There is a general complaint from various sections of the county that the hay crop will be short in yield. The crop has been unusually good for the two past seasons, and immense quantities of hay were shipped elsewhere. However, there will be plenty of hay for home consumption, and some for export. Reports from every precinct indicate a good wheat crop.

All the bids for the construction of the Parkplace school building have been rejected on account of the fact, that the board of directors have concluded to make a change in the original plans. Only one of the new rooms will be finished for the present, but the original plan of construction will be carried out in erecting the main building.

Mrs. D. H. Boen, of Springwater, suffered a severe sprain of one of her ankles, while coming down the court house steps with her daughter Tuesday, and was placed under a doctor's care. The fall might have been more serious, had not Mayor Dimick been close by and caught Mrs. Boen, before she fell with her full weight on the stone work.

Death of W. R. Bagby, an Early Oregon Pioneer.

W. R. Bagby, a resident of Molalla for the past 50 years, died at his home after a lingering illness last Sunday. The funeral at the Dart cemetery Tuesday afternoon was largely attended, and the services were conducted by Rev. G. P. Rich, of the Christian church.

Mr. Bagby was one of the prominent early pioneers of Oregon, having crossed the plains in 1852, and located on a donation land where he resided up to the time of his death. He was 79 years old, and a native of Virginia. Besides the widow, he ceased left the following children: John, Robert, O. W., Henry, F. L. S., Ed. and Jesse, sons, all at present in Clackamas county, and the following married daughters: Margaret, Molalla; Mary Wallace and Flora Jariach, Oswego; Alice Sandford, Glencoe, and Eliza Hamilton, Bridal Veil.

The steamer Leona, which has been overhauled and repainted by the Oregon City Transportation Company, began making regular trips between Oregon City and Portland. It is a delightful ride on the river at any season of the year, and more especially during the spring and summer months. The only way landings are Magone's park, Meldrum's, Moreys, Risleys and Oswego, enabling the boat to make rapid time up and down the river. The time table is as follows: Leave Oregon City at 7:00 a. m. and 10:00 a. m. and 1:30 and 4:30 p. m. Leave Portland at 8:30 and 11:30 a. m. and 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
