Farmers have about all finished seeding, and are rushing their fall plowing. There is not much fall wheat being sowed this fall.

A good many of the farmers are butch-the road, but how about the dam you are making? Will the water run between the boulders? I say yes. Miss Effie Morey has lost her Phillip-pine pup. Some one not having the fear of God before his eyes took it. The quicker they return it the better off they will be. Wee unto them, if they don't.

Levi Stehman is on the sick list. You'll be over it by Thanksgiving, Levi. Say, if the wedding bells don't ring soon, some of our pretty girls will live to be old maids. SYLNIA.

The G. O. P. is getting frightened at focialism. See how the post office of-ficials are trying to drive socialist pa-pers out of the United States mail, and you never see it mentioned in either of the old party papers. Freedom of the press now means the republican press. John Andrews butchered nine sevenmonths old pigs last week that neffed him $82.27. Who said there wasn't any money in pigs? About everything John handles turns to gold.

A good many of the farmers are butch-ering their hogs and putting them down in the brine barrel for bacon. Colds seem to be very numerous here. N. H. Darnall has moved onto the Moody place for the winter. J. Akine has purchased a new horse from John Jackson.
