CAPTAIN AND MRS. S. B. CALIF.

Allow me to introduce to you Miss Elizabeth Hollenbeck, of New York. It is the yeas '49, and she is sitting on the deck of a canal hoat on its way to the great lakes. Little she dreams that she is going to meet ber lover. Her father with his family are on their way to Wisconsin, where a son has preceded him. At Buffalo they leave the canal hoat, and steamer takes them to Milwaukie. From there they ride 25 miles across the country to an uncle's house, where there journey ends. It is a small coun-try town and the people are nei hborly. Next door lives a young man, and he loses no time in making the acquain-tance of Miss H, and in three months more we find him one beautiful autumn doy, the 24th of September, '49, help-ing Miss Hollenbeck into a buggy. She looks dain y in a white dress. They are Democratic Committee Meeting. Women and Jewells

Jewels, candy, flowers, man-that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that great-est of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the stremuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a wo-man will risk her life to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insiduous consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the DEN regular use of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest con-sumption in its early stages and heal the sumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at George A. Hard-ing's. Get Green's Special Almanac.
