

CORRESPONDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar May and family, of Beaver Creek, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. May, Sunday.

Carus.

Miss Vada Faust called on Miss Iva Irish Sunday. Evan Lewis is on the sick list. Mrs. Eph Jones and daughter, Mildred, visited her sister, Miss Rebecca Kahlbein, Sunday.

Boilard.

What state can equal Oregon for pleasant winters? Our farmers were wise enough to keep their spuds in a good cellar, so there were none frozen during our cold snap. It pays to be prepared for such things.

Harry Musher, teacher of the Hood View school, spent a few days at home during the examination. He took the Washington county examination.

Say, boys, after this, you should see that there is oil in your lanterns when you go to church. And Mr. H., this will apply to you when you see the young ladies home.

Those who took in the dance at Viola came back well pleased with the time they enjoyed.

Miss A. I. Heinbotham, our teacher, was at the examination, writing for a first grade paper.

Eldorado.

The Eldorado school was closed last week on account of examination.

Old Han, the Chinaman, who worked the Paine Bros' hopyard last year, has returned from Portland, where he has been working for the past few months, and he will now commence clearing up the yards and get ready for spring work.

Ed and John Paine were in Oregon City on business last Tuesday. Mrs. Minnie Fanton attended the dance given at the home of Edwin Howard last Saturday evening and reports having had a good time.

Ed Paine took a load of potatoes in town for B. J. Helvey last Saturday.

Robert Shubel and family, who have been residing in British Columbia for the past year, are moving back to their own place in this burg.

Barnum's Monkeys

"All well—all happy—lots of fun". That is the regular report from the monkey cage of Barnum's Circus ever since the keepers began dosing the monkeys with Scott's Emulsion.

Consumption in monkeys and in man is the same disease. If you have it or are threatened with it can you take the hint?

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 109 Pearl St., New York. 50c and $1. all druggists.

Mrs. B. J. Helvey went to Oregon City Saturday last.

Mrs. Frank Irish spent Sunday last with her parents and relatives at Carus.

Glen Irish spent Sunday with her cousin, Leon Jones, of this burg.

Wilhoit.

Hello! Mr. Editor, after being absent for some time, I will endeavor to scribble you a few items this week to let you know that I am not dead yet.

F. W. McLaren, of Wilhoit, was transacting business in Portland last week. As Wilhoit is overstocked with items this week it takes two correspondents to send them in, although everything is quiet in this burg at present.

Mr. Rice, the Silvertown butcher, was in this burg hunting beef cattle Monday last.

Bennie Johnson's smiling face was seen in this burg one day last week.

Our school directors met recently and elected Mr. Grager, of Scotts Mills, to teach our next term of school.

Boys, don't forget the dance to be given at Frank Haun's on Feb. 28th. Everybody is invited to attend. Bring your best girl, and don't forget your lunch baskets. If you have any good jig dancers bring them along.

B. F. Bartow and wife, of Pleasant Hill, were visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Harriet Groshong, on Rock Creek, Monday last.

A basket social was given at the home of Emma Vorhies on Rock Creek, near Wilhoit, Monday evening, Feb. 10th. Quite a large crowd attended considering the stormy weather.

The merry dancers danced until 7 o'clock a. m. The most notable feature of the evening was a jig by Frank Haun and Elmer Thomas and George Groshong. They don't claim to be the best in the world but they are plenty good enough. Music was furnished by Frank Haun, Elmer Thomas and A. Pluard, and the floor manager was A. D. Mazingo.

Mr. Haun, of Rock Creek, was transacting business at Scotts Mills Saturday last.

A. D. Mazingo is making a new gun stock for his gun. He uses nothing but an ax and pocket knife. Beat that if you can.

Mrs. S. E. Haun has carded, spun and knit 59 pairs of socks, and has 10 pounds of yarn on hand yet. Beat that for a cripple.

A. L. Wyland, of Rock Creek, made a business trip to Silvertown last week.

Miss Lillie Crouse, of Rock Creek, is on the sick list.

Frank Haun had the misfortune to lose his slipper while going to the party Monday evening. A boy was soon sent to hunt for the lost property and he soon returned with it.

Frank, you and Elmer Thomas should be a little careful when you go into a room to have a private conversation and see that there is no one else in the room.

Frank Haun, of Rock Creek, who has been on the sick list, we are glad to report, is able to be around once more.

Aurora.

Very warm weather for February! Grandma Hagey was calling on the Misses Wiegands Sunday.

John Abbot and Professor Mack were welcome callers on ye scribe Suday.

Ogleby brothers are slashing brush for Theodore Campau.

John Taylen is cutting cordwood for D. O. Freeman, of Barlow.

James McGill is putting plank fences and making other improvements on his ranch. Jimmy needs a good cook.

Mrs. Yost and Mrs. Mike Backart are very sick and very little hopes are entertained for their recovery.

A. Howard, of Barlow, was calling on J. Taylen Sunday.

The political pot is beginning to boil and Barlow precinct can furnish several candidates for office on the citizens ticket.

The grouse hooteth and the criminal shooteth and puts the feathers thereof in a sack.

The dance at Needy was a stern affair and will be as long as all kinds of booze is openly sold in the same building, as almost all respectable people are giving Needy dances the go by on account of so much drunkenness.

Beaver Lake is still on the turf and its people are alive and kicking. George Groshong made a flying trip to Silvertown one day last week.

We are glad to learn that C. G. Vorhies, who had the misfortune to fall and severely bruise his hand while rounding up some cattle a few days ago, is on the mend. The dance given by George Groshong at the home of Mrs. E. Vorhies on the night of February 10th, was a grand success as usual, and notwithstanding the inclement weather the light fantastic was tripped till 12 o'clock, when a lunch was served, after which dancing was continued until 7 o'clock a. m.

The most remarkable feature of the evening was a jig by George Groshong before a delighted audience. Among those present were James and Leo Paquette, Bert Wade, C. G. Vorhies, L. J. Nicholson, Raymond and Alvin Wyland, Ben Johnson, Zeb Bowman, Willie Dart, Nathan Swift, George Hardesty, Misses Adeline, Mable and Clara Paquette, Josephine Slaughter, Elva Wyland, Hattie Vorhies, Daisy Sullivan, George Groshong was floor manager. The music was furnished by Frank Haun, A. Pluard and Elmer Thomas.

Hattie was all smiles last Monday night. A. G. Wyland has taken up the barber's trade.

Boys, bring the girls and lunch baskets to Frank Haun's on the night of Feb. 28th, and shake your feet. Everybody welcome.

Why is it that George and Clarence wear such pleasant smiles? Mrs. Dart, of Molalla, was visiting her aunt in this burg last week.

Mrs. Barton, of High Hill, has been visiting her mother the past week near Wilhoit.

DENTAL BRIDGE WORK OF TO-DAY Knowledge is Power LATEST DENTAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

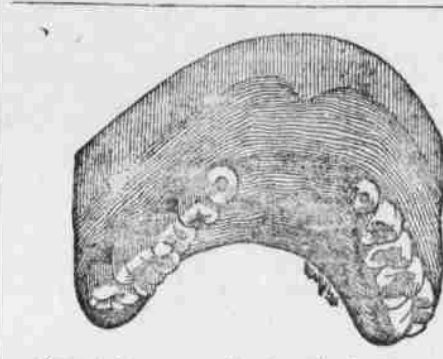

Figure 1 shows a mouth where the four incisors have been extracted, and the two cuspid (eye teeth) crowns destroyed to the gum line, showing the cuspid roots prepared to receive a bridge.

Figure 2 represents the bridge ready for adjustment.

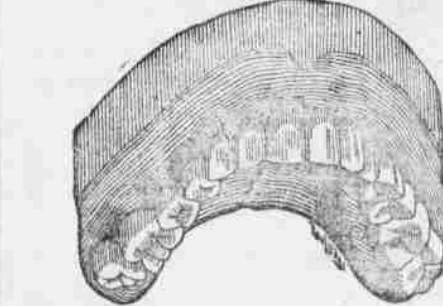

Figure 3 represents the case after the bridge has been placed in position.

Figure 4—It is useless to wear a plate in the mouth when a bridge can be attached to a few remaining teeth and roots.

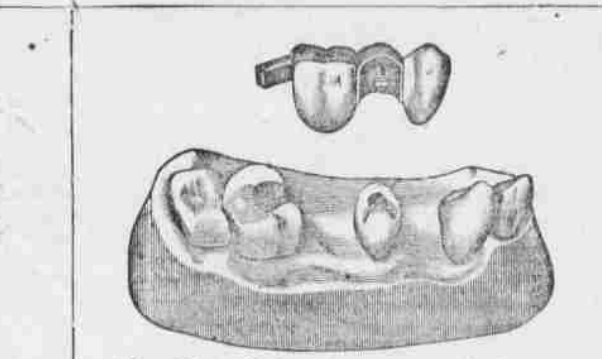

Figure 5 shows the loss of two upper teeth, the six year molar and the first bicupid. The bridge above is attached by an open face gold crown over the second bicupid, and a bar which extends into a cavity of the adjoining molar.

Figure 6 shows the bridge anchored in position.

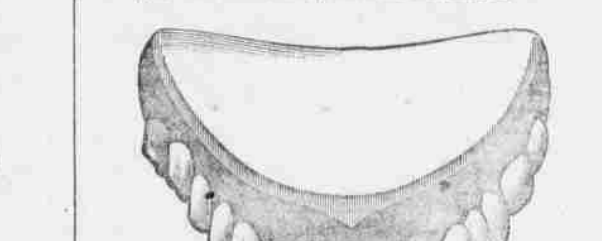

Figure 7 represents a full set of teeth on a gold plate.

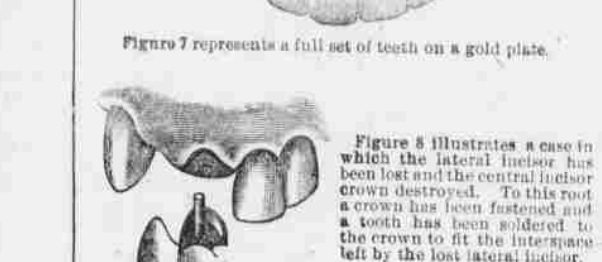

Figure 8 illustrates a case in which the lateral incisor has been lost and the central incisor crown destroyed. To this root a crown has been fastened and a tooth has been soldered to the crown to fit the interspace left by the lost lateral incisor.

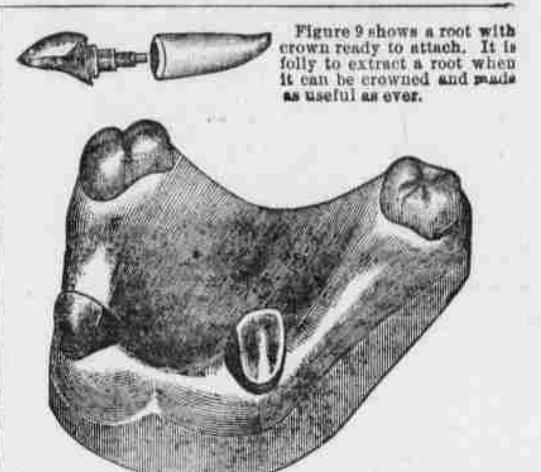

Figure 9 shows a root with crown ready to attach. It is fully to extract a root when it can be crowned and made as useful as ever.

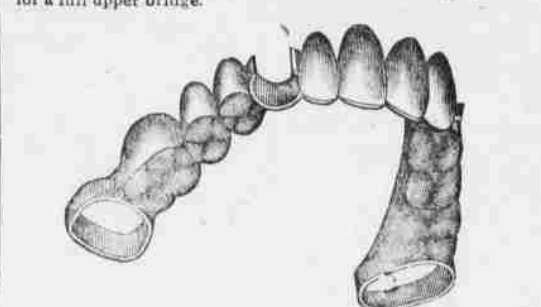

Figure 10 is a mouth that has lost all the teeth but four, the two cuspid and two molars; they are shown as prepared for a full upper bridge.

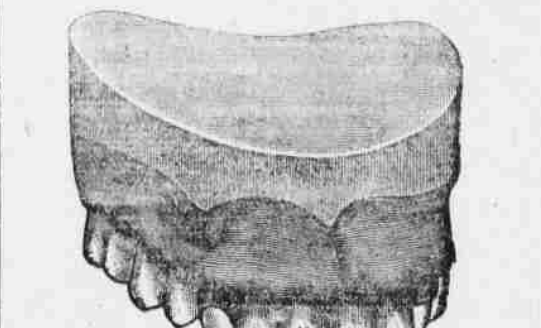

Figure 11 shows the bridge complete, ready to place in position, as shown in figure 10.

DR. PICKENS, whose life has been devoted to the study of the Dental Art, makes a specialty, not of rebuilding the mouth of the teeth still left for service, but of building up a full set (painless) from the teeth and roots which afford sufficient basis for crown and bridge work. He is prepared to do all kinds of work pertaining to the dental profession and guarantees the same for five years. Send for illustrated book on "Dental Bridge Work of To-Day." It will be mailed to you free of charge, and will explain so thoroughly the system that you will understand it as well as the dentist.

DR. L. L. PICKENS, DENTIST, BARCLAY BUILDING, OREGON CITY

Butcher Rice, of Silvertown, was seen in this section a few days ago. N. B. U. has a splendid cure for sore lips.

A. M. Groshong has finished logging for the time being. Mud is plentiful, but news is scarce.

How is it, George, that they say you went bird hunting to Silvertown, and hid your game in Mrs. Vorhies' potato barn?

The next time you go to a dance, Tom, leave your 20s at home, for you are sure to get them broken.

Thomas Slaughter's smiling countenance of Scotts Mills, was seen at Mrs. Vorhies' home Monday last. What seems to be the attraction, Dough?

Who was the lad at the dance with the game leg jutting down notes? Perhaps he is one of our many correspondents.

We are sorry to learn that J. Thomas, a well known young man of this burg, is suffering with appendicitis. Dr. L. Onard, of Silvertown, is attending him.

Ben Darston made a business trip to Portland one day last week.

Highland.

Highland isn't dead if we haven't heard from it for awhile. Mrs. B. Kandel, who has been sick, is slowly improving.

David Miller has returned home from Springwater, where he has been teaching school.

Thomas Parish has been away on a visit and returned home last week. Mr. and Mrs. F. Hettman have gone to housekeeping.

Fred and Agnes Wallace were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rath last week. Ellen Kirk is on the sick list. James Parish was seen in our burg last week hunting a widow. That's right, Jim!

Advance.

El Coos went on a business trip to La Center, Wash. Mrs. Jones and son, Quincy, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Kollermeire, Jr., a few days ago.

Some of the most prominent young men of Frog Pond were down at the foot of Wabash Avenue one day last week.

F. Kollermeire Jr., has been transferring cordwood at the lower pond. Fred Hodges is driving team for William Beaman.

Union Hill.

Valentine day has come and passed, and I suppose each and everyone received a pleasant reminder of good will in the shape of a valentine.

Mrs. Mamie Rauch, Oregon City, has been visiting her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rauch, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Molzan visited their daughter, Mrs. Sophie Adkins, last Friday.

Almost everyone of the smallpox patients are able to use up and around. The smallpox we have been having in this neighborhood is in a very light form. No new cases have developed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Knotts, of Mulino, visited their daughter, Mrs. L. P. Burns, last Sunday.

Henry May has rented a place near Carus, where he intends to move his family in a few days. Mr. May has been employed in Adkins sawmill as engineer for the last two or three years.

Edward Casiday contemplates moving out to Adkins Bros' sawmill in the near future. Peter Sager and family, of Mulino, visited his brother-in-law, Ed Casiday, last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Richter and family visited Charles Pipka and wife last Sunday. Messrs. Charles Thomas and George Helvey attended the dance and entertainment at New Era last Saturday night.

Miss Sarah Beals died at the home of her uncle, George Rauch, on Tuesday morning, February 11th, 1902. The deceased had been ailing for some time with consumption. Miss Beals was born 17 years ago. Her mother died when Sarah was 18 months old. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Canby.

The deceased leaves a father, brother and number of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. Sarah was a kind friend, a gentle schoolmate and a loving companion. She will be sadly missed by her many friends.

FAREWELL TO A FRIEND DEPARTED.

Thou art gone to the grave; But we will not deplore thee; Thou sorrow and darkness encompass the tomb; The Savior has passed through its portals before thee, And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

Thou art gone to the grave; But we will not deplore thee; Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian, thy guide; He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee; And death has no sting since the Savior has died.

THOU ART GONE TO THE GRAVE; But we will not deplore thee; Thou sorrow and darkness encompass the tomb; The Savior has passed through its portals before thee, And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

Thou art gone to the grave; But we will not deplore thee; Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian, thy guide; He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee; And death has no sting since the Savior has died.

THOU ART GONE TO THE GRAVE; But we will not deplore thee; Thou sorrow and darkness encompass the tomb; The Savior has passed through its portals before thee, And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

Thou art gone to the grave; But we will not deplore thee; Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian, thy guide; He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee; And death has no sting since the Savior has died.

THOU ART GONE TO THE GRAVE; But we will not deplore thee; Thou sorrow and darkness encompass the tomb; The Savior has passed through its portals before thee, And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

Thou art gone to the grave; But we will not deplore thee; Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian, thy guide; He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee; And death has no sting since the Savior has died.

THOU ART GONE TO THE GRAVE; But we will not deplore thee; Thou sorrow and darkness encompass the tomb; The Savior has passed through its portals before thee, And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

Thou art gone to the grave; But we will not deplore thee; Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian, thy guide; He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee; And death has no sting since the Savior has died.

THOU ART GONE TO THE GRAVE; But we will not deplore thee; Thou sorrow and darkness encompass the tomb; The Savior has passed through its portals before thee, And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

Thou art gone to the grave; But we will not deplore thee; Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian, thy guide; He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee; And death has no sting since the Savior has died.

THOU ART GONE TO THE GRAVE; But we will not deplore thee; Thou sorrow and darkness encompass the tomb; The Savior has passed through its portals before thee, And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

Thou art gone to the grave; But we will not deplore thee; Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian, thy guide; He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee; And death has no sting since the Savior has died.

THOU ART GONE TO THE GRAVE; But we will not deplore thee; Thou sorrow and darkness encompass the tomb; The Savior has passed through its portals before thee, And the lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

Say! Corporal, did that big shot from that 22 at Marks Prairie, annihilate you? Everybody in this neck o' the woods votes Corporal's letters both newsy and instructive. If that 22 should fire another 16-inch shell it might "bust" and then our genial editor might as well discontinue the county correspondents' department of the Courier-Herald. Socialism is coming! Put your ear to the ground.

Mrs. N. A. Olsen, of Oregon City, spent last week at this place visiting her mother. Why not write your congressman and United States senator to work for a parcel post? It might give 'em an inspiration!

L. P. Williams is thinking of giving ranch life the shake and moving to Portland in the near future. Rox.

E. T. Hammond, the enterprising man living on Teasel, has been working for the organization of a Grange at Molalla for two years, and he is one of your enterprising men. He has made several political speeches when Bryan ran for president, and if the people had done as he told, Bryan would have been elected. It is understood that he will stump the country on the "Initiative and Referendum."

Rob Shubel and family have returned to our little enterprising village. The farmers are all busy getting ready to put in their crops.

The Eldorado school is progressing nicely under the supervision of Miss Gans. Jennie McMannis and Miss Minnie Boyles were visiting Dr. Goucher last Thursday and Friday.

J. O. Gaskell took his sister, Hattie, to Portland last week. Professor Danzap, of Highland, is giving instructions to a class of 17 in vocal music.

Rev. Dunlap, of Canby, was called from the meeting here to conduct a funeral service on his charge at Canby. The meeting closed the following day. A class of six children was taken in on probation.

James Fullam sold a band of sheep to N. Farr at $3.75 per head last week. N. H. Smith takes out a Sharpless separator today.

Andrew Dengler is very low with lung trouble. L. F.

St. Valentine's day is over with and all are happy. The frogs are heard croaking at all points.

D. H. Musher was visiting at the Peters home Sunday. Peter Peters was seen dancing the light fantastic too on the coal pit.

Fred Barnes is staying close at home, as he is afraid of the smallpox. The dance at Gosser's was another failure.

Miss Lily Beeman, who has been working at Woodburn for several months, has returned to her home. Mrs. H. Ortman celebrated her 64th birthday Tuesday and received some valuable gifts.

Mr. Farmer returned home Sunday from a pleasure trip to Portland. Hurrah! For the big time Saturday, riding the billy goat.

Al Coose's smiling face is again seen in our burg. Miss Minnie Baker is expected home soon from Klondike. Miss Dora Beckman has returned from a week's visit at Portland.

Several of the Frog Pond boys attended the oyster supper at Wilsonville Tuesday night. Mrs. Meint Peters celebrated her 55th birthday Tuesday. A number of relatives and friends were present. Some valuable presents were received. Those present were the following: Mrs. C. Heinz, Mrs. J. Aden, and daughters, Ellen and Myrtle, Mrs. H. Ohrman, Mrs. Fred Elligson, Mrs. Liesman and children.

Joe Lawrence has given up catching cats after dark. SIX TWISTERS.

The weather is something splendid—warm and spring like. Grain is showing up green. Roads have dried up nicely.

John Seeding was in the metropolis Tuesday. Claus Peters is putting a picket fence around his residence.

Spuds have been on the move the past week. G. Reuter is having stove wood sawed. Fred Schatz and family leave today for Odessa, Wash., where they intend to make their home in the future.

Many of the children hereabouts are having a siege of colds. LENGTHY.

Mr. Farmer returned home Sunday from a pleasure trip to Portland. Hurrah! For the big time Saturday, riding the billy goat.

Al Coose's smiling face is again seen in our burg. Miss Minnie Baker is expected home soon from Klondike.

Miss Dora Beckman has returned from a week's visit at Portland. Several of the Frog Pond boys attended the oyster supper at Wilsonville Tuesday night.

Mrs. Meint Peters celebrated her 55th birthday Tuesday. A number of relatives and friends were present. Some valuable presents were received. Those present were the following: Mrs. C. Heinz, Mrs. J. Aden, and daughters, Ellen and Myrtle, Mrs. H. Ohrman, Mrs. Fred Elligson, Mrs. Liesman and children.

Joe Lawrence has given up catching cats after dark. SIX TWISTERS.

The weather is something splendid—warm and spring like. Grain is showing up green. Roads have dried up nicely.

John Seeding was in the metropolis Tuesday. Claus Peters is putting a picket fence around his residence.

Spuds have been on the move the past week. G. Reuter is having stove wood sawed. Fred Schatz and family leave today for Odessa, Wash., where they intend to make their home in the future.

Many of the children hereabouts are having a siege of colds. LENGTHY.

Mr. Savage was up from Portland last Thursday calling on relatives and friends.

The measles are still spreading. Mrs. George Ely has had a serious time with the measles, having taken cold. She and the children are about well again.

Mrs. Griffin's children are cooling down with the measles. Mrs. John May says that she is grandmother now, as her daughter, Nellie Farrier, of Washington, has a daughter.

Miss Ernestine Henrich, who has been working at Portland, is home this week with her mother. J. W. Curran is the proud possessor of a new buggy harness.

Miss Clark and Mr. Mack were married last week, and Grandma Clark has gone to Mount Pleasant to live with her son again.

Miss Grace Good came down from her home in Salem last week, and is now working for Mrs. Locke.

Mrs. Nelson is at Mrs. Nehran's home on Fourth and Monroe street. Our pastor, Rev. S. A. Arnold, was not here to fill his appointment on the 9th, as he was called to Seattle, Wash., to the bedside of a very sick brother. He will be here for his regular appointment next Sunday, Feb. 23. SALINA.

Continued on page 7.