LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Recorder Bruce C. Curry is making extensive improvements around his residence property on Washington and 11th streets.
F. S. Baker has the contract of excavating the dirt from the foundation for Garde's new brick. The contract price is about 24 cents per square yard.
Rev. J. E. Snyder, of Brownsville, will fill the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, next Sunday. It is expected that the local Knights of Pythias will attend the evening service in a body.
Dan Lyons has awarded the contract of erecting two cottages on Water street front at the rear of the Rambler saloon building, to W. A. White for $2750. Both buildings will be up-to-date structures with attendant improvements.
Lawrence Ruconich has leased the old Major Charman residence, and will fit up the same for a lodging house. He will occupy one of the rooms in the new Garde building for a restaurant to be run in connection with the lodging house.
The annual camp meeting of the Methodist church, south, will begin at Molalla next Sunday, and continue in session for 15 days. Rev. W. R. Hanson, of Georgia, will be in attendance, also Rev. J. W. Craig, of Independence. Everyone is welcome. Rev. O. U. Cross has been arranging the details of the meeting for some time past.
Thomas Winesett, son of Mrs. C. P. Winesett, and Charles Nebergall, of Portland, both blind boys, are giving a series of concerts to raise funds to establish an industrial school for the blind of the northwest. The boys visited here for several days, and left yesterday for the south, intending to give musical concerts at Molalla and Silverton.
In speaking of the election in Multnomah county, the Sunday Welcome says that the much-talked of labor vote failed to arrive. The unions demonstrated Monday that all that has been said in the past about them failing to stand together was true. Not a single man endorsed by the labor unions was elected through their efforts. The very men who they declared they would fight for former acts in which the union men were given the worst of it, were elected by big majorities.
The Oregon General Electric Company, of Portland, who are putting in a water power generating electric plant on the upper Clackamas, have filed supplementary articles of incorporation, and changed its name to the Oregon Water-Power and Railway Company. The incorporators are: Fred S. Morris, J. Frank Watson, A. B. Grossman, W. H. Hulbert and William T. Muir. It is expected that this company will extend the Portland City & Oregon Railway system to the upper Clackamas, surveys already being in the field.
The County Board of Commissioners are seriously considering the matter of removing the county recorder's office to the rear of the front room now occupied by the county clerk. This change will give the recorder more room, and give him more easy access to the vault. The change would give an additional jury room upstairs, a much needed convenience, as the school superintendent would remove his office to the room now occupied by the recorder. The proposed new location of the recorder's office, also would afford additional security to the records in the vault, as the recorder could see who is handling them.

Elaborate preparations are being made for the Fourth of July celebration to be held at Macksburg by the Macca-bees of Molalla and Macksburg. The grand march of Maccabees will take place at 10 a. m. One of the features of the procession will be a liberty wagon, drawn by an automobile. Fred J. Meindl will be the orator of the day, and there will be other speakers. The Newberg band will play patriotic selections. There will be bicycle races, sack, potato shoe and stocking, egg, boys and girl's races and liberal prizes for all of them. Also a tug of war between the Molalla and Macksburg tug of war teams for a prize of $5. There will be a prize of $10 for a baseball game. The committee having the affair in charge is F. M. Mathews, chairman; W. E. Austin, secretary; Henry Gurtner, Albert Moshberger, H. N. Everhart, D. Harms.
The spiritualist camp meeting will be held at New Era from July 6th to July 21st, inclusive. Any information regarding the same can be secured from President George Lazelle, or Secretary A. Luelling. The camp hotel will be in charge of President Lazelle, and the rates will be reasonable. Tents may be rented on the ground at 50c to $1 per week. Ground rent for those bringing tents, 50 cents to $1 for season. The admission is 10 cents per day, or 25 cents for the season. Among the prominent speakers, who will be in attendance are Rev. W. E. Copeland, of Burley, Wash., and Rev. D. V. Hull, of Norton, Kansas. The mediums engaged for the season are Mrs. Ladd Finnican and H. B. Allen. Sunday, July 21st, will be devoted to the consideration of the National Spiritual Association and State Organization.
