

Happy New Year to All

ANNUAL SALE

HOUSEKEEPERS who shop with us this year in and year out are well aware of the homelike atmosphere that surrounds them—the atmosphere of protection in price and quality of goods—an atmosphere free from the taint of fake methods resorted to at times in this advanced age of civilization.

McAllen & McDonnell

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS

THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

PERSONALS

C Zweifel, of Needy, was in the city Saturday.

W. O. Ward, of Viola, was in Oregon City Saturday.

G. W. Owings, of Needy precinct, was in town Saturday.

L. H. McMahan, of Salem, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

O. G. Morris, of Macksburg, was in Oregon City Saturday.

A. H. Reynolds, of Macksburg, was in Oregon City Monday.

George Muesig, of Aurora, has been visiting friends in this city.

Henry Hollmann, of Beaver Creek, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey, of Salem, were visitors in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Cole and son Rhea, went to Salem Saturday to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook, of Canby, were visitors in the city Saturday.

Miss Ora Miller has returned to the state normal school at Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Buck have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Illidge at Hubbard.

Miss Meta Finley has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Collins at St. Helens.

Homer Trullinger, a well known young farmer of Molalla, was in town Monday.

I. J. Bigelow, a well farmer, living in Needy precinct, was in the city during the week.

Miss Tena Miller, of Aurora, is taking a course of studies in a Portland business college.

J. M. Sperl went to Barlow Saturday, and visited L. E. Armstrong and family over Sunday.

Miss Maud Kidder returned to Salem Saturday, to resume her studies at Willamette university.

Mrs. H. T. Shipley has been very ill at her home at Willamette Falls, but is now much improved.

G. Sutherland, of Hood River, went to Macksburg Saturday, to visit his old home for a few days.

Mrs. W. P. Kirohem, of Stone, a prominent member of Harding Grange, was in the city Friday.

Levi Stehman, of Liberal, was in the city Saturday on his way to Columbia county for a short visit.

G. B. Linn, of Currinsville, was in the city Saturday, and left several cayoote scalps at the court house.

Miss Belle Jones has ordered the address of her Courier-Herald changed from Sherwood to McMinnville.

J. C. Smith was up from Portland Saturday, visiting his brother, who lives a few miles out in the country.

C. M. Crittenden, the Needy school teacher, spent the holidays with his family at Lafayette, Yamhill county.

Misses Clara and Lillie Irvin, of Aurora, students at Pacific university, Forest Grove, spent the holidays at their home.

John M. Bloss, formerly president of the Oregon agricultural college, and well known in this city, is now farming near Maude, Ind.

Henry F. Kruger, who lives on a homestead in Clackamas county, across the line from Scott's Mills, was in the city Saturday.

Olando Moran, of Brownsville, an organizer of the Knights of Maccabees, was visiting his aunt, Mrs. McClure, during the week.

Dan Lyons has the contract to build a tunnel on the Vancouver & Yakima railroad, and will not be home until early in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Webster, of Clackamas Station, were in the city over Friday night.

Mrs. H. Extrom and daughter, of Astoria, who had been visiting Mrs. E. S. Bollinger for several days, returned home Saturday.

George Elligson, a prominent farmer of the Stafford neighborhood, was in town Friday disposing of blooded poultry to local dealers.

Miss Irene Carter, who spent the holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Carter, returned to her school Saturday in Polk county.

Willie Stokes, of Canemah; Miss Martha Koerner and Lawrence Mack have returned to Corvallis to resume their studies in the state agricultural college.

Mrs. Joseph Kuerten, who had been visiting her daughters, Mrs. W. M. and Mrs. Ed Sheahan, during the holidays, returned to her home at Seattle Saturday.

Mrs. E. F. Martin, who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. J. McKittrick at Willamette Falls, returned to Sumpter Friday. Mrs. Martin recently returned from a visit to the East.

Mrs. W. H. Godfrey and son, Gay returned to Monmouth Monday, after spending the holidays at home. Mrs. Godfrey will complete her course of studies in the state normal school this year.

Miss Bessie Armstrong, who spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Armstrong at Barlow, returned the first of the week, and resumed her old place in Mrs. Carlton's dressmaking parlors.

Mrs. A. D. Putrow has received an artistic souvenir from the 16-year old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Lucas at Long Grove, Calif. About 10 years ago Rev. Lucas was pastor of the first Congregational church here.

Misses Laura and Jennie Beatie have returned to Pendleton to resume their duties in the public schools. Accompanied by their mother, Mrs. N. J. Beatie, they were visiting relatives here during the holidays.

J. D. Matheson, superintendent of locomotive engines on the O. R. & N. railway lines, has been visiting his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKay on the West Side. Mr. Matheson was a locomotive engineer for 23 years, and was recently promoted to his present position.

Robert Montgomery, a well known potato farmer of New Era precinct, was in town Saturday, and stated that a considerable portion of the potato crop remained unsold. He had quotations from a San Francisco house, showing that good Oregon potatoes were now worth $1.40 and $1.55 in that market.

F. S. L. Bagby, of the Rock creek sawmill firm of Bagby & Dixon, near Needy, was in town Monday, and stated that three large conveyors had been

DO YOU WANT

$10.00 To Spend

THEN VISIT OUR

Great Present Sale

While we are giving away Ten Dollar and Five Dollar Bills. We have given away over One Thousand Dollars so far, and have the receipts for evidence in our Third-street window, and invite you to inspect them. We intend to give away

One Thousand Dollars

This month---Ten Dollars with every 10 men's suits and overcoats we sell, and Five Dollars with every 10 boys' suits and overcoats. Many a customer has gone away from store during this sale with more money than they brought, and a suit and overcoat besides. Is it not worth your while to call and investigate?

The Best Clothing Values in the City Can Always be obtained at our Store

WHEN YOU SEE IT IN OUR AD IT'S SO

MOYER CLOTHING CO.

Third and Oak Sts., PORTLAND, OREGON

Our Invitation

Come and see us when you are looking for

HOLIDAY PRESENTS

And let us show you our up-to-date stock. It will not take many minutes and you will never regret the time spent with us. It will mean dollars and cents to you. If you can't come and see us, let us have a trial with your mail orders. Will give them immediate attention. Below is a list of some of the articles, which would make very useful Christmas presents.

Watches and Jewelry

Watches—in solid gold, gold filled and silver in all sizes. Rings with or without sets. Cuff and Link buttons. Scarfpins and Studs. Brooches in gold and gold filled. Chains and Lockets for gents. Gold and gold filled guard chains, bracelets and bangles, baby pins, rings and bracelets.

Silver and Genuine French Ebony.

Toilet Ware and Novelties

Mirrors, hair brushes cloth brushes, hat brushes, combs, manicure sets, paper cutters, book marks, blotters, ink stands, stamp boxes, match boxes and lots of other articles from 10c to $10.00

Sterling Silverware for the Table

Berry spoons, cream ladle, greavy ladle, sugar spoons, butter knives, jelly knives, table and tea spoons, gold meat forks, pickle forks, sardine forks.

Silver Plated Ware That Wears

Baking dishes, cake baskets, tea sets, butter dishes, child's cup, child's sets, bread trays, napkin rings, carvings sets, etc.

Spectacles and Eyeglasses

In gold, gold filled and steel frames from 25 cents to $6.00. Eyes tested FREE.

Musical Instruments

Guitars, Mandolins, Violins, Banjos, Accordions, Zithers, Harmonicas.

Kodaks and Cameras

We carry all reliable makes and can advise you just what to get. Free instruction how to use them. Prices from $1.00 to $35.00. Special discount of 20 per cent on all Kodaks.

Fancy Chinaware and Souvenir Goods

We bought this ware direct from the factory in Germany. It makes a very fine present to send to a friend in the east.

Kimball Organs

In five and six octaves, in walnut and oak cases at lowest prices.

In White Sewing Machines we have the very latest, the ball bearing drop head.

Our Queen Drop Head Sewing Machine with a complete set of the latest attachments for $25 is the best Machine made for the money.

Large assortment of Clocks and ornaments.

Gold and Silver Mounted Canes.

Finest line of Umbrellas in the city.

Parker Fountain Pens and Gold Pens.

Purses, Card Cases, Cigar Cases.

Burmeister & Andresen

THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS

attached to the mill to carry away the slabs and sawdust. Mr. Bagby's new partner, W. F. Dixon, is a former school teacher, well known in Marion and Clackamas counties.

A. Gottberg, of Colton, was in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mrs. M. McManus, of Salem, visited Mrs. John Gleason Friday.

T. G. Jonsrud, justice of the peace at Kelso, was in the city Monday.

Miss Mary T. Gleason visited friends in the city during the past week.

Mrs. S. E. Bunch and Frank Mulvey, of The Dalles, are visiting friends in the city.

R. H. Snodgrass, the Meadowbrook dairyman, was in Oregon City Wednesday.

Mrs. Dr. Kinney, of Astoria, was visiting Mrs. K. L. Newton, during the past week.

Miss Lola Miller has returned to Monmouth to still further prosecute her studies in the state normal school.

Miss Maud Butler arrived from Salem Monday evening, and is visiting Miss Grace Tower for a few days.

Frank H. Briggs, of New Era, left Tuesday for Harrison, South Dakota, where he expects to remain for three years.

Uncle Gabe Trullinger, the pioneer mill man of Union Mills, was in the city Tuesday. He has been in poor health recently.

S. T. Roman has resumed his duties as teacher of the Colton school, after spending the holiday vacation at the family home at Mount Pleasant.

Ed Newton, formerly of this city, was present at the launching of the battleships Missouri and Hampton roads, while visiting at old Point Comfort.

Roy Renfro was called to Beatrice, Neb., Tuesday by the illness of his father. He has been employed in the Willamette paper mills since last February.

Mrs. John Gilmore, of Gladstone, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. I. N. Rasmussen at Dayton. The former has been in poor health for the past few days.

Mrs. Hatch, wife of Rev. Julian Hatch, of Springfield, arrived Tuesday night from a visit to her children, near Goldendale, Wash. She was the guest of Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, before returning to her home at Springfield.

Joseph Conrad, of Needy, was in Oregon City Tuesday. He is a new arrival in the county, and recently purchased a place in the Hiding's neighborhood. He was accompanied by O. Guyser, of Suver, Polk county, who expects to become a resident of Clackamas county in a few months.

Captain J. D. Miller, of Northern Idaho, accompanied by his son, Charles, was in Oregon City Monday. Captain Miller was an old-time prominent resident here, and at one time owned the Imperial flouring mill. For many years past, he has been engaged in the steamboat business on the Idaho lakes.

B. S. Bellamy, for many years in the furniture business here, is now engaged in the dry goods, notion and clothing business in Thornton, Ind. He writes that he is making from $200 to $300 per month. The local paper in an adjoining town states that Mrs. B. S. Bellamy, of Thornton, came up Thursday evening and installed the new officers of the Eastern Star.

Miss Bessie Kelly, Rea Norris, Morton and Howard Latourette, Fred Warner, Charles Warner, and the Paddocks, of Clackamas Station, returned to Eugene the first of the week, to resume studies at the University of Oregon. William Hammond did not return to Eugene, and will not attend the state university during the coming year.

S. M. Ramsby, of this city, has been promoted to the position of cashier in Collector of Internal Revenue Dunne's office in Portland. There was a vacancy in this position on account of the promotional removal of the former cashier. Mr. Ramsby was the oldest employe in the office, and was advanced to the coveted place by Collector Dunne. The advance means an increase in salary.

Tom Brown, superintendent of the Salmon river hatchery, is spending the week in town, but will return in a day or two to look after the hatching of 900,000 salmon eggs. It is expected that the product of Chinook and silver sides, will aggregate about 3,000,000. He will begin on steelheads about February 15th. The state board, may, at its next meeting decide to purchase the hatchery site and erect a permanent building on Salmon river. The matter is now under consideration.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Henry Wolfer, a prominent early pioneer of Needy, died a few days ago. A 5-room cottage for sale; well improved, city water, sewer, etc. Inquire at this office.

At G. W. Grace's store on Seventh and Center streets, for the next 60 days, dry goods, boots and shoes will be sold at 10 per cent. reduction. Suits for men and boys will go at cost.

Rollo Worthington, of Oswego, was in the city Monday, making arrangements to open a fish market here in connection with his brother, Gaylord. Both are fine band musicians.—Woodburn Independent.

Following is the list of unclaimed letters in the Parkplace postoffice for the month ending December 31st, 1901: Miss Mary Donahue, Miss Mary Finlayson, Melvin Eaton, P. T. Davis, B. M. Moore, Arthur Teel, William Turner, Smith & Price. W. A. Holmes, R. M.

The first ball will be given in the new hall of Willamette Falls Camp, Woodmen of the World on Saturday evening, January 11th. The dance will be under the successful management of Turney, the photo man, a guarantee of the satisfactory finale of the function. P. M.

essor Cain, of Portland, will assist with the music. The new hall is grand—the finest in the city.

Butter-makers should not feed their milch cows turnips, as they cause the product to have a vegetable taste. A careful and painstaking dairyman in this county, who had plenty of customers for his butter, which was famous for its good qualities, was thunderstruck when complaints were made that the butter was tainted. The dairyman discovered the cause, and will guard against a repetition of the error.

Residents on the Abernethy organized a debating society at the Evergreen school house last Saturday night, and J. D. Nimon was elected president, and W. W. Myers secretary. A committee was appointed to draft constitution and by-laws. The question discussed at the first meeting was: "Resolved, That the People are not the Government?" The subject for debate at the next meeting is, "Resolved, That We are Grasping Unnecessary Wealth?" The leaders are A. A. Kenny and W. W. Myers. This meeting will be held Saturday night, and the public is invited.

Many new buildings have been constructed in Oregon City during the past year, and the coming season promises to be an important one in that respect. A ready plan are being made to erect several buildings in the early spring. Architect W. A. White has drawn plans for two new dwellings to be erected by Dan Lyons on his property recently on the river front, adjoining the Charman block. The buildings will be put up in the early spring, and will be constructed with a view to bringing $15 per month rental. The Saturday Club are carrying into effect plans to improve the interior of the Congregational church parlors, also the pastor's study. The rooms are to be wainscotted and papered. The material has already been ordered for the improvement.

The state poultry association closed a very successful annual show at Portland last Saturday night. Ex-County Clerk Elmer Dixon, the retiring secretary of the association, notices a material improvement in the standard of fowl, during the past few years. Mr. Dixon was one of the original promoters of the association, and has noted the progress made. Mr. Dixon too, has been one of the most successful breeders of fancy poultry on the coast. J. Murrow and son, of Ely, captured several prizes at the state poultry show, as follows: One barred Blymouth Rocks, first on pen; second on best collection, consisting of cock, cockerel, hen and pullet. Tied second on cockerel, and took first on white Plymouth Rock pullet. Mr. Murrow sold three birds for $30, which will be exhibited at the Seattle show.

The U. S. Government Tests Show the Absolute Superiority of Royal Baking Powder.