Richard Scott was selected director of Milwaukee school district this week. He has held the office 18 out of the 19 years he has lived there and this 3 year term will make 21 years as school director of one district. We doubt if this record can be equaled in Oregon. He came to Milwaukee in 1893 and the following year was elected director and served continuously till 1899 when he declined renomination and was out of it for three months.

G. W. Scramlin, of Mackburg, returned Saturday from a trip to Hood River. He was there at the height of the strawberry season when seven cars of berries were shipped every day for Eastland points. From $2.25 to $2.50 per crate of 24 punnets was paid by the shippers. Only one kind, Clarke's seedling, is raised and hence every car is the same and the top of the market is realized. The price finally dropped to $1.50. The first berries of the season bring as high as $5 per crate to the grower.

The graduating and closing exercises at St. John's parochial and high school will be held on Thursday evening, June 26. WEDDINGS.

MOREY-SCHNEIDERMEIER.

On the afternoon of June 16th occurred a quiet wedding at the family residence of John Schaffer on Clackamas Heights. Miss Agatha Schneidermeier, Mrs. Schaffer's sister, of Minneapolis, was married to P. T. Morey, a prominent capitalist, of Belton, Texas. The bride was becomingly attired in pearl gray, with trimmings of white chiffon and lace. A sumptuous repast was served, after which the happy couple went to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Morey will spend a month or more in visiting points of interest on the coast and seeing sights in Colorado, from whence they will go to their future home in Belton, Texas. The members of the wedding party consisted only of the members of the Schaffer family, the officiating clergymen, Rev. E. S. Bollinger, of the Congregational church, and Mrs. Bollinger.

Marriage licenses have been issued as follows during the week: Myrtle Davis and Ed Rankton on the 11th, Jettie Mazingo and B. S. Pather on the 14th, Marion Flowers and Charles E. Banister on the 16th.

Is Self Catching

on the popular favor? It seems to be. A noticeable increase in sales of Painkiller comes from golf districts. The reason for this clear, as Perry Davis' Painkiller is the oldest and best remedy extant for sprains, strains, bruises and soreness, all of which are of common occurrence, either in vigorous play or through accident. Everywhere the standard liniment and balm.
