

CORRESPONDENCE

Beaver Lake.

All is quiet in our burgh at present. Frank Haun and son were in Scott town on business last week.

Mr. Milstead has greatly improved the looks of his farm by adding a new gate and other necessary improvements.

O. K. Quinn of Marquam, was seen in our burgh a few days ago.

H. Wilson, of Willmott, was seen passing through this section Monday last.

Well, Elmer, we were glad to hear from you. Keep right on as your last production was good.

J. Grossong had the misfortune to lose a valuable cow in this section a few days ago.

Mr. Bounds of Mulino, was visiting old-time friends in this burgh one day last week.

B. Wade was transacting business at A. E. Rich's sawmill Wednesday.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Sarah Churchill, a well-known young lady of this section is at present lying very low with pneumonia fever. Dr. A. A. Leonard, of Silverton, is attending her.

HAPPY JACK.

Scott Mills.

And spring has come at last and everybody rejoicing in the fact that it is always better late than never.

All are invited to attend the drama given by the Modern Woodmen of America at their hall in the Commons block, the 12th of this month. Recitations and basket social will follow in the program. Don't forget the date and come and try your luck boys.

A. E. Thomas made a business trip to Oregon City last week. He complains of his taxes being greatly increased over last year. Don't kick about that Rant, for such seems to be quite a popular thing this year.

Miss Lizzie Lucier of this place left last week for Washington in company with her sister, Mrs. Sanders, who has been visiting her parents for the past four or five months.

George and Willie Dart of Molalla have purchased a livery stable at Lafayette which they will take charge of on or before the 5th of the month. Success be with you boys!

Well, Willie, as Cora's engagement with the measles is completed, you are at liberty to call, but we hope that you will correct that story about renting that house at Scott's Mills for the benefit of curious people.

The democratic primary for Marion county at Scott's Mills was held last Saturday. The delegates are Louis Hertzel, Dave Brody, and Robert Skirvin. Dave Body for supervisor; Robert Skirvin for justice of the peace and Charles Kidd for constable. Their opponents are Fred Drager, justice of the peace; Charles Nordyke, constable; Lum Whitlock, road supervisor for district No. 12; Labon Maulding, district No. 11.

Clifford McIntosh and his sister, Mrs. Esten, of Portland, are visiting their father and mother of this place.

Mr. Richard White is still with us but is very low.

Easter has come and gone and the day was very quiet at the mill. A short program was rendered at the Christian church which was well attended by the little folks.

STRANGER.

South Carus.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Goucher and Merle Atkins took Easter dinner with Mrs. Daniels at Mulino.

Miss Agnes Wallace was the guest of Mrs. Minnie Fenton Friday night and of Miss Veva Jones, Friday afternoon.

Clyde Smith has a beautiful young horse for sale. Call and get a bargain.

John Confer of Oregon City stopped in South Carus, a few moments last Monday.

Grace, the youngest daughter of R. Schubel, who has been very sick with pneumonia fever, is improving.

Our vicinity was saddened last Sunday by the death of Mrs. Bogue, of Mulino. She had been very sick for many weeks past and peacefully passed away Easter Sunday and was buried at the Graham cemetery on Monday. Her family have our deepest sympathy.

Ed. Howard and family visited Mrs. Howard's mother, Mrs. Morris, of Macksburg, during the week. Their daughter, Miss Thena, will attend school there and stay with her grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Fish were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pearson last Sunday.

Several of the young ladies of our neighborhood attended the Easter services at Mulino.

Oto Striker went to Oregon City last Monday on business.

Miss Veva Jones made a business trip to Liberal one day last week.

A. L. Jones, C. S. Smith, R. Schoenborn, J. Evans and several others went to Oregon City last week.

Meiss, Norman and Ralph Howard and Louis Buckner, of North Carus, passed through here last Sunday on their way home from Mulino.

Mrs. Pearson called on Mrs. R. Goucher one day last week.

Elie Schoenborn ran a splinter into her finger which nearly caused lockjaw. The finger given a severe twist. Fessel farm last Friday night was a very successful affair. About fifty couples tripped the light fantastic, many having come from a distance. At 12 o'clock light refreshments were served.

John Helvey has again left our midst having gone to Washington for an indefinite period.

Clarence Mallott of Oregon City visited Mulino last Sunday.

Wm. H. Jones is able to be around once more.

Easter services were held at the Grange hall in Mulino. An excellent program was rendered. Little Hazel Erickson deserves special mentioning for the manner in which she delivered her part.

Miss Gans was the guest of Mrs. C. Smith last Sunday.

A certain young lady of our neighborhood is thinking of kidnapping Willie Weismann.

Frank Schoenborn had a very narrow escape from having all his ribs broken last week.

Harry Kirbyson went to Oregon City last Saturday.

The farmers of our vicinity are all taking advantage of the good weather by plowing and planting their potatoes.

Malino.

Everybody is glad it didn't rain on Easter Sunday.

Charles and Frank Manning were out went nearly to Molalla returning with very little mud.

Mr. and Mrs. Case day were visiting at the home of Peter Sager last Sunday.

Misses Iva and Eva Graves were visiting Mrs. Woodside Sunday.

Everybody seems to have bad colds.

Ernest Davis is working on Charles Holman's farm at Meadowbrook.

Tom Foss was hauling hay from here last week.

Roy Garret was visiting at the home of August Erickson Sunday.

Johnnie Darnall was the guest of Charles and Ida Boynton last Sunday.

Rev. Wiles and family were visiting at the home of George Foss last Sunday, also Mr. and Mrs. Austin, of Liberal.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry were visiting Mr. Barnes and family Sunday.

Archie McCord, Will O'Connor and Clarence Mallott were visiting here last week.

Mr. Bounds of Mulino, was visiting old-time friends in this burgh one day last week.

B. Wade was transacting business at A. E. Rich's sawmill Wednesday.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Sarah Churchill, a well-known young lady of this section is at present lying very low with pneumonia fever. Dr. A. A. Leonard, of Silverton, is attending her.

HAPPY JACK.

Scott Mills.

And spring has come at last and everybody rejoicing in the fact that it is always better late than never.

All are invited to attend the drama given by the Modern Woodmen of America at their hall in the Commons block, the 12th of this month. Recitations and basket social will follow in the program. Don't forget the date and come and try your luck boys.

A. E. Thomas made a business trip to Oregon City last week. He complains of his taxes being greatly increased over last year. Don't kick about that Rant, for such seems to be quite a popular thing this year.

Miss Lizzie Lucier of this place left last week for Washington in company with her sister, Mrs. Sanders, who has been visiting her parents for the past four or five months.

George and Willie Dart of Molalla have purchased a livery stable at Lafayette which they will take charge of on or before the 5th of the month. Success be with you boys!

Well, Willie, as Cora's engagement with the measles is completed, you are at liberty to call, but we hope that you will correct that story about renting that house at Scott's Mills for the benefit of curious people.

The democratic primary for Marion county at Scott's Mills was held last Saturday. The delegates are Louis Hertzel, Dave Brody, and Robert Skirvin. Dave Body for supervisor; Robert Skirvin for justice of the peace and Charles Kidd for constable. Their opponents are Fred Drager, justice of the peace; Charles Nordyke, constable; Lum Whitlock, road supervisor for district No. 12; Labon Maulding, district No. 11.

Clifford McIntosh and his sister, Mrs. Esten, of Portland, are visiting their father and mother of this place.

Mr. Richard White is still with us but is very low.

Easter has come and gone and the day was very quiet at the mill. A short program was rendered at the Christian church which was well attended by the little folks.

STRANGER.

South Carus.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Goucher and Merle Atkins took Easter dinner with Mrs. Daniels at Mulino.

Miss Agnes Wallace was the guest of Mrs. Minnie Fenton Friday night and of Miss Veva Jones, Friday afternoon.

Clyde Smith has a beautiful young horse for sale. Call and get a bargain.

John Confer of Oregon City stopped in South Carus, a few moments last Monday.

Grace, the youngest daughter of R. Schubel, who has been very sick with pneumonia fever, is improving.

Our vicinity was saddened last Sunday by the death of Mrs. Bogue, of Mulino. She had been very sick for many weeks past and peacefully passed away Easter Sunday and was buried at the Graham cemetery on Monday. Her family have our deepest sympathy.

Ed. Howard and family visited Mrs. Howard's mother, Mrs. Morris, of Macksburg, during the week. Their daughter, Miss Thena, will attend school there and stay with her grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Fish were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pearson last Sunday.

Several of the young ladies of our neighborhood attended the Easter services at Mulino.

Oto Striker went to Oregon City last Monday on business.

Miss Veva Jones made a business trip to Liberal one day last week.

A. L. Jones, C. S. Smith, R. Schoenborn, J. Evans and several others went to Oregon City last week.

Meiss, Norman and Ralph Howard and Louis Buckner, of North Carus, passed through here last Sunday on their way home from Mulino.

Mrs. Pearson called on Mrs. R. Goucher one day last week.

Elie Schoenborn ran a splinter into her finger which nearly caused lockjaw. The finger given a severe twist. Fessel farm last Friday night was a very successful affair. About fifty couples tripped the light fantastic, many having come from a distance. At 12 o'clock light refreshments were served.

John Helvey has again left our midst having gone to Washington for an indefinite period.

Clarence Mallott of Oregon City visited Mulino last Sunday.

Wm. H. Jones is able to be around once more.

Easter services were held at the Grange hall in Mulino. An excellent program was rendered. Little Hazel Erickson deserves special mentioning for the manner in which she delivered her part.

Miss Gans was the guest of Mrs. C. Smith last Sunday.

A certain young lady of our neighborhood is thinking of kidnapping Willie Weismann.

Frank Schoenborn had a very narrow escape from having all his ribs broken last week.

Harry Kirbyson went to Oregon City last Saturday.

The farmers of our vicinity are all taking advantage of the good weather by plowing and planting their potatoes.

It is quiet in our burgh at present. Frank Haun and son were in Scott town on business last week.

Mr. Milstead has greatly improved the looks of his farm by adding a new gate and other necessary improvements.

O. K. Quinn of Marquam, was seen in our burgh a few days ago.

H. Wilson, of Willmott, was seen passing through this section Monday last.

Well, Elmer, we were glad to hear from you. Keep right on as your last production was good.

J. Grossong had the misfortune to lose a valuable cow in this section a few days ago.

Mr. Bounds of Mulino, was visiting old-time friends in this burgh one day last week.

B. Wade was transacting business at A. E. Rich's sawmill Wednesday.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Sarah Churchill, a well-known young lady of this section is at present lying very low with pneumonia fever. Dr. A. A. Leonard, of Silverton, is attending her.

HAPPY JACK.

Scott Mills.

And spring has come at last and everybody rejoicing in the fact that it is always better late than never.

All are invited to attend the drama given by the Modern Woodmen of America at their hall in the Commons block, the 12th of this month. Recitations and basket social will follow in the program. Don't forget the date and come and try your luck boys.

HAPPY JACK.

Scott Mills.

And spring has come at last and everybody rejoicing in the fact that it is always better late than never.

We originate and design Pattern Hats at all prices. Miss Goldsmith.

Mountain View.

(Too late for last week's issue.)

Fruit blossoms are coming out. Mr. Murrow had a new chicken yard built last week.

Mr. Howard and family have moved to Beaver Creek again. They are still hauling wood.

Snow Irvin, of Molino, was in this burgh Monday visiting among relatives.

Mahlon Moran and wife came home Tuesday to visit the former's parents.

C. E. Selby, of Canby, was the guest of J. Gillett Wednesday.

He is a delegate to the republican convention.

When No. 3 fire bell rang last Tuesday evening Company No. 4 was up on duty in a very short time. Members of No. 4 can be relied on every time.

The person who borrowed the book from the room of the postoffice entitled "The History of Battles in the Civil War" is requested to return the same to the owner, D. G. Frost, or leave it at the postoffice.

Miss Hattie Bingo went home with her brother, J. Ringo, last week to visit a few days and returned home again this week.

C. F. Keller was here last Saturday evening lecturing on socialism.

The sun is shining again after the hard rain last evening.

It did not rain on Easter Sunday this year.

Gardening is the order of the day here now.

D. Frost says it is too late to plant potatoes now. He has all planted.

H. E. Cross has the lumber hauled to build a new wood shed where J. W. Curran lives.

C. F. Keller, the socialist speaker, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Tice on Saturday.

A family moved into the Hall house last Monday. The West family lived there nearly three years.

Mrs. Griffin is quite poor of late.