

Dropsy

starting in the feet or ankles comes from a weak or diseased heart—a heart that cannot keep up the circulation. The blood then settles in the lower limbs where the watery portions ooze out into surrounding tissues causing bloating and swelling. The heart must be strengthened and built up before the dropsy can be cured to stay; and the best of all heart medicines is Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

"Heart disease made my feet swell so that they had to be lanced in several places. One bottle of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure helped me and twelve bottles worked a complete cure."
JAMES TRUSTY, Barnard, Mo.

CITIZENS AT MILWAUKIE

Candidates Make a Gratifying Enthusiastic Campaign Demonstration.

The citizens candidates were greeted with a crowded house at Milwaukie, Monday night, and the intense interest of the audience was held until the last speaker had completed his peroration, and the "jag" trolley car was pulling up in the direction of the car barn. The principal speakers were Richard Scott, candidate for joint senator; G. W. Grace, nominee for senator; O. W. Eastham, Gilbert L. Hedges and Charles F. Clark, nominees for representatives; Harvey E. Cross, Colonel Robert A. Miller, an i brief speeches by Alfred Luelling, candidate for re-election for county treasurer; J. E. Jack, nominee for sheriff; E. H. Cooper, nominee for re-election as clerk; C. W. Risley, nominee for commissioner. George Ogie, also made a few remarks.

Hot shot was poured into the machine and its management, and the way in which it has been manipulating county affairs. Facts and carefully arranged figures were given, showing the exact status of affairs. It also is a fact, that the citizens ticket has the most capable lot of orators ever placed on any ticket in Clackamas county. The audience was enthusiastic, and frequently applauded.

Miss Gertrude Fairclough, of Oregon City, played several selections on the piano.

T. R. A. Sellwood officiated as chairman of the meeting.

Richard Scott, the nominee for joint representative, was the first speaker. He said that he was not ashamed of his record in office in Clackamas county. He would endeavor to get laws through the legislature that would benefit the farmer; favored a direct primary law; did not believe that one or two men should run the county. Mr. Scott is chairman of local initiative and referendum league. He favored precinct organization, and desired that each precinct collect its own money and expend it on its own roads, but the bridges should be built by the county; precincts should have a home government like the district schools.

G. W. Grace explained what should be required of an honest man in the senate. He called attention to the fact that his opponent had stated in his Milwaukie speech that an honest man had no business in state senate. When Mr. Grace was sheriff he had saved the county $1200 paying his first deputy out of his own pocket. He had looked out for the taxpayer's interest when city councilman, and had been successful in the management of his own business.

O. W. Eastham made a logical, masterly address, and explained exactly what the citizens movement is. Now is the time for the young men to assist in throwing off this yoke of bossism, in the interests of better government.

Gilbert L. Hedges said there was nothing new or startling in the citizens movement. It was a non-partisan movement to do away with the extravagance and lessen the expenses of county government. Mr. Hedges is a brilliant orator, and told of some of the dodges by the machine legislators, who were at the last session of the legislature. The ins and outs of the last legislature, known to Mr. Hedges, would fill a large volume.

Charles F. Clark gives facts and figures and his sarcasm tends to make bossism nauseous to the auditor. He showed that present financial conditions in Clackamas county were a menace to business. He showed that after building the suspension bridge costing $20,000, and Baker's bridge $8,000, Clackamas county was only $57,000 in debt. The great increase in indebtedness had occurred since that economical period. Mr. Clark is a republican of the star-wart stripe, but he believes in reform.

Harvey E. Cross kept the audience in the best of humor between hot shots.

Want Follow Advice After Paying for it.

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by G. A. Harding.

PLAYED BASEBALL.

Great Things in Store in the Future.

This bids fair to be a red letter year in the history of baseball for Oregon City. A stock company has been formed, and the way business men and other individuals have taken stock indicates that the people of the town are determined to place Oregon City in the foremost rank of baseball work. Next Sunday the Monograms, who will play the Oregon City team here, will be met at the court house by the Woodmen Band, where a procession will be formed headed by the mayor. After reaching the ball grounds, the first ball will be thrown over the plate by the mayor, thus formally opening the baseball season here with the honors due our great national sport. An excursion from Dayton also will land at the grounds. A grand stand has recently been erected, whose shade will combine comfort with pleasure. The preservation of order will be another feature, and the Willamette Falls baseball park, will become one of the most popular resorts in the valley.

New blood has been infused into the nine this year, by importing several new players, whose skill has proven unquestionable in the games recently played.

The new suits have arrived from Chicago in time for next Sunday's game, and every player will be uniformed and thoroughly equipped for the great grand start toward the goal of triumph. The management is now in communication with some of the best teams of Eastern Oregon with the view of arranging for a game of more than ordinary interest, to be played here on the Fourth of July. Of course, before any definite conclusions can be reached, the sentiment of the people will have to be obtained, the final result depending on the enthusiasm and patronage of the people for the next few weeks. If conditions are not favorable, another field will have to be selected for a Fourth of July exhibition.

This contingency, however, is hardly probable, as Oregon City has never failed to carry to a successful issue every project of sport it has undertaken. There is an enthusiastic confidence current in the nine this spring, which will lend a zest to their playing, and Oregon City will be the battle-ground of some of the hottest baseball games ever played in the state.

The Oregon City team was defeated by the Fidelity team of Portland, by a score of 1 to 0, last Sunday.

Next Sunday will be the first of the state league games between Oregon City and the Monograms at Willamette Falls park.

The Church Can Endorse.

"Too Rich To Marry" is a polite comedy that the pastor of a church can advise his congregation to go and see.

Edwin J. Owing, the author, has in his possession, letters from scores of ministers, all highly praising his comedy and giving it the stamp of their approval. And still "Too Rich To Marry" is not a so-called Sunday school drama, but it is recommended by pastors everywhere, because it is a true picture of real life.

The lives of a family of peaceful, law-abiding, God-fearing, unskilled, with an American heir, make up the principal character in the piece with an artist and a mine-owner, and others to complete the picture of real life.

The comedy will be at Shively's opera house Friday, May 16.

No Loss of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by G. A. Harding.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—Jessie Pinky Hall, Springville, Ala. This remedy is for sale by G. A. Harding.
