CORRESPONDENCE

Highland.

Highland is still high, but not very dry at present. We are having fine winter weather. There is a great deal of fall wheat to sow yet. The ground is plowed and we are waiting for a dry spell. Stock looks well. The painting of the school house was let to D. O. Richardson, of Redland, who is very busy now with his brush and paint. There is a prospect now of having a Christmas tree with appropriate exercises. The election of officers in the Highland Grange resulted as follows: Master, Charles P. Tallman; overseer, E. L. Ringo; steward, A. J. Ringo; assistant steward, Roy Grace; lecturer, Mrs. Nora Miller; chaplain, Mrs. Lizzie Ringo; treasurer, A. Harrington; secretary, G. R. Miller; gate-keeper, Frank Ringo; ceros, Mrs. Carrie Ringo; pomona, Cora Larkins; flora, Mrs. Maggie Harrington; lady assistant, Mrs. Mary Nicholas. Fred Maston, our enterprising young sawmill man is doing a rushing business. Several of the Highlanders are contemplating visiting Springwater to attend the farmers' institute held under the auspices of Corvallis Agricultural College and Oregon Experiment Station.

Redland.

The Redland literary and debating society held another interesting meeting Friday evening. The question for debate for the next meeting will be "Resolved that the army has done more for the nation than the navy." Rosland M. E. Sunday school will have a Christmas tree. A. M. Kirchem has bought the Williams place on the four corners. The amount paid for the property was $2000. Mrs. Anna Williams was down from Carbonado a few days ago on business. W. H. Bonney is having some slashing done opposite the M. E. church. Say, brother farmer, are you going to post that critter running along with your cattle? The law imposes a fine of $10 for not doing so. James Fullam and J. Dew are scouring the country for several head of yearlings—helfers and steers. James Fullam took 1600 pounds of dressed hog to Portland last week. Mrs. Jack Fullam, of Portland, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Fullam. Mrs. Lehman is selling off all of her personal property with the intention of going East. Redland can boast of one of the best female trappers in the state, having recently caught one coyote and four racoons (not the dark kind). Look out boys, you may be next. K. Mosher recently caught a coyote. Mr. Neiman has rented the Cartright place. Arthur Barrett has rented the Campbell place, and he intends to raise hogs. Mrs. Mattie Hermann was out on short visit last week. John Richardson wants to rent his place and go to Idaho. Charles Hincobutiem is home from Sandy. Seeding of fall wheat is not yet finished on this ridge, some having not yet finished plowing. L. F.

Barlow.

Democrats of Clackamas county, don't forget there is a gentleman in this precinct that might be persuaded to run for representative, a man that some, who are not democrats would like to honor with our votes, one who will not misrepresent the democrat party and with all a farmer. Governor Vasant, of Minnesota, is making a great splutter to prevent the Great Northern and Northern Pacific consolidating. It is only a bid for votes. It will help him whether he wins or loses, and there isn't much danger of his winning and the railroad magnates know it. The government ought to own the railroads consolidation will help it along. Weather fair. Health is good, but news is as scarce as the proverbial hen's teeth. If the county commissioners don't do something and that soon the apron leading to the new bridge at this place will surely cave in, and the grade leading on the bridge ought to be completed at once, as the road leading to the old bridge is said to be in a very bad condition. If all of the bad men were to be hung this would be a lonesome world for the few of us that are left. We are opposed to the death penalty anyway. Abo Widows says that he is too busy to read, and when he is not at work he has to rock the cradle. That serves you right, Abe. The average increase of the socialist vote this year was over 100 per cent. Two new subscribers for the Courier-Herald this week, and those that don't take it borrow it. One of the correspondents proposes three cheers for the Courier-Herald. Alright. Hip! Hip! Hurrah! Now send a few subscribers that will please the editor better. Hold on to the rest of that poem, Macksburg. Dollie is all right. James S. Smith, of Eagle Creek, was visiting friends here Saturday and Sunday. Come again, Jimmie. If anyone thinks that Theodore isn't a good republican read his message to congress and become disillusioned, but we still think that he is the president when he turns a politician down. He turns him down, har! Say comrades, he "neval" hinted pensions, did he? Miss Rose Reek will not attend school here any longer, as she has contracted a severe cold. Here is health to the U. V. U. boys of Oregon City. Will Oveev came very near dislocating his neck one day last week. We don't dare to joke about it. Will said he was so far gone that he heard the Barlow M. E. church organ, but that it did not sound like it was in Barlow or in heaven. Query: "Whose was it?" The Lutheran services at the M. E. church in Barlow will be held on Sunday evening at 7:30 of Dec. 29. CORPORAL.

Woodburn.

Joe Clarke returned from Coburg last week. Mr. Noblett, of Hubbard, was in our burg last Monday. Westly Clarke, who is employed by the S. P. Co. at Canby, visited relatives here Sunday. Messrs. Roche and Schwabauer were Oregon City visitors Sunday. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Broyles, on December 9th, a boy. There was a certain young lady in this town who left some pretty sweet-reading letters in a store last Monday. One was from Darling Dick and one was from another darling of hers. Be careful after this around after this. Marshal Prevost has made two arrests lately—two young men riding on a train. The city marshal is not as warm as he might be when he runs into other people's business. DUTCH.

Wilhoit.

Without not being represented for some time, I will endeavor to give you a few items this week. J. L. Crouse, who has been very sick, we are glad to report is able to be out once more. C. G. Vorhies is now taking music lessons every Saturday night. That's right, Clarence. School Superintendent Zinsar was in this burg visiting schools a few days ago. C. G. Vorhies has purchased a fine work horse. Orley Thomas has his new house almost completed. He gave the young people of this place a party. Frank Hagin, of Rock Creek, was transacting business at Scott's Mills on Monday last. Rant Thomas, a well known freighter of Scotts Mills, was in our midst one day last week. Mrs. Beckie Wade purchased a fine gold chain last week. Mrs. Hann and Beckie Wade made a business trip to Silverton last Monday. A. D. Mazingo, who has been working in a logging camp near Ranier for the past year, has returned home, where he will visit with his parents and friends. Miss Nora Pluard, of Beaver Lake, called on A. L. Groshong and wife Sunday. There is considerable dissatisfaction in this district on account of the manner some people behave during school meeting. A fine would probably teach some of them a lesson. Jake Groshong and James Malstead, of Missouri Ridge, made a quick trip to Oregon City Monday last. Mr. Sandstrom has rented his farm to Mr. Wilson, and has moved to Sellwood, where he will hereafter make his home. G. W. Wyland and family, of Rock Creek, called on Mrs. Emma Vorhies Sunday last. James Nicholson and family were visiting Mrs. Emma Vorhies Sunday last. Brenton Vedder, of McKee, was visiting his pupils and many friends in this vicinity last week. Mr. and Mrs. Jane Milstead, of Pleasant Hill, was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas last Sunday. G. W. Wyland, who left this spring for Eastern Oregon, where he has been herding sheep during the summer, has returned home. C. A. Ryan has moved onto his place near Marquam. Dan Groshong has rented the Widow Scribner place near Wilhoit Springs for one year. Ralph Slaughter was visiting friends Sunday last. J. Crause is on the rick list.

Cotton.

Stormy weather is the order of the day. Lewie Hubbard is slowly improving from attack of typhoid fever. Bert Hubbard is home from Vance, Wash., was called home on account of his brother's illness. Emery Gottharg is home from Washington. School is progressing nicely under the management of Prof. Roman, of Oregon City. We see quite an improvement in our hall, and we hope to see it still improve. There will be an entertainment and Christmas tree here on Christmas Eve. Elbert Killin, of Handy, has returned home. He has been staying with his cousin.

Molalla.

Weather is pleasant and fine after the shower. Fred Eymann and Albert Mosberger went after a load of walnuts near Hubbard today. Isaac Williams and Ed Hardesty were guests of Mosberger brothers Sunday. Charlie Beede, who has been in Portland for some time is home again. Miss Ollie Hardesty has been having quite a serious time with a severe sore throat. Her mother is also afflicted with the same complaint. Mrs. T. B. Donaldson is in Portland. Philip Ogile has been buying some cattle, as he intends to go into the critter business to some extent. Mr. Oswald has sold his farm here to Mr. Cochran, of Needy, who intends to take possession in a short time. Grandfather Samson was visiting at I. J. Bigelow's home Sunday. Albert Eymann is working in Portland. Mr. Kylo is working in Portland on a boom. School began here today after a vacation on account of scarlet fever in the district. John Crocker, who has been having a serious time at intervals with one of his ankles for several years, is laid up with the same malady again. Preparations are being made for a routing program for the Christmas tree at Sunnys. RUSTIC.
