

Chief Joseph, head of the Nez Percé tribe, is in Spokane, and expects to go to Washington where he will see President Roosevelt, and demand that a public school be maintained at the home of himself and followers on the Spokane reservation. He wants to make a protest against the order of Agent Anderson closing the Indian school at Nespelem. This school has been established for many years. It was popular with the Indians, as the children can come home at night. The school at the agency is many miles from the home of the tribe. So far, the children have not been sent to the agency school, and the Indians are threatened with arrest unless the children are made to comply with the law. Joseph will renew his petition to be allowed to return to the old hutting grounds in Wallawa county, Oregon.

The Twenty-eighth Infantry may go from Vancouver to the Philippines.

A smelter will be built in Portland especially adapted to the ores of the Bohemia district.

Saturday, November 2.

Attacked Lord Kitchener has reported to the London War Office a disaster to the British, near Bethel, Eastern Transvaal, in which two guns were lost, nine officers killed, 13 killed and 160 wounded. The text of Lord Kitchener's dispatch, is as follows: "I have just heard of a severe attack made on the rear guard of Colonel Benson's column, when about 20 miles northwest of Bethel, near Broken Langte, during a thick mist. The strength of the enemy is reported to have been 1,000. They rushed two guns with the rear guard, but it is uncertain whether they were able to remove them. I fear our casualties are heavy. Colonel Benson and several officers are dead.

Li Hung Chang's foreign physicians tonight pronounced his condition grave. He has had hemorrhages for the past two days. His death would probably affect the negotiations as to Manchuria, which he had been conducting with M. Paul Lesser, Russian minister to China.

Naval plans call for the construction of 40 more warships.

The Sultan of Turkey has ordered the completion with all possible speed of the defenses at Smyrna, and the entrance to the Dardanelles. Submarine mines will be placed and troops mobilized at points where disembarkments are likely. A violent anti-French feeling prevails, and fears are felt for the safety of French residents in Turkish cities, Constantinople excepted. The Paris correspondent of the London Times and New York Times declares that the patience of France with Turkey has been exhausted. He says that it is now the general belief that Turkey will now abandon her procrastinating tactics and will fulfil her engagements.

Sunday, November 3.

Corbett H. W. Corbett, of Portland, set the ball rolling Centennial for the Lewis & Clark centennial celebration yesterday afternoon with a subscription of $30,000. This is one-tenth of the entire amount that is to be subscribed by the stockholders of the corporation. Mr. Corbett made this announcement at the meeting of the members of the committees appointed by the chamber of commerce, board of trade and manufacturers' association, to co-operate with the subscription committee of the incorporators, of which Mr. Corbett is chairman. It was the unanimous opinion of the business men present that $300,000 could be raised to make the Lewis & Clark celebration a success, and further, that the generous subscription of Mr. Corbett did much to assure the raising of the amount and the ultimate success of the exposition project.

The Multnomah Athletic Club defeated the University of Oregon Club by a score of 5 to 0 in football at Eugene yesterday.

Portland men have secured control of rich copper mines in Skamania county Wash.

The next annual farmer's congress will be held at Salem, January 6-9, 1902.

The La Grande, Or., beet sugar factory will close Tuesday, after the best year in its history.

Monday, November 4.

Bapat, From conciliator of the French Turkey. embassy at Constantinople, directing him to present to Tewfik Pasha, Ottoman minister of foreign affairs, a note, asking how the Turkish government proposes to pay the Lorando claim, and demanding the execution of the Sultan's trade dealing with that matter. The note will also require satisfaction regarding the rights of France, which are defined in the various capitulations and treaties, which in some cases have not been respected and in others have been encroached upon by Turkey. This declaration of what has been done bears out the statement made yesterday to the associated press about the intentions of the French government.
