NEWS OF THE WEEK

Tuesday, December 17.

Tariff Republicans in both the Will senate and house at Washington are a unit on the matter of letting the tariff stand, but favor the cutting of war taxes. The republicans recognize the necessity of reducing the revenue, but they do not intend to allow the reduction to extend to the customs duties. Every announcement thus far has been to the effect that any reduction of the revenues must be on war taxes, and not on customs duties. Republicans do not fear any rebuke from the people because they refuse to revise the tariff. They believe that the people will be satisfied as long as good times continue, even if higher prices are paid for custom-made articles and for that reason they will not consent to a reduction.

The United States senate has approved the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. The nomination of Attorney-General Knox confirmed.

Heaviest snow in 50 years in Scotland, and a cold wave through Europe. Schley will file objections to the court of inquiry.

Telegraph company orders Marconi to cease his experiments in New Foundland.

Waters are receding in the flood district of Pennsylvania.

Wyoming and Nebraska had another and more severe cold snap.

Wednesday, December 18.

The Port of Portland Commission has come to the conclusion to build a dry-dock of wood to cost about $225,000.

Postmaster-General Charles Emory Smith has resigned his place in the cabinet, and will return to newspaper work. Henry C. Payne, vice-chairman of the national republican committee, succeeds to the place.

Oregon and Washington senators did not far well in committee assignments.

The O. R. & N. steamer Ruth struck a snag and sunk near Corvallis.

The city election in the prohibition town of Ashland resulted in favor of high license.

Mrs. McKinley's health is precarious, and it is believed that she cannot long survive.

The Umpqua Valley Oil Company has commenced boring for oil at Myrtle Creek. Geologists pronounce the conditions very favorable.

Assurance is given at Washington that the nomination of George W. Bibe as register at the Oregon City land office is soon to be sent to the senate. This appointment has been held up at the request of Senator Simon.

The industrial building at the state reform school was burned last night. No one was hurt or killed. The fire started in the engine room.

In Two Minutes

There will be another car. But the man can't wait. He chases the car and swings on, panting and hot, but satisfied. He keeps this gait all day. He works that way, he lunches that way. He continues until his stomach "breaks down" and nature compels him to "go slow."

Business men who have impaired their digestion by hasty eating will find in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery a cure for dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It does not give mere temporary relief, but it effects a radical cure. It strengthens the stomach, nourishes the nerves and purifies the blood.

"For six long years I suffered with my liver, kidneys, and with indigestion, which baffled the best doctors in our country," writes E. L. Ransell, Esq., of Woolsey, Prince William Co., Va. "I suffered with my stomach and back for a long time, and after taking a 'cart-load' of medicine from three doctors, I grew so bad I could hardly do a day's work. Would have death-like pains in the side, and blind spells, and thought life was hardly worth living. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets,' as advised. Before I had taken half of the second bottle I began to feel relieved. I got six bottles and used them, and am happy to say I owe my life to Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

The Fischer-Van Cleave Company.

The Fischer-Van Cleave Company closed their three nights' return engagement last evening to a crowded house. "Saved or a Wife's Danger," was presented in a way that brought forth praise and hearty applause for every act and character. The play is of the French order, an absent husband and disoriented wife forming the plot around which hangs the story. It is unfolded in modest and beautiful language and is the strongest piece in the company's repertoire. Albany Herald, Dec. 11th. At Shively's next week.

AUCTION SALE

All of the furniture of ten-room residence will be sold at public auction on Saturday, December 23rd, at 10 o'clock, near the suspension bridge in Oregon City. On account of removal from the city, J. G. Pillsbury has directed that all the furniture of his residence be sold at auction.

The furniture consists of parlor suite, dining room furniture, bed room suite in walnut, oak and ash, Brussels carpets, rugs, etc., heating and cook stoves, curtains, book-cases and complete kitchen furniture.

This furniture is all in good condition.

Miss Babe Fischer.

Miss "Babe" Fischer, a Salem girl, made her first bow to a Salem audience last night, when she appeared at the city hall with the Fischer & Van Cleave Company, in "The Lunatics, a three-act comedy. The hall was comfortably filled when the curtain went up on the initial performance of the week of this very excellent repertoire company, made up to a great extent of the people known in this city, and the presentation was very good indeed. Miss Fischer, as the hero's pretty wife, out for a lark and up to the occasion, made friends from the start, and her work was well performed that large crowds are assured the company for its week's stay in this city. There were no tedious waits between acts, first-class specialties being introduced to amuse and entertain the crowd.—Salem Statesman, Dec 3rd. Shively's all next week.
