ROMANTIC WEDDINGS.

Clackamas County Not Without Romances.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Clara Mae, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Hughes, to Mr. Lawrence Charles Hornschuch. They will be at home after March 1st, at Seattle, Wash.—Oregonian 19th. Mr. Hornschuch is a former Albany clerk—Democrat.

The fact is, Mr. Hornschuch was quietly married at Vancouver, Wash., about the holidays, and accompanied by his bride, visited his parents, near Beaver Creek soon after the New Year holiday. Mr. Hornschuch was employed as clerk for two or three stores in this city for a couple of years. There is a tinge of romance connected with his marriage to Miss Hughes, as told by those presumed to be familiar with the facts. For some time past, Mr. Hornschuch was employed in a San Francisco wholesale establishment. Mr. Hughes is reputed to be a wealthy oil operator. Mrs. Hughes, who was in precarious health, removed from San Francisco to Portland to try a change of climate. She was accompanied by her daughter. At first Mrs. Hughes' health apparently grew worse. The engagement between the young people had received the earnest approval of the parents. Mrs. Hughes' malady became serious, and she feared that she would die. She was anxious to see her daughter married before she passed away. As a result the young people went to Vancouver, and were quietly married. Mrs. Hughes has materially improved in health, and Mr. Hornschuch and his bride are hustling along the road to prosperity.

A young woman school teacher, of Portland, was married to a young man from the same locality a few days ago. The wedding was strictly private. The information states that the bride is a teacher in the public schools, and would forfeit her position, were it known that she is a married woman. The husband has gone to Honolulu to accept a lucrative position. It is stated that the wedding will be announced next June, after the close of the Portland schools, when the couple will have their honeymoon in Honolulu. They were married in Oregon City.

Mrs. Laura Z. Pincus has begun action in the superior court to set aside a decree of divorce recently secured by A. P. Pincus. She alleges that her husband resorted to various fraudulent methods to secure the same. It is alleged that Pincus married a young woman two days later and had left for parts unknown—Vancouver Register-Democrat. Pincus was recently married here to Miss Maud Keeney. The Pincuses were prominent people of Vancouver.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Several Interesting Functions During the Week.

MENS' CLUB SUPPER AND LECTURE OF RABBI WISE.

The event of the week was the Mens' Club supper held Wednesday evening in the parlors of the Congregational church. After the supper festivities, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise gave a lecture in the pulpit of the auditorium. Hon. C. B. Moores presided at the excellent supper, and short after dinner speeches were made by ex-Mayor Latourette, Mayor Dimick, Messrs. Dresser, Orose, Dye, Ryan, Rabbi Wise and Rev. Emery Dye. In the church auditorium there was a short musical program, consisting of a quartet selection by Mesdames Caulfield, Ganong, Porter and Miller, and a solo by Mrs. C. W. Pope. Miss Mattie Draper was the accompanist. The subject of Dr. Wise's lecture was "Judea's Gift to the World." It was eloquent and intellectual, and by far the ablest lecture ever given before the club. He showed what Christ and the Jews had done for the world in spite of continued, cruel persecution.

The male guests at Mrs. W. H. H. Samson's boarding house, gave a sleighing party to a number of their young women friends Tuesday evening. After driving over the city for a couple of hours, refreshments were served. The members of the party were Misses Cheney, Dalton, Chase, McMillan, Coney, Gabbert, Samson, Taylor; Messrs. Adams, Schwab, Stipp, Soules, Rapp, Damico, Taylor, Rait; Mrs. Drivine, Miss Custer, Mr. and Mrs. Samson, Geiser, Sheriff and Mrs. Cooke.

District Grand Master Jennie E. Rowen, of this city, was the guest of honor at a special session of the United Artisans in Tacoma a few days ago. At the initiation ceremonies Miss Rowen presided, and W. H. Manika, on behalf of the assembly, presented her with a bouquet of carnations, after which she was conducted to the banquet hall. The principal feature of the banquet was a large cake adorned with Miss Rowen's name.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. O'Neill entertained a number of friends at their home on Lower Sixth street last Saturday evening in honor of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McCutchan, of Stockton, Calif.

Mrs. Ed Sheehan entertained a number of friends at her home on Monroe street last Thursday evening with a delightful whist party. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. N. Munsey entertained a number of friends last Saturday evening with a card party. Mrs. Hall and T. M. Miller further entertained the guests with guitar selections. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Will Allredge gave a pleasant afternoon tea Wednesday in honor of Miss Oda Randall, of Newport.

Miss Florence Grace entertained a party of 10 little girls last Saturday in honor of her ninth birthday. Games were played during the afternoon, and refreshments were served.

People Believe In It

It has been cynically said that anything can be sold by advertising nowadays. This is not so. Many liniments have been advertised but only one—Perry Davis' Painkiller—has stood the test of sixty years' use. Today its popularity is greater than ever and is based not upon what anybody says but upon what the remedy does. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'.
