Book lovers and school libraries had better take advantage of the 25c book sale which commences at Huntley's Book Store the 18th. They offer 500 books from regular 40c, 50c and 75c lines at 25c each. We noticed also about 50 copyright books, published at $1.00 to $1.50, had been included in this sale.

At the recent term of the circuit court S. B. Rowan was granted a divorce from Gratia Rowan. Filipina Schweitzer was granted a divorce from Frank Schweitzer, also the custody of six minor children and the defendant ordered to pay $15 per month alimony for the support of the family. In the divorce suit of E. W. vs. Kate Penman, the defendant's demurrer to complaint was overruled.

The road poll tax law is not altogether a satisfactory success. It often falls on the small wage earner, who can ill-afford to pay the tax. Street Commissioner Green collected 303 polls in Oregon City, where a large number of the voters are exempt on account of being members of the fire and militia companies. In Milwaukie precinct the road supervisor reported having only collected 12 polls.

E. Ridgeway, who has been over in Clackamas county, near Springwater, the past four or five months, working the lever of a "stationary," for a milling company, is home for a few weeks rest. George W. Shank, a well known fruit-grower of Canby precinct, died at his home Tuesday morning of cancer of the stomach. He was 63 years old and a native of Ohio. Mr. Shank was a veteran of the civil war, and was wounded at Vicksburg. He was a prominent member of Meade Post, also of the Workmen. The deceased had been married 47 years, and a resident of Clackamas county for about 22 years. Besides the widow, the deceased left the following children: L. D., A. B. and D. J., Canby; Corwin S., Seattle; W. M., Oregon City. The funeral occurred from the Methodist Episcopal church at Canby yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dunlap officiating. The services at the grave were conducted at the cemetery by Meade Post.

A Good Recommendation "I have noticed that the sale of Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. What better recommendation could any medicine have than for people to call for it when again in need of such a remedy? Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite or when troubled with constipation, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford. SOCIAL EVENTS.

Several Interesting Functions During the Week.

WEDDING AND BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY. A most delightful gathering was the surprise party given Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Wells last Friday evening at Gladstone in honor of their wedding anniversary. It was also Mrs. Wells' birthday. A large party of friends were present at the function. Mr. and Mrs. Wells were the recipients of an elegant set of silver teaspoons, Rev. J. H. Beaven making the presentation speech. Crokonole was one of the features of the amusements of the evening, Mrs. J. J. Brown winning the first prize, and Mrs. H. L. McCann getting the consolation award. Refreshments were served.

MOUNT PLEASANT WHIST CLUB. The Mount Pleasant Whist Club gave a very enjoyable party and served lunch in Twilight Hall last Saturday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. George Lazelle, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, the Misses Bettie and Fannie France, Lorena Lazelle, Blanche McCard, Emma Wilhbart; Messrs. R. Kelland, A. W. France, Tom Kelland, Fred Meindl, Marshall Lazelle.

MORRIS SURPRISE PARTY. Mr. and Mrs. John K. Morris were the recipients of a very pleasant surprise party at their West Side home Tuesday evening. The party was a gratifying social success, and an excellent supper was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Scripture, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Al Canton, Mr. and Mrs. H. Henningson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Munson, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Morris, Messrs. C. W. Deaver and J. Shadle and Miss Bessie Grant.

MRS. ELY'S CROKONOLE PARTY. Mrs. Charles Ely gave a very successful crokonole party at her home at Ely, the latter part of last week. About 20 invited guests were present, and participated in the festivities of the evening. Seasonable refreshments were served. Mr. Weed was awarded the first prize, and Mr. Groot carried off the consolation honors.

MISS PATTY ENTERTAINS. Miss Florence Patty, the well known West Side school teacher, entertained a number of friends at her home last Thursday evening. Authors and crokonole were interesting game features of the gathering, and the daintiest of refreshments were served.

MISS JOHNSON SURPRISED. A delightful surprise party was given Miss Johnson at her home on upper Seventh street last Friday evening. It was a hemming party planned and carried into effect by the Misses Bessie Groot and Lennie Seelye. The girls of the party brought unhemmed aprons, and after numerous games, these were hemmed by the boys amid lively merriment. The prize for the best hemming was awarded to Walter Muir. After the contest a dainty lunch was served, each girl wearing her apron. Those present were: Misses Seelye, McMillan, Johnson, McCown, Bessie Groot, Emma Johnson, Lennie Seelye, Roma Stafford, Madge Cooke, Angie Williams, Jennie Hankins, Zora Forrester; Messrs. Seth Johnson, George Hankins, Arthur Williams, Walter Muir, William Callif, Ross Farr and Allie Groot.

CHILDREN'S PARTY. Little Ellen Grace celebrated her 5th birthday last Friday by inviting a lot of young friends to spend the afternoon. Games were played and refreshments served. The little folks enjoyed the affair immensely.

Miss Mattie Draper entertained the Dertich Club at her home last Monday night. It was an evening with Schubert, and a very enjoyable program was presented.

The new officers of Tualatin Camp, Knights of Maccabees were installed last Thursday night by Past Commander George Gilstrap. The Lambeau Lady Guards, of Portland, assisted in the installation and gave some excellent drills. Joe Meldrum and Allan Cooke gave a cakewalk. A banquet was served and several addresses delivered. The list of officers was recently printed in this paper.

Company A, O. N. G., contemplate extensive improvements in their quarters, and will fit up a club room.

Mr. R. C. Ganong entertained a whist party at her home in Onemah last Friday night. Leighton Kelly won the first prize and James Church the booby.

Mrs. George Ely, of Ely, entertained a number of friends at her home Wednesday evening.

The Mothers' Club met at the home of Mrs. George C. Brownell Thursday afternoon, and an unusually interesting meeting was held. The feature of the gathering was the able address by Mrs. D. C. Latourette.

Mrs. A. N. Munsey gave a very enjoyable card party at her home on Center street last night.

The Turney dance at the new Woodmen hall last Saturday night was a very popular and enjoyable affair.

A club dance will be given at Willamette hall Saturday night, under the direction of Misses Geraldine McCown and Nettie Bradley. It is a limited invitation affair.

WEDDINGS.

Miss O. L. Blayne, daughter of W. Blayne, was married to Charles E. McCormick on Wednesday, the ceremony taking place at the home of the bride's brother, J. W. Blayne on the hill. The bride recently lived in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. McCormick have gone to Southern Oregon to visit relatives. Rev. A. J. Montgomery officiated at the ceremony.

Marriage licenses have been granted as follows: Mary E. Gill and E. N. Barrett, Ada Athy and Paul Schroeder, both on the 15th.

Joseph Garrow, of Corvallis, formerly of Oregon City, was married to Miss Bertha Emmett at Salem a few days ago.

Invitations are out announcing the marriage of Alice Gertrude, oldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Powell to Lieutenant Fred W. Humphrys, to take place on Wednesday, January 22nd.

C. G. HUNTLEY,

Oregon City, Ore. Cut-Price Druggist.

Dan Kauffmann, the well known dairman and bee farmer, of Needy precinct, was in the city Tuesday. Mr. Kauffmann was the first person in Clackamas county to build silos and make a practical test of feeding ensilage to his cows. And he has made a gratifying success of feeding corn ensilage. From 10 acres of corn he feeds on an average of 22 head of cattle annually, the ensilage being the principal feed, as he has but little pasture. Mr. Kauffmann has been in dairying business for several years, and the silos made at his creamery command a sale at 52 1-2 cents per bushel. He will enlarge his plant and will plant silos at Macksburg as the sale of their milk at Kauffmann creamery. Mr. Kauffmann is selling the Sharpless cream separator, which enables purchasers to separate their cream at home.

Notice of School Meeting. Notice is hereby given to the legal voters of School District No. 62 of Clackamas county, state of Oregon, that a school meeting for said district will be held at the county court room in the court house at Oregon City, to begin at the hour of 7:30 o'clock p. m., on Tuesday, the 28th day of January, 1902.

This meeting is called for the purpose of levying a tax on all the assessable property within the district for general school purposes, for the ensuing year.

O. O. ALBERT, Chairman. Attest, O. O. T. WILLIAMS, Clerk. Dated this 15th day of January, 1902.

Frank Treadwell, Bennett, Ia., was troubled with kidney disease for two years. He writes: "I had taken several kinds of kidney remedies, but with little benefit. Finally I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and a one dollar bottle cured me. Charman & Co.

There Are Simple Remedies indispensable in any family. Among these, the experience of years assures us, should be recorded Painkiller. For both internal and external applications we have found it of great value; especially can we recommend it for colds, rheumatism, or fresh wounds and bruises.—Christian Era. Avoid substitutes. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis.' Price 25c and 50c.

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP. A Little Boy's Life Saved. I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today.—Joel Demont, Inwood, Iowa. For sale by G. A. Harding.

You Know What You Are Taking. When you take Groves' Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. No Cure, No pay. 50c.

WIVES CURE YOUR HUSBANDS! CHILDREN CURE YOUR FATHERS! This remedy is no sense a nostrum but is a specific for this disease only, and it is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of Drunkards have cured themselves with this priceless remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temperate men by having the "CURE" administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee or tea, and believe today that they discontinued drinking of their own free will. DO NOT WAIT. Do not be deluded by apparent and misleading "improvement." Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "Home GOLD CURE" is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, thus placing in reach of everybody a treatment more effective than others costing $25 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepaid to any part of the world on receipt of One Dollar. Address Dept. E 594, EDWIN B. GILES & COMPANY, 2330 and 2332 Market Street, Philadelphia. All correspondence strictly confidential.
