

...Big Sale...

NEW FRENCH FLANNEL WAISTINGS

We place on sale a new collection of fancy striped French Flannel waistings of the latest creation, 75c and 85c quality, in every shade and color imaginable. Your choice,

50c a yard

The first notes of holiday campaign are heard with the clatter of the hammer on the freshly arrived boxes and cases, telling of the new goods, new prettiness, fresh in the hundreds of dollars' worth of new goods on counters, consisting of fine dress goods, novelty silks and satins in bright opera colors, at 35c and 50c a yard. When we say right prices that covers the whole ground.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

PERSONALS

A. B. Cole, of Barlow, was in the city Wednesday.
 H. H. Kirchem, of Logan, was in the city Monday.
 H. E. Carr, of Colton, was in Oregon City Monday.
 A. G. Walling, of Oswego, was in the city Monday.
 T. J. Moffett, of Clackamas, was in Oregon City Saturday.
 D. R. Dimick, the Canby liverman, was in the city Monday.
 William Penman, of New Era precinct, was in the city Tuesday.
 Frank Jaggar, of Carus, was in Oregon City during the week.
 Louis Kenworthy, of Clackamas, was in Oregon City yesterday.
 W. S. Hallinan, of Oswego, was a visitor in Oregon City Wednesday.
 Al Lacey, the Springwater sawmill man, was in town Wednesday.
 E. Cum in a was in from Highland Wednesday with a load of hogs.
 Mrs. Nay Goodfellow is visiting relatives in Portland for a few days.
 W. W. Jesse, justice of the peace at Barlow, was in the city Monday.
 Ex-County Commissioner Richard Scott, of Milwaukie, was in town.
 Robert Montgomery, of Dufur, is visiting his brother, J. F. Montgomery.
 Mrs. Amelia McClintock, of Wilsonville, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

W. F. Harris, the Beaver Creek sawmill proprietor, was in town Monday.
 Miss Amy Gray, of Portland, visited her sister, Mrs. J. W. Moffatt, Sunday.
 Mrs. F. Davis, of Oswego, visited her mother, Mrs. Ward, for several days past.
 A. Hunter and Fred Brackenbrush, of Sunnyside, were in Oregon City Wednesday.
 H. L. Patterson was down from Salem Monday, looking after his building interests.
 Mrs. M. Morden and Mrs. Little, of Eugene, were visiting Mrs. Doll, last Sunday.
 J. A. Stromgren, road supervisor of Highland precinct, was in Oregon City Monday.
 B. C. Leland and W. Montgomery, of New Era precinct, were in Oregon City Wednesday.
 Mrs. H. S. Moody and son, returned Tuesday from a visit to relatives in Walla Walla.
 J. M. Parish, of Highland, was in the city Monday, and went to Portland in the afternoon.
 Mr. and Mrs. Andy Merese, of Portland, visited John G. Gleason and family Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Klarr, of Macksburg, were in the city Monday, on their way to Portland.
 James Dickey, of Molalla, was visiting relatives in the city for several days during the past week.
 W. H. Bremer and mother, of New Era, went to Portland Monday, for a couple of days visit.

Road Supervisor Fred Wagner and M. C. Donahue, of Cottrell, were in the city Wednesday.
 Mrs. C. S. Chase and son, Charles, of Dallas, former residents here, are visiting friends in the city.
 Mr. and Mrs. Charles Daugherty, of Molalla, were visitors in the city for a couple of days this week.
 William Dreeschell and family, of Canby, were in the city Monday on their way home from Portland.
 Dr. C. Goucher, of Mulino, was in Oregon City Monday, and has greater faith than ever in his Santinum mines.
 Benjamin Jaggar, who recently underwent a surgical operation in a Portland hospital, is slowly improving.
 W. P. Shively, who had been working in Portland for a month, has returned to his home on the Tualatin.
 Mrs. John Weismandel, who was so severely injured a few days ago by a fall, is resting easy and slowly improving.
 Mrs. A. S. Baty, of Canby, was in the city Wednesday to meet Mr. Baty, who had been on an extended drummer trip.
 Will Shively, who is now a student at Pacific university, Forest Grove, was at home during the Thanksgiving holidays.
 A. V. Davis, of Marquam, who is now doing service on the United States trial jury in Portland, was in town Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. James Edmunds visited her sister, Miss Alderman at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland Sunday.
 T. J. Gary, principal of the West Oregon City school, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with his mother at Sunnyside, Portland.
 Misses Fannie and Kathryn Porter, teachers in the Portland public schools, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at their home in this city.
 Herbert Bestow, of Portland, was in the city Sunday, visiting relatives. He is now engaged in the contracting and building business.
 A. Kanne, of Clackamas precinct, was in town Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mr. Bybee, a new arrival from the East, seeking a location.
 Thomas Brown, superintendent of the Salmon river salmon hatchery, was in town for several days during the week, and reports good success.
 James Dickey, of Molalla, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Max Ramsby this week, says that it is his last inning for the winter.
 Miss Mamie McAulity returned Monday, after spending Thanksgiving with her sister, Miss Daisy, who is teaching the school in Union precinct.
 R. M. Wickham, the Grand Army veteran, who did time in Andersonville prison, has been in poor health for some time past, but is now improving.
 Mr. and Mrs. Willis Johnson, of Clackamas county, returned this week from Tillamook county, where they spent the summer on their sheep ranch.
 Mrs. Richard Wilson and children, of Moscow, Idaho, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Hoskins. Miss Eva Wilson, of Newberg, also is visiting Mrs. Hoskins.
 Kenneth Latourette and Miss Mary Pursfull, students of the Baptist College in McMinnville, spent the Thanksgiving holidays at their respective homes in this city.

ADAMS BROS. GOLDEN RULE BAZAAR HEADQUARTERS FOR Holiday Goods Novelties in Toys and Fancy Goods

It's characteristic of this store to offer you the best; you don't expect anything else and naturally you are never disappointed. Profiting from past experience we bought early in the year for cash one of the finest lines of imported Toys and Novelties we have ever handled and intend giving our customers the benefit derived by an early cash purchase.

Suggestion for Christmas

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| <h3>For Ladies</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Stationery</li> <li>Roger's Table Ware</li> <li>Dainty Cups and Saucers</li> <li>Lamps</li> <li>Glass Sets</li> <li>Work Baskets</li> <li>Glove and Handkerchief Boxes</li> <li>Japanese Cabinets and Boxes</li> <li>Dinner Sets, Decorated</li> <li>Kid Gloves</li> <li>Handkerchiefs</li> <li>Fancy Pillow Covers</li> <li>Shopping Bags</li> <li>Pocket Books</li> <li>Vases</li> <li>Toilet Sets</li> <li>Manicure Sets</li> <li>Perfumes</li> </ul> | <h3>For Men</h3> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Shaving Sets</li> <li>Pocket Knives</li> <li>Mirrors</li> <li>Handkerchiefs</li> <li>Mufflers</li> <li>Gloves</li> <li>Collar and Cuff Boxes</li> <li>Fancy Socks</li> <li>Fountain Pens</li> <li>Sweaters</li> <li>Purses</li> <li>Umbrellas</li> <li>Neckwear</li> <li>Fancy Skirts</li> <li>Fancy Ink Wells</li> <li>Student Lamps</li> <li>Box of Collars</li> <li>Cuff Buttons</li> </ul> |
|---|--|

For the Children

- |  |   |   |
|--|---|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Handkerchiefs</li> <li>Caps</li> <li>Cloaks</li> <li>Silk Mittens</li> <li>Toy Dishes</li> <li>Tea and Kitchen Sets</li> <li>Air Guns, all kinds</li> <li>Brooms</li> <li>Dolls, all prices</li> <li>Tops</li> <li>Balls</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Spaulding Foot Balls</li> <li>Marbles in Sacks</li> <li>Games, all kinds</li> <li>Crokinole Boards</li> <li>Paint Boxes</li> <li>Drawing Slates</li> <li>School Boxes</li> <li>Harmonicas</li> <li>Drums</li> <li>Wheelbarrows</li> <li>Steam Engines</li> </ul> | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Fishing Outfits</li> <li>Doll Carriages</li> <li>Iron Wagons</li> <li>Small Chairs</li> <li>Woolly Animals</li> <li>Christmas Candles</li> <li>Fancy Baskets</li> <li>Christmas Cards</li> <li>Toy Stoves</li> <li>Boats</li> <li>Toy Sad Irons</li> </ul> |
|--|---|---|

Our Children's Department

Is the Delight of All Mothers. Visit It

The same rigid scrutiny of fabrics the same smart tailoring for boys' clothing as for men's. Styles that have the boyish grace with the manly finish. Beautiful suits for the little fellows; strong, sturdy suits for the older boys—practical and novel; a splendid collection of boys' clothes that is not matched anywhere—that no parents of boys can afford to miss seeing. Many, indeed, express surprise that we can give so much for the price, and it has troubled us more to supply the demand than it has to sell these goods. "Brevity is the soul of wit." The following are briefly stated with no pretensions, but there's wisdom in buying them, to-wit:

Children's Suits $3.50 and $5.00 a Suit
 Youth's Suits Ages 14 to 19, $7.50 a Suit

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest
 Fourth and Morrison Sts. PORTLAND, OREGON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan and her sister, Miss Grace Marshall, returned from Portland Monday evening, having been there for a week following their mothers' death.

J. C. Williams has disposed of his transfer business, and assumed charge of the spooling department of the woolen mills. He held a similar position in the woolen mills a couple of years ago.

Misses Grace Miller, Helen Gleason and Alice Shannon returned to their respective schools, the first of the week, after spending the Thanksgiving holidays at their homes in this city.

J. H. Révenus, road supervisor at Sandy, and Joseph Abel were in the city yesterday. The former is now time-keeper in Straus & Lenartz big tie sawmill and the latter is employed at the same establishment.

Mrs. Dr. Young and two children, of The Dalles, visited her sister, Mrs. H. Hoskins on her return trip from Independence, where she was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steel, of Independence.

Miss Minnie Case, who has been visiting her mother at Falls View for several weeks past, left Wednesday on her return trip to Skagway. She is connected with her brother, William Case, in the photograph business.

Andrew Campbell, recently of Montana, is visiting his sister, Mrs. E. E. Rands. It was his first meeting for 40 years. Mr. Campbell and family have removed to Portland. Mr. Campbell is accompanied by his wife on this visit.

Attorney J. E. Marks, of Canyon City, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Marks at Marks' Prairie, was in the city Tuesday on his return trip. He is well pleased with his new location at Canyon City and is prospering.

Miss Bessie Armstrong visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Armstrong at Barlow over Sunday. She was accompanied on the return trip by Miss Lavella Hilton, who will sojourn at the home of Mrs. W. W. H. Samson, for a few weeks.

George Lazelle left Sunday for Chicago to attend the meeting of the International Livestock Association. He will visit Iowa before returning. E. A. Hinkle, of Roseburg, accompanied him. They expect to bring back a car-load of polled-angus cattle on their return trip.

Levi Stehman, of Liberal, was in the city Monday, and reported that many hogs were being butchered and made into bacon in his neighborhood. The local and Portland markets did not prove satisfactory for dressed porkers, so the farmers concluded to do their own packing. The hogs were fattened principally on wheat.

There seems to have been a lot of unreliable talk in some of the newspapers about court-martialing and fining members of Company B, who had at divers times absented themselves from drills. The fact is only a very few of the members were fined at all. Many, who did not have a correct understanding of matters were not fined at all. However, hereafter, members, absenting themselves from drills, will be required to file excuses.

50 woodchoppers wanted by Crown Paper Company.

Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan and her sister, Miss Grace Marshall, returned from Portland Monday evening, having been there for a week following their mothers' death.

Water rent delinquent after the 10th.

Woman Wanted—to do housework for a small family. Good wages. Apply at this office.

Wanted—to rent a six or seven room house, furnished or unfurnished. Address this office.

Eggs are 30 cents a dozen in the local market, and potatoes bring from 85 cents to $1 per sack.

The Native Sons are making great preparations for their second annual ball on Christmas night.

John R. Welch, of Sunnyside, has disposed of his merchandise business to N. E. Chambers, recently of Dakota.

E. W. Penman has filed a suit for a divorce from Kate B. Penman. They were married in 1892, and have one child.

The Maccabees are arranging the details for a grand ball to be given on New Year's Eve. It will be a great social event.

A delegation of 22 Artisans visited the Assembly at Oswego Saturday night. After the initiatory ceremonies, an oyster supper was served.

At the regular council meeting held Wednesday night, a petition for a new sidewalk on Madison street, from Third to Seventh, was granted.

Adam H. Knight was elected mayor of Canby last Monday by a majority of two votes over Herman A. Lee. This paper was unable to secure the vote on councilmen.

J. H. Howard has on exhibition in the window of Holman's undertaking parlors a fine display of pyrographic art work. He is prepared to execute orders and give lessons in leather work.

Tualatin Tent No. 74 of Maccabees will give a fancy ball on December 31st. Arrangements are being made for the grandest event of the season. They want to put "a bee in your bonnet."

W. J. Faubian and M. Huertth, of Parkplace, will soon again begin boring for oil on the hill, near the old paper mill. They are already down 258 feet, and have struck a stratum of slate, which is considered a good indication of a coal deposit a little farther down.

Turney will give a prize mask ball at the Armory on the evening of December 20th. The first prize for the neatest female costume, $3 and one dozen cabinet photos; second prize, for neatest male costume, ditto; third prize for the most man costume, $1 and 100 stamp photos.

A lone highwayman threw some wood across the track of the Willamette Falls railway yesterday afternoon, and when the car stopped proceeded to hold up the passengers. It is reported that he only received a few dollars for his trouble. However, the reports of the hold-up are very conflicting.

Rachel Brenner has filed a suit against G. B. Dimick to set aside a certain deed to property sold the defendant by the sheriff at the delinquent junk sale a couple of months ago. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant is forcibly trying to dispossess her of the property on the strength of the sheriff's tax deed, and she wants the latter instrument declared void. The property is situated in the Canfield donation land claim.

The Woodmen Band, attended by a lot of torch-bearers, serenaded City Treasurer-elect Fred J. Meyer and Councilman Sheehan on the hill Wednesday night; then marched down to the council chamber, where they gave Mayor Dimick an ovation. They were serenading the newly elected officers, who were members of the Woodmen.

Mrs. Louise Carrico, wife of Thomas Carrico, died at home in this city Monday, December 3rd, aged 51. The funeral took place from the family home at the corner of Fourth and Jefferson streets, yesterday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. A. J. Montgomery. The deceased was well known and the funeral services were largely attended. Besides her husband, she left two small children.

Wednesday evening's Portland Telegram contains what purports to be a telegram from Newport under date of December 4th, stating the lumber barge went into the breakers on that day, and was probably lost with the crew. The fact is the same item appeared several days previously in a coast paper. It is a significant fact the Oregonian, which is very particular as to reliability of news, did not mention the matter on the following morning.

The royal purple degree was conferred on 14 candidates at the meeting of Falls Encampment, I. O. O. F., and a banquet followed. Visitors were present from various points in the valley, and there was a pretty full attendance of the local members. On Thursday evening the subordinate lodge will make a fraternal visit to the Aurora lodge, and on next Tuesday evening the encampment members will pay a fraternal visit to Portland members of the fraternity.

A Salem dispatch gives the news that D. E. Shepard, who had been a fence guard at the penitentiary for the past two years, died at 6:30 Tuesday evening of typhoid pneumonia. He was at one time hack driver for the deaf mute school, and was track marshal during the state fair last fall. He was about 45 years old, and for a number of years was a well known resident of Oregon City. He served for a short time as chief of police under Mayor Straight's first administration. The remains were brought here for burial and the funeral will take place today under the auspices of the Woodmen of the World.

For weeks and weeks the women of St. John's Catholic church have been making preparations for their fair, which will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. Hundreds of dainty, artistic articles will be on exhibition for sale, as well as furniture and stoves. Elaborate musical programs will be presented each day, and among the high-class attractions in this line will be selections on the piano by two noted musicians, the Benedictine fathers. It will be a grand fair with artistic decorations. Refreshments will be served. It will be a delightful place for social entertainment.

Satisfied People

are the best advertisers for Foley's Honey and Tar and all who use it agree that it is a splendid remedy for coughs, colds or sore lungs. Charman & Co.