Memorial Window to Dr. John McLoughlin.

Work on the enlargement of St. John's church is proceeding rapidly. It will increase the length of the structure 35 feet, and will be finished in the latter part of next month. Near the north wall of the extension lie the remains of Dr. John McLoughlin. Anyone who knows aught of the early history of Oregon will dispute that the people of the state, in gratitude to this great and good man, should erect an imposing monument to his memory. But as this has not been done, Rev. Father Hillebrand proposes that he be honored with a memorial window in the north corner of the extension. He greatly desires that it be beautiful, at least to a degree worthy of the Father of Oregon. Therefore he extends the opportunity to the citizens of the state to contribute towards its cost. Sums from 25 cents upwards will be received for the purpose until September 5th, by either the Oregon City Bank or the Courier-Herald.
The more generous the donations the more beautiful will be the memorial window. The names of contributors will be published in the local papers.
