

Sale of Spring Dress Goods

An elaborate showing of new Spring Dress Goods, Swell creations at less than the price of the ordinary.

40-inch All-wool Chalk-line Cheviots, all colors, 50c a yard

46-inch Vigoreux, in gray, blue, mode and castor, worth $1.25, 97c a yard

48-inch Imported Venetians, in blue, gray, mode, brown and tan, worth $2.25, special, $1.73 a yard

42-inch French Crepe de Chene, in new green, gray, mode, blue and castor, worth $1.75, $1.23 a yard

Designs were never more unique or eye-pleasing

McALLEN & McDONNELL

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS
THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

PERSONALS

Livy Stipp returned Saturday from Salem.
George Sheer, of Macksburg, was in town Monday.
Florian Ott, of Sunnyside, was in town Monday.
Fritz Zimmerman, of Stafford, was in the city Monday.
Philander Mead, of New Era, was in the city Thursday.
Gottfried Marquardt, of Highland, was in town Monday.
Miss Nellie Boyd, of Mitchell, is visiting Mrs. W. C. Green.
W. S. Hallinan, of Oswego, was a visitor in the city Monday.
Mrs. W. J. Wilson is recovering from her recent severe illness.
Bert J. Tyler, of Milwaukie precinct, was in the city Thursday.
Miss Maud Butler, of Salem, has been visiting Miss Echo Samson.
D. O. Rogers, of Portland, was the Bands and Whites Sunday.
Miss Georgia Grace has resumed her old place in her father's store.
Mr. and Mrs. G. R. H. Miller visited friends at Canby over Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Faust, of Carus, were visitors in the city Saturday.
Rev. C. U. Cross and family have recovered from an attack of varoloid.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hedges, of Barlow, were visitors in Oregon City Monday.
Fred C. Horton is over from Newberg, and visited Silverton the first of the week.

Mrs. Dube Alldredge and daughter, of Hubbard, visited relatives in the city last Sunday.

John Knapp, a student of Pacific university at Forest Grove, visited at home over Sunday.

J. Webb, wife and child, of Portland, were visiting Sheriff J. J. Cooke and family Sunday.

Miss Maud Noble, of Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Noble Sunday.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery went to Portland Wednesday to attend a mission board meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hayward have returned from Portland, are now making their home here.

Miss Mary Conyers, Willie Morse and Edward Everett Brodie visited at Clatskanie over Sunday.

Arthur Scott, who now lives at Seattle, is visiting relatives and friends here for a short time.

A. J. Owenby has sold his blacksmith shop to J. W. Marshall, and will go to Eastern Oregon.

Anton Habelt, a well known stock raiser, of the Springwater district, was in the city Saturday.

Ernest A. Boeckman, John P. Gage and E. P. Carpenter, of Stafford, were in the city Thursday.

Mrs. E. E. Martin went to Chehalis, Wash., Friday, to visit Mrs. C. A. Fitch, for a few days.

W. P. George and family, of Salem, were visiting his brother, Jesse George, during the past week.

James Corless, Samuel Gerber and Herbert R. Corless, of Logan, were in Oregon City Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Chapman will move to Portland, where he will work at his trade as a lather.

Howard Latourette returned from the hospital in Portland Monday evening, much improved in health.

John C. Bradley is the new central committeeman for Clackamas county in the state republican campaign.

Mrs. A. H. Williams, of Chemawa, is attending on her sister-in-law, Miss Esther Williams, who is very ill.

John Straight, who has been employed in Portland during the past winter, was up from Parkplace Monday.

Mrs. H. C. S. Phelps, of Canby, who had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. Webb in Portland, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. C. R. Zumwalt, of Perrydale, Polk county, who was visiting her son, W. B. Zumwalt, returned home Friday.

H. L. Price, a merchant of The Dalles, but formerly of this city, was visiting his brother, J. M. Price, during the past week.

Pearl Mosher returned from Bremeron, Wash., Saturday, and has resumed his old place at Adam's Golden Rule Bazaar.

Mrs. Ida Marvin has removed to Oregon City, where she will reside in the future.—Sellingwood item in East Side Herald.

Mrs. E. F. Martin and E. Sadie White, who are now sojourning in Portland, visited Mrs. E. J. McKittrick Monday.

Jacob Spuze and daughter, Miss Emma, of Scappoose, went to Macksburg Saturday, to visit Mr. Blacke for a few days.

Mrs. Jane Noyer, mother of Mrs. E. F. Linn, left Sunday to make an extended visit to her son, T. P. Noyer at Pomeroy, Wash.

Mrs. W. B. Zumwalt returned Sunday evening from Portland, where she was attending on her mother, Mrs. Wells, who was very ill.

J. L. Mattocks, one of the prominent farmers of New Era precinct, was in the city Thursday, and remained over to attend a meeting of the Odd Fellows lodge.

Miss Maud Noble, one of the teachers in the Corvallis schools, came down Saturday, and visited over night at home. She returned on the morning train Sunday.

D. H. Boen, of Springwater, was in town Saturday, and reported that the people of that section were highly pleased with the nominations on the citizens ticket.

Cicero Rinearson, head clerk at the Electric hotel, is ill, and his place is being filled by John Hutton, who is home from an extended visit to his daughter, Mrs. Harvey Huff at Roseburg.

Frank Shannon, of Beaver Creek, was in town Monday, and stated that all he could hear here was politics. Out at Beaver Creek the question is: "How much wheat have you planted?"

D. R. Dimick, of Canby, was in town Monday. He has sold his livery stable to Mr. Rauch, sr., and the business is being carried on by Charles Rauch. Mr. Dimick expects to continue to make his home in Canby.

J. A. Ta'bert, of Clackamas, is visiting in Grant's Pass this week. He is a

Fashionable Spring Wear for Men and Boys

Spring Suits

If you have never been to our store, put aside the unprofitable conservatism and come. You will find no one can out rival us in style and quality. Spring Suits without a fault; in all new patterns—almost an infinite variety at

$9.35 to $35

Topcoats for Men

Do you contemplate a new topcoat for Spring? Short topcoat for men who hail their revival so gladly, long coats for men who recognize their many uses. Not a touch of the commonplace in a single garment, and the prices modest beyond your expectations; black and colors,

$12.50 to $35

Men's Specials in Suits and Topcoats for Spring, $9.35 to $13.85

HAT STYLES FOR SPRING

Now is the time to discard the old Winter hat and array yourself in one of the new nobby Spring styles.

Youmans' Derby Hats
Gordon $3.00 Hats
in the height of fashion
Stetison and Steinbach Specials

JUVENILE STYLES FOR SPRING WEAR

A parent purchasing boys' clothing from us has the satisfaction of knowing that his boy has the best article obtainable for the money, thoroughly up-to-date as to style, workmanship and material.

Sailor, Norfolk, Russian Blouse; also Spring Overcoats, ages 3 to 16. An immense assortment of swell Spring styles.

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest Fourth and Morrison Sts., Portland, Oregon.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

brother-in-law of I. M. Davis. For the past two seasons he has been operating a fish hatchery on the Umpqua.—Grant's Pass Courier.

A. B. Rintoul, superintendent of the Eugene woolen mills, accompanied by his family, was visiting relatives in the city Sunday. He stated that it was the intention to start up the factory about the 15th of next month.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ross, recently of Canyon City, Colo., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. W. S. Grim. Their son, also is with them. At present, they are guests at the home of Rev. W. S. Grim at Willamette Falls, but expect to locate somewhere in Oregon.

A. W. Quinn and two children, of Dufer, who have been visiting relatives, the Darts, Wakefields and Quinns at Molalla, were in the city Saturday on their way home. Mr. Quinn will return here in May, to drive out some cattle, which he purchased while here.

Miss Mary Case, the vocalist, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. J. D. Lee. The concert advertised for last Friday evening, in which Miss Case was to sing, was postponed until Monday evening of this week, a notice of which will be found elsewhere.—Sunday's Salem Statesman.

Alex Lewthwaite, formerly of the Willamette paper mills here, is to be superintendent of the new paper mills at Lawrence, N. Y. Fred Fuller, who has returned from Japan, will take Mr. Lewthwaite's old position at Niagara, Wis. The new paper mill at Lawrence will be operated on the 8-hour system, and there will be three shifts of workmen to keep the manufactory in continuous operation during the 24 hours.

Mrs. T. F. Campbell, of Monmouth, step mother of President P. L. Campbell, of the state normal school, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. David Stump, were visitors at the home of Hon. and Mrs. Charles B. Moore, Tuesday. Mrs. Stump spent the winter of 1844 in Oregon City, and has since resided at Monmouth the greater portion of the time. This was her first visit here for 58 years, although she had passed through on the train several times.

The following Oregon City personals appeared in the last issue of the Corvallis Times:

Bird Rickard arrived Monday from Oregon City, where he has been employed for some time. He has gone to the Southern end of Benton, where he has contracted to carry the mail on the route between Philomath and Dusty.

Oregon City has become the Mecca of Corvallis boys, on the verge of manhood, who wish to begin life on their own account. Among those recently departing for the falls city to secure work there in the factories there are Roy Healy, Hugh McFadden and Everett Prichard.

J. W. Walters and family, who sold their property near the carriage factory this week, took their departure for Oregon City Thursday morning. They go for permanent residence.

Will Read is another Corvallis boy to seek employment at Oregon City. He went down on Thursday's boat.

Attend Special Millinery Sale at Red Front.

Susannah Robinson, an old and highly respected resident of Oregon, died at her home in Milwaukie last Thursday.

Rev. C. U. Cross will preach in the West Oregon City Baptist chapel next Sunday morning at 11, and at 3 in the United Brethren church.

The Oregon Independent at Salem, has suspended publication, and H. G. Guild, who was its editor and publisher, has gone to Prosser, Wash., to establish another paper.

The Pleasant Home Baptist church, of Cottrell, Clackamas county, has filed articles of incorporation. The capital stock is $1,000, and the incorporators are M. Ball, James Spiers, H. T. Cummins.

Michael Bohmann, of New Era, has taken the contract to build a large barn near Mount Hood, but will not begin on the job until he completes a barn in process of construction at New Era, and one for L. Deitz at Macksburg. M. Huiras and Mox Baumann, of New Era, will assist Mr. Bohmann on the Mount Hood job.

A number of additions have been made to the Baptist church choir, and more will be added by next Sunday. Several musical instruments have been added to the choir, and among the new singers are Mrs. R. C. Ganong, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon M. Shank and Gilbert Douglas. Miss Veda Williams is the organist, A. S. Dresser violinist and Mr. Roberts cornetist.

The Salvation army are casting about to find a new location for their barracks. Mrs. Luke Thornton has made a deal for the purchase of the lot on which the building stands, and is waiting for the deed to arrive from Scotland. The building is the property of the Salvation army, but the their lease on the ground has expired. Mrs. Thornton may negotiate the purchase of the building.

The Woodburn Independent gave an extended obituary notice of the death of Mrs. Katie May Dixon, wife of W. F. Dixon, of the sawmill firm of Bagby & Dixon, of Rock Creek, near Needy. She died April 5th, after an illness of six weeks. She was born at Silverton in 1877, and her maiden name was Saunders. She graduated from the Woodburn public schools in 1895, and on Christmas day, 1898, she was married to W. F. Dixon. She left a husband and one child. The deceased had been a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal church for the past six years.

Company B, O. N. G., held a caucus for the nomination of new officers Monday evening: Captain G. W. Martin tendered his resignation some weeks ago, and an election will be held in about a month. Following were the caucus nominations, which is believed to be equivalent to an election: H. L. Kelly, who had been in the national guard service eight years, was promoted from first lieutenant to captain. Fred Humphrys, who had been in the service for six years, was promoted from second to first lieutenant; and William Kuehl, who had been in the service for six years, was elected second lieutenant. The two latter were with Company I in the Philippines.

LOCAL SUMMARY

Hot soda at the Kozy Kandy Kitchen. A few watches for sale cheap at Younger's. Watches cleaned, $1.

Lumber—Leave orders at this office for first-class lumber of all kinds, or address W. F. Hanna, Beaver Creek, Oregon.

Mrs. R. B. and A. L. Beatie, dentists, Weinhard building.

The Weekly Oregonian gives all the national news and the Courier-Herald gives all local and county news. Both one year for Two Dollars.

For Sale—Some very fine improved Berkshire boars and sows. Call or write me for particulars. Correspondence solicited. H. L. Skirvin, Marquam, Or.

When you visit Portland don't fail to get your meals at the Royal Restaurant, First and Madison. They serve an excellent meal at a moderate price; a good square meal, 15c.

500 tracts of land for sale. Inquire of O. A. Cheney, Oregon City, Or.

Wanted—To increase my list of farms and lands for sale, in all parts of the county. Lands owned by non-residents represented and sold. H. E. Cross, Attorney at Law.

THE DEPOT HOTEL is for rent or for sale or exchange for real estate. Inquire of E. E. G. Seal.

Farm for sale—Six miles from Oregon City; 30 acres cleared, 9 acres orchard, balance brush and timber; 27000 cords of wood, which will sell for more than the price of the place. House and barn. Terms to suit. C. O. T. WILLIAMS, room 9, Barclay building, Oregon City, Ore.

Don't pass us by—call in and get our prices. Red Front Trading Company.

Individuals' Money to Loan at 6 per cent and 7 per cent. Call on or write, JOHN W. LODGE, Attorney at Law, Stevens Bld'g. Oregon City, Ore.

Kozy Kandy Kitchen, up to date on home-made candies and cigars.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Most healthful leavener in the world. Goes farther.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Rambler BICYCLES

Satisfy all classes of riders because they are light, strong, handsome, durable and easy running.

You cannot afford to buy a wheel with a repair shop record or one that is not known, when you have such a complete line as the Rambler to select from and the prices are within your reach.

Ramblers

$30, $35, $40, $50, $60.

Ideals

$15, $20, $25, $30.

We have taken care of our Riders in the past and are here to take care of them in the future. Call and let us show you the many different models for 1902.

Burmeister & Andresen,
OREGON CITY JEWELERS