

Always Ahead

We take the lead, other druggists follow suit. We are working to reduce all prices to the lowest percentage of living profit. Other druggists are working to keep up with us. When we advertise a special line of goods they fill up their windows with similar goods in order to reap some benefit from our work. That sort of thing is "monkey business." Let us ask what advantage there is in shopping with imitators? It stands to reason that you will get better value from
