Crescent Bicycles For Ten Years

Have been sold by us in Clackamas county. Each year we sell more of them. Each year they have added to their reputation as the "Wheels That Stand Up," while other makes come one year and go the next—into the repair shop or junk heap. Crescents have always been reasonable in price, giving the greatest value for the money. This year they outdo their past record, and no wheel on the market compares with them at the prices—$25 and $35.

New diamond-fork crown—a beauty—new diamond-shaped cranks—new crank-hanger—new separated ball bearing—cycloidal sprockets—new style narrow hubs—these are some of the features for 1902 that make the Crescent the neatest, easiest running and most desirable wheel for the money. Come in and judge for yourself.

PLAYED AT BASEBALL.

The Games Were a Draw at Oregon City and Clackamas—Foresters and Knights of Pythias.

The first game of the Oregon Amateur League played between the Monogram and Oregon City teams at Willamette Falls park last Sunday afternoon, was a draw. After changing umpires the wrangling continued, and 2 to 2 was scored without an error, when several players left the field on account of a misunderstanding, and the game terminated. The great feature of the unfinished game was the work of Belt, the Oregon City pitcher.

Fully 500 people were in attendance at what promised to be the greatest game ever played in Willamette Falls, the sympathies of the crowd being with the home team.

The Oregon City team will play the Monograms in Portland next Sunday.

Upchurch, of Portland, will play the Oregon City team at Willamette Falls park on the following Sunday.

The residents of Clackamas Station anticipated an interesting home game of baseball last Sunday, but they were doomed to disappointment. There was an old and a new team, and the liberal residents donated about $25 for paraphernalia. The people gathered in the forenoon, but a quarrel broke up the game. In the afternoon the two teams met on the field for another game, but it soon proved a draw-out on account of a hand-to-hand scrap between two of the opposition players.

Teams made up from the Knights of Pythias and Foresters will play a game at Willamette Falls park Sunday afternoon. A number of the best ball players in the city are members of both jodges, and the game will not lack for brilliant plays.
