

Black Goods Week Bargains in Profusion

We have gathered here a collection of Black French Dress Goods which we consider to be the richest and superior in make, finish and quality to and ever shown in the city of Portland. Every woman is interested in fine black goods.

48-inch black French Mousmiquie half silk, super extra quality; very rich. Regular $4.00 value.

$3.47 yard

60-inch English Unfinished Clay Worsted; regular $3.00 value.

$2.47 yard

52-inch Black French Cheviot, sponged and shrunk; regular $1.25 value.

97c yard

60-inch Heavy All-Wool Meltons; $2.00 value.

$1.47 yard

52-inch French Whip Cord; XXX superfine quality; double warp; finest imported, with a guarantee attached to every yard; regular $3.50 quality.

$2.97 yard

48-inch French Drap d'Alma; celebrated for wear, finish and durability; regular $1.75 value.

$1.47 yard

42-inch Melrose, which we guarantee for wear, being quite fashionable and an up-to-date fabric; regular $1.25 value.

97c yard

McALLEN & McDONNELL

EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS IMPORTERS
THIRD and MORRISON PORTLAND, OREGON

PERSONALS

Carl Stromgren, of Colton, was in the city Tuesday.

H. W. Bissell, of Canby, was in the city Tuesday.

J. W. Jones, of Canby, has moved to Colfax, Wash.

W. H. Evans, of Canby, was in the city Saturday.

Ralph Grinnam, of Needy, was in the city Saturday.

August Funk, of Redland, was in Oregon City Saturday.

Mrs. M. C. Kirk, of Canby, was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Herman Oehlischlager, of Sunnyside, was in the city on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thad Stipp, of Molalla, were visitors in the city Saturday.

John Cole and family, of Molalla, were visitors in the city Saturday.

Miss Millie Grant was up from Portland Sunday, visiting friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gintner, of Shubel, were visitors in the city Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cooke, of Damascus, were visitors in the city Saturday.

Wilmer Fisher, of Canby, has gone to Portland, where he has secured a position.

Mrs. A. Bates and daughter and Mrs. Burroughs, of Canby, were in town Monday.

J. E. Arledge, of Eagle Creek, was in the city Saturday, after medicine for a sick child.

Miss Jennie Wilkinson and Miss Ada Hodges visited Miss Johnson at Clackamas Sunday.

James G. Stuart went to Astoria Saturday morning to remain during the fishing season.

The Misses Belle and Mernie Ramme are home at Handy from Salem, for a short visit.

E. Croner, of Madras, Marion county, visited his brother, Charles Croner, last week.

Mrs. H. B. Binegar, of Portland, was visiting her mother, Mrs. S. M. McCown last Sunday.

Mrs. John Wetzel and Mrs. Gus Wrinkle, of Milwaukie, visited Mrs. W. M. Shank, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilden and Miss Mina Fisher, of Canby, left Tuesday for San Francisco.

Miss Clara Fisher, of Corvallis, who was visiting the Charman and other relatives, returned home Friday.

Miss Clara Fisher, of Corvallis, who was visiting Mrs. M. M. Charman and other relatives, returned home Saturday.

Miss Meta Finley, of Oregon City, spent Sunday in this city with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Collins.—St. Helens Mist.

Mrs. C. P. Blankenship arrived from Sacramento, Calif., Saturday morning, to visit Mr. Baker at Willamette Falls.

Alex Ross, of Tacoma, accompanied by his mother, has been visiting Captain and Mrs. J. W. Cochran, at Handy.

Charles Gallego, of Eugene, who has been working for the Southern Pacific, visited his old home here during the week.

H. Anderson, recently of Illinois, has purchased 200 acres of the Hutchins farm, near Stone, paying therefor $20 per acre.

Mrs. E. L. Johnson and child, who had been visiting her mother at Silverton for several weeks, returned home Monday morning.

Major Thomas Charman, who has been confined to the house for the greater part of the time since last December, was out Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Mills, of Oswego, were visitors in the city Saturday. Mr. Mills reports having raised a pullet, that laid 142 eggs before she was a year old.

L. C. Driggs, of the real estate firm of Driggs, Culbertson & Co., is in the city, and expects soon to make his permanent home in Hood River.—Hood River Glacier.

A. O. Beaulieu, of Oregon City is in town. Roy Martin has signed to play baseball the coming season with a club at Oregon City.—Lafayette Items in Yamhill Reporter.

Miss Ella Sommerfeldt, of Canby, who has been visiting at the home of Rev. E. Meyer for the past three months, accompanied her father, Ed Sommerfeldt home, last Monday.

Elgin D. Soules and Frank Confer, of Oregon City, were in Woodburn Friday and Saturday. Mr. Confer is a fine baritone singer, having sung with the Bostonians recently.—Woodburn Independent.

Ed Lewellen, of Springwater, son of County Commissioner John Lewellen, was in town Tuesday. He reported that preparations were being made to do considerable road work in that section.

Charles A. Fitch, now of Chehalis, Wash., the fusion populist candidate for state printer in 1898, passed through Friday for Lakeview to edit the Rustler during the campaign.—Ashland Record.

Mrs. George C. Brownell and Mrs. Ed F. Story, are the delegates from the Mothers' Club to the State Federation of Women's Clubs, which convened in Portland yesterday in convention.

Robert Hathaway and family, of Republic, Mo., arrived Saturday, and are visiting Mrs. Hathaway's brothers, F. S. and Ed Hutchins at Stone. Mr. Hathaway and family expect to locate at Roseburg.

Senator-elect John B. Dimick, of Hubbard, was in the city Saturday. He is preparing for the campaign and getting ready a lot of funny tales, among which is one about a bull.—Woodburn Independent.

William Trimble, one of the best known pioneer blacksmiths of Southern Oregon, arrived from Grant's Pass Sunday, accompanied by his wife, and is now employed in the Marshall blacksmith shop.

Charles McGeechie and Joe Beaulieu, who were employed in the Tacoma flouring mills for several weeks, returned the first of the week. They are now at work in the local flouring mills, which are making a temporary run.

Mrs. H. C. Barber and son, of Meadville, Pa., says the Glacier, arrived in Hood River, and is visiting her sister, Mrs. F. M. Ammen, formerly of Clackamas county. Later, Mrs. Barber will visit her mother and sister at Wapinita, Or.

Mrs. Lucy Whitten, mother of the Young brothers, who recently arrived

OUR

Spring Trousers

Are made from fabrics that have withstood the most severe tests for strength and permanent colors. They are cut and tailored by the best skilled workmen in York.

Prices: $4, $5, $6, $7.50, $8, $9, $10, $11

For Dress Pants

$3.50, $4, $4.50, $5
FOR THE SWELL OUTING TROUSERS

Outing Suits

For 1902 are the dressiest warm weather clothes we've ever carried

New Flannels, Worsted, Serges, Homespuns, Crashes, Etc.

A splendid assortment now ready in all the swell styles for the coming season

$9.00 to $18.00

A. B. Steinbach & Co.
POPULAR ONE PRICE HATTERS & CLOTHIERS

Largest Clothiers in the Northwest

Fourth and Morrison Sts., Portland, Oregon.

Kodak and Camera

SPECIALS

All of Eastman's Kodaks at 20 per ct. discount from factory prices. These are not second-hand or shop worn goods, but new and up-to-date styles.

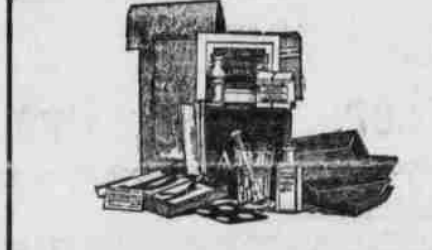

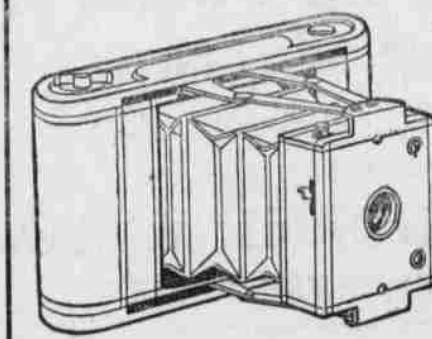

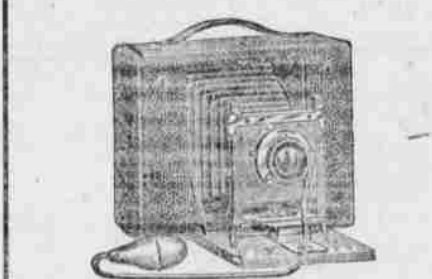

Some of 1901 Poco Cameras at a special price. These instruments have advanced 33 per ct. since last year, and we were fortunate enough to secure some of them just before they advanced. Better look into these bargains before they are all gone.

We give instructions free. Any one wishing to do their own work are always welcome to use our dark room.

Full Line of Supplies

and Extras

For All Instruments.

Burmeister & Andresen,
OREGON CITY JEWELERS

from Eastern Oregon, accompanied John Young and family to Silverton, where she will make an extended visit. The party had visited a week in Oregon City, and also a week at La Camas.

Mrs. W. L. Holcomb and daughter returned from Salem Sunday evening, where they had been visiting the former's niece, Miss Polly McCubbin, who has been very ill, but is now somewhat improved. Miss McCubbin's home is in Walla Walla county, but she was taken to Salem for medical treatment.

Walker Young and wife, of Eugene, arrived Monday evening and visited for the night with Mr. Young and family. Mr. Young is one of the prominent pioneers of Lane county of 1852, and accompanied by Mrs. Young, were on their way on an extended trip through California, Texas, and Missouri, and will visit Chicago before their return. Mr. Young crossed the plains in 1852 by the usual route.

Rev. A. J. Montgomery, who was recently elected ministerial commissioner to the General Presbyterian Assembly, now expects to start on his Eastern trip on Monday, May 5th. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Montgomery and children, and will expect to reach his old home in Washington, Pa., by Saturday night, and will visit Mrs. Montgomery's uncle, at Washington, D. C., while en-route. They will reach New York in time to attend the assembly, which convenes on May 15th. The pulpit will be supplied during his absence.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Thomas Chuck, an old resident of Oswego, is very ill, and his recovery is not expected.

Arthur Wilson, an Oregon pioneer of 1852, died at his home in Medford on the 14th, aged 76. He was the father of George Wilson, of this city.

The Portland flouring mills started up for a 10-days run last Monday. The mill is grinding up some old wheat that was stored in the warehouse.

There are four weeks more of the Oswego school, and the principal, H. T. Evans, states there will be six graduates from the ninth grade.

It is stated that the Oswego Iron Works foundry will start up soon, on a large contract. The foundry has not been in operation since last fall.

The county rock crusher was returned from Mount Angel this week in charge of Frank Glennon. It has been in use at Mount Angel for over a month past.

W. W. Mar, the prohibition candidate for joint senator, is so "stuck up" over his nomination, that he purchased a new set of harness Tuesday.

C. A. Nash is hauling a lot of rock from Falls View, and loading it on flat cars for shipment to Portland. The rock, which is of a superior quality for building purposes, is being used by contractors and builders for basements.

Carl Haberlach, until recently a young attorney of this city, appears to be fairly in the swim in his new location. An exchange says that C. E. Hadley, a saloon keeper of Tillamook, was indicted in the circuit court for assault and battery on H. H. Alderman, E. G. E. Wist and Carl Haberlach at the republican primary in Tillamook precinct, March 15th.

LOCAL SUMMARY

Hot soda at the Kozy Kandy Kitchen. A few watches for sale cheap at Younger's. Watchmen cleaned, $1.

Lumber—Leave orders at this office for first-class lumber of all kinds, or address W. F. HARRIS, Beaver Creek, Oregon.

Drs. R. B. and A. L. Beattie, dentists, Weinhard building.

The Weekly Oregonian gives all the national news and the Courier-Herald gives all local and county news. Both one year for Two Dollars.

When you visit Portland don't fail to get your meals at the Royal Restaurant, First and Madison. They serve an excellent meal at a moderate price; a good square meal, 15c.

500 tracts of land for sale. Inquire of O. A. Cheney, Oregon City, Or.

Wanted—To increase my list of farms and lands for sale, in all parts of the county. Lands owned by non-residents represented and sold. H. E. Cross, Attorney at Law.

THE DEPOT HOTEL is for rent or for sale or exchange for real estate. Inquire of E. E. G. Seal.

320 A. Farm—Six miles from Oregon City; 30 acres cleared, 9 acres orchard, balance brush and timber; 27000 cords of wood, which will sell for more than the price of the place. House and barn. Terms to suit. C. O. T. WILLIAMS, room 9, Barclay building, Oregon City, Ore.

Don't pass us by—call in and get our prices. Red Front Trading Company. Individuals' Money to Loan at 6 per cent and 7 per cent. Call on or write, JOHN W. LONER, Attorney at Law, Stevens Bld'g. Oregon City, Ore.

Kozy Kandy Kitchen, up to date on home-made candies and cigars.

See CHARMANS shot-to-pieces advertisement; it will save you money.

The T. S. Townsend Creamery Co. of 44 Second St., Portland, will sell you a cream separator and take cream in exchange.

Millinery bargain at R d Front during Special Sale.

Milch cow for sale. Extra good grade Holstein. C. W. Swallow, Maple Lane.

Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, and will not constipate like nearly all other cough medicines. Refuse substitutes. Charman & Co.

The Finest Cake

Is made with Royal Baking Powder. Always light, sweet, pure & wholesome.