Tuesday morning for that place. Mr. Howard is engaged in getting out cotton wood for the Willamette Pulp & Paper Co. He has 2200 cords already cut and about 75 men under him.

S. W. Hardesty, who has been spending his winters in San Francisco, Cal., for the benefit of his health, passed through this city Tuesday on his way to Needy, where he will visit till about October, when he expects to return to California. Mr. Hardesty is accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. E. W. Tubbs, of San Francisco, Cal.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Mr. Olds has built a barn, painted red, on the Hendrickson farm, Mount Pleasant.

Dan Lyons is building two cozy little cottages near the river front, back of Charman's drug store.

It is up to the citizens of Bolton to repair the walk between it and Oregon City. The various holes and loose boards are a nuisance, specially on dark nights.

Messrs. Cramer & Freytag have opened a wholesale and retail cigar factory opposite the Huntley bookstore. They have already established a trade here and in Portland in excess of their joint working capacity.

orses from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, British Columbia, California, Utah, Colorado, Montana and Canada are entered to race at the State Fair this fall—and it will be the greatest racing event on the circuit.

On Sunday next, the 10th inst., Rev. O. Pool, an eloquent divine of West Salem, Ill., will preach two sermons at Stone. From miles around the people will assemble and will celebrate the occasion with a basket dinner.

The Oregon State Fair this year promises to be the grandest industrial exposition and livestock show ever held on the coast. The fair has been good the past two years, but it will be better this year. Don't fail to see it.

Sinton Payne, a prominent hopgrower of Mulino, reports that in his section the crop will not be ready for picking till about the middle of next month. The vines are in a healthy, vigorous condition and the output promises to be good.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, holds services in Red Men's hall every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject for Sunday, Aug. 10, "Mind." Sunday school at 12 o'clock. Wednesday evening meeting at 7:30 o'clock. Christian Science literature can be obtained before or after any of these services.

The S. P. Co. are daily making improvements. This week they have been building a much needed double-arm semaphore, which is an improvement on any thing heretofore used by them. By means of this semaphore it will be indicated when a train is going east or west, and this innovation is a change which will facilitate matters greatly.

O. F. Williams, William Logus, Web Burns and William Hankins, who left Oregon City last week for the upper Clackamas, returned Tuesday after a long, hard trip. They report that owing to the roughness of the roads and trails they were obliged to do a great deal of walking, seeing little game and catching only a few fish.

The Grove & Goger sawmill, which was on Paul Dunn's place at Kelo, and was burned down about the middle of June, is rebuilt, and is now running at full blast. The fire which destroyed the mill started by fire escaping from the fire box and by burning its way into a root and running under the mill. From this root the fire extended to the floor, and it was soon too fierce for the neighbors and friends to subdue.

The baseball craze has taken possession of the small boys of this city, for on Monday afternoon an army of youngsters went to Canemah to cross bats with a nine composed of boys of a similar age; but to the complete disgust of the home team Canemah failed to appear at the time and place assigned for conflict, so the question of supremacy remains unsettled.

In the August Everybody's Magazine are six entertaining stories. "Save in his own country," by Juliet Wilbur Tompkins; "The Honorable Betty," by Justus Miles Forman; "Love, Law and the Line," by Francis Dana; "A Deal in Wheat," by Frank Norris; "The Tenth Wave," by C. V. C. Matthews, and "The Struggle of the Outliers," by O. Henry. They are all clever and diverting stories and warranted to entertain in the face of a climbing thermometer.

Joseph Myers arrived from his farm near Coquille City, by steamer Alliance, on Tuesday. He reports that the trip was a rough one, on account of head winds. He is highly pleased with Coos county, preferring its cool summers and warm winters to the climate of the Willamette valley. Two surveying parties have been over the route of the contemplated railroad between Myrtle Point and Roseburg and he believes it will be built.

A young man, living not far away, met with an experience one night last week. He had about $50 in his pocket, which he had earned by hard work, and the unfortunate young man awoke the next morning after coming to town, to find his pocket book empty and the two twenties gone. It seems on reaching town he joined some of his companions in what is commonly called "a time," and in some way after the time was had, the money had disappeared and his companions too.

As the population of the great cities expands the problem of how to secure for everybody the privileges of the coast, which does not expand, has become a more and more vexing one. Mr. Sylvester Baxter, who was intimately concerned with securing Boston's magnificent system of public beaches, contributes to the Cosmopolitan for August an illustrated article which cannot fail to attract the attention not only of legislators but also the citizen at large to whom this subject is a very close one.

Miss Lottie May Bingham proved her popularity last week by receiving the largest number of votes cast at the merry-go-round. The contest was hotly contested, but Miss Bingham succeeded in winning out by over a hundred votes more than her nearest competitors. She received 1354 votes, Mrs. Sarah Boyland 1241 and Miss Bertha Chambers 900. The watch which Miss Bingham won is a beautiful $20 gold-filled watch having the celebrated Elgin movement.

Rev. S. Copley, former pastor of the Evangelical church in Oregon City, is now in California, and has taken up his abode in Oakland. Although he has declined to accept a regular pastorate on account of ill health, he will do supply work in different parts of the state. Rev. Copley was for many years prominent in one of the largest and most influential conferences of the East, which elected him successively for 17 years, and sometimes almost without a dissenting voice, to the office of presiding elder, and for many years he was the chosen representative of his conference to the general conference, the highest legislative body in the church.

W. M. Moreland, of Portland, was in the city a few hours Monday, and while here an opportunity was afforded the local editor of this journal to see Mr. Moreland's beautiful and costly assortment of Australian opals. Mr. Moreland has traveled all over Australia, and the world for that matter, and he probably has one of the finest collections of opals of any man in the Northwest. The black opal is so very rare that there are only three known to exist in the world. Of these three Mr. Moreland has one and it is the largest and finest. His collection can not be compared with any other in these parts.

The lawn social at Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hartman's Thursday evening was a complete success and well attended. The social was given by the young people of the Evangelical church for the benefit of the general church fund, and the liberal patronage which it was tendered by the public is exceedingly gratifying to its promoters. The pretty little lawn was tastefully lighted with a myriad of Japanese lanterns and decked with pretty flags and bunting, giving the whole scene a beauty of rare attractiveness. All kinds of pleasant amusements occupied the evening consisting of music and games, and before the company separated an ice cream and lemonade feast was participated in. Everybody had a good time and will return on another such occasion.

We Sell and Repair Watches

WE are constantly studying quality, styles and prices of all the different makes and know them from A to Z, we are therefore able to furnish the best in the market at the least possible price.

We are busy, but always find time to wait on a customer and show our goods. We have received another shipment of those new thin model Boss Filled Watches. They are guaranteed to preserve the exact appearance of an all-gold case for 25 years. If through any fault in making it should fail to wear 25 full years, we will give a new case in exchange for it.

It is not gold all through but you would never know it; it is stronger, as beautiful and much cheaper than an all gold case. We would like to explain its construction to you.

How about your watch? If it does not give satisfaction, or if you would like to have another, show it to us. We allow full value for it on a new one, and if you are not able to pay the full amount at one time, we will sell it on the installment plan.

In case you cannot afford a new one at present and are in need of a good time piece, leave your old watch with us for repairing. We do good work, do it promptly and at a fair price. And guarantee it for one year.

We regulate Watches free of charge, whether you bought them of us or not.
