NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Friday, January 24.

Canal Mystery. A dispatch from Washington states there is considerable mystery about the delay in the canal consideration at the present time, but it is understood that Senator Morgan is utilizing the time in preparing a report upon the new phases of the situation as developed by the supplemental report of the commission. It is also understood that various members of the canal commission are to be summoned before the senate committee on inter-oceanic canals, and will be requested to produce the documents and papers on which it founded its supplemental report, and show why its views changed from Nicaragua to Panama. The determination of Morgan to push the Nicaragua scheme regardless of the recent report on the Panama route is making some of those advocates of the Panama scheme, with more zeal and sense, talk of opposing Morgan from the chairmanship of the committee. Nothing of this kind will be undertaken, because no matter what Morgan does, the senate will not offer an insult of that kind to a man of his standing. There is considerable talk about concessions from both Colombia and Nicaragua, but it is asserted by the state department that neither government can grant an absolute sovereignty, as their constitutions prohibit them from alienating territory. If the United States is to assume control of either route, it will be in the form of leasing, and while this government will have absolute control of the right of the way in either country, the sovereignty will technically rest with either Nicaragua or Colombia, as the case may be.

John F. Dryden was nominated for United States senator by the New Jersey republican caucus.
A call has been issued for a meeting of the democratic central committee on January 30th.

Anti-merger. A dispatch from Olympia states that Governor McBride today gave out a statement of his attitude toward the railroads. It is at once a declaration of war on the railroad trust, and a sarcastic and effective arraignment of the Northern Securities Company. It clearly defines the policy of the governor in the matter of a railroad commission, and shows that the fight for a commission, all but won at the last legislature, is to be renewed. A few vigorous remarks on the subject of corrupt lobbies will also make interesting reading for the railroad corporations that have heretofore maintained them at Olympia. In speaking of the Northern Securities Company, among other things he said: "How ver, the 'community of interest' is created or maintained, the result is the stifling of competition." "It is not a comforting thought to know that the security of the people is dependent upon the good will, or favor, of the combination. No self-respecting community can accept as a favor what it is entitled to as a matter of right. Instead of the people being dependent for fair treatment upon the good will, or the whim, or mere caprice, of this combination, they should be in a position to regulate and control these railroads." "I prefer trusting to the sense of justice on the part of the people, rather than the so-called enlightened selfishness of the managers of the railroads." "But when we reflect upon the methods resorted to through the medium of an insolent and corrupt railroad lobby, to uphold their beneficent sway and to suppress all legislation in the interest of the people, we have a right to distrust these pretensions."

Sixteen democrats voted with the republicans for an appropriation for an army post at Manila. The senate committee decides on a thorough investigation of the Philippine question.

Sensational charges of fraud are made against the American Book Company in connection with the Washington textbook fight.

It is believed that J. J. Hill has negotiated for the Pacific transports.
There is a dispute at Salem as to who shall take the money under the new tax sale law, the clerk or sheriff. The courts may be asked to decide the matter.

On a cot in the county jail Hypnotic at Spokane, lies Hans Sleep. Younger. Since Tuesday night the man has been in a trance-like sleep, and the efforts of physicians to overcome the influence of without avail. Who put Younger into this sleep, and for what purpose it was done, is a question that is puzzling the authorities. Physicians say that if the influence is not withdrawn soon Younger's mind will be affected, as in all cases of continued hypnotic state the mind is weakened. A local hypnotist named Rynearson is accused by two persons of placing Younger to sleep on a variety theater stage Tuesday night. Rynearson denies the charge. Two physicians yesterday applied many of the tests used to arouse persons from a cataleptic state. All efforts failed and both physicians declare that unless the person who put Younger to sleep will remove his influence, there is no telling when the man will recover from his unnatural condition. Younger is a powerful man aged about 30, and worked at harvesting during the summer and fall. Tuesday night he went to a variety theater, and on leaving went to his room. He was not seen again until Thursday evening, when he came down stairs half-dressed and said there were snakes in his room. Edward Lewis, the clerk, knowing that Younger was not a drinking man, summoned the police. The man's body was then in a semi-rigid condition. He takes food during semi-conscious intervals. His feet and hands are limber, but the rest of his body is in a state of semi-rigidity.

William Strother, the negro attendant at the Vista Turki-b bath house in St. Louis confesses that he killed Millionaire Cooper. He did not know why he did it unless he was drunk. While the millionaire was asleep on a cot, after the bath, the negro struck him on the head with a hammer.

A highly reputable Vienna paper publishes a dispatch from Constantinople, declaring the porte has received secret reports accusing Miss Stone, the missionary, of connivance with the Macedonian committee in allowing herself to remain a prisoner in order to increase the ransom for release demanded by the brigands, the bulk of which will go to the committee. The dispatch says that Miss Stone is at present living in a болгарian village, in the disguise of a peasant.

New Tax Law Gives Taxpayers a Chance to Save 3 Per Cent.

It will be of interest to Clackamas county taxpayers to know something of the provisions of the new tax law. If you pay your taxes on or before March 15th, there will be a rebate of 3 per cent; if paid up to and including the first Monday in April, there will be no rebate, and no penalty or interest will be added. If not paid by the first Monday in April, the taxes will be delinquent, and there will be a penalty of 10 per cent, and interest on the tax at the rate of 12 per cent per annum. If one-half the tax is paid before the first Monday in April, the other half may run up to and including the first Monday in October following; but if the last half is not paid by the first Monday in October, it becomes delinquent, and the penalty and interest above-mentioned will be enforced. On personal property taxes, if one-half is not paid on or before the first Monday in April, the law compels the sheriff to levy upon and collect the same after May 1st.

The law compels the sheriff to sell all lands on which taxes have been paid and that such sales shall not be later than March 1st of the year succeeding the year in which the tax levy is made. The property will be sold to the person bidding the lowest rate of interest, and certificates will be issued therefor, and deeds given to such property sold, unless redeemed within three years from the date of each sale.

The Grand Canon of the Arkansas.

Easiest of access among all the canons of Colorado, being situated on the main line of the Denver & Rio Grande between Canon City and Salida in the front range of the Rockies, it is the most spectacular, awe-inspiring and magnificent. Down this lighty cleft in the heart of granite rock-barrier rush the raging waters of the Arkansas river, lashed into foaming fury and dashed into spuming spray by its swift descent through the tortuous defile. So narrow is the passage at one point that there was no room for both road and river, and therefore a curiously constructed bridge of steel had to be thrown lengthwise of the stream, suspended from iron supports mortised into the canon walls on each side to the right and left. All right here can be seen the climax of all the canon's grandeur, that which has been aptly called "The Royal Gorge." For 2900 feet the stolid monoliths soar upward—five times as lofty as the Washington monument, the highest permanent structure reared by the hand of man. No words can adequately describe the magnificence of the scene. Only those who have beheld its glories can appreciate them.

This is but one of the many wonders of nature revealed to the traveler on the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, "The Scenic Line of the World."

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP.

A Little Boy's Life Saved
I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed every ten minutes until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great long strings. I am positive that I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today.—Joel Demont, Inwood, Iowa.
