19th YEAR, NO. 49

CITIZENS AT OSWEGO.

Candidates Make a Gratifying Enthusiastic Campaign Beginning.

The citizens candidates held their first campaign meeting at Oswego Saturday night, and were greeted with an attentive and enthusiastic audience. Sheriff J. J. Cooke called the meeting to order, and Henry Gans was chosen as chairman. All the candidates were present, except two.

C. W. Risley, the candidate for commissioner, assured his auditors that he would look after the affairs of the county in a careful and economical manner.

Dr. J. W. Powell, the candidate for coroner, stated that as a physician in that office, could the better protect the interests of the county, as it oftentimes saved the expense of calling in a physician. He claimed that an approximate saving of $125 per year could be made to the county by electing a physician to the office of coroner.

Elmer Dixon, the nominee for county judge, made a short but forceful address. He believed in restoring the county judge to his old place as judge of the county court, and had the utmost faith in the prediction that the citizens movement would carry Clackamas county.

J. E. Jack, the nominee for sheriff, was born and raised in Clackamas county, and had always lived here. He was practically familiar with the sheriff's office, having been a deputy in the office for four years.

G. W. Grace, the nominee for senator made no pretensions to oratory. Honest deliberation was of more importance than oratory in legislative bodies. He managed his own business successfully, and would look after the people's business in the state senate in a way that would prove creditable to himself and the county. Oratory was not necessary to pass bills in legislatures, for the greater part of the work was done in the committee room.

Gilbert L. Hedges, one of the nominees for representative, was the next speaker. He was a member of the last legislature, and it was a two to one proposition with the Clackamas county republican delegation. Kruse had little to say, but Talbert less. The only speech that Kruse made was: "Mr. Speaker, I am sick, and want to go home." Mr. Hedges followed with an eloquent appeal for the citizens party, and talked practically on its principles and its ultimate objects. Kruse and Talbert voted against reducing the railroad fare to 3 cents per, and Brownell was chairman of the railroad committee in the senate, that killed the bill.

E. H. Cooper, the nominee for clerk, made a few remarks pertinent to the occasion.

Charles F. Clark, another nominee for representative, said that "A Man Ought to be a Man," and followed with forceful arguments, delivered in a most convincing way in favor of the citizens movement. He was a republican, and would support the party outside of the present county conditions. It was necessary for a citizens movement to correct the present abuses in Clackamas county. One trouble, there was too much legislation. There ought to be fewer measures formulated, and they should be good ones.

O. W. Eastham, another candidate for representative, addressed the meeting in a sound, practical way. He is the son of a pioneer of '49, who located a donation land claim in Clackamas county. The speaker was the youngest of 11 children, and was raised on a farm. He said, there is no such thing as liberty in Clackamas county; the taxes are 32 miles outside of the cities, and the people are oppressed and ground down. He drew comparisons with the taxes and expenditures of some other counties.

Sheriff Cooke tore the allegations, published in the Enterprise into shreds, and showed how Senator Porter's bill for the creation of a separate board of commissioners, provided for changes in the sheriff's office, that made it more expensive. He called attention to many other examples of misrule in Clackamas county. How the assessor's office had kept two men for months making abstracts, and they were now shouting for the republican machine.

Henry Gans, the chairman of the meeting, was called on, and his terse, pointed remarks in favor of the citizens ticket, brought forth hearty applause.

The speakers were greeted with frequent rounds of applause, and the close, the entire audience joined Charles F. Clark in three deafening cheers for the flag.

The stars and stripes were tastily displayed among the decorations in the hall.

PLAYED BASEBALL.

Interesting Practice Game Last Sunday Between Oregon City and Hillsboro.

The Oregon City baseball team played a practice try-out game with the Hillsboro team at Willamette Falls park last Sunday afternoon, the former winning out in a score of 13 to 4. About 200 people were present to witness the game. It is no doubt the strongest line-up that any Oregon City team has ever had, the coach, Gilbert L. Hedges, has great faith in the possibilities of the home players. The first of the Oregon State League series of games will be played at Willamette Falls park on Sunday, May 4th, between the Monograms of Portland, and the Oregon City team. The other two teams in the league are Upchurch, of Portland, and the Hillsboro team. Following was the line-up of the two teams in the game played Sunday:

Hillsboro—McGinnis, pitcher; Mills, left field; Swops, catcher; Nathan, second base; Brodenmeier, third base; Hart, short stop; Bendaand, first base; Vandehauer, right field; Somers, center field.

The score by innings:
Oregon City, 0 0 7 2 3 0 0 1—13
Hillsboro, 3 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—4
Base hits—Oregon City, first base hits: Graham 1, Lee 1, McFarland 1, Clark 2, Calif 1, Rapp 2; second base hits, Calif 2, Rapp 1.
Base hits—Hillsboro, first base hits, Swops 1, McGinnis 1, Somers 1, Bendaand 1; second base, Nathan 1, Somers 1. Struck out—By McGinnis 6, by Graham 8, by Belt 5.
Umpire, Ed Reckner.

That Which is Worth Having and which is worth using. This is an investment which you can well afford to make because it provides you with certain comfort and certain satisfaction.

LAMPS.

For your eyes' sake don't depend upon electric lights high above your head, but have the soft, healthful lamp light that people used before modern light made nine out of ten people wear glasses. We have lamps for students; kitchen lamps and the ornamental kind that help to furnish the library or the music room. We have hundreds of new ideas in fancy shades to show you.

KITCHEN WARE

A glittering array of handy utensils made from extra heavy bright tin, stamped into shape without any seams or joints, and warranted against leaking or rusting. Stewpans, coffee pots, tea kettles, cups, dippers—an endless list.

Paints, Oils and White Lead.

If you want to save your house putty up the holes and paint. Some people seem to consider paint an extravagance by the chary way they use it. You cannot spend money any more profitably than by investing it in paint if you have property the paint can protect. We keep the ready mixed kind; all you have to have with it is a brush. We can furnish these, too.

FURNITURE POLISH

Shabby furniture is a disgrace to any housekeeper now that we are offering a perfect furniture polish. It takes the dirt off and leaves the surface of the furniture on. It is easily used and after one or two applications your furniture will keep the polish for weeks at a time. 25c per bottle.
