About 60 couples were in attendance. Mrs. Gertrude Evans Chapman, daughter of Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, died at Seattle last Thursday. She was buried from Oswego last Sunday. I found a black undershirt which owner can have by proving property and paying two bits for this ad at Courier-Herald office. I. LeMabien. The Morning Herald of Albany, issued a very creditable Christmas edition. The half-tone illustrations show up in an artistic way, and the write-ups of Albany and Clackamas county are excellent. The following are the winning numbers in the sewing machine raffle at the Racket store: Nos. 5432, 1670 and 5414. Some of the tickets have been lost, and the first designated number is the winner, if presented, the other two come in regular order, provided the first is lost. The prize tickets must be handed in on or before January 20th. On his recent visit to the towns of Lockhaven and Williamsport, Pa. on the Susquehanna river, John Bitter found that great changes have taken place since he left there years ago. Then sawmill business was flourishing in both localities; now it has almost entirely disappeared, and the inhabitants import what lumber they need from the Southern states. Samuel Hoesly, a well known pioneer of Milwaukie, who died at Milwaukie a couple of days previous, was buried Tuesday, Rev. Edward Hornschuch conducting the funeral. He at one time owned the Standard flouring mill. Besides the widow, he left the following children: Mrs. Phillip Kohl, Mrs. Fred Wetzel, Mrs. I. S. Mullan, Samuel and Fred Hoesly. Jacob Babler, a prominent resident of Logan for a quarter of a century, died at his home last Thursday, aged 74. He cleared the timber off the land and made one of the finest farms in Clackamas county. He was a native of Switzerland. Besides the widow, he left the following children: Myron, Henry and Jacob Babler, Mrs. A. J. Johnson, Mrs. Jacob Gerber and Mrs. Zimmerman. A fire broke out on the second floor of the Depot Hotel about 3 o'clock last Friday morning, practically gutting the greater portion of the building. The building is owned by Mrs. E. Fuchs, who carried insurance of $500. E. E. G. Seol, the hotel proprietor, lost heavily on furniture, bedding and stock of wall paper. He carried $750 insurance. The firemen did some effective work in preventing the spread of flames. Byrne's saloon loss was slight. About Old Timers. James Bier was in Oregon City a few days last week to attend some matters of business. He states he saw many old Corvallisites while there, some of whom are doing well and others continue to fight against fate single-handed as best they can. While he was at Oregon City at Lon Haskins, who was driving an express team, had a runaway. Lon was thrown from the wagon and one of the wheels ran over his foot, mashing it quite badly. His back was also severely sprained and he will be laid up for some time. George Bingham is still handling "soda pop" and is doing a good business. He seems inclined to remain right where he is in the future.

While Mr. Bier was there the Depot hotel took fire and burned down. Fred Seol, at one time a resident of Corvallis, was running the hotel when it burned. The fire took place about 3 o'clock Friday morning, and is supposed to have originated from a defective flue.—Corvallis Gazette.
