SOCIAL EVENTS

Several Interesting Functions During the Week.

RECEPTION TO FIVE GOLDEN WEDDING COUPLES AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

A large number of people were present at the First Presbyterian church Wednesday night to witness the interesting program attendant on the reception to five well known married couples, who had passed their golden or fiftieth wedding anniversaries. County Superintendent Zinner was master of ceremonies. The exercises were interspersed with old-time hymns, the closing number being "How Tasteless and Tedious the Hours." The Misses Bessie Grant and McMillan, recited appropriate selections, and were attired in costumes of 50 years ago. They were heartily applauded. H. L. Kelly sang a solo. Mrs. George C. Brownell gave interesting sketches of each of the five couples. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Roberts, Captain and Mrs. S. B. Callif, County Treasurer and Mrs. A. Luelling, Postmaster and Mrs. R. T. Beattie, of Ely; Mr. and Mrs. Miles Rowen. Mrs. Grace Williams, who was Mrs. R. E. Roberts' bridesmaid over 50 years ago, also had a seat on the platform. Congratulations followed the interesting program with a social occasion. Interesting reminiscences also were given by several of the venerable guests of the reception. Following is Mrs. Brownell's sketch of the 10 persons, who were honored at this time:

MR. AND MRS. R. E. ROBERTS.

Please go back with me in fancy 54 years, and visit a little town in Wales on the Dee. It is the 9th of August, a beautiful summer morning. In the house across the road from the Established Church preparations are being made for a wedding. The bride, a dark-eyed girl of 18, has known her soon-to-be husband since childhood. There has been nothing exciting or particularly romantic in their courtship. At last, the hour came and the bridal party crosses the road to the church. The bride and bridesmaid—a sister, are decked alike in changeable silk gowns. The groom, and his cousin who is best man, wear black with probably gay waistcoats. They take their place before the altar and the impressive ceremony is said before a robed priest. Hush! Can you hear the solemn words, "I Richard take thee Mary to be my lawful wedded wife, for richer or poorer, in sickness and in health till death do us part." When the final words are said and the prayer is over, watch them coming down the aisle, how proud the young husband looks, how straight he carried himself, the slight young bride at his side; how demure, she sees only the carpet. After the merry wedding breakfast the young couple attended by a young lady, cousin of the groom, take the leave of their guests and start on a wedding journey. Their vehicle is called a car—has two wheels, is painted yellow and is drawn by two horses. The roads are good and they drive 40 miles to a small town, where the cousin (Continued next week.)

Miller sang several general selections. Every musical number was enthusiastically encored, and responses were the rule. Refreshments were served by members of the Guild and daughters of the King. A pleasant social time and dancing followed.

Women and Jewels

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her life to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boesche's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at George A. Harding's. Get Green's Special Almanac.
