19th YEAR, NO. 82

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Friday, December 20.

Sampson A dispatch from Washington states that Admiral Sampson is a very sick man, much worse than the authorized reports state. His condition is such that even the findings of the Schley court have been kept from him. Sampson has not understood for a year what was going on, and the recent alleged interviews are without foundation. He has not seen a reporter, and is not in condition to make a connected statement. His doctors say he may live for months in his present condition, or may, on the contrary, collapse any day. It is expected that Secretary Long will shortly approve the majority findings of the court, and in case Schley appeals to the President, there is fear that the department will be sustained.

Mr. Lingo, a bachelor farmer, residing near Junction City, and 60 years old, advertised for a wife. The result was a contract with Mrs. Patterson, of Quinnesic, Mich. Lingo sent a ticket for the expected bride. She arrived Wednesday night, and it was ascertained that she weighed 304 pounds.

Mr. Lingo took the matter under advisement for a short time.

Claude A. Riddle, who recently married Miss Mayme Isaacs, of Medford, is now located at Grant's Pass. Claude has accepted a position in a billiard parlor, so we are informed.—Corvallis Gazette.

Office The large amount of time
Seekers that President Roosevelt is
Many. giving to appointments, removals and office-seekers is causing a great deal of comment in Washington. It is the opinion of some that a man who is so devoted to civil service reform should clear the White House of office-brokers and assert that he will consider appointments on their merits and at his own convenience, instead of hearing from everybody that wants office. The White House is a rendezvous for politicians who make charges and counter charges against the men who are in and against those who want to get in. In his second term, Cleveland found it necessary absolutely to bar the doors against the office-seekers. Roosevelt will have to do so or break down in health.

The Oregon delegation has united in endorsing M. J. MacMahon, of Portland, for a foreign diplomatic appointment, and he also has strong support from Wisconsin, Illinois and Michigan. He was presented to the President by Senator Mitchell. Mr. MacMahon left today for Oregon.

Nine out of the 10 applicants for certificates before the state board of medical examiners, were turned down in Portland last week. It is said that the examination is very hard, many of the chemical questions being impracticable, and would puzzle expert chemists. The board is accused of trying to keep out new competition.

SOCIALISTS ORGANIZE.

Effect A County Plan of Procedure.

About 50 socialists met at the Seventh street hall Saturday morning, and effected a temporary organization in the forenoon by electing Fred Meindl as chairman, and John H. Wright, of Canyon Creek, secretary. It was an open meeting, and about half of those present signed the articles of non-affiliation with any political party, which means no fusion. Following is the pledge: "We hereby pledge ourselves to support the constitution and platform of the socialist party, and to sever all connections with all other parties."

The following names were affixed to the pledge: R. R. Bratton, Barlow. Fred Kraxberger, Charles Kraxberger, Conrad Koch, B. Lubban, Mackeburg.

George E. Davis, Beaver Creek. A. J. Maville, Canemah. B. Frederick, Joseph Reif, New Era. George B. M. Jones, Joseph Meindl, Fred J. Meindl, Abernethy. G. F. Gibbs, N. W. Richards, A. Bauman, Maple Lane.

M. V. Thomas, Sievers. John H. Wright, Canyon Creek. P. D. Curran, Oregon City. J. S. Casto, New Era.

Charles Reynolds, Maple Lane. Messrs. Maville, Bratton, F. Kraxberger, Frederick and Lubben were appointed a committee on resolutions.

At the afternoon session the committee on resolutions reported the following, in substance: Rule by the majority; direct legislation, through the initiative referendum; equal suffrage regardless of sex or color; government ownership of all public utilities.

On motion of Mr. Maville a permanent organization was effected. Fred J. Meindl was elected chairman of the county central committee, and William Beard, of Maple Lane, was elected secretary. A. J. Maville was elected financial secretary; and Joseph Meindl, literature agent. Mr. Pruden, of Springwater, was elected county organizer.

The following county central committee, the selections to be made in other precincts as soon as club organizations are effected, were elected: Barlow—R. R. Bratton. Beaver Creek—George E. Davis. Canemah—A. J. Maville. Abernethy—Joseph Meindl. Mackeburg—F. Kraxberger. Maple Lane—G. F. Gibbs. New Era—B. Frederick. Sievers—M. V. Thomas. Ward No. 3, Oregon City—P. D. Curran.

Canyon Creek—John H. Wright. Several socialists present, objected to the close-communion plan, but the organized middle-of-the-roads, stonily defended their position. Active steps will be taken to organize every precinct in the county.
