NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Friday, January 17.
Talk A dispatch from London Of states a strong belief pre-Peace. vailed in financial circles here today that negotiations for peace had been reopened between the leading Boers and the British government. South African stocks rose in sympathy with the reports. The exact nature of what was going on is not known, but a representative of the Associated Press learned that leading Boers had indirectly approached the government, protesting against the appropriation of farms in the Transvaal or Orange river colonies by British settlers, which system is now rapidly being pushed, and that strong influence had been brought to bear on Boer leaders to save at least a vestige of the property for their followers. Whether what is passing today between the Boers and the British government can be termed peace negotiations or what will be their result can only remain speculation for the present. The stock exchange evidently takes a hopeful view of the outcome. It also is reported that other nations are taking a hand in a peace settlement.

Judge J. B. Condon, a prominent pioneer and lawyer of The Dalles, is dead.
He was a brother of Professor Thomas Condon, the noted geologist at the state university.
Governor Geer will extend no clemency to Murderers Wade and Dalton.
Three men overpower watchman in warehouse at Seattle, and blow open safe.
A dispatch from Seattle states that in an initiation of candidates last evening, one of the neophytes was severely injured. He was being hauled around the place blindfolded in a little wagon, when the wagon was tipped over. He was dumped against the side of the altar, and his side was crushed. He bled profusely, and it was first thought that he was dead. Since then he has been cared for by members of the order in the lodge building. The members are taking extraordinary care to conceal his name, and it cannot be learned. He is said to be a clothing merchant.

Saturday, January 18.
Traitor There passed through Degraded. Portland yesterday a former private of the United States army, who was publicly degraded before the post guard at Fort Canby a few hours before, and was about to depart for Alcatraz Island, the bleak military prison of the Federal government, where he will serve a 10-year sentence for publicly declaring his intention to assassinate President Roosevelt when his term of enlistment expired, and for indorsing the crime of Czolgosz. He was closely guarded by a detail of his former comrades, and in their stern faces was no sympathy for the fellow, who was no longer a soldier, who had been court-martialed and dismissed from the service in dishonor and disgrace. Frank Rakowski is his name, and he is a native of Poland. He was a member of the artillery company stationed at Fort Stevens, commanded by Captain Harold Cloke. Some time before Christmas he was ordered to Fort Columbia, Wash., on detached duty. A few days before the holiday, Rakowski was in Chinook, and was under the influence of liquor. The assassination of President McKinley was spoken of in a saloon, and Rakowski was present. He was in the uniform of a soldier of the army of the United States, which accounted in a measure for its startling effect upon his auditors when he declared:
"President McKinley got what he deserved. My time of enlistment in the army will soon expire. When it does I'll see that President Roosevelt gets the same dose Czolgosz gave McKinley." It was a marvel that Rakowski was not lynched on the spot. His snarling utterances were heard by several persons in the saloon, and when they com-prehended the treasonable threat made in direct and unmistakable language they rushed for him, and bore him to the floor. But for the intervention of officers of the peace he would have likely been beaten to death. His assaults had to be torn from him. Oregonian.

Three hundred people were killed by the earthquake at Chilpanzingo in Mexico. It is known that the state capitol and parish church suffered considerable damage. Earthquake shocks were felt in many other cities and towns. In the City of Mexico the earthquake occurred at 5:17 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and was of such violence as to shake the most substantial buildings.
Washington Board of Pilots will lend substantial aid to movement to improve service at the mouth of the Columbia.
Sunday Morning, January 19.

The At Washington yesterday Friar Secretary Root was heard Question. on the question of the friar lands in the Philippines before the house committee on insular affairs. He said that these land holdings constituted one of the chief causes of discontent among the people; they were the hotbeds of insurrection and had furnished Aguinaldo his chief appeal to the popular prejudice. The secretary said that the religious orders so fully recognized the bad condition of affairs that they were disposed to sell out, and he urged that the government take advantage of the opportunity to remove the chief causes of discontent in the islands.
He did not believe that condemnation proceedings would be necessary, as there were indications that a fair price could be agreed upon. A rough estimate of the value of the lands, he said, was from $5,000,000 to $7,000,000, American money. Secretary Root began his statement by explaining the enormous power which the religious orders have long exercised in the Philippines. They are represented at Madrid, and the archbishop is quite as powerful as the governor-general of the islands. The orders have largely supplanted the native priests. As a result of the great political power of the order, the friars have become a medium of communication between the local parishes and the central government. They hold large tracts of land, amounting to 400,000 acres at the time of American occupation. The people rent the lands, and thus a landlord and tenant system is now in operation.

This causes intense hatred, and Mr.
Root said the feeling of the tenant classes is not equalled in bitterness by anything in Ireland. Aguinaldo had taken advantage of this intense feeling of the tenants against the friar landlords.

Governor Geer does not consider the confession of Wade anything in Dalton's favor.
Mrs. George T. Myers, a prominent society woman of Portland, is dead.
It is reported that a diamond field has been discovered in Idaho.
Rev. Dr. H. K. Hines, the veteran Methodist Episcopal minister and writer, died in Portland this morning.

Monday, January 20.
A woman insurgent leader was captured in Laguna province. Eleven men of the Second Infantry are missing.
Peace negotiations between Boers and British are under way at Brussels Eleven prisoners escape from the Federal prison on McNeil's Island, Wash.
Mother Joseph, of the House of Providence, at Vancouver, died yesterday.
Boer Commandant Scheepers will be shot next Saturday.
Murderers Wade and Dalton claim Edward N. King, who is contesting for the $500 reward with Mrs. Whitlock, ought to be arrested.

Voters Again Must Register.
The revised election laws of Oregon provide, among other things for the registration of all voters before they shall be qualified to vote at the coming county and state elections to be held on June 2, 1902. The principal sections of the law on this point follow:
"Section 5. It shall be the duty of every elector in the state of Oregon between the first Monday in January 1900, and 5 o'clock p. m. of the 15th day of May, 1900, and between the same dates and hours biennially thereafter, to register with some notary public or justice of the peace, or with the county clerk of the county in which the elector resides, in accordance with this act."

The law further provides: "If the clerk refuses to enter the name of any qualified elector, such elector may proceed by mandamus to compel him to do so." Also that every elector may be registered without charge by personally appearing in the office of the county clerk and after being sworn properly, stating the facts as to his name, age and occupation, state or county of his birth, and whether naturalized, and if so, the place or court and papers relating thereto also the exact place of present residence, giving section, township and range, or by specifying the name of town, with street and location of dwelling or boarding house, also his ability to write his name or mark his ballot. If an elector is unable to register in the office of the county clerk "he may register without charge before the notary public or a justice of the peace in the county in which he resides by using one of the blanks designated blank "A" in section 3, of this act, filling out the blank in such a way as to afford all the information which he ought otherwise give to the clerk."
It should be remembered that all voters must register if they wish to vote, whether they have registered at previous election or not. Former registrations are now void by limitation.

The Grand Canon of the Arkansas.
Easiest of access among all the canons of Colorado, being situated on the main line of the Denver & Rio Grande between Canon City and Salida in the front range of the Rockies, it is the most spectaclar, awe-inspiring and magnificent.
Down this lighty cleft in the heart of granite rock-barrier rush the raging waters of the Arkansas river, lashed into foaming fury and dashed into spum-ing spray by its swift descent through the tortuous defile. So narrow is the passage at one point that there was no room for both road and river, and therefore a curiously constructed bridge of steel had to be thrown lengthwise of the stream, suspended from iron supports mortised into the canon walls on each side to the right and left. All right here can be seen the climax of all the canon's grandeur, that which has been aptly called "The Royal Gorge." For 2600 feet the stolid monoliths soar upward—five times as lofty as the Washington monument, the highest permanent structure reared by the hand of man. No words can adequately describe the magnificence of the scene. Only those who have beheld its glories can appreciate them.
This is but one of the many wonders of nature revealed to the traveler on the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, "The Scenic Line of the World." For detailed information about this most delightful trip to the East, address

Portland, Oregon.

Women and Jewels Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences.
Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her life to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system.
It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at George A. Harding's. Get Green's Special Almanac.
