NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Friday, June 13
Irrigation In Congress—That Bill the constitution does Constitutional, not limit the power of congress in making regulations in regard to public lands, was clearly proven by Representative Tamm in a speech for the pending irrigation bill. Ide and Crocker are confirmed, and the long fight over the federal patronage of Washington is at an end. The impression is growing that congress will adjourn without doing anything for Cuba.

German warships were sent to Venezuela simply to safeguard German interests. Supreme Lodge of A. O.
U. W., and Superior Lodge, Degree of Honor, in session at Portland, visit As-toria. Corner stone of Scottish Rite Masonic Cathedral laid in Portland.
Utah Press Association arrives in Portland. Charles W. Bricker, the well known tall man, a deckhand on the steamer Lurline, was accidentally drowned at Ladue Landing.

Abandon Sheriff Cooke, also Sheriff Durbine, of Marion County, who had been following clues of Tracy and Merrill, the outlaw convicts, gave up the chase, and returned to their respective homes this evening.

Company A also returned from Molalla, had an experience of one night's guard duty. No trace of the fugitives was found during the day, although it was reported that the men had eaten breakfast at a woodcamp, near Barlow, but an investigation showed that there was nothing in the report. About 8:30 in the morning Mrs. Newberry, postmistress at New Era, telephoned to County Judge Ryan that a man exactly tallying to Merrill's description and newspaper picture, had entered the store and purchased five cents worth of tobacco. He came from the direction of the rocky point this side of New Era, and went back the same way, finally climbing over the fence, and disappeared in the river bottom. J. E.
Bradel, also confirmed the observations of Mrs. Newberry. The officers and detectives, however, did not think it probable that the convict highwaymen would meander around separately under the existing circumstances.

Saturday, June 14.
Increased With the view of encouraging greater effort to effect the capture of Tracy and Merrill, the escaped convicts, the State of Oregon has doubled the price on their heads. It is now $3,000 dead or alive. Charles Ferrell, a brother of one of the dead guards, offers $100 additional for the capture of Tracy. The whereabouts of the fugitives is now a greater mystery than ever.

Relief The granting of reciprocity with Cuba is a proposition which stands entirely alone. The reasons for it outweigh those for granting reciprocity with any other nation, and are entirely consistent with preserving intact the protective system under which this country has thrived so marvelously.
The present tariff law was designed to promote the adoption of such a reciprocity treaty, and expressly provided for a reduction not to exceed 30 per cent upon goods coming from a particular country, leaving the tariff rates on the same articles unchanged as regards all other countries—President's message.

Salem lodge of Masons No., celebrates its fiftieth anniversary. Snupper is to have a smelter. First sealing schooners of the season leave Victoria for Behring Sea. Dr. W. J. Mc-Daniel crushed to death under an electric car in Portland. Commissioner Dorsch returns from Charleston to Portland.

Sunday, June 15.
Workmen The grand A. O. U. W.
Parade last evening, was participated in by about 5,000 men, who marched through the principal streets of Portland, while thousands of citizens crowded the sidewalks the entire length of the line of march. The parade was reviewed at the Portland Hotel by Supreme Master Workman A. C. Harwick and the representatives to the Supreme Lodge. No award of premiums for the best-appearing lodge has been made. At the drill team contest at the Exposition building last evening, Protective Lodge, of Salem, took first prize, and Portland Lodge second prize. Falls City Lodge, No. 59, of Oregon City, was represented by about 200 members, who were heartily applauded for their excellent marching.

Alleged Paul Underwood, alleged murderer of his 3-weeks old babe at Ballard, Wash., has been captured, after about a two weeks' chase, and is now in jail at South Bend. He alleges that his wife knew about and took an active part in the doing away of their infant, despite her strong denial. He states that he will give testimony implicating Mrs.
Underwood on the stand.

Convicts Yesterday marked another Cross lot of thrilling adventures The in the escapades of Tracy and Merrill. In brief, the story is as follows: After stealing a team of horses and a spring wagon, near New Era, the property of W. G. Randall, they drove through Oregon City between 2 and 3 o'clock in the morning, and after reaching a point near the Columbia river above Vancouver, left the team, and held up a young man with a small boat, who rowed them across the river. They took a part of the young man's money, and kept a watch on him until he was far out in the river. The young man rowed over to the Oregon side, then recrossed to Vancouver on the ferry, notified the officers, and the chase after the criminals began anew. The Portland authorities were notified, and several detectives responded. Sheriff Cooke, who had been tracing the runaway team, also took a prominent part in the new pursuit. This morning Mr. Randall recovered his horses and wagon. During the night, the pursuers, kept guard of the supposed hiding place of the convicts in the vicinity of Fourth Plains, four miles from Vancouver. Other startling events of the day were as follows: The outlaws broke through the cordon of guards unobserved, and about a half mile away entered the cabin of Henry Tiede, who had not yet dressed himself. Tracy and Merrill helped themselves to the bacon, and soon cooked a breakfast. The convicts then bound and gagged the old man, and disappeared in the brush. Tiede soon worked himself loose, and gave the alarm. A member of the posse was accidentally shot by another on account of being mistaken for one of the convicts. The man who was shot is named Morris and he is from Vancouver. The convicts are supposed to be going in the direction of Lewis river.

Tuesday, June 17.
Pensions The house today passed For the Indian War Veteran Indian bill for which the Oregon War delegation has been struggling for so many years.
The bill is identical with that which passed the senate on February 18th last, except for an unimportant verbal amendment. The bill makes provisions for widows of Indian War Veterans who have not remarried.
Hot A hot skirmish took place On at 2 o'clock this morning on Trail. Salmon creek bridge, near Vancouver, between the posse and two armed men answering the description of Tracy and Merrill, and 11 shots were exchanged. No one was hurt. It is reported that the outlaws were seen at noon, seven miles southeast of last night's skirmish. The posse is in pursuit with the dogs.
