

Cloaks and Dress Goods

34 1/2 yards of 60-inch Oxford gray suiting, suitable for street wear or rainy day skirts; standard value $1.00 yard, for

63c a yard

Or a full suit pattern for $2.52; and for rainy day skirts, $1.57. The best value on earth—CAN'T BE BEAT.

1345 YDS. ALL-WOOL MIXED SUITING

Former price 50c, 65c and 75c a yard; your choice for

37c a yard

36-INCH COTTON WARP SCOTCH PLAIDS

943 yards of pretty patterns, in bright Scotch plaids, suitable for kilts or school dresses; former price 25c and 30c; your choice for

19c a yard

All brand new goods. No trash or shop worn goods. Fresh from the manufacturers.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS
THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

U. S. and J. F. Dix, of Colton, were in Oregon City Tuesday. The latter is employed in a sawmill at Oak Point, Wash., and had been home for a few days visit.

Rev. William Stover, who has been in Portland the greater part of the time for the past two months, has been visiting his parents here. He expects to go to the Sound.

George Aden, of Frog Pond, was in town Tuesday. He stated that Charles and Blany Seely, of Wilsonville, sold their 3000 sacks of onions at $1.50 on board the cars.

Mrs. A. J. Sawtell returned Sunday from an extended visit to her sister at Walla Walla. She left Tuesday morning for Klamath county to spend the winter with her daughter.

A. H. Olmstead, superintendent of the Logan cheese factory, was in town Saturday and Sunday, visiting his daughter, Mrs. Jack Blount at Bolton. He was accompanied by his wife.

T. G. Jonsrud, justice of the peace at Kelso, was in Oregon City Monday. He stated that a number of new corners had located in that section. Casper Yunker, proprietor of the Sandy Hotel, has given several successful dancing parties in his new hall.

George Swafford, Lewis Feaster, Ruth erford Whitlock, Jack Matthews, and Wilford A. White, of Rands Brothers' surveying party, returned home from Idaho last Thursday night. Conny Surveyor Ernest Rands and his brother, Hal, are expected home in a few days.

Jacob Huber, of Logan, who is now receiving medical treatment in Portland, was in the city Wednesday. He is receiving material benefit from a new course of treatment. His son, August Huber died in a Portland hospital about three weeks ago, after a short illness.

Mrs. Rachel Bacon is very ill at her home on upper Seventh street, and it is not believed that she will recover. Mrs. Bacon is the widow of Hon. J. M. Bacon, who for many years was postmaster of Oregon City and was grand secretary of the Odd Fellows grand lodge for a number of successive terms.

Isaac N. Wade arrived from South Dakota Sunday with a car containing his household goods, wagon and team, chicken coop, etc., and has located near Shubel. His family preceded him about a week, having made the trip on the regular passenger train. It cost $200 for a box freight car from South Dakota, and $40 each for the adults, who came on the passenger train.

I. D. Larkins, of Marquam, was in the city Saturday, having brought in 13 steers, which he sold to local butchers. The cattle averaged 1165 pounds each, and brought 3 1/2 cents per pound gross. Mr. Larkins says that he has not heard any candidates for office mentioned in his section as farmers are too busy with their crops to talk politics. Good prices prevail and growers are busy getting their surplus products off to market.

Captain Phil Shannon, of Springwater, was in town Monday, and still has great faith that oil exists in plentiful quantities on his farm. Parties, who desired to prospect for oil on the place, were recently refused a bond. However, a party has gone East to secure means to drill a well on the premises. A new spring was discovered during the summer, on which a thick coating of oil formed.

PERSONALS

George Koehler, of Canby, was in the city Monday.

Henry Epperson, of Borings, was in Oregon City Monday.

S. O. Gribble, of Macksburg, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Polk Gribble, of Marks's Prairie, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Jacob Meyer and daughter, of Clarks, were in the city Monday.

Charles and Ed Morris, of Macksburg, were in the city Saturday.

Miss Rosa Griep and sister, of Barlow, were visitors in the city Saturday.

E. D. Harms and children, of Macksburg, were in Oregon City Monday.

L. Graiser, a well known farmer of Canby precinct, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. C. W. Caples, of Vancouver, visited Mr. and Mrs. Philip Caples Sunday.

S. T. Roman, formerly of this office, began a term of school at Colton last Monday.

Miss Jennie B. Hughes, of Salem, has been visiting Mrs. D. H. Glass and Miss Fullerton.

Mrs. W. G. Glover, of Eagle Creek, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. S. Gibson.

Mrs. T. V. Smith, of Portland, a former resident of Oregon City, is visiting Mrs. H. L. Kelly.

D. W. Howell, of Springwater, a well known farmer and fruitgrower, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

E. Bates, of Corvallis, was in town

Wednesday to be examined before the board of pension examiners.

John McGetchie has moved into the Wilkinson house on Fourteenth street, recently vacated Herman Logus.

E. and G. Krigbaum, the well known prunegrowers, were in the city Friday. The latter was accompanied by his wife.

Mrs. Charles Bolde has returned to her home at Gladstone, after a month's visit with her son, Rev. C. U. Cross at Lebanon.

Charles D. Hartman, wife and son, of Scott's Mills, were in the city Tuesday on their way to Eastern Oregon to visit relatives.

George H. Gregory, jr., of Molalla, was in town Friday, looking after another big shipment of teasels to New England.

A. T. Cochran, of Hubbard, was in Oregon City Tuesday. In another column he advertises a farm, near Needy, for sale cheap.

Gilbert Horton, one of the delivery clerks in the postoffice, has been confined to his room with illness, during the past week.

Claude M. Bacon, who was formerly employed in the Willamette paper mills here, now holds a position in the paper mills at Fulton, N. Y.

W. F. Kirk returned Friday from Burney, Calif., where he has been located for several months past. He may remain in this county.

Mrs. E. W. Bingham has been confined by sickness for two weeks, but has recovered sufficiently to return to her home near Oswego.

Mrs. George A. Harding, department secretary of the Relief Corps, has returned from a tour of inspection in Yamhill and Washington counties.

Our Children's Department

Is the Delight of All Mothers. Visit It

The same rigid scrutiny of fabrics the same smart tailoring for boys' clothing as for men's. Styles that have the boyish grace with the manly finish.

Beautiful suits for the little fellows; strong, sturdy suits for the older boys—practical and novel; a splendid collection of boys' clothes that is not matched anywhere—that no parents of boys can afford to miss seeing. Many, indeed, express surprise that we can give so much for the price, and it has troubled us more to supply the demand than it has to sell these goods. "Brevity is the soul of wit." The following are briefly stated with no pretensions, but there's wisdom in buying them, to-wit:

Children's Suits $3.50 and $5.00 a Suit

Youth's Suits Ages 14 to 19, $7.50 a Suit

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest

Fourth and Morrison Sts.

PORTLAND, OREGON

A few of the many advantages of the Kimball Organ

New and elegant designs.

Great care in selecting material.

Best quality reeds.

Improved stop action.

Patent revolving lock board.

Mouse proof.

Every Organ warranted for five years.

Kimball Organs are sold at moderate prices made possible by unequalled facilities and enormous productions.

WHY NOT BUY ONE?

If you can not afford to pay a at one time buy one on installment. It will be easy to pay a small amount in cash when you purchase the instrument and a little cash each month and in a short time you will have something for your money which will pay you large profits in joy and gladness.

Come and See Us About It

Burmeister & Andresen

THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Go to Racker's Store for bargains.

O. L. Williams has begun the publication of a live paper at Drain, The Non-pariel.

Ira L. Jones has secured a back pension for Frank Redner, amounting to over $200, also a regular pension issue of $12 per month.

The Beaver Creek people will dedicate their new hall on Saturday, November 30th. There will be a musical program and other exercises, and State Senator George C. Brownell will speak.

Principal Bowland reports that the Montavilla school has an attendance of nearly 300 pupils, and that the eight rooms in the building are filled. The directors will have to be looking around for more room before another year. Some of the rooms are already overcrowded.—Oregonian.

Miss Elsie G. Coe, a graduate of the Gillespie School of Expression, Portland, will give an elocutionary entertainment in the A. O. U. W. hall on Friday night, November 22nd, under the auspices of Myrtle Lodge, Degree of Honor. Miss Coe will be assisted by Misses Barr and Lytle.

The Foresters Thanksgiving ball Thursday night, November 29th, will be the greatest event of the coming season. It will be the seventh of the annual series, and the principles and details of all former success will be concentrated on the Thanksgiving event. It will be in the armory, and Everest's orchestra will furnish the music.

The Ashland Town Talk, with the last issue, began its sixth volume, and will shortly be enlarged to an eight-column folio. George C. Stanley, the present proprietor of the Town Talk began its publication six years, the paper being a two-column folio with only 21 inches of reading matter. No plate matter is used in the paper, and it is filled with live local advertisements.

The Mitchell "push" was in full force in this city last week. The senator took his departure for Washington last Saturday, and his followers no doubt wished to remind him of his contracts. Senator Porter Porter, of the Oregon City Enterprise, was in evidence among the crowd. He is still expecting his reward for services rendered.—Portland Dispatch.

The School Bulletin is a new educational paper, devoted especially to the interests of Clackamas county schools, issued by County Superintendent J. O. Zinser. The November number has made its appearance, and replete with valuable suggestions to teachers and school officers. It is neatly printed and will be issued monthly. It will be a valuable adjunct in uplifting the cause of common school education.

A Sumpter correspondent of the Oregon Mining Journal, contributes the following: M. E. Bain, who recently returned from Portland and other Willamette points, reports success in having disposed of a considerable block of the stock of the Overland Mining Company. Mr. Bain this week went East, where he expects to dispose of the remainder of the treasury stock of the company. This will provide a working capital with which it is expected to successfully develop the property.

The next meeting of the Clackamas County Teachers' Association, will be a joint session with the Marion County Association at Aurora. This meeting will be held next Saturday. Miss Barlow, of Barlow, will have a prominent place on the program. It is expected that a considerable number of Clackamas county teachers will be in attendance at this meeting. Superintendent Zinser, who is ex-officio president of the Clackamas County Association by virtue of his office, anticipates an interesting meeting.

Burglars entered the Portland House between Sunday night and Monday morning, and secured a few dollars. About 5 o'clock Monday morning, when A. Moore opened the side door of Kambo's saloon, a burglar armed with a pointed revolver confronted him. While Mr. Moore was giving the alarm, the burglar made good his escape down the alley. The burglar had effected an entrance through a rear window, but the only thing missed from the establishment was the revolver lying under the counter.

The steamer Altona came up the river to this place Monday, arriving about 5:30. The Bonita, which has been running on this route since the completion of the locks, has been transferred by Captain Hosford to the lower Columbia. The Oregon City Transportation Company has purchased the locks and other interests of Mr. Hosford along the 3-mile hill river, and will give an every other day service according to the schedule printed in another column of this paper. The O. R. & N. Co's boat will run to Dayton on the days that the Altona does not come to McMinnville. The O. C. T. Company will open an office at this place where an agent will be in charge.—McMinnville Reporter. The Pomona leaves Portland Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, and McMinnville Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday mornings.

Mention was made in this paper last week of the sudden death of Charles Munson, who died at Damascus one week ago Wednesday evening; Coroner Strickland was summoned and held an inquest, the jury returning the following verdict: "In the matter of the inquest on the body of Charles Munson deceased. We, the jury after due investigation, find that the name of the deceased was Charles Munson; that he was 63 years old, and died at Damascus at 6 o'clock, November 14, and the cause of his death was fatty degeneration of the heart." The jurors were J. R. Morton, O. A. Olson, Peter Millstrom, Emil Weise, Henry McMurray, John W. Leder. The deceased had lived on a farm, near Damascus for 25 years, he and his partner, Andrew Swensen, owning everything in common. Both were bachelors, and each had executed wills in favor of the other.

Hot sold at the Kozy Kandy Kitchen
JUMPED ON A TENPENNY NAIL.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of tenpenny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoes as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by G. A. Harding.

The United States Government Report shows ROYAL Baking Powder to be stronger, purer and better than any other.