PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY

OREGON CITY, MARCH 7, 1902.

A GLANCE over the tables on the first page shows who spends the money of Clackamas county.

A new game called the "Editor's Delight" is played in this way: Take a sheet of ordinary writing paper, fold it carefully, and enclose a bank note

VERY POOR SHOWING.

Of first page we publish statements of the various expenses of the state and the showing made by Clackamas county, we are sorry to say is very poor.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Many people from the county precincts seem to think John J. Cooke, the present sheriff, is the only man to run for Senator against George C. Brownell.

At the democratic central committee meeting on Saturday a general discussion of the advisability of not running a straight ticket was had.

Have you ever noticed the crowd of politicians and office seekers nearly always to be found at a certain place on Main street.

By mistake we mentioned Dolph Criswell instead of Millard Crissell for the legislative ticket last week.

COMMITTEE MEETING.

The Faithful Met in Oregon City Saturday.

About 30 representatives of the democratic party met at the office of R. A. Miller on Saturday in pursuance to a call.

Barlow—W. W. Jesse. He believed the majority of his precinct were for citizens ticket.

Boring—Canyon Creek—Cascades—Canby—C. N. Wait.

Clackamas—Cherryville—Canemah—C. W. Ganong.

Highland—S. Hutchinson. Did not know much about sentiment of community, but personally favored a democratic county ticket.

Mackay—Albert Gribble. Community as near as he could learn favored a straight ticket.

Molalla—O. W. Robbins. Believed his precinct was favorable to a citizens ticket.

Milwaukie—T. R. A. Sellwood. Favored citizens ticket and believed populists and conservative socialists would vote for the ticket.

Needy—New Era—Oswego—Oregon City No. 1—E. D. Kelly.

Oregon City No. 2—D. Caulfield. Was in favor of democratic ticket and could not see anything to be gained by fusion.

Pleasant Hill—O. P. Sharp. Favored citizens ticket.

Sievers—Soda Springs—Tualatin—T. L. Turner.

West Oregon City—Ira Jones. Favored citizens ticket and hoped something would be done to lighten the tax burden of the citizens of Clackamas county.

Chairman—R. A. Miller. Secretary—A. W. Cheney.

State Committeemen—T. F. Cowing. Favored citizens ticket and stated that state central committee left each county to do as it saw fit in regard to putting up a democratic ticket.

The meeting of committee was not regarded as binding and at county convention if thought best a county ticket could be put up.

C. D. Latourette, chairman of last joint convention favored a citizens ticket if good men were put up.

George Ogle, of Molalla, Dr. Strickland and J. P. Lovett of Oregon City, and John Aiken, of Stafford, were also present.
