20th YEAR, NO. 7

WILLAMETTE VALLEY CHAUTAUQUA.

With Its Galaxy of Star Attractions Gathered From the Four Corners of America—Men and Women Brilliant at Home and Abroad, With World Wide Reputations as Statesmen, Orators, Entertainers, Instructors and Singers, to Appear on the Chautauqua Platform, at Gladstone Park, July 8th to 19th Inclusive.

HON. HENRY WATTER-SON, the distinguished son of Kentucky, will deliver two lectures at Gladstone Park this present season. July 10, 8 p. m., "Money and Morals"; July 11, 2 p. m., "Abraham Lincoln."

For several years the management of the Chautauqua have made every effort to close a contract with the "Southern Lyceum Bureau" for the appearance of Hon. Henry Watter-son, the eloquent son of Kentucky, upon our platform, but until this year without success. Already the interest in the man and his two great lectures is extraordinary. Thousands will be in attendance. They will come from the east and the west and from the north and from the south. It will be a "Bryan" and "Sam Jones" day over again. The probability is that it will present the first and only opportunity to most of the people of the Willamette valley to hear this great speaker of National reputation. The public is advised to come early on these days to avoid the rush and enjoy the entire day on the grounds.

Dr. Robert McIntyre, late of Denver and Chicago, and everywhere accepted by managers, lectures and the public as America's foremost descriptive orator, will fill two engagements at the Chautauqua this year. His first lecture will occur the evening of July 8th, and his subject will be "Fun on the Farm." A popular and profound presentation of the struggle for success in human affairs, showing the difficulties and revealing the elements of character needed to attain a place where peace and honor will rest the soul.

It will be followed on the afternoon of July 9 at 2 p. m., by one of the most popular and patriotic lectures on the American platform, "The Sunny Side of Soldier Life."

Rev. Thomas McCauley, of Minneapolis, the most popular orator at the Chautauqua two years ago, will appear upon its platform again this season, which in itself is a rare endorsement of his ability. He will deliver the sermon on Sunday afternoon, July 13, at 3 p. m. Subject: "Evolution of the Spiritual Life." In the evening he will preach a special sermon to railroad men, on the subject, "The Christian Mission of the Railway." He will also lecture on popular subjects July 13 and 15. His lectures on Monday afternoon July 14 on "Sun Shine in Labor," followed on Tuesday evening by his last lecture, when his subject will be "The American Home."

Mr. Charles F. Craig, the impersonator, assisted by Mrs. Lois Craig, presenting "Shore Acres," a quaint story of New England life, introducing twelve characters. "Shore Acres" is on the style of the "Old Homestead," only much stronger. This is his eleventh season, having played in nearly every state of the Union and Canada. His early training was received under Joseph Jefferson, David Frohman and Augustin Daly.

Mr. Craig possesses the power of presenting a play in a perfect and life-like manner. The lines of each play are presented with marvelous imitation of voice, tones and mannerisms of the various characters. His past year of experience, his artistic style, wide range of voice and wonderful powers of impersonation make his monologues the most popular attraction of its kind on the platform. For an entertainment full of novelty, originality and mirth, bright pictures, real characters, picturesque with delightful scenes, and unique and artistic in detail we certainly can commend Mr. Craig. "Shore Acres" will be given on the afternoon of July 12. The last appearance of Mr. Craig will be on Monday, July 14th, in an evening of character sketches.

The Polish orator, Hon. John Sobieski, the able, logical, humorous and eloquent lecturer. Col. Sobieski has traveled more miles, delivered more lectures and addressed more people than most men now on the platform. Col. John Sobieski was born in Poland, Sept. 10, 1842. With his daughter he is the only living descendant of the warrior king, John Sobieski. With his mother he was banished from Poland.

For twenty-five years he has been a lecturer and recognized as one of the most brilliant and eloquent orators on the American platform.

He will deliver his great lecture on "The Rise and Fall of Poland," on the evening of July 17th, and a second lecture on the afternoon of July 18th, on "Russian Prisons and Siberian Exile."

Dr. Stephen S. Wise, the very able and eloquent Rabbi of "Temple Beth Israel," Portland, Oregon, will deliver his great lecture, "The Mission of Israel," at 8 p. m., Wednesday, July 9th, and will be accorded a gracious welcome to the Chautauqua platform. The theme is treated in a broad and liberal spirit and cannot but create the greatest interest and enthusiasm.

The Elocutionists.—Never in the history of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association, has the management felt keener satisfaction than in the announcement of the engagement of S. S. Hamill, A. M., and his talented daughter, Miss Minnie Hamill, as our readers and instructors in elocution. We believe they have done well and are sanguine that the popular verdict at the end of the session will be that the instruction received and the pleasure of listening to the reading and recitations of these talented people was worth the whole price of admission. Prof. Hamill will instruct a class in "Vocal Culture and Vocal Expression," each morning from 9 to 10 a. m., and he and his daughter will frequently appear on the platform among our special attractions.

DR. STEPHEN S. WISE.

 Musical features will be added.

MUSICAL DEPARTMENT.
 Prof. W. H. Boyer will again have charge of the musical program and is now putting forth unusual efforts to make his department the equal in excellence to any other at the Assembly. Indeed, as last year, the music will be a special feature and attraction. Prof. Boyer will personally give instruction to a chorus class each day from 10 to 11 a. m., and no doubt a great many singers, who are desirous of advancement, will lend their presence and receive the benefits that come from contact with a first class instructor and singer.

ORATORIO, "ELIJAH."
 Last year Prof. Boyer, with splendid assistance, gave the "Prodigal Son," by Sir Arthur Sullivan, to an audience of three thousand people, the great auditorium being packed with lovers of good music.

This year a distinct advance is made and the great oratorio, "Elijah," will be rendered by a picked chorus of seventy voices from the choirs of Portland.

The soloists are: Soprano, Mrs. May Dearborne Schwab; contralto, Miss Evelyn Harley; tenor, Mr. H. W. Hogue; basso, Prof. Irving M. Glen, of the State University.

Special arrangements will be made with the transportation lines to convey with comfort the crowds that will come to this great musical event. Portland people leaving East Washington street on the 7:15 p. m. train will arrive in time for the concert.

FASHIONABLE CONCERT.
 On the first Saturday evening, July 13, a grand concert will be given. The entire program is not yet complete, but arrangements are so far made that we can announce as special attractions: The Spitzner-Konrad String Quartette, of Portland, who will charm the audience with a splendid program from the great masters.

Mrs. W. L. Reed, of Portland, favorably known to the people of the entire Northwest coast, possessed of a marvelously rich voice under perfect control, will sing a special program to be selected by her, of which due announcement will be made later. This appearance of Mrs. Reed is her first upon the Chautauqua platform and her hosts of warm friends will give her an enthusiastic welcome.

Other attractions will be added, which will make this Saturday evening one of delightful remembrance.

The Chemawa Indian Band have been engaged for the whole session and will appear twice each day and give a sacred concert on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 p. m.

CLASSES IN AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHY.
 Under the management of Woodard & Co., of Portland, could hardly be more popular than it was last year. One of the most competent instructors in the City of Portland will have charge of the department. A dark room and all chemicals are provided. Pictures are taken and demonstrated each day. Pupils desiring to enter this class will, where convenient, bring their cameras.

PORTLAND MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.
 Will conduct an open parliament for nine mornings at the 11 o'clock hour. A special feature.

Few cities can boast of a stronger pulpit than Portland. Most of the men in the pastorate of these city churches have been picked out of the leading cities of the East and brought to the coast because of their ability in the pulpit and on the platform.

All friends of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua will be pleased to know that these ministers have secured one of the best hours each day, excepting the first day of the session and the last, from 11 o'clock a. m. to 12 m., for the consideration of subjects of practical importance and only to ministers themselves but to all who may be present.

The discussions are to be of the Round Table sort, free from stiffness and bristling with interest. This feature of the Chautauqua alone will amply repay the time and expense of camping on the grounds through the session.

BASE BALL TOURNAMENT.
 The athletic features of the Chautauqua Association have come to be one of its greatest attractions. The assembly has a splendid quarter mile bicycle track and in the center of the ring is a base ball ground such as is found nowhere in Oregon. The track and diamond is situated in a natural amphitheater, surrounded by gentle elevations covered with evergreen trees.

Ten thousand people can watch a game with comfort and pleasure and enjoy at the same time the shade of the beautiful trees.

Four crack teams are so far entered in the Tournament. The Oregon City club, the Mt. Angel team, the "Chemawa Braves," and the prize winners of last year from Vancouver are already in the contest. There is a great contest between the competing nines each day at 3:30 p. m.

These games will be the greatest event in athletic circles in the State of Oregon this year, and are well worth the price of admission alone.
